

SEEK EASTER SEAL CHILD IN LAKE COUNTY

Contest Preceeds 1956 Fund Drive

A contest to find the Easter Seal Child of 1956 was recently opened by the Lake County Society for Crippled Children in connection with this year's campaign to raise $30,000 during the annual Easter Seal drive, March 10 thru April 10.

Stephen Fulka, society president, announced that contest applications will be accepted up to Friday. He said any child residing in the county between the ages of 4 and 16 with a physical handicap is eligible to enter the contest.

Goal 30 Per Cent Higher

The winner and five other finalists will take an aerial tour of Chicago and will visit air force jet pilots at O'Hare field. The winner will present the first sheet of Easter seals to Rep. Madden (D., Ind.) March 10.

Fulka said this year's goal is 30 per cent higher than last year's. He said the society hopes to accommodate 200 physically handicapped children in the county's five therapeutic centers. Last year, 153 victims of orthopedic ailments were treated in Lake county, Fulka said.

In his annual report, Fulka announced that the county's centers are primarily financed by Easter seal donations. A gross income of $53,135.82 was taken in last year. Of this amount, Fulka added, $21,518.49 was provided by Easter seals.

Speech and Hearing Clinics

The county's five centers are operated by 740 volunteer workers, five graduate therapists, a full time teacher, and a secretary.

Fulka said that last year 10 patients were cured in the speech and hearing clinics and an additional 15 patients were discharged from intensive therapy treatment. He said some of the patients were afflicted with cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy, sleeping sickness,

Chance on TV with Choir Gets Trio Singing Offer

The Gayden sisters, a south side trio, recently made a casual appearance on a Dave Garroway's TV program from Olivet Baptist church.

Following the show, they were deluged with telegrams, letters, and telephone calls—one was a hurried call to appear on Arthur Godfrey's morning show, with expenses to and from New York for themselves and parents.

Until then they had merely been three obscure girls singing in the church choir.

They proved an instantaneous success singing "Sweet Little Jesus Boy" and "Ave Maria." Now agents, recording companies, and producers are trying to place the girls under contract.

The Gayden sisters—Lujana, 19; Ragina, 17, and Lucretia, 15,—had no serious plans for singing careers. The fact is, Lujana, was married to Gerald McReynolds, a factory worker, shortly before the broadcast.

Ragina, a graduate of Morgan Park High school, is a freshman at Roosevelt university. Lucretia, is attending Morgan Park and plans to enter college.

Lujana began singing when she was 14. When Ragina reached her 13th birthday, they formed a duet, and when Lucretia became 10, they started the trio.

Miss Lillian Wilkins Weds In Outdoor Ceremony

CHAMPAIGN, Ill.—Miss Lillian E. Wilkins, of St. Louis, Mo., daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. John Byrd Wilkins, became the bride of Adrain R. Maclin in Champaign, Ill., on Monday, Sept. 3. The ceremony was performed and aunt of the bridegroom, by Rev. O. B. Johnson of the Baptist Church of Champaign.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Thomas Maclin, wore a street-length dress of aqua crepe with a tiny velvet hat of aqua and white accessories. A corsage of gardenias completed her outfit. Her only attendant, Mrs. Alda P.

Stokes, wore a dusty pink crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses. James Maclin, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Reception Follows Rites

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

The bride has been employed for a number of years as secretary at the Stowe Teachers College. Mr. Maclin is employed by the Alton Railroad.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. Della Maclin, James W. Maclin, and John E. Williams of Mason, Tenn.; Miss Corine Wilkins, Mrs. Ruth Wilkins, and Mrs. Alda P. Stokes of St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Nat Rivers, East St. Louis, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Reams, Mr. and Mrs. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Byrd of Chicago, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Williams of Springfield, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. John Harwell and Mr. Otis Thompson, all of Chicago, Ill.

The bride and groom are at home at 1802 Wagoner Place, St. Louis, Mo.

ESCAPED BURNING SHIP

Ransom was aboard the U. S. S. Wakefield when it was torpedoed and burned, but he escaped injury.

He has one brother, Second Class Petty Officer James Ransom of the Navy, who is serving aboard a transport ship in the Pacific.

Of his Pacific experiences, Ransom says:

"There is nothing glamorous or heroic about the job of landing cargo and troops on enemy beach-heads. It is 99 percent hard work. During an invasion, we're usually unloading for several days straight.

"We work four hours and four hours off, usually sleeping on deck in our clothes. The toughest part of being out here is the lack of recreation. We have not had one liberty since we left the States in January, 1944."

WILL SOON BE FLYING—Aviator Cadet James H. Taylor, 1195 North 5th St. Champaign, Ill. High School is about to complete training at Tuskegee, Ala., as an Aviator Cadet. He expects to graduate with his class in April as a Lieutenant. He has a wife, an Ronald, and mother Mrs. John Taylor of all of this City. Cadet Taylor was an outstanding athlete while in school, and has carried that same spunk into army life. We shall expect to hear from him as time passes by and there is little doubt that this young man will bring credit to his parents, wife and friends as well as to all Champaign and the race. Go to it James. You have our best wishes.

S-1C JOSEPH McDOWELL
VISITING PARENTS—Seaman 1st Class Joseph McDowell now stationed at U. S. CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — (WNS) — 1st Lt. Carey Lee, of Leavensville, La., is serving as M. P. since recent injuries which caused him to be edfast and in the hospital for a period of six months. A previous promotion would have made him Captain but due to his injuries he remained in the U. S. A. Lt. Lee is a graduate of the U. of I. He has a mother and wife, an aunt and uncle of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Foxwell of East Vine Street.

Mr. Lloyd D. Uptegrow of North Walnut St., son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Uptegrow has recently received an advancement in his department at Washington, D C in the Pentigone building as supervisor. Mr. Uptegrow high school graduate and Christian boy believes very firmly in the prayers of his mother and home training. He has also a brother, Seaman Shelby O. Bechrum who is serving his country. Mr. Uptegrow on his 23rd birthday in March in which he received a gift of progress.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — (WNS) — Sgt. James H. Baucom, husband of Mrs. Leila Mae Baucom of North First Street sent greetings, trinkets, and love. He is serving in New Guinea in the Co. Commander; He has been in service three years and is very happy according to his smile.

DRAFT BECKONS THREE Colored Athletes at UI—Five colored men, including Claude H. K. "Buddy" Young, Paul L. Patterson, and Donald T. Johnson of Illi football team, have been ordered to report next month for induction into the armed forces, the Champaign-Urbana draft board reported Monday.

The other two men on the list are Dwight W. Harwell, and Charles R. Quigless, both of Champaign. Patterson and Johnson are registered with the local board. The others were transferred here from other boards. All five have passed pre-induction physical examinations.

Young and Patterson are well known here and elsewhere because of their outstanding football records at U. of I., but Harwell, of no less importance, is not so well known. This young man is a graduate of Proviso Hi School at Maywood, Ill., and entered U. of I. here last fall. He is a "model" young man, studious, religious and worthy.

He connected himself with Salem Baptist church when he came to this city and has served as president of the BTU of this church ever since. Harwell has been a member of the choir and a splendid Sunday School worker there. He will be missed by the youth of Salem and Champaign and we shall expect a good report of his activities with Uncle Sam.

Corp. Robert Felder writes his ant, Mrs. Daisey Clemens of North 1st Street. He is fine and good spirits over in Tokyo.

GRADUATES— Mess Sgt. Robert Lee Ewing, shown with his wife formerly Miss Cozetta Humble graduated from Champaign High School this city, married and 18 months ago entered the service of Uncle Sam. He was not long advancing to the exalted station of Mess Sergeant for officers of the U. S. Naval Air Base stationed at Minneapolis, Minn., November 9, 1944. Sgt. Ewing graduated from the American Detective Training School of New York and shortly after, paid a visit to his wife and parents at 405 East Vine St., bringing his "Sheep Skin" along with him to prove that he is still climbing. This energetic young man is one of the many that army life has improved much. For he thinks talks and acts "Business."

Pvt. Clyde Bradley

SEAMAN VISITS—Seaman Davengava Donaldson, who attended the University of Illinois for two years, then entered the University at Jefferson City, Mo., was graduated with honors and degrees higher than any student in 20 years. He was in the Pre-Medical School graduating with B. S. degree on June 6, 1944. He was inducted in the U. S. Naval service. He is still engaged in his profession.

His father, Mr. A. D. Donaldson, of East Tremont, welcomed him home several weeks ago. His mother is at the sick bed of her father, Rev. R. Garrett, in Norfolk, Va., and his little brother came along with her.

To Seaman Donaldson and his comrades, "God speed!" May they make good in this fight for freedom!

Emily Valentine Is Married To Lt. Lionel Dyer

Miss Emily Jewell Valentine, daughter of Mrs. Julia Walden Valentine, 405 E. Park St., and Lt. Lionel R. Dyer, son of Wormath Dyer, Chicago were united in marriage at 5 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 27 in the Salem Baptist Church. The Rev. J. A. Anderson, pastor of the Salem Baptist Church, and the Rev. Emanuel Dyer, uncle of the bridegroom, Little Rock, Ark. officiated at the service in the presence of 350 guests.

Soloist for the service was Harold Johnson, tenor, a University of Illinois music student and Mrs. Bessie Iles was the organist.

The lovely bride was given in marriage by her brother, Peyton Valentine. She was attired in a graceful gown of nylon tulle fashioned with a long line shirred bodice which rose from a foam of ruffles worked in scallops around the full skirt. The brief sleeves were shirred and the stand away neckline was underscored with appliques of embroidered flowers. The bride wore matching elbow length gauntlets.

Miss June Walden, aunt of the bride, was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Misses Alora Jean Bowles, Rosemary Lyons, El Paso; and Carol Toller, cousin of the bride, of Paris.

Willis J. Gaskin, Joliet, was the best man and the ushers were Morris Wolfe, Chicago, Herbert Boyd, Chicago and Walden Valentine, brother of the bride.

The maid of honor was attired in a gown of cloud soft emerald green chiffon over matching taffeta, fashioned with a shirred basque bodice and gently flowing skirt and carried a crescent bouquet of bronze and yellow pompons. She wore a tiara of emerald green. The bridesmaids wore tiaras of antique gold velvet in detailed braid effect with nose veils and carried colonial bouquets of yellow pompons.

Little Kay Crook, Paris, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl and wore a frock of maize taffeta. Freddie Walden, cousin of the bride, was the ringbearer.

The bride's mother was attired in a white orlon jersey sheath, fashioned with a high neckline in the front and deep V cut at the back. Her white hair was trimmed with brown flow ers and she had brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

School friends of the bride assisted at the reception which was held at 6 p.m. in Latzer Hall of the UI YMCA. They were Misses Jane Greene, Barbara Caleb, Barbara Cook, Barbara and Geraldine Hines, Norma Morgan, Alfreda Phelps and Mary Elizabeth Jones.

After a wedding trip to Cali-ornia, the couple will be a home at Ft. Lewis, Wash. Dec. 8. For travel, the bride wore a tweed three piece suit with pink accents and pink accessories.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Illinois in liberal arts, majoring in foreign languages. He is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. The bride attended the University of Illinois School of Music two years and was a member of the Women's Glee Club for which she served as vice president. She has been employed at the University of Illinois Health Service.

Among the guests from out of town were Mrs. Emily Stewart, Detroit, Mich., for whom the bride was named; Fred Blake, great-great-uncle of the bride; Dr. Roscoe R. Polin, Indianapolis, Ind. president of the National Association of Negro musicians; and the Rev. E. C. Dyer, Little Rock, Ark., uncle of the bridegroom.

4-H event set

Teen Winter Camp is Jan. 30-31

Snow is "on order" for the Teen Winter Camp to be held at 4-H Memorial Camp, Monticello, Jan. 30 and 31. All 4-H boys and girls, 14 years old or over, are entitled to join in the fun. It is intended to have a communications and sensitivity session similar to the one which was popular at last year's Winter Camp. Those planning the camp hope to have entertainment such as a folk singing group. Federation members have planned the campers will take turns fixing the food, with a schedule being set up for each meal. If the weatherman blesses the event with snow, there will be sledding and other snow fun. Campers will sleep in winterized cabins.

To finalize plans for the Winter Camp, Champaign County 4-H Federation will meet at 7:30 p.m. Mon., Jan. 18 in the basement of Champaign Park District's Meeting Center, 2313 W. John St. Plans for the year also will be completed. The Federation probably will put out a booklet with the year's program.

The 4-H Federation had their Christmas party at the Champaign County Farm Bureau. The group went to the Americana Nursing Home and the Carle Foundation Hospital, caroling. They then went to the Pizza Hut for their party and a gift exchange.

Packets containing information for the 1971 4-H year will be distributed at two similar meetings for 4-H leaders. Leaders have a choice of attending a session at 1 to 3 p.m. or one at 7 to 9 p.m. on Monday, at the Farm Bureau Auditorium. At least one leader from each club should be present at this leader information session. There will be time for questions and answers.

Decorators
Anyone who would like to find out what the Decorators do may attend the meeting of the Decorators, the county room improvement club, when it meets at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 25 at the home of its leader, Mrs. Carolyn Wax, 1005 Sunnycrest Dr. Requirements of the club will be discussed and decisions made as to what phases will be covered in future meetings. Mrs. Wax is exceptionally well qualified as the leader of this club.

Seymour Busy Bees
The Seymour Busy Bees 4-H Club had their Christmas party meeting at Mrs. Walter Sebens' home. There was a talk by Becky McFarland and Patti Toler. Mrs. John McFarland was co-hostess. Members exchanged gifts. The club had gone car-

The regular monthly meeting of the club was held also at the Sebens' home. Debbie Sebens gave a demonstration on "Quick Mix One Egg Cake." Jo Chumbley talked on "Be Clean." Experiment three from You Learn to Bake project was done by everybody. Music was led by Bobbi Schriefer, Karen McManaway, and Becky McFarland. Special number was given by Penny Mayberry on "The Night Before Christmas." Hostesses were Bobbi and Elizabeth Schriefer.

Westview 4-H Cardinals
December meeting featured a guest speaker and their annual Christmas tea. President, Jane Goetz, presided. Each girl brought a Christmas item and told about it during roll call. The business part of the meeting was followed by demonstrations on holiday yeast bread, given by Miss Goetz, Marie Burger and Terry McCulley gave an illustrated talk entitled, "Tea Table Etiquette." Next Claudia Hill, Bonne Bell makeup representative, presented an informative demonstration and led a discussion about make-up trends. The meeting ended with plenty of cookies and punch.

Other officers of the club are Marie Burger, vice president; Cammie Malaise, secretary; Cynthia Bulinski, reporter; Maryana Bowman and Patty Burger, recreation; Jill Sparks and Malra Theurer, refreshments; Debbie Wright and Debbi Lewis, music; and Miss McCulley, federation delegate.

Handy Helpers
Services for others has been the theme of the Handy Helpers during the past few months. The girls have completed sewing 48 terry cloth bibs for the Children's Mentally Retarded Home at Beachgrove, Ind. Each girl made four bibs. The girls also made cookies, other baked goods, and candies, which were delivered to the Champaign County Nursing Home during the Christmas holidays.

Julie Mize, Debbie Oakley and Robin Campbell attended the orientation for officers meeting.

At the December general meeting Linda Payette gave a demonstration on how to decorate a salad dressing bottle. Terri McGrath showed how to make burlap flowers. Joan Sandberg made

Mrs. Marion Jones' specialties

Soul food: Savory and satisfying

By Joe McNamara
For The Courier

Soul food, a variety of well-seasoned and savory ethnic dishes passed on through the years, has recently been "rediscovered." Soul food church suppers and fashionable restaurants promoting soul food now abound.

Soul food originated on southern plantations well before the Civil War. Parts of hogs, cows and chickens as well as vegetable greens that white plantation owners would not eat were given to the slaves. In preparing them, the slaves invented some interesting and tasty dishes.

"Most soul food is boiled, with the exception of fried chicken, but we do prepare many chicken dishes after the chicken has been boiled," said Mrs. Marion Jones, a well known cook. "The only secret I can give for frying chicken is to use lard instead of the cooking oils on the market today," she said. "You must make sure your skillet and lard are very hot before adding chicken that has been shaken in a paper bag filled with flour and plenty of salt and pepper. This is all I do when frying chicken, but I can't convince some of my white friends of that."

Variety of greens
Greens for soul food include turnip, dandelion and mustard greens, collard and kale.

The best time for dandelion greens is in the early spring before the flower has started to form. Country dandelions are much better and most preferred for cooking, and though many also cook the roots, Marion prefers just the tops. She said collard is best in fall, following the first frost, and wild mustard greens are best in May and June.

When preparing greens Marion mixes turnip and mustard greens together. She considers the greens from the turnips too bitter to use alone and believes the mustard sweetens them a bit.

The greens are boiled in water seasoned with a red pepper pod and cooked with either ham hocks, bacon ends or salt pork.

A strong believer in using red pepper pods, Marion boils almost all her soul food with pods. For making 20 pounds of chitterlings, she adds two or three pods, a couple of large white onions and a cup of vinegar.

"It is most important to clean the chitterlings before adding to boiling water," she stated. "Just scrape the excess fat and boil with the onion, vinegar and pepper for 2 1/2 hours."

Time important

Time is an important factor when preparing pork. To fix pigs' feet with ears, add the ears forty-five minutes after the feet have been boiling. As with chitterlings, the meat should be cooked 2 1/2 hours.

Blackeyed peas and cole slaw compliment the flavor of these boiled meat dishes and complete a soul food dinner.

"State Street Chicken" is not one of Marion's favorites. The recipe calls for boiling the neck of either a swine or cow with white potatoes. "This is one of the most popular ways of preparing soul potatoes, and is on many State Street menus in Chicago," Marion explained.

Cornbread is also another popular soul food. Mix together 1 cup cornmeal, 4 tablespoons flour, one tablespoon sugar and one egg. Mix with enough milk or water to form a mixture that can be poured easily into a greased pan or muffin tins. Bake at 400 degrees for at least 15 minutes.

For breakfast

Using the same ingredients for cornbread, substituting a smaller amount of boiling water for milk, stir the ingredients into a stiffer mixture. Once this has cooled for a few minutes, form the mixture into a loaf like shape with your hands. Slice into quarter-inch slices and brown lightly in hot lard and serve as a bread. It can be served chilled and stored in the refrigerator. Many people call this mush and fry it for breakfast, using maple syrup to sweeten its rather bitter taste.

"The greens and meats can be purchased in local stores, and are not hard to spot on the counters of larger grocery stores. Since the trend in cooking these foods has changed in the past several years, the greens and meat scraps are no less expensive than any of the popular vegetables today," Marion said. She also emphasized, "we do eat the same food as white folks. Soul food dishes were enjoyed by our elders and have become more of a tradition with our people."

Marion's three children, Terry, 17; Monica, 16; and Melence, 11, enjoy soul food specialties as much as their mother likes to prepare them.

Teen Winter Camp is Jan. 30-31

Snow is "on order" for the Teen Winter Camp to be held at 4-H Memorial Camp, Monticello, Jan. 30 and 31. All 4-H boys and girls, 14 years old or over, are entitled to join in the fun. It is intended to have a communications and sensitivity session similar to the one which was popular at last year's Winter Camp. Those planning the camp hope to have entertainment such as a folk singing group. Federation members have planned the campers will take turns fixing the food, with a schedule being set up for each meal. If the weatherman blesses the event with snow, there will be sledding and other snow fun. Campers will sleep in winterized cabins.

To finalize plans for the Winter Camp, Champaign County 4-H Federation will meet at 7:30 p.m. Mon., Jan. 18 in the basement of Champaign Park District's Meeting Center, 2313 W. John St. Plans for the year also will be completed. The Federation probably will put out a booklet with the year's program.

Soul food: Savory and satisfying

By Joe McNamara
For The Courier

Soul food, a variety of well-seasoned and savory ethnic dishes passed on through the years, has recently been "re-discovered." Soul food church suppers and fashionable restaurants promoting soul food now abound.

Soul food originated on southern plantations well before the Civil War. Parts of hogs, cows and chickens as well as vegetable greens that white plantation owners would not eat were given to the slaves. In preparing them, the slaves invented some interesting and tasteful dishes.

"Most soul food is boiled, with the exception of fried chicken, but we do prepare many chicken dishes after the chicken has been boiled," said Mrs. Marion Jones, a well known cook. "The only secret I can give for frying chicken is to use lard instead of the cooking oils on the market today," she said.

"You must make sure your skillet and lard are very hot before adding chicken that has been shaken in a paper-bag filled with flour and plenty of salt and pepper. This is all I do when frying chicken, but I can't convince some of my white friends of that."

Variety of greens

Greens for soul food include turnip, dandelion and mustard greens, collard and kale.

The best time for dandelion greens is in the early spring before the flower has started to form. Country dandelions are much better and most preferred for cooking, and though many also cook the roots, Marion prefers just the tops. She said collard is best in fall, following the first frost, and wild mustard greens are best in May and June.

When preparing greens Marion mixes turnip and mustard greens together. She considers the greens from the turnips too bitter to use alone and believes the mustard sweetens them a bit.

The greens are boiled in water seasoned with a red pepper pod and cooked with either ham hocks, bacon ends or salt pork.

A strong believer in using red pepper pods, Marion boils almost all her soul food with pods. For making 20 pounds of chitterlings, she adds two or three pods, a couple of large white onions and a cup of vinegar.

"It is most important to clean the chitterlings before adding to boiling water," she stated. "Just scrape the excess fat and boil with the onion, vinegar and pepper for 2½ hours."

Time important

Time is an important factor when preparing pork. To fix pigs' feet with ears, add the ears forty-five minutes after the feet have been boiling. As with chitterlings, the meat should be cooked 2½ hours.

Blackeyed peas and cole slaw compliment the flavor of these boiled meat dishes and complete a soul food dinner.

"State Street Chicken" is not one of Marion's favorites. The recipe calls for boiling the neck of either a swine or cow with white potatoes. "This is one of the most popular ways of preparing soul potatoes, and is on many State Street menus in Chicago," Marion explained.

Cornbread is also another popular soul food. Mix together 1 cup cornmeal, 4 tablespoons flour, one tablespoon sugar and one egg. Mix with enough milk or water to form a mixture that can be poured easily into a greased pan or muffin tins. Bake at 400 degrees for at least 15 minutes.

For breakfast

Using the same ingredients for cornbread, substituting a smaller amount of boiling water for milk, stir the ingredients into a stiffer mixture. Once this has cooled for a few minutes, form the mixture into a loaf like shape with your hands. Slice into quarter-inch slices and brown lightly in hot lard and serve as a bread. It can be served chilled and stored in the refrigerator. Many people call this mush and fry it for breakfast, using maple syrup to sweeten its rather bitter taste.

"The greens and meats can be purchased in local stores, and are not hard to spot on the counters of larger grocery stores. Since the trend in cooking these foods has changed in the past several years, the greens and meat scraps are no less expensive than any of the popular vegetables today," Marion said. She also emphasized, "we do eat the same food as white folks. Soul food dishes were enjoyed by our elders and have become more of a tradition with our people."

Marion's three children, Terry, 17; Monica, 16, and Melanee, 11, enjoy soul food specialties as much as their mother likes to prepare them.

John St. Plans for the year also will be completed. The Federation probably will put out a booklet with the year's program.

The 4-H Federation had their Christmas party at the Champaign County Farm Bureau. The group went to the Americana Nursing Home and the Carle Foundation Hospital, caroling. They then went to the Pizza Hut for their party and a gift exchange.

Packets containing information for the 1971 4-H year will be distributed at two similar meetings for 4-H leaders. Leaders have a choice of attending a session at 1 to 3 p.m. or one at 7 to 9 p.m. on Monday, at the Farm Bureau Auditorium. At least one leader from each club should be present at this leader information session. There will be time for questions and answers.

Mrs. Leah Trelease

Services Set Monday for Mrs. Trelease

Funeral services for Mrs. Leah Trelease, 63, associate professor of English at the University of Illinois and former dean of women, will be at 10 a. m. Monday in Smith Music Hall on the University campus.

Friends may call from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m. Sunday at Renner Funeral Home. Burial arrangements are incomplete.

Mrs. Trelease of 713 W. Oregon St. died at 2 p. m. Friday in McKinley Hospital after a lingering illness. She had been admitted to the hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. Trelease, known to hundreds of University alumni and remembered for her work with and influence on individual students, had been on the University of Illinois English faculty since 1920.

She was dean of women from 1945 to 1947, serving as acting dean from Sept. 1, 1945 to Sept. 1, 1946 and as full dean the following year.

For a number of years, in 1950 and later, Mrs. Trelease was coordinator for the Festival of Contemporary Arts on the U. of I. campus.

Mrs. Trelease's death came after a lingering illness. She was hospitalized at West Suburban Hospital, Oak Park, for the first time early in 1954, and had been in McKinley Hospital at intermittent periods. She was on leave of absence from the U. of I. during her illness.

In January and February Mrs. Trelease and her husband, Sidney B. Trelease, realtor in the campus district, spent seven weeks abroad. She re-entered McKinley Hospital last Tuesday.

Mrs. Trelease was born March 26, 1894, in Decatur, a daughter of Owen Homer Fullenwider and Jennie Ragland Fullenwider. Her early childhood was spent in Mechanicsburg, but she later returned to Decatur, where she attended the old Millikin Academy and Millikin University.

In 1916 Mrs. Trelease was graduated from Millikin University, where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta social sorority. She was a member of the U. of I. and took her master's in 1917.

Mrs. Trelease taught at Decatur High School three years before joining the University of Illinois faculty in 1920. She was an associate in English, later rising to the rank of associate professor.

Services Set

include music, dance, drama, movies, pictures and special lectures.

Mrs. Trelease was a member of Mortar board and was closely connected with the University Counseling Service during its early days. She continued this work until her appointment as dean.

A favorite among students, she was in great demand as speaker for campus groups.

Mrs. Trelease was a member of the Local Chapter of the American Association of University Women. At one time she was a member of the Student Affairs Committee, adviser for the student Senate, and member of the Residence Halls advisory committee.

Dr. David D. Henry, University president, said Saturday:

"The University community is greatly saddened by the passing of Professor Leah Trelease, a dedicated teacher and a wise counselor who gave a lifetime of service to the University of Illinois."

"She will be gratefully remembered by former students, colleagues and a host of friends for her devotion to human values, to the welfare of the University, to the best in the tradition of the teaching profession."

"She was admired and loved by all who knew her for her innate graciousness, her personal courage and a spirit which lifted the lives of those about her."

Prof. Robert W. Rogers, head-elect of the University of Illinois English department, commented Saturday:

"Her death is a great loss to the English department, a personal loss to me and a professional loss to the University."

The English department is making arrangements for the funeral in Smith Music Hall.

Dr. H. D. Ellis Dies at Hines Hospital

Doctor Harry D. Ellis, prominent physician of Champaign, died Thursday, Apr. 18th, at the Veterans Hospital at Hines, where he had been a patient since Apr. 9. He had been seriously ill for more than a month.

Doctor Ellis was born Dec. 31, 1894, in Springfield. He was graduated from the University of Illinois school of medicine and interned at Provident Hospital, Chicago. He had been located in Champaign for 22 years, with offices at 112 North Walnut Street. He resided at the Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity house, 707 South Third Street, of which he was a member.

A veteran of World War I, he served in the 376th infantry regiment, the most decorated regiment of the war. He was a charter member of the William F. Earnest Post 559, American Legion, and was treasurer of the post at the time of his death.

Prominent Business Woman Dies

Funeral services for Mrs. Homer L. Chavis, wife of the proprietor of the Royal Cleaners, who died at 5:10 a. m. Saturday, Apr. 20, in Burnham City Hospital, were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in Bethel A. M. E. Church. Rev. Mr. Wright, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Mrs. Chavis was born in Shawneetown in November, 1886. She leaves her husband, a sister in Anderson, Ind., and two brothers in Indianapolis. She also leaves an adopted daughter, Mrs. Mabel McDowell, Champaign. Mrs. Chavis was an active businesswoman, a member of Bethel Church and the Baha'i group and various clubs.

As a businesswoman, she had few equals in this city or in any other city as for that. She, along with her husband, had accumulated a vast amount of property here in this city, and she was justly proud of her business. As a member of Bethel Church, we are told that she was loyal and faithful to her duties there until, some time ago, when she became a member of the Baha'i faith of this city. She was quite a loyal member of this faith until ill health forced her to confinement to the hospital. All in all, Mrs. Chavis was one of Champaign's best citizens and will be missed in more than one way. Parker and son, undertakers, had charge of the burial and the body lay in state from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. Tuesday. The Eastern Stars, Debora Chapter 27, conducted rites at the funeral. Mrs. Chavis was an active member of that body at the time she became ill. She was chairman of the Archives Committee of the Champaign Baha'i group at the time of her death.

Out of town relatives and friends attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rudd, sister, Anderson, Ind.; Mr. Luther McClain, brother, Mr. Samuel McClain, brother, Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rudd, nephew, Anderson, Ind.; Mrs. Juanita Farmer and sons, Robert and Grant, niece, Rochester, Pa.; Mrs. Ruth Franklin and son William, niece, Chicago; Mrs. Lillia Smith and son Carl, niece, Chicago; Mrs. Lily B. Services Set Monday for Mrs. Trelease

Funeral services for Mrs. Leah Trelease, 63, associate professor of English at the University of Illinois and former dean of women, will be at 10 a. m. Monday in Smith Music Hall on the University campus.

Friends may call from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m. Sunday at Renner Funeral Home. Burial arrangements are incomplete.

Mrs. Trelease of 713 W. Oregon St. died at 2 p. m. Friday in McKinley Hospital after a lingering illness. She had been admitted to the hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. Trelease, known to hundreds of University alumni and remembered for her work with and influence on individual students, had been on the University of Illinois English faculty since 1920.

She was dean of women from 1945 to 1947, serving as acting dean from Sept. 1, 1945 to Sept. 1, 1946 and as full dean the following year.

For a number of years, in 1950 and later, Mrs. Trelease was coordinator for the Festival of Contemporary Arts on the U. of I. campus.

Mrs. Trelease's death came after a lingering illness. She was hospitalized at West Suburban Hospital, Oak Park, for the first time early in 1954, and had been in McKinley Hospital at intermittent include music, dance, drama, movies, pictures and special lectures.

Mrs. Trelease was a member of Mortar board and was closely connected with the University Counseling Service during its early days. She continued this work until her appointment as dean.

A favorite among students, she was in great demand as speaker for campus groups.

Mrs. Trelease was a member of the Local Chapter of the American Association of University Women. At one time she was a member of the Student Affairs Committee, adviser for the student Senate, and member of the Residence Halls advisory committee.

Dr. David D. Henry, University president, said Saturday:

"The University community is greatly saddened by the passing of Professor Leah Trelease, a dedicated teacher and a wise counselor who gave a lifetime of service to the University of Illinois..

"She will be gratefully remembered by former students, colleagues and a host of friends for her devotion to human values, to the welfare of the University, to the best in the tradition of the teaching profession.

"She was admired and loved by all who knew her for her innate graciousness, her personal courage and a spirit which lifted the lives of those about her."

Prof. Robert W. Rogers, head-elect of the University of Illinois English department, commented Saturday:

"Her death is a great loss to the English department, a personal loss to me and a professional loss to the University."

The English department is making arrangements for the funeral in Smith Music Hall.

Prominent Business Woman Dies

Funeral services for Mrs. Homer L. Chavis, wife of the proprietor of the Royal Cleaners, who died at 5:10 a. m. Saturday, Apr. 20, in Burnham City Hospital, were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in Bethel A. M. E. Church. Rev. Mr. Wright, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Mrs. Chavis was born in Shawneetown in November, 1886. She leaves her husband, a sister in Anderson, Ind., and two brothers in Indianapolis. She also leaves an adopted daughter, Mrs. Mabel McDowell, Champaign. Mrs. Chavis was an active businesswoman, a member of Bethel Church and the Baha'i group and various clubs.

As a businesswoman, she had few equals in this city or in any other city as for that. She, along with her husband, had accumulated a vast amount of property here in this city, and she was justly proud of her business. As a member of Bethel Church, we are told that she was loyal and faithful to her duties there until, some time ago, when she became a member of the Baha'i faith of this city. She was quite a loyal member of this faith until ill health forced her to confinement to the hospital. All in all, Mrs. Chavis was one of Champaign's best citizens and will be missed in more than one way. Parker and son, undertakers, had charge of the burial and the body lay in state from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. Tuesday. The Eastern Stars, Debora Chapter 27, conducted rites at the funeral. Mrs. Chavis was an active member of that body at the time she became ill. She was chairman of the Archives Committee of the Champaign Baha'i group at the time of her death.

Out of town relatives and friends attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rudd, sister, Anderson, Ind.; Mr. Luther McClain, brother, Mr. Samuel McClain, brother, Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rudd, nephew, Mr. Walter Rudd, nephew, Anderson, Ind.

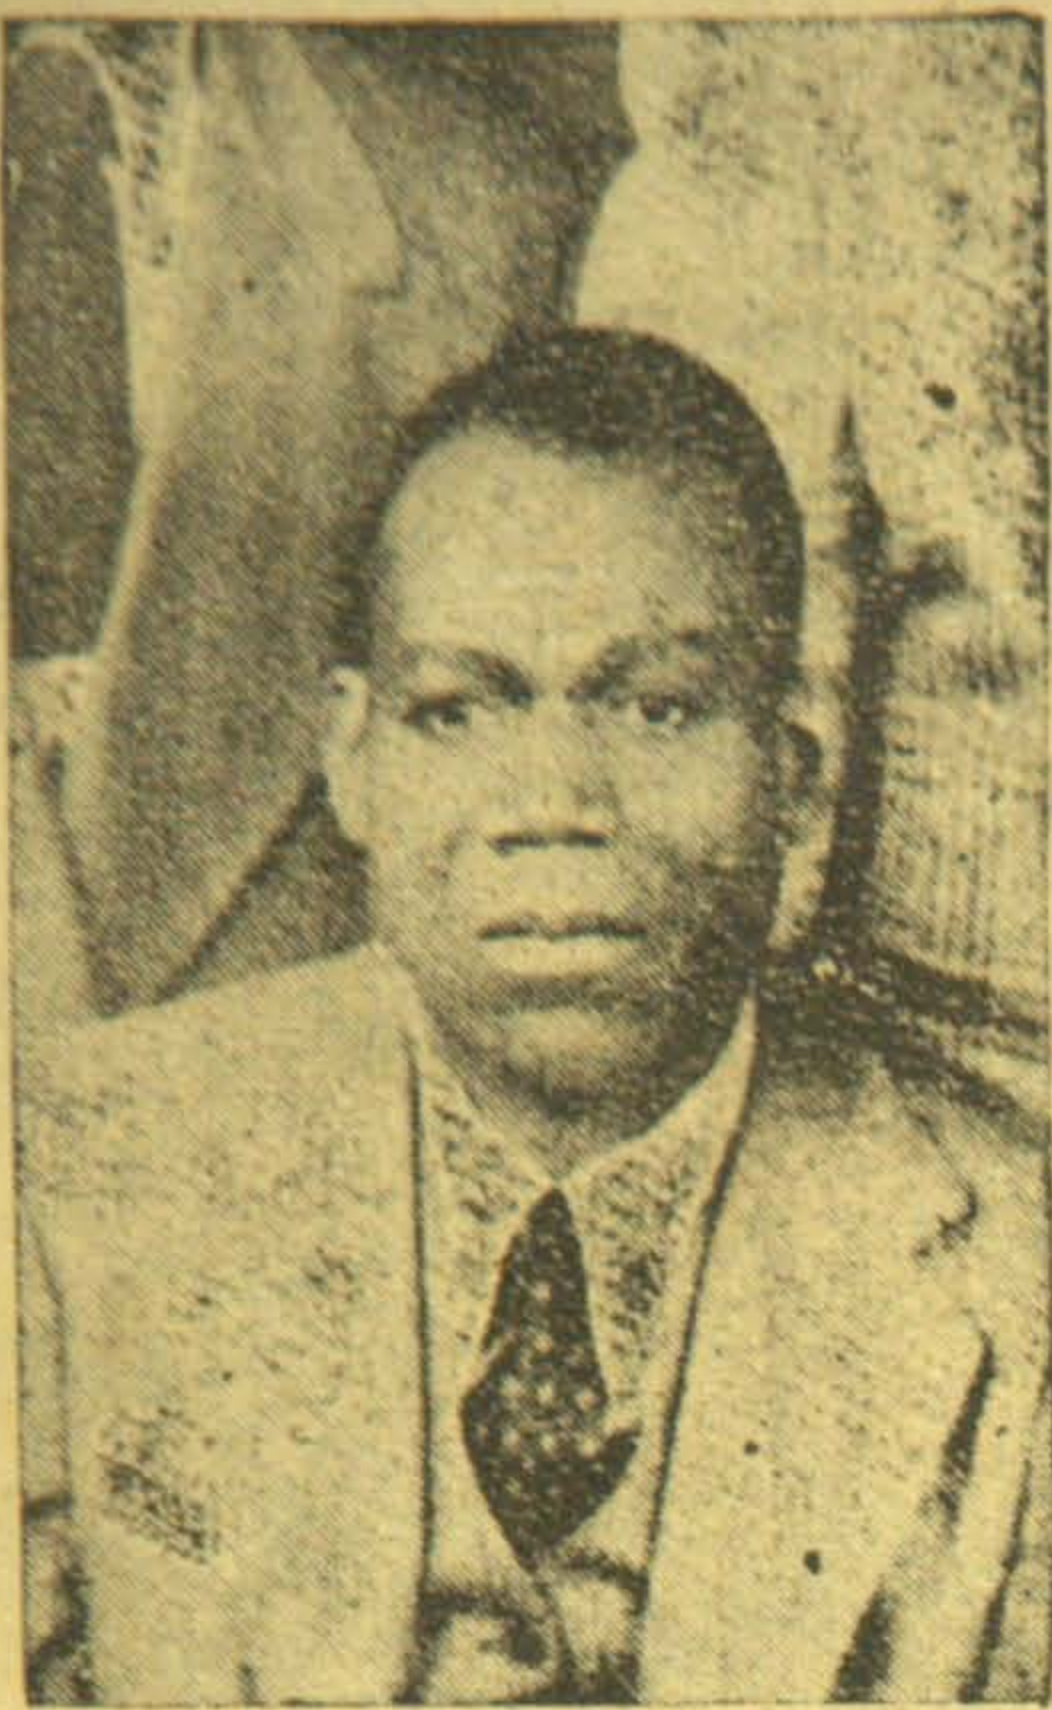

William, niece, Chicago; Mrs. Lillian Smith and son Carl, niece, Chicago; Mrs. Lily B. into a building where he was working at Davis Field, Tucson, Ariz.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burch, 410 East Beardsley, were notified by telephone. The sergeant to whom Burch talked said the soldier sustained a fractured skull and broken arm and died about 2:30 a. m. without regaining consciousness.

He and another soldier were waiting in the building, presumably a hangar, to service planes due in from a flight. One plane came in too low and crashed into the building. The other soldier's body had not been recovered from the wreckage.

Private Burch's body will be returned here for funeral services and burial, but arrangements are incomplete pending definite information of the arrival.

The soldier was born September 3 1925 in Cairo and the family moved to Champaign 18 years ago. He attended Champaign schools and withdrew from senior high school Nov. 24, 1943 to enter service November 26, 1943. He was a CHS football player.

He had been stationed at Phoenix, and Lincoln, Neb., before his transfer to Davis field for basic training as an airplane mechanic.

He was married in December, 1943 to Iva Cyus of Louisiana. Mrs. Burch was with him in Arizona.

Besides his wife and parents, he is survived by one brother; Claud, a senior high star football player; three sisters, Mrs. Geneva Metcalf, Chicago; Mrs. Lorene Fly, Cleveland, O., and Mrs. Magnolia Osler, Fulton, Ky., and one half brother, Otha McKinney, 401 East Vine Street.

MARVA GREETES REV. COBBS AND FIANCEE

"Bomber" Joe Louis, most of whose "heard the birdies sing" while knocked out is now being taught to sing by his wife, Mrs. Barrow, at their Chicago domicile. It appears to be pleasant teaching as Joe watches and listens intently. Mrs. Barrow has revealed that Joe has suddenly disclosed a deep interest in singing spirituals, visiting rehearsals and even doing a bit of vocalizing himself. His favorites are "Water Boy", "Go Down Moses" and "Po' Ol' Lazarus."—(INTERNATIONAL NEWS PHOTO)

In the presence of a few intimate friends who gathered at the home of Mrs. Marva Louis, Wednesday night, Mrs. Jean Starr-Jones announced her engagement to the Rev. Clarence Cobbs, pastor of the First Church of Deliverance, and set the wedding date for late in the summer. The cameraman caught this scene showing the happy couple receiving congratulations from the hostess, Mrs. Louis. Rev. Cobbs leaves next week for the west coast and on his return will complete plans for the wedding.—Gushiniere photo.
