

SAVE-THE-DATE: COMMUNITY TECHNOLOGY IN C-U

Over 300 people have come to the last two meetings on this topic, held November 5 and 6, 2010, and January 8, 2011.

The full record of these events is online for all to see: <http://eblackcu.net/portal/symposium>
Over 600 people have watched all or part of this event online.

We need to continue this momentum around community technology in Champaign-Urbana and everyone's voice and knowledge MUST be shared and included

Join us March 19, 2011 at the Champaign Public Library, Robeson Rooms A & B for a public event on Community Technology in Champaign-Urbana.
This event is from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and ALL are welcome.

There will be informational panels/discussions on:

- 1) UC2B (<http://www.uc2b.net>)
- 2) A demonstration of the eBlackCU digital library (<http://www.eBlackCU.net>)
- 3) Jobs and technology
- 4) Youth and technology
- 5) Churches and technology

The event will conclude with a discussion of the next steps in our community so that everyone can make effective use of technology for community change.

EVERYONE needs to be part of the next steps!

We will have computer stations with instructors set up for you to:

- 1) Get an e-mail account/Facebook account if you don't have one and want one
- 2) Learn how to digitize information and take home a free CD of your digitized material.

Bring in your own material (scrapbooks, flyers, photographs, books) or digitize texts we will have on site!

Sign a manifesto to indicate your willingness to work together in getting everyone in our community connected: <http://eblackcu.net/portal/manifesto>

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR A JOB BRING YOUR RESUME. WE ARE COLLECTING RESUMES TO SUBMIT TO UC2B WHEN THEY BEGIN HIRING: <http://uc2b.net/jobs/>.

QUESTIONS? Contact Noah Lenstra, 244-8203 or 815-275-0268, nlenstr2@illinois.edu.
Graduate School of Library and Information Science, 501 E Daniel, Champaign, IL 61820
Visit eBlackCU.net to join the mailing list. Join eBlackCU on Facebook.

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SCIENCE

