five young men and five young women gathered with parents, faculty and friends in Busey Hall for what were the first commencement exercises to be held by a class of Urbana High School. This year, over 300 seniors will march in caps and gowns to receive Urbana diplomas. Those 1883 seniors had completed a rigid classic curriculum. 1983 seniors will have followed a highly diversified curriculum in their individual pursuits of that valued diploma.

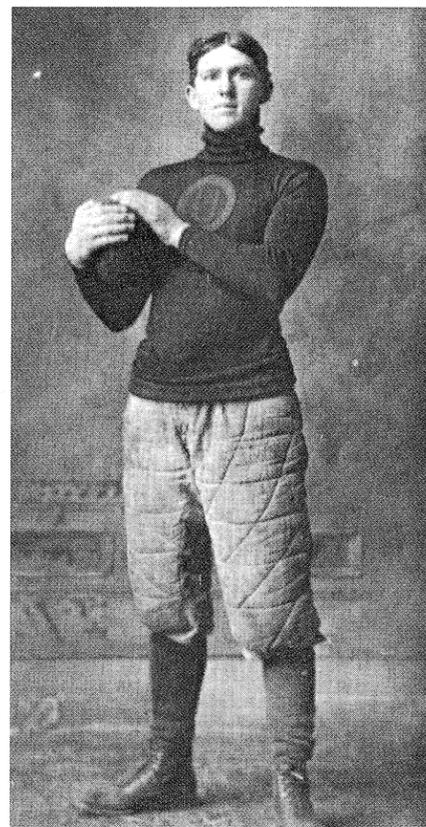

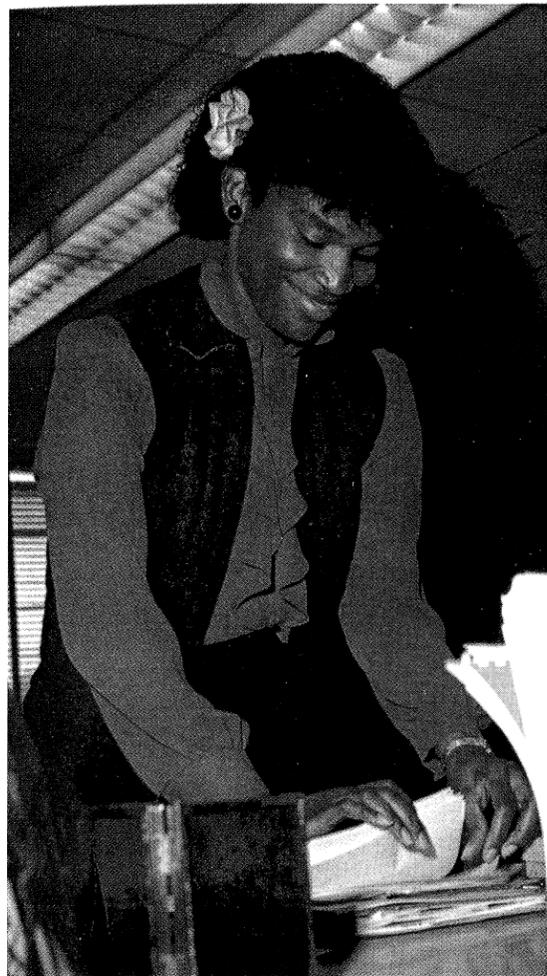

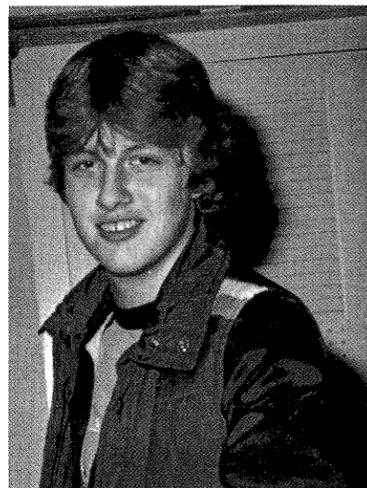

Student life

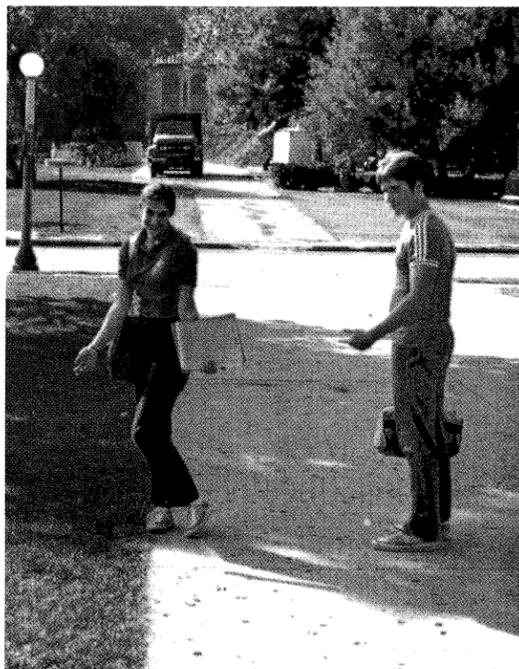

is quite different from that in 1883. Most early students were from farming families; the rest from local businessmen's families. They walked to school or came by horse and buggy. Now students wheel into the parking lot in all varieties of automobiles. Some ride prized bikes, motorcycles or big yellow Harmon busses. One item the generations have in common is the ever comfortable pair of jeans.

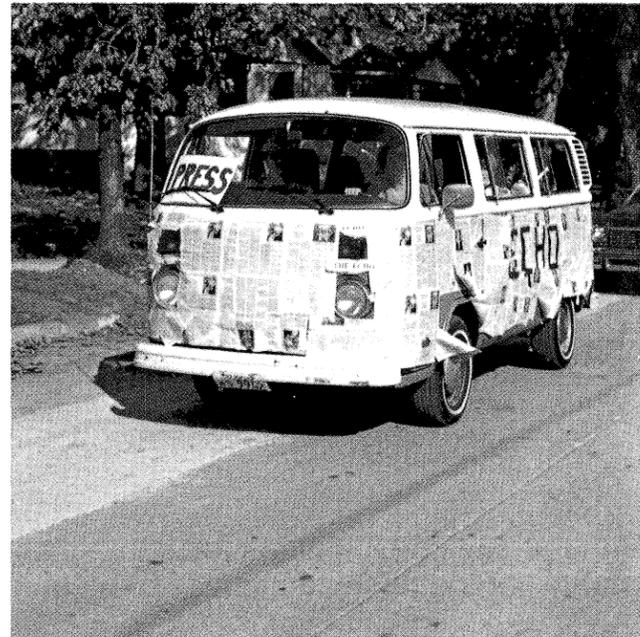

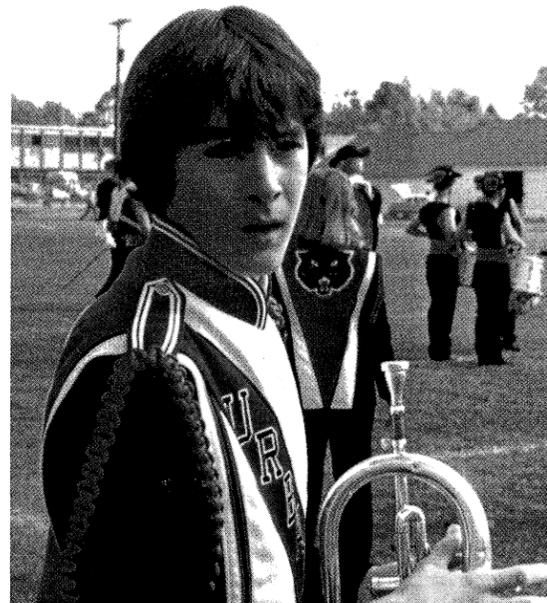

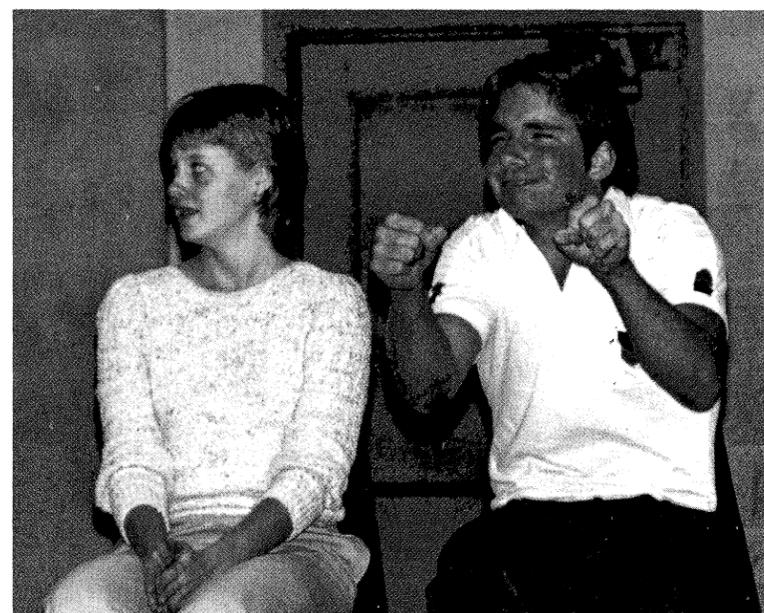

are still around from the early times. By 1905 an orchestra, the glee club and a chorus were going. Soon after, in 1910, THE THORNBURN THISTLE and the ROSEMARY were started. A German club, a debating team and a tennis team followed. Activities come and go, depending on student interest. THE THISTLE is now ECHO; ROSEMARY is still with us; a German club has revived after several years of inactivity, and the variety is wide when a student chooses to be involved.

Many activities since the 1880's. In 1893 the School Board agreed to sponsor a football team and donated ten dollars for equipment, a small basement room for changing and some nails for hanging equipment. Over ninety years later, sports are a major part of extra-curricular activities. Girls have enjoyed this competition only since the early 1970's has a surprisingly short tradition. This year Tuesday and Wednesday evenings found students striving for the perfect float. Thursday brought the expected bonfire and snake dance. Friday saw the first crowning on the football field in an afternoon assembly and a defeat for the Tigers in the night game with Springfield. King Tony McDade and Queen Laura Tatman reigned over spirited activities in spite of the game. Homecoming ended with the traditional dance.

Athletics have grown

Asahel Bruer

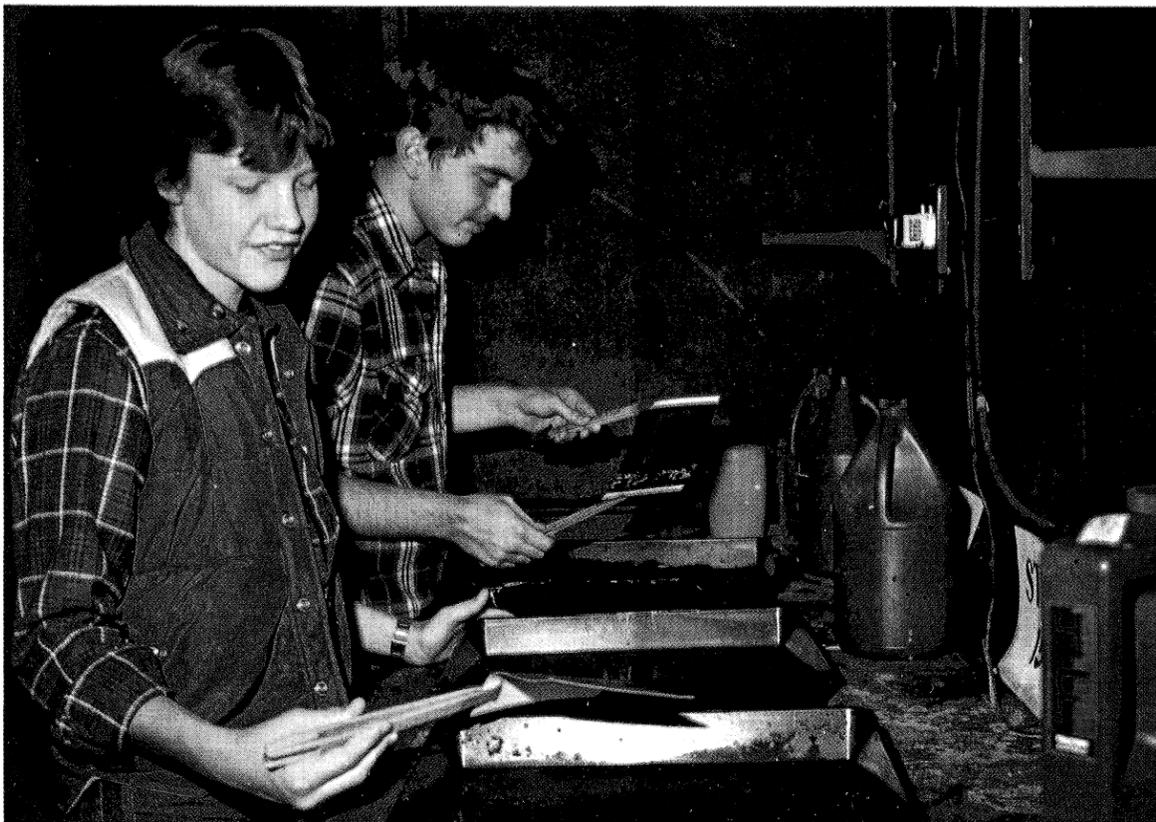

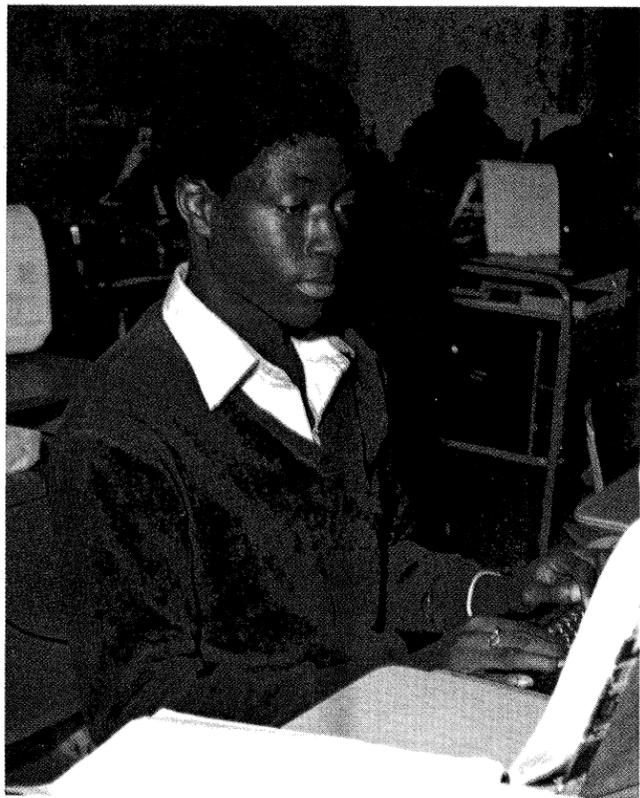

celebrated his first Christmas as principal at Urbana by bringing a gallon of whiskey and a bushel of apples to the school's Christmas party. One year later, when he failed to bring whiskey and apples to the party, the boys locked him out of the schoolhouse. Asahel calmly solved the problem. He covered the chimney with boards from the roof and smoked the boys out of the school. Principals have come and gone here, but whiskey and apples are just gone.

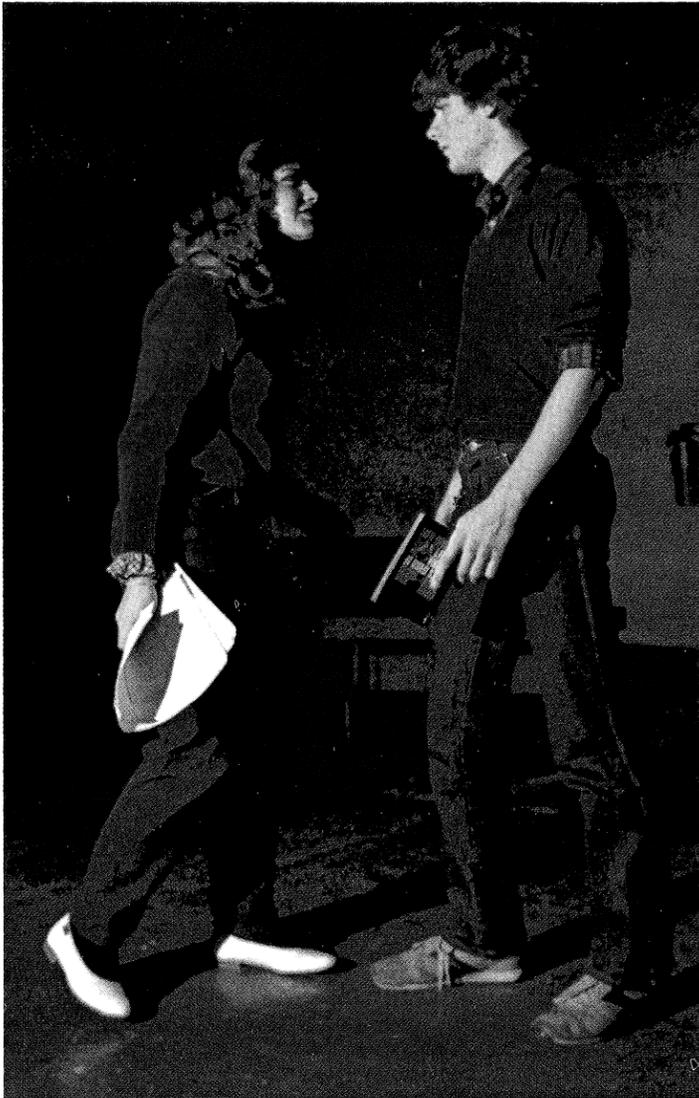

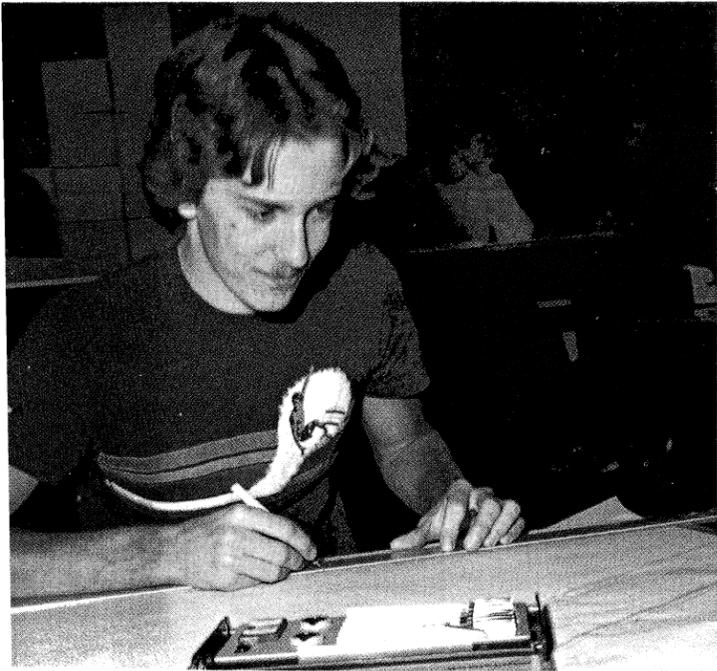

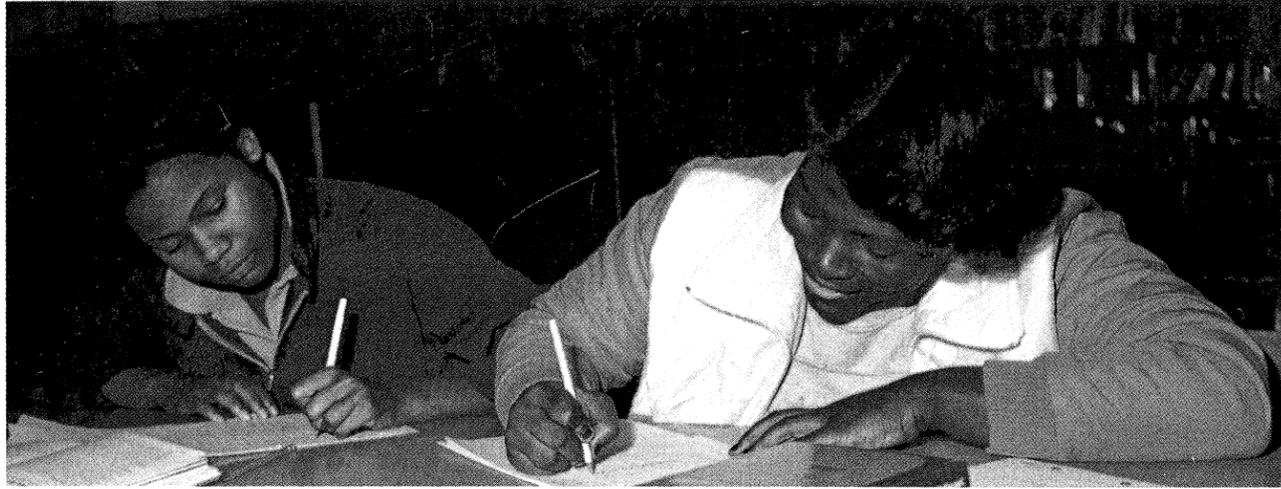

Classes

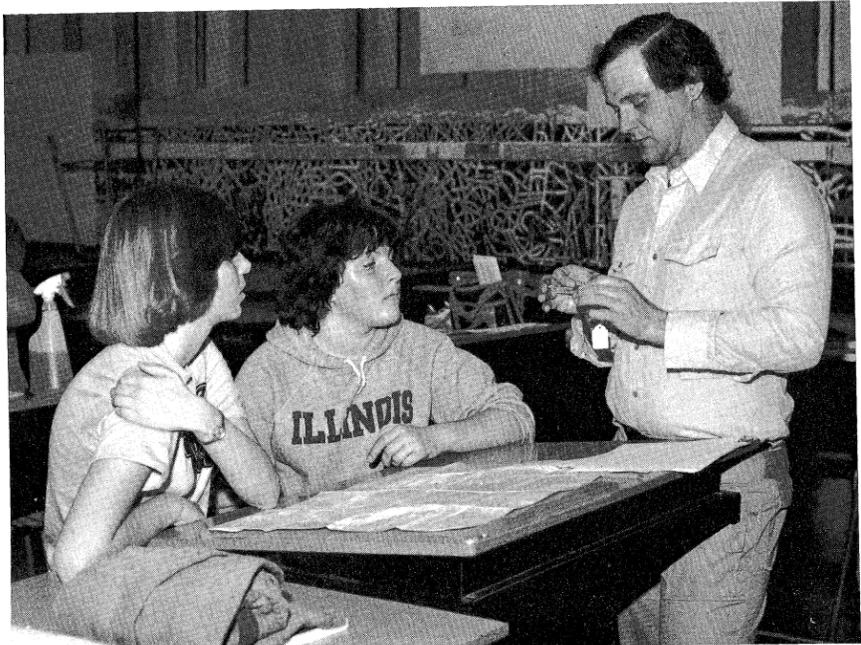

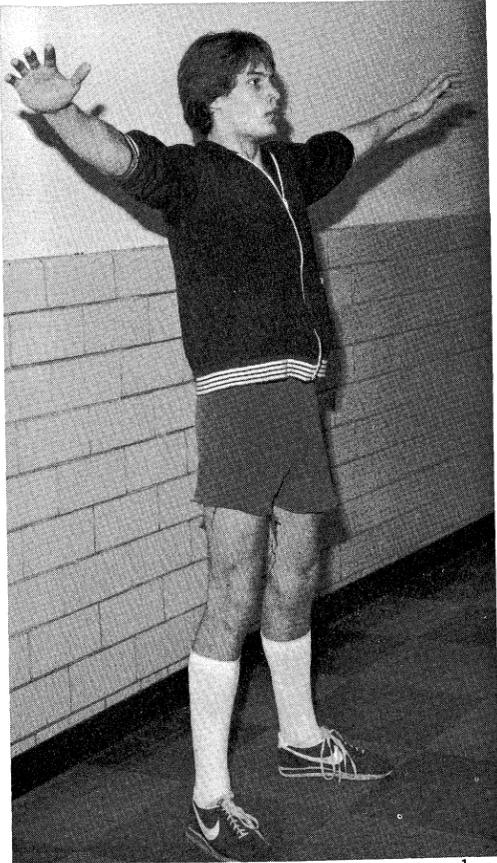

have stayed much the same in some ways. The class of 1883 were required to take all the following: Crayon Drawing, Penmanship, Cicero, and Natural Philosophy. No grade levels existed. The A class finished that year; the B class the next. Today sophomores, juniors and seniors complete three years of study in a comprehensive high school and take courses designed to suit academic and vocational preferences.

"There's Rosemary, that's for remembrance,"
 And so let our little book be,
 Keeping forever fresh in our mem'ries
 Glad days of our school gayety.

Programs offer alternatives

Programs had a great deal to offer the student of 1983, from the Pathfinders, who travel to the Great Southwest, to the new Medical Assistants program. This year the Pathfinders will study the Westward Migration. In preparation for their journey they master such skills as first aid and map reading.

This year, the Peer Counseling program provided students with an opportunity to talk with fellow students about problems they were having. The Youth for Understanding program brought foreign students to U.H.S., and the lighting program taught students about dramatic effects with lighting equipment. The Executive High School Internship (EHI) program allowed students to work in various prospective career areas in the community.

MEDICAL ASSISTANTS. J. Heck, D. Ronk, R. Wilson, B. Heath, K. Wingfield, Sponsor Marge Keller.

The Office and Library aides learned basic clerical skills such as filing and cataloguing while providing assistance to the secretaries, librarians, administrators and students. Two new programs joined the ranks in 1983 — the Medical Assistants and the Sea Explorers. The Sea Explorers traveled to Jamaica during spring break to study marine biology. The Medical Assistants spent practical time working in local hospitals.

The Tigers came into the season with high spirits as they avenged last season's losses to Champaign Centennial and Stephen Decatur, and they beat Lincoln for the second consecutive season. These spirits were dampened as the Tigers suffered losses to rival Champaign Central and to Bloomington. The Springfield Senators handed down a Homecoming upset, leaving the Tigers with a 3-6 record for the '82-'83 football season.

The girls swim team coached by Stan Summers ended the season with a 4-8 record. Despite having only ten swimmers, the girls broke five school records. Nancy Adams broke both the 100 butterfly and the 100 backstroke marks. The 200 and 160 I.M. relays and the 400 free relays also fell this year. The team finished fourth in both conference and district finals.

The mighty MacAdam team finished the season with a 9-4 record. Seven school records became history. B.J. Vevera broke both the 160 and 200 medley relays and Carl Larson broke the 100 butterfly. The 160 and 200 medley relays and the 400 free relays records fell. The team grabbed the Twin City Championship and placed fourth in conference and district meets.

Four qualify for state

Marilee Martin coached a sure winning team. The girls finished their dual season with a 13-0 record and took a close second in the District meet behind Central. Doubles teams Anne Thies-Phoebe Chandler and Chavonne Hoyle-Jenny Sturgeon advanced to the state meet where Thies and Chandler placed 17th.

Vince Smith makes big 12 team

Hal Wertich's strong team livened up the long winter with a season finale in sectionals where they finished second to Springfield Lanphier. The Tigers had whooshed by Decatur Eisenhower in an earlier sectional, having reached sectional competition by defeating cross-town rival Champaign Central in a double overtime and Rantoul for the regional title. Additionally, the tigers captured the Big 12 championship, a 1st in the Edwardsville tourney and 2nd at Pekin. Eric Smith was voted the number 1 player in the conference and was joined on the first team by Vince Smith. Honorable mention honors went to Craig Howard and Bobby Hoggard. The season record was 22-7

"Sweet Charity" delighted UHS with its bittersweet plot and dynamic music. Charity, a dance hall girl, thinks she can escape her tawdry life when she meets Oscar Lindquist in an elevator. Alas, when Oscar discovers Charity's occupation, he abandons her, and Charity must go on alone. Popular numbers, "Hey Big Spender" and "If My Friends Could See Me Now," pleased the crowds at the April 29, 30, and May 1 musical.

Thespians honor theatrics

After putting in many hours toward putting on the shows, a theatre participant becomes eligible for membership in the Thespians. The Thespians performed "The Torch Bearers" on January 28 and 29 as part of their commitment to drama. The group also participated in the Illinois High School Theatre Festival on the U of I campus. Here they attended workshops and viewed productions by other high school students.

Speech team forges full s

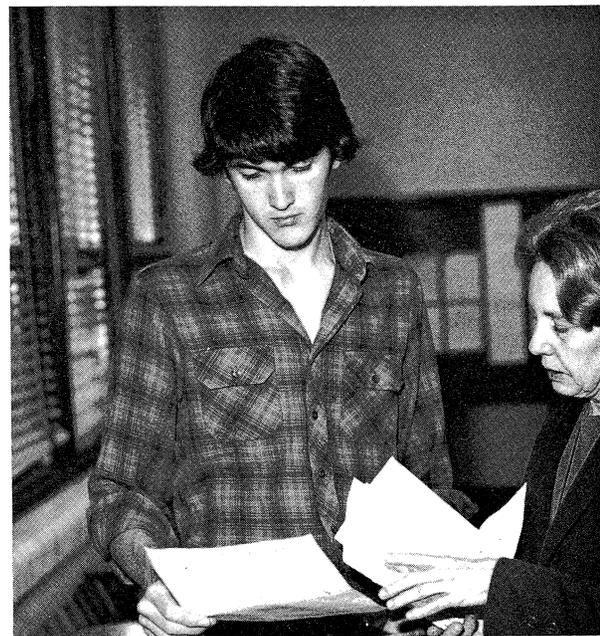

In its first full season competition, the Speech Team proved exceedingly successful. The October participation in the J.E. Invitational at I.S.U. was followed by attendance at numerous invitationals. These experiences helped the team become able competitors, and Eden Bodnar, Gwen Loeb and Chris Davis were Scottie Award Winners by February. Loeb and Davis reached State level competition in Dramatic Duet Acting, and Davis's Extemporaneous Speaking talents led him to State in a second area. The concentrated and consistent work paid off for the team and Coach Barbara Griffiths.

Since it evolved from the Student Council in 1970, the Student Senate has continued to voice the opinions of the student body. This year, under the leadership of President Joe Halpin and Advisor David Lemons, the Student Senate sponsored several activities. These included the Tiger Night held January 20, and the 2nd Annual Student Senate Auction, where Jeff Wait bought a pie, to be thrown in Dr. Zeck's face, for $48.

Senate carries tradition

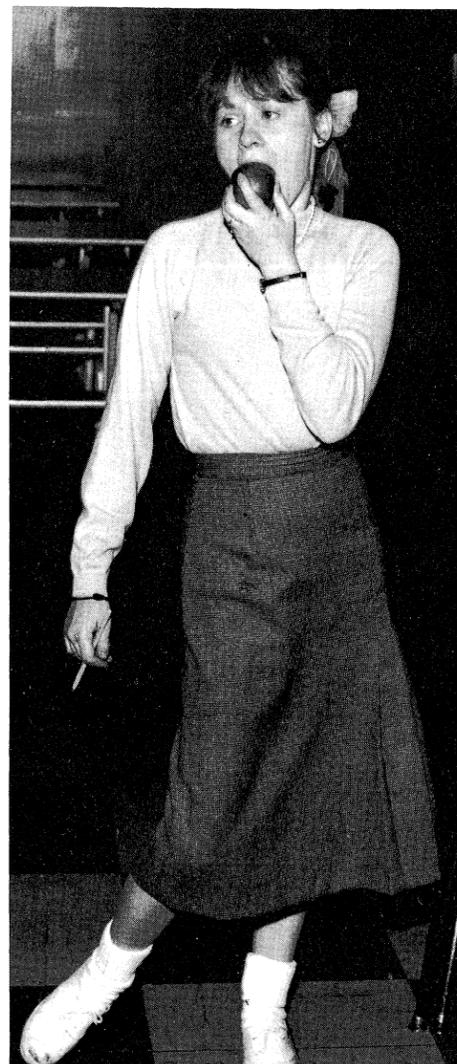

Senate's major contribution to the community was the ninth annual Thanksgiving Day dinner held at the First Methodist Church at 5:00 p.m. Over 450 dinners were served by Senate members and student volunteers. Senate furnished each student with a free I.D., maintained the vending machines in the cafeteria and the front hall, sponsored the Pepsi multi-media assemblies, and provided funding for graduation exercises at the U of I Assembly Hall.

The ECHO continued to reflect current life at Urbana High School by covering student news and presenting editorials. Headed by Editor Duane Bidwell and Sponsor Clare Barkley, the staff published each issue and distributed it to the student body during the lunch periods throughout the year. The ECHO also published three class magazines with writing contributions from many students.

This year's choral music department worked hard to put on several concerts and to attend contests. The chorus, directed by David Saunders, presented fall and Christmas programs, and ended the year with a "pop-music" show in the spring. Saunders's madrigals presented their second annual Christmas concert in the tradition of the Sixteenth century.

Tunes pop notes

In addition to the usual Mozart, Vivaldi and Handel, the orchestra added rags, blues and stomps to their repertoire this year. Under the direction of James Calhoun, the group performed their annual seasonal concerts. Special plans called for the formation of a 100 piece orchestra composed of current students and alums to play at the 100th graduation exercise.

BSA becomes MIA

Prompted by a changing student population where we now have a large group of minority students, B.S.A. changed to bring student involvement to greater numbers. The major project of the year satisfied the community service goal of M.I.A. by delivering Christmas boxes of canned foods to area families in need, M.I.A. also sponsored the Halloween and Sadie Hawkins dances and they informed students about famous Black Americans during Black History Month.

Girls Synch flicks

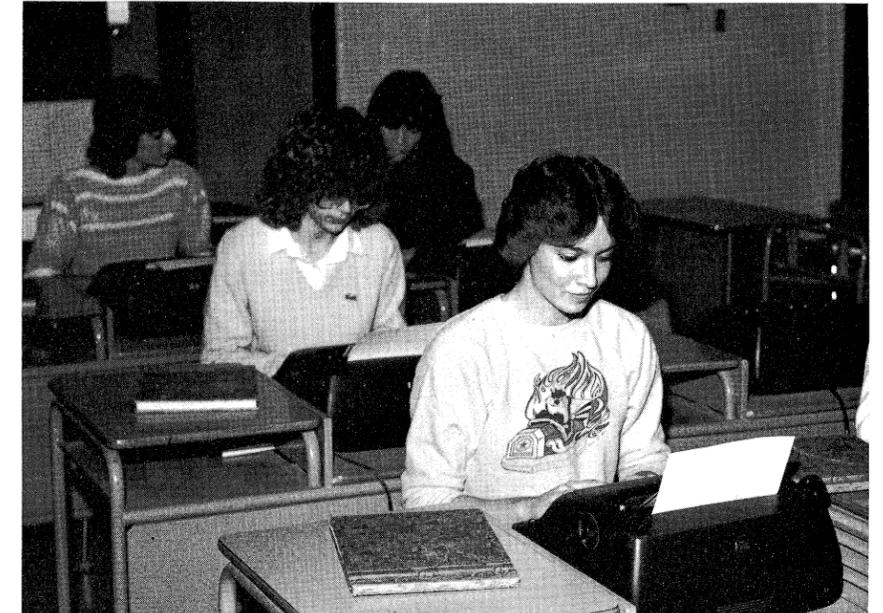

The Terrapin Turtles under the sponsorship of Becky Crum and President Beth Becker presented the annual synchronized swimming show. This year the girls choreographed individual, small group and large group numbers around the theme of old movies. The turtles also were invited to the U of I campus to compete with other swim clubs from around the state.

Ken Dowd was named the 1983 Outstanding Senior at the half-time of the Urbana-Springfield game on February 4. Original award ceremonies set for January 21 were cancelled because of a snow storm. Rosemary Editor David Brown presented awards to Dowd and the nominees, Denitra Luster, Tracey Willis, Carol Robinson and Erol Sarabi. Rosemary Senior Editor Carol Smith wrote and announced short introductions for each candidate. The award remains with the school, but each senior take a commemorative plaque for remembrance.

Now in its third year, EHI offers students an opportunity to investigate a career field by working in that area in a community placement. The students spend the entire second semester off-campus as they work directly in their chosen fields. New this year is the Principal's Scholar Program which places students in a program working toward academic achievement. This program is under the sponsorship of the University of Illinois.

The Last Will and Testament of The Class of 1983

WE, the Class of 1983, of the Urbana High School, the hub of learning, haven of socializing and heart of growing up, being as sound of mind as one could expect in a world that turns on in spite of economic uncertainty, nuclear threats, and environmental pollution, do hereby reaffirm our belief in the existence of the future and the dignified survival of man (and woman) by leaving our precious possessions to those who follow our path through U.H.S.

I, BETH ANDERSON, will my ability to at least say "hello" to JEFF OGLE.

I, JERRY ARIE, will my school spirit to PHIL HOLDEN.

I, JAMES DOR-NEECH, will all my custom-bent tennis rackets to PETER COHEN.

I, TACO, will my ability to show and teach how to skip class and get excused for it to BRIAN DUCEY.

I, LAURA TATMAN, will my ability to carry a tune (so that I don't keep going spastic when she sings), a future husband that doesn't wear "bell bottoms", a better vocabulary ("Wha up Lawa"), an emergency portable sink that she may take when she goes places, and a gift that she will always remember — a grey cashmere sweater bought especially with my "welfare" check to MARILYN CARRENO.

I, GLENN OTTERBACHER, will my best wishes for all future U.H.S. productions to ALL THE SERIOUS STUDENTS CAUGHT BY THE DRAMA BUG.

I, TRACIE VONDRACEK, will my semi-incredible ability to deceive people to CHARLIE DOLD, who has had a lot of practice, but still hasn't perfected the art.

I, MARILYN, will my ability to carry a tune, my stupid sense of humor, and my sisterly love to LAURA.

I, NADIA FRANCISCONO, will my ability to squawk to JANNA HEUER, who isn't too bad, but needs a little practice.

I, ANN-MARIE TWARANOVICA, will my ability to enjoy life without going to excess to FORD TWARANOVICA.

I, TRACEY WILLIS, will my six 14-carat gold necklaces, my designer clothes, my 1980 Regal, my Chicago steppers, my main man Craig, and my job at Taco Bell to ALL OF THE UNFORTUNATE JUNIOR GIRLS WHO DON'T HAVE ENOUGH SENSE TO WORK FOR WHAT THEY WANT.

I, ANN-MARIE TWARANOVICA, will my humility to EROL SARABI.

I, CAROL SMITH, will my good personality to EROL SARABI, who needs it badly.

I, CAROL SMITH, will my good voice to DAVID WEAVER for W . . . UHS next year. GOOD LUCK!

The Rosemary

CLASS WILL

E, the Class of 1923, of the Urbana High School, the city of learning, county of understanding and state of intelligence, being of unsound mind and forgetfulness and considering the uncertainty of this feeble and fleeting world into which we are about to enter, do therefore, make, ordain, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament made in the city of learning:

Firstly, we hereby appoint Raymond F. Dvorak executor of this, our last will and testament, in appreciation of the wonderful manner in which he has proved himself to be our leader of the past year.

We direct that all our just debts and funeral expenses be paid by money derived from a tag dance held by the S. K.s.

We hereby bequeath our rights and privileges to dust off these football bleachers to all ye juniors who may be desiring of that honor at this time one year from tonight. We also bequeath to that same group of students the honor of occupying the pews which we have so easily held down for the past year in the front of this room.

To the Sophomore class we bequeath Carl Freeman's position as the windy musician of the school so that they blow much easier about their accomplishments of the year.

The Class of 1926 is hereby willed a part of the aloofness of the Class of 1923, providing they do not use it to too great an advantage.

I, BILL GOSSETT, will my meager dancing talents to BOB (BOBBY BOOGIE) KOSBERG. I really hate to see people make fools of themselves!

I, CYNDI DICKEL, will the drama club heritage of love and nonconformity to SARA UNGER AND DUANE BIDWELL on the condition that one or both of them wear you-know-what on the first day of school.

WE, THE PEAT BROTHERS, will our large bodies, our love of basketball, and our deepest respect for Jim Rowan to DAVID HELMAN because he is most deserving of our talents.

I, JIM McROWAN, will my McDonald's Secret Agent Badge #56, my awesome sex appeal, and my machismo to ANY JUNIOR WHO THINKS HE IS MAN ENOUGH TO FILL MY SHOES.

I, J.D.B., will my legal substances to T.F., T.C., K.S., AND L.B. for reasonable ripped days. I also will N.E.T. to J.D. for his car and fine body when I'm done with it.

I, CHICAGO, will my love and well being to WIENER since I won't be here to keep you company.

I, JOE GRANT, will my ability to enjoy my last year at Urbana High School to TINA LAWHEAD.

I, JEREMIAH SULLIVAN, will my boldness and all of my craziness to PETE COHEN; I guess you could say that I've been "X-ed" of it!

I, ANTHONY WEISE, will my ability to pass all my classes without any help from anybody to LYNN SCHULTZ.

I, EROL SARABI, will my uncanny ability for success (both past and present) to MY BROTHER, ALPAY SARABI.

I, MARILYN, will my affection for making life more bearable to MY EEUHHYYIOOH GANG: BETH C., LAURA, BETH A., JULIE, PAT, JOAN, OLIVIA, BRAD, AND MARIANA. May we all marry a Mohegan!

In putting together this year's ROSEMARY, I wanted to create an accurate record of the class of 1983. After much time spent planning, compiling, and researching for the 1983 ROSEMARY, the final result chronicles some of the 100 year history of UHS while bringing back memories of your school year. I wish to thank my advisor, Mrs. Sherry McClellan, and my staff for their invaluable contribution to this project. I hope that the 1983 ROSEMARY helps you to remember your days at Urbana High School.
