My Memory Book shall keep for me a record of:

- My home;
- Recollections of my father and my mother;
- My school days;
- My first position;
- My travels and incidents connected therewith;
- Autographs of my friends;
(Secured by clippings from letters, or separately on a sheet of paper and pasted in.)
- Wedding, birth and obituary notices;
- Pressed flowers and leaves;
- Music; what it means to me and what I like best.
- Works of art; my favorites and some reproductions;
- The science in which I am most interested;
- History;
The events which during my lifetime have made and are making it, with my observations in a few words daily, written on a separate sheet and pasted in.
- Literature;
The books I like best; my favorite poems; short stories.
- Pictures of people of note;
- Programmes and press notices;
- My criticism of plays I have seen;
- Church affairs;
- My ideals, their inspiration and their food;
- My hobbies;
- My club;
- My family tree;
And all other things affording interest to me at my fire-side--and to others who may inherit my possessions.
