There's so much we want to say, but I know there will be moments when we will be able to say it all. First you're such a beautiful person and you have so much to look forward to. We feel you're such an inspiration to our daughter, Megan. There are so very few teenagers in this day and age that are inspirations to the little youngsters growing up. Keep rubbing off on the ones that need it the most. You always be great, not only to the kids, but to GOD. Without the supreme being there is nothing. Keep your head to the sky and seek your destiny and believe it will come.

LOVE,

*Always be proud of what you are
Whatever that might be,
The job that you do, however small,
So all of the world might see.*

*Give it your best and make it your own --
Have faith in your dreams come true.
Lend a part of yourself in your every plan
In all that you ever do.*

*Always be proud of what you've been;
Be sure that you've lived life well.
Be proud of the hope that is in your heart,
Your story that life can tell.*

*Walk through each day with your head held high,
And your eyes on that faraway star.
Trust in tomorrow and surely you'll find
It's nice to be just what you are.*

*Always be sure and you'll never fail
Your future so sparkling and bright.
Save up a smile for the dark dreary days --
Success ever there in your sight.*

*Give God your hand and trust in His way,
No matter how near or how far.
Travel your road and in all that you do ...
Be proud of the things that you are.*

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and sadest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I've noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "my son, My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Life takes some crazy directions sometimes, causing changes we can't hope to anticipate. Even though we try to cope as best we can, some things are beyond our control...We can only accept them and try to move forward as best we can. I THANK YOU

Growing up is a hard thing to do. Maturity takes place and attitudes on life and personalities change. Every teenager has his or her ups and downs. But when there are caring people such as my FAMILY, FRIENDS, CHURCH MEMBERS and OTHERS who have taken their time to support and stand by my side, it makes that sometimes difficult task of adjusting to adulthood a whole lot smoother.

I would like to show my appreciation and gratitude to everyone who supported me through donations, time prayers and encouraging words by expressing a THANK YOU WITH LOVE. I give to my mother, DEBRA A. LOMAX, a SPECIAL thanks, because without her, all of this wouldn't be possible.

May you keep me in your thoughts and prayers...
