

Presents:

North First Street Oral History Day

Help us commemorate the history of North First Street and use this past to build a better tomorrow! All are invited to stop by our tent at the North First Street Farmer's Market to share their memories with the eBlackChampaign-Urbana Summer Interns.

In addition, check out displays of historical photographs and texts of African-American life on North First Street – and bring your own to share!

All are welcome!!

When: Thursday, July 29, 3-7 p.m.

Where: North First Street Farmer's Market

What is eBlackChampaign-Urbana?: A Collaborative Portal on African-American History and Culture in Champaign-Urbana, that uses digital technology to connect interested individuals to the dispersed documentation of African-American experiences in Champaign-Urbana.

Contact:

<http://www.eBlackCU.net>

Noah Lenstra, Graduate School of Library and Information Science, 501 E. Daniel Street, Champaign, IL 61820; (815) 275-0268; nlenstr2@illinois.edu.