Biographical Sketch

Rev. Lundy Svage was born September 21, 1940 in Memphis, Tennessee, the fifth child of Fred and Ruby Savage. His family left Tennessee while he was still a baby and moved to Chicago, Illinois where he attended Carver Elementary and High Schools.

As early as the age 11, Lundy Savage knew he was destined to be a preacher. So in preparation for this call, he was converted at age 11 and baptized by Rev. L. R. Jackson of Chicago. He started attending Sunday School, joined the Children's Choir and was at church every time the doors were opened. He also carried a pocket New Testament around with him, and would read it every day. However, many of his friends did not believe. At the age of 18, he accepted the call to the gospel ministry and in October of 1958, preached his first sermon entitled, "The Faith Of The Saints". In 1961, he was ordained to the ministry by Rev. L. R. Jackson of Chicago.

From 1960 - 1965, he attended Judson College in Elgin, Illinois, where he received a B. A. Degree in Christian Religion. While at Judson he served as treasurer of the senior class and president of the Religion and Philosophy Club. It was also during these years he served the Lilydale and Shiloh Baptist churches of Chicago.

Upon graduating from Judson College, he moved to Oklahoma to work with the National Baptist churches of that state. While in Oklahoma he married Carolyn Marie Scott of Chicago, and their first child, Scott Lundy, was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Also, while in Oklahoma, in 1968 he was called to the pastorate of of Second Baptist Church of Dixon, Illinois where he served faithfully for 2½ years. With his new wife, new baby, and new church Pastor Savage began his pastoral/preaching ministry. Also, their second child, Christie Carol was born in Dixon.

Feeling the leadership of the Lord, Pastor Savage was called to and accepted the pastorate of the Mount Olive Baptist Church where he has served for some 12 years.

We have witnessed many spiritual blessings under the leadership of Pastor Savage. During these twelve years, he has taken into the church over 600 new members and baptized over 300. The teaching ministry has been enlarged and enhanced through systematic, comprehensive Bible study classes; which includes foundation courses for new members on Sunday mornings, and various other classes during the week for entire membership. Pastor Savage preaches faithfully every Sunday morning the unadulterated gospel of Jesus Christ, believing that the "gospel is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth". (Rom. 1:16)

As a result of much teaching and preaching, the Lord placed upon Pastor Savage's heart a vision for a new educational building that will include 12 spacious classrooms, pastor's study, church office, rest room facilities, finance room, choir room and an enlarged kitchen.

Pastor Savage has held various positions in civic and denominational organizations. Past President, Ministerial Alliance & NAACP; member, Better Housing Committee; Chairman of the Board, Mt. Olive Manor Housing Development; Chairman of Title VII Committee; Champaign School District; member, Religious Television Broadcasters. Presently Director, Public Relations, Baptist State Congress; Vice-President, Woodriver District Congress.

During these busy years, Pastor Savage found time to earn an M.S. Degree in Education from Eastern Illinois University.

Pastor Savage is a natural devoted leader, led by the Holy Spirit to do what is best for the church and forever yearning to have the members become more aware of what the Lord expects of them. The Word is truly a lamp unto his feet.

A Blessed Note of Thanks

From the Chairlady...

To everyone, members and friends with All that is within me, I appreciate your cooperation, encouragement, kindness, love, suggestions, patience, prayers and support. Without you the day would not have been. May the Lord of Peace, Himself, give you peace always.

Dear Rev. Lundy Savage,

My congratulations to you as you celebrate among your people a milestone reached, a way-mark met and matched.

Old friend, you've come a long way (25 yrs.). There's still a long journey ahead. Make the trip as Trustee of the thoughts of the multitudes, Architect of the aspirations of people, and Describer of the dreams of the masses.

Dear Pastor Savage:

Congratulations on your 25th Anniversary in the Gospel Ministry! God has given to His ministers the awesome task of "Preaching the unsearchable riches of Christ." (Eph. 3:8) Therefore, there is no joy like that of holy work; no beauty that can rival truth; no freedom that outweighs unselfish love; and no satisfaction as soothing as that of duty well performed.

Dear Lundy,

Our frendship goes back to when we first met at the Shiloh Baptist Church in Chicago, Illinois. I have watched you grow as a gospel preacher and you have made the mark. You are still young in the ministry and I'm sure you will make 50 years of preaching (Golden Years).

It is my sincerest pleasure to congratulate you on your Silver Anniversary. May God continue for you to proclaim His word. Remember the Cross, that's where it started.
