Hat's Off to the young women of Salem

I would like to thank all the wonderful Youth of Salem for your faithfulness to the Youth Ministry. February was a busy month and you all were there in full force supporting each event. Continue to be faithful to God and He will be faithful to you. I would personally like to thank Rev. Michael Wilson for heading the Black History reflections and to all the youth who did a presentation this month. Job Well Done!

Youth Spotlight

Daija Williams 6th Grader at Franklin middle school made the High Honor role this quarter. She will also be starting her second semester PSP course which is "Imagine Creative Writing". Last semester she was in Math Toolbox I.

Great JOB Daija!

The Youth Ministry would like to extend our deepest Sympathy to Alyia Savage on the Homegoing of your grandfather Rev. Lundy Savage. You are in our thoughts and prayers.
