Our keynote speaker is Dr. Cynthia Turner

Dr. Cynthia Williams Turner is a licensed minister of the gospel, member of the accountancy faculty at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and the leader of the national recording gospel ensemble, Cynthia Turner and Heartspeak. Cynthia, a summa cum laude graduate of North Carolina A&T State University (Greensboro, NC), made history in 1996 by becoming the first African-American woman to complete a doctoral degree in accounting at The Ohio State University in Columbus, OH (at the age of 27). EBONY Magazine recognized Turner’s accomplishments in November 1998 by featuring her in the article, “30 Young Leaders of the Future, 30 and under.” She is currently the associate director of the undergraduate accountancy program.

current research interest focuses on understanding how to utilize various forms of indigenous knowledge to develop civic-minded global leaders of Hip Hop and post Hip-Hop generations.

In light of the issues that face our youth, we feel it is important to continue to enlighten, educate and empower them to be the best they can be.
It will be a great time, and we look forward to seeing you.

Please R.S.V.P. to Michelle Shmikler at 351-3915 or e-mail at shmiklmi@champaignschools.org by February 1, 2011 so we know how many people are attending. We hope to see you there. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact Tiffany Johnson, Barbara Cook, or Yolande Cooke at 351-3911.
