Zewditu,
always remember: Dreams can turn to reality.

*"I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me."
Philippians 4:13*

It seems like it was only yesterday when we held you in our arms. But now you have grown into the young woman that we prayed to God you would become. We pray that you will, "seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

Love, Mom and Dad

Zewditu

We are very proud of you! We have watched you grow from a baby to a young lady. Keep striving for the best and have faith in yourself. May God always bless you.

Psalm 121

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: He that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper. The Lord is thy shade upon the right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: He shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth and even for evermore.

*Love you,

Zewde

Our niece

We are the children of those who chose to survive.

— Nana Poussaint

If you ever doubted your ability to survive, look at who you came from. Don't limit yourself to parents and grandparents. Go all the way back to the root. In your family line is the genius of those who were born into a barren land and built the pyramids. In the oasis of your mind is the consciousness of those who charted the stars, kept time by the sun and planted by the moon. In the center of our being is the strength of those who planted the crops, toiled in the fields and banqueted on what others discarded. In the light of your heart is the love of those who bore the children who were sold away only to one day hang from a tree. In the cell of your bloodstream is the memory of those who weathered the voyage, stood on the blocks, found their way through the forest and took their case to the supreme court. With all that going for you, what are you worrying about? God bless you.

To My Daughter Janelle,

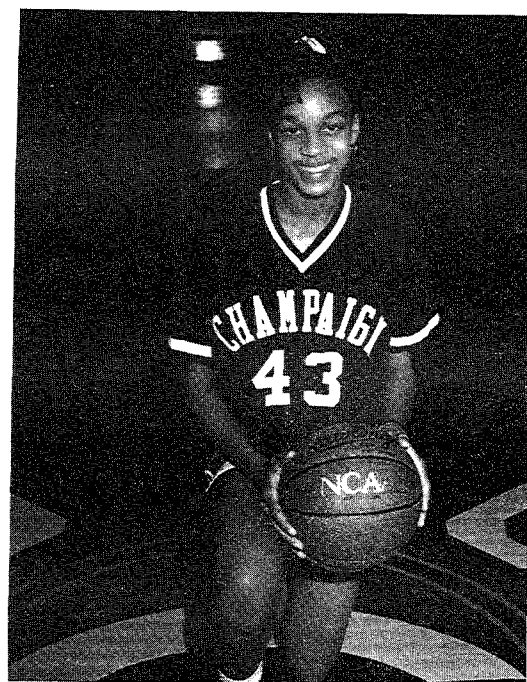

As the years have come and gone, I've watched you grow up and learn to make your own choices...to become a woman. Through the years we've come to share a very special relationship. I want you to know, I'm proud of you and I'm very glad that you are my daughter. This day is the perfect time to tell you again how much I love you.

Love, Mommy

Janelle,

From your Dad, who has seen the best from you and knows there is still more to come.

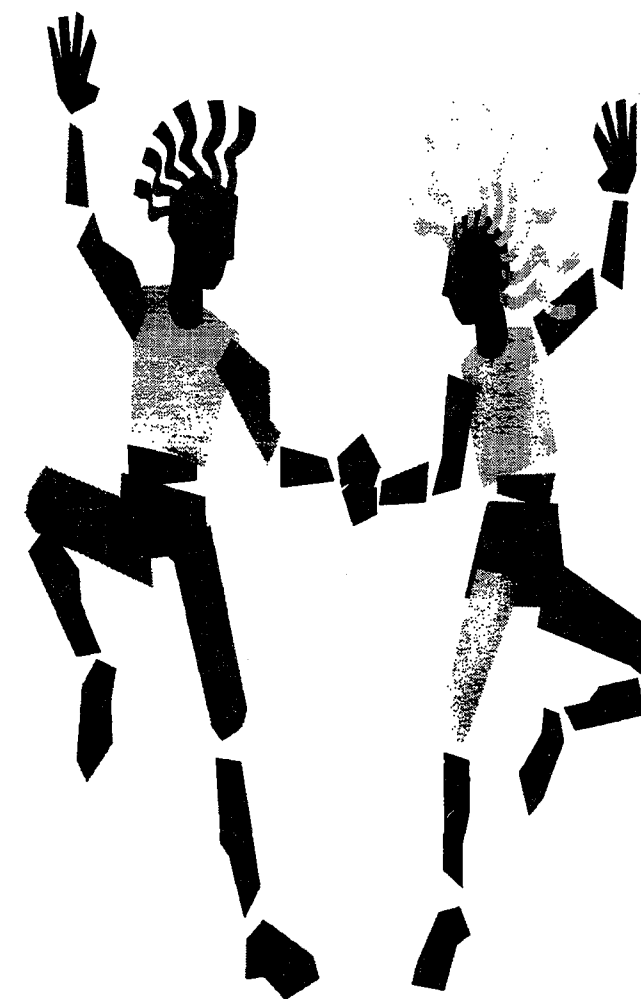

Just remember, "A winner never quits, and a quitter never wins."

Good luck to you as a 1998 Deb.

Love, Dad

God Bless You Nellie!

Hand in hand
we grow
Each day we always show
Our support,
love and care
A bond that only sisters share
I love you lil sis,
Gzne'

Janelle,

We haven't always said it but we are very proud of you.

We remember how you would follow your big sister and your big Godsisters around. We are so proud of the wonderful young woman you've become.

You have become a confident, independent, self-assured, and accomplished young woman. You're also caring and patient. We are proud to call you our Goddaughter.

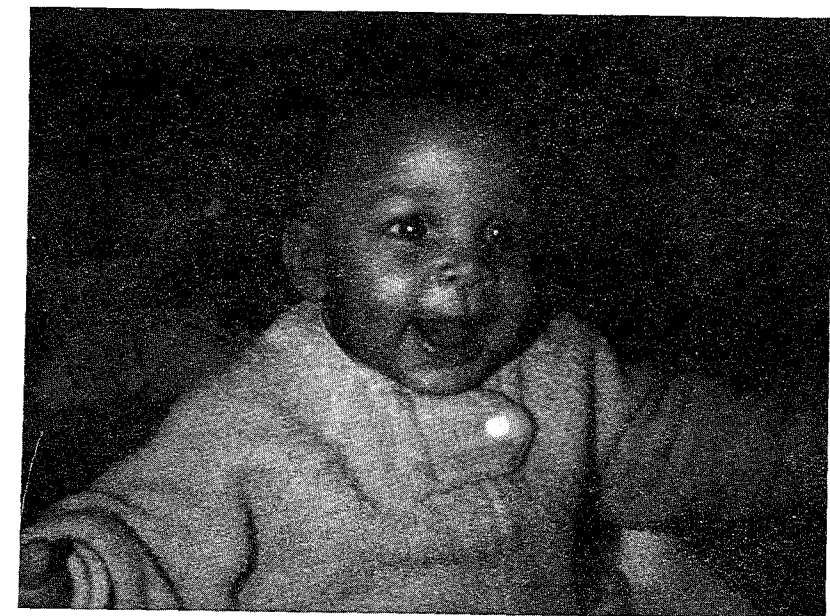

Love always, Uncle J and Bern

CONGRATULATIONS JANELLE!!

Your faith in God will keep you strong. Always continue to push forward and strive to be the best person you can be. When you fall, reach out to God and He'll help you get back on course. God is always there for you and so are we.

We love you, JANELLE!

Jayna, Tony and Jordan

CONGRATULATIONS!

JANELLE JOHNSON

As you make your debut into the world of opportunities, make the Church a part of your life. The Church may be likened to the dressing room of a great theater. Here is where you put on the garments of praise and find the props that are needed out on the stage of life. The Church is where you are equipped, prepared, and cued for the next act along life's way.

William Shakespeare said, "All the world is a stage and all the people in it are players." The world is a stage, but don't walk out on the play. The world needs those who play the small parts, for usually it is to those who play them well that the larger more important parts are given.

Along the road of life, stop at frequent intervals to enter the Church to worship God and depart with a determination to serve the people whom God loves. Above all, "Remember your Creator in the days of your youth." Reflect on the blessings that are yours, blessings you didn't earn but received because of God's love for you. The greatest blessing of all is the Gift of Eternal Life. May you ever be reminded that God's Holy Spirit indwells you to empower, energize, and enable you to accomplish your goals as you obediently follow His directions.
