AFRICAN METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH HISTORY

The African Methodist Episcopal Church is the oldest Black Christian denomination in the United States, tracing its roots back to 1781 and the city of Philadelphia.

It was organized by the Rev. Richard Allen, an ex-slave, and the other Black members of Philadelphia's St. George Methodist Episcopal Church who withdrew their membership as a result of racial discrimination in the church.

In 1787, they began worshipping at a blacksmith shop, the site of which became Mother Bethel A.M.E. Church in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, which is the oldest Mother Church of African Methodism and the oldest piece of U.S. property owned consecutively by Blacks.

In 1816, the first General Conference convened in Philadelphia. Delegates from other independent Black Methodist congregations from Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania were present at this Conference. Together they organized the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Inc., the country's first national denomination headed by Blacks, and Richard Allen was consecrated its first Bishop.

The motto of the A.M.E. Church is "God Our Father, Christ Our Redeemer, Man Our Brother." The mission of the A.M.E. Church is to minister to the spiritual, intellectual, physical and emotional needs of all people by spreading Christ's liberating gospel through word and deed. Today there are approximately 3,000,000 A.M.E.'s around the globe in Africa, the West Indies, South America, Europe, Canada, The Bahamas, Bermuda, and throughout the continental United States.

CALL TO WORSHIP - Traditional

Minister: I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord, our feet shall stand within thy gates. O Jerusalem.

People: For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

M: Because of the house of the Lord, our God, I will seek thy good.

P: Those that be planted in the house of the Lord, shall flourish in the courts of our God.

M: Blessed are they that dwell in thy house. Lord, I have loved thy habitation, the place where thy honor dwelleth.

P: For the Lord is in his Holy temple, let all the earth keep silence before him.

M: Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer.

P: O sing unto the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things. Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth, sing praises.

PENNIES FROM HEAVEN

DON'T FORGET TO CONTRIBUTE TO "PENNIES FROM HEAVEN." THE CONTAINER IS IN THE EDUCATIONAL WING. THE BEGINNING OF THIS FUND WAS THE LAST THING SISTER MARJORIE BANKS DID FOR HER CHURCH BEFORE SHE TOOK HER PLACE WITH JESUS. LET'S KEEP IT GOING.

I pray that something is said today to help you tomorrow. If so, write it down, take it home, and pray that God will hide his word in your heart that you might not sin against him. As you pray, remember to ask God for a double portion of his Spirit.
