Chauntia, when you were younger, I don't think I understood how great it would be one day to talk with you as friends, not just as a mother and daughter. Of course, don't get me wrong, the parent part is very important and always has been. Having a daughter like you fills me with happiness and makes me prouder than I ever thought I could be. But who would have guessed how vital the friend part would become or how wonderful it would feel.

I love you, my daughter, my baby, my friend

The Lord is and always will be your foundation!

Mommy
