

SALEM'S YOUTH ON THE MOVE

VOLUME 1, ISSUE 1

YOUTH QUAKE 2010

Youth Quake 2010 in August was really about "Shaping and Shaking the foundation of our youth". Pastor Willie D. Brown really blessed us youth with every word he spoke to us. We started Youth Quake out on Friday night with Pastor Brown talking to the boys about being a "Baby Daddy" and Trya "Heaven" Suggs talked to the girls about "The 5 Properties of Me". Then we had a Praise and Workshop service. Grove St. Youth was our special guest. Pastor Brown delivered a wonderful message. Saturday morning started early with Youth Quake choir rehearsal. After rehearsal, we went to the Sweet Corn Fest before heading over to our annual church picnic. That night we came back to the church for Gospel Night at the Apollo. We had youth from all over the community participating in a night of praising God through singing, praise dancing and instrumentals. Before the Salem Majestic Praise team danced I was able to give my testimony of how God helped me after having hip replacement surgery. It was my first time dancing in two years. Thank you Jesus for your healing power. The evening ended with a powerful alter call for all the youth.. When Pastor Brown did the alter call it was a life changing experience for so many youth. The spirit was really high and moved on the hearts of everyone that was there. Youth Quake 2010 was by far the best and it's just going to keep getting bigger and better year after year.

Bryshawna Hayes

On Friday, September 24th there was a Women's Conference held at Canaan Baptist Church. They made shirts & nifty little bracelets with cute saying and it was a great atmosphere. They had great food and entertainment. It started out with a fashion show featuring local girls from Central, Centennial & Urbana High Schools displaying clothes from Bergner's, Macy's & Belle Mia. Then there was a game show held, a customized Family Feud, old school verse new school (girls vs. women) which might I add we won. We discussed different issues that we face as teens and pre-teens. Overall it was pretty well put together and it was easily enjoyable.

Annual Youth Trip - UniverSoul Circus - Chicago

On October 9th the Youth Ministry of Salem took our annual trip to the UniverSoul circus in Chicago. The UniverSoul circus is the only black soul circus and our trip gave our youth an opportunity to get to know each other better and enjoy ourselves. We took a charter bus to Chicago and you could talk to each other, watch "Akeela and the Bee" or take a nap. We stopped and had a sack lunch. At the circus we were joined by the youth of Pilgrim Baptist Church. At the circus, we saw elephants performing tricks and at halftime some kids got to ride the elephant there were tigers jumping through rings of fire, dancing poodles, men walking on high wires, a basketball act doing the best dunks by far and so many other acts. After having a wonderful time at the circus we went to a Old Country Buffet for dinner. We enjoyed dinner and headed home with full stomachs. Thank God for a safe trip there and back. We really had a BLAST!

Joke of the Day: Lot his wife and the ...

The Sunday school teacher told the class about Lot being told to take his wife and flee out of the city. "Lot got away, but his wife disobeyed divine orders by looking back and was turned into a pillar of salt," the teacher explained. One little boy asked, "What happened to the flea?"
