DOUBLE FEATURE AT SUNDAY OPEN AIR SERVICES

Dr. Charles A. Carman, Bethel Choir Slated At Rantoul Union Church Program

RANTOUL, July 11—(USC)—A double feature program has been arranged for the weekly open-air union church service here Sunday with Doctor Charles A. Carman, noted Chicago Baptist minister speaking, and the Bethel A. M. E. choir, Champaign, presenting a music program.

The service will begin at 7:30 p. m. at the Rantoul grade school W. E. Skadden is in charge of this week's service and will be assisted by Lieutenant Colonel Claude Harkey, new head chaplain at Chanute, representing the chaplain's corps.

As is customary, the public address system will be used, so that many families can remain in their cars and listen to the program.

Noted Minister

Doctor Carman is the president of the Ministers' Council of the Northern Baptist convention, which is the professional brotherhood of all ministers of the various churches throughout the 36 states affiliated with the Northern Baptist convention.

He is also president of the Illinois Baptist State convention, which comprises a membership of over 500 churches throughout the state of Illinois.

In addition to his pastoral duties as the pastor of the Morgan Park Baptist church of Chicago, he serves on the faculty of the Northern Baptist Theological seminary as professor of homiletics.

Frequent Youth Speaker

He has been a frequent and popular speaker before many Youth Congresses, summer assemblies and state conventions throughout the middlewest.

A special musical program will be presented in the nature of a sacred concert by the Bethel choir. This unique musical program is making its fourth appearance as a musical feature of the open air union services in Rantoul.
