

To Mr. Fred Major, Dean of Boys at Champaign High School for the last twelve years, the yearbook staff dedicates the 1962 Maroon.

As a CHS student from 1916 to 1920, Fred Major won a total of ten letters in football, basketball, and track. In 1943, after attending both the University of Illinois and the University of Miami, Mr. Major returned to Champaign High School and served as head Football Coach for eight years, winning five Conference Championships. He became Dean of Boys in 1950 and held this position until February of this year, when he assumed the responsibility of Deputy Probation Officer of the County Court.

During his many years at CHS, Fred Major has won the admiration of the teachers, parents, and students. His excellent guidance and continual fairness will always be remembered by his "boys."

DR. E. H. MELLON Superintendent of Schools

Although he is a vital part of the Unit IV school system, Dr. E. H. Mellon, superintendent of schools, is little known to the students of CHS. In his office at 702 S. New Street, Dr. Mellon performs many services including the direction of sixteen elementary schools, three junior high schools, and the senior high school. Dr. Mellon has helped to make possible the fine reputation of Champaign High School.

Board of Education

Every spring the citizens of the Unit IV school district elect two or three civic-minded individuals of the six elected members of the Board of Education. During their three year terms, these members formulate the policies of Unit IV, study its educational needs, and try to provide high level instruction for the Champaign schools. For efficient service, the Board is divided into building, instruction, finance, and transportation committees. The Board, along with Dr. Mellon and Mr. Patton, deserves sincere appreciation for the many hours of unselfish service to the community.

EARL D. PATTON Assistant Superintendent of Schools

Principal

Although he has been at Champaign High School for only two years, Mr. Kelly has fostered many important changes in the curriculum. He is responsible for the new seventy minute periods, the first hour activity period, and the cumulative grading system. A friend to both students and faculty, Mr. Kelly is one whom the community looks forward to having at CHS for many years.

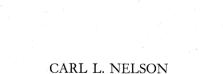

GREGORY P. MALTBY
Administrative Assistant

As the new administrative assistant, Mr. Maltby has come to CHS after five years of teaching in other Illinois high schools. Working in conjunction with Mr. Kelly, he plans to do everything in his power to keep things running smoothly. Mr. Maltby has attended four Illinois colleges and universities: Joliet Jr. College, Illinois State Normal University, Northwestern University, and the University of Illinois.

MISS NELL ZEHNER Vice-Principal, Dean of Girls

Miss Nell Zehner has been faithfully and dutifully serving the girls of Champaign High School for the past sixteen years. Besides radiating graciousness and congeniality, she efficiently arranges schedules and records tardiness and absence. Her approach to her work has earned the admiration of both parents and teachers. Miss Zehner received her bachelor's degree in education from Eastern Illinois State University, and her master's from the University of Illinois.

Assistant Principal, Dean of Boys

Having taught for the past ten years in Illinois high schools, Mr. Nelson, though new at CHS, is readily capable of performing all the tasks as Dean of Boys. Since his chief interest is in young people, he has a definite code of conduct for the boys of Champaign High School. "If a boy wants to be treated like a young man, he must act like a young man." He has received a B.S. in education and a M.A. in Guidance and Administration. It is certain that Mr. Nelson will become one of our most valuable faculty members.

The last Champaign-Urbana football game, the last Homecoming Dance, the Junior-Senior Prom, the Senior Assembly—these memories will always be cherished by the seniors. Each year school activities and courses have taken on a new meaning for the '62 graduates. Each senior finally realizes the influence Champaign High School has been in his life. He now understands that the knowledge and experience gained in both schoolwork and in extra-curricular activities will be indispensable assets.

Anxious to begin this final year at Champaign High School, the seniors elected Richard Harper, president; Gene Forsythe, vice-president; Nancy Seitman, secretary; and Kathy McGuire, treasurer, to lead them in their activities. Committees were chosen by the officers to aid them in the selection of the class gift, the arrangement of Commencement plans, and the organization of the Senior Assembly. Additional advice was given by Mrs. Charlotte Anderson and Mr. Richard Wooley, class advisers.

School dances, exciting ball games, close friendships, and extracurricular activities made up the social aspect of the year. The final highlight of the senior year was the annual Prom given by the Junior Class in honor of the seniors. This dance and the traditional activities which accompany it are all happy memories for the seniors.

Many outstanding seniors, leaders in the academic, athletic, and social avenues of Champaign High School, were honored by their classmates and teachers in various ways. Seventeen seniors were honored as Seniors-of-the-Month; several boys and girls received citizenship honors; and others won scholarships to the schools of their choice. Many senior kings and queens reigned in 1962, and numerous boys distinguished themselves as outstanding athletes. These students contributed to a fine well-balanced senior

So the Senior Year draws to a close, but it is also a beginning for the class of 1962. It is the end of carefree, uncertain behavior and the beginning of preparation for college and life-time jobs. It is a turning point in the life of each senior, a place where he must honestly consider what he wishes to accomplish in his lifetime and where he must decide how he will achieve this goal. Seniors anticipate graduation with these thoughts in mind. They realize that Commencement is more than a close to their high school days; it is a beginning of a new life filled with new challenges.

What a Difference

JUNIOR CLASS

"Golly, we're finally juniors!" This surprising comment held the junior hopes for a successful year. And a successful year it was from the election of class officers Mike Carrington, president; Pam Bidwell, vice-president; Sue Overman, secretary; Carol Ginsberg, treasurer; and advisers, Mrs. Barbara Fletcher and Mr. Joseph McGuire, to the Junior-Senior Prom in May.

The junior formula for fun was enthusiasm plus spirited participation in CHS's many activities. School dances and diversified sports found this eager and versatile class always ready to join the fun. The juniors sparked both the football and basketball squads besides distinguishing themselves in many other activities. Heading these events was "Champaign Night at the Ice Rink." A student-faculty basketball game and a junior play entitled "Four Little Words" followed this initial success. In late spring many juniors swelled the ranks of CHS honoraries and were inducted into Thespians, Quill and Scroll, and National Honor Society. The climax of this busy year was the Junior-Senior Prom, a never-to-be-forgotten night for all who attended. However, the juniors look forward with eagerness and enthusiasm to their senior year.

The sophomore, or the "Senior of 1964" as he calls himself, is CHS's newest inductee. His training ground is Champaign High School, in which he can be seen roaming the halls and uttering his perplexed inquiry, "Does anyone know where Room 310 is?" In a short three years this bewildered, studious individual will become a bewildered, studious senior.

Orientation Day, the Howdy Hop, and assistance from both the upperclassmen and the faculty all aided the sophomores in becoming acquainted with CHS. Soon the sophomores were called upon to select officers who would represent them in class activities. Elected were Dave Fisher, president; Nancy Evans, vice-president; Leslie Hamilton, secretary; and Jeff Hindman, treasurer. Sponsors for the class of 1964 were Mrs. Mary Ellen Guffey and Mr. Lee Cabutti.

With the close of their first year at CHS, the sophomores can look back on the knowledge they have gained, the new friends they have made, and the good times they have had. The class can now look forward to the next two years which hold the promise of many more happy memories.

HOMECOMING...19 61...STUNT SHOW

Homecoming 1961 was more elaborate than ever before. Through the sponsorship of the Student Council, Homecoming was expanded to cover an entire week-end rather than only one day. Previously Homecoming was nothing more than a football game and a sock hop; however, this year the festivities included a pep assembly, game, sock hop, Stunt Show, and a semi-formal dance.

During the week voting took place to nominate and select the queen and her court. At the pep assembly on Friday the five finalists were announced. At this time the girls were given corsages. During half time of the game they were again presented as the band formed a heart and played "Let me Call You Sweetheart." At the sock hop that evening the queen was announced. On Saturday night Queen Tula Vaream was crowned by Football King Carl Punkay. Other members of the court were Nancy Russell, Joann Weibel, Wanda Decker, and Susie Smith.

Behind every good show lie many hours of of hard work and co-operation from the performers. "European Holiday," this year's Stunt Show, was an example of fine showmanship and outstanding talent. Under the direction of Lawerence Connolly with the assistance of student director Sherry Rector, the audience was taken on a musical tour through such countries as England, Ireland, France, and Germany. The Master and Mistress of Ceremonies, Rick Bergethon and Suellen Scoggin, invited all to join them at a London Garden Party and to witness the Changing of the Guard. In France, the next stop, there was a small French Cafe and a view of the underside of a Can-Can skirt. The Irish washerwomen were the representatives of Ireland and German beer drinking and dancing were typical of Germany. The gaiety, songs, monologues, and pantomimes all led to the crowning of the Football King, Carl Punkay.

The curtains drawn on a now empty stage and the lights dimmed until the next big production, the performers turned their thoughts to the Homecoming Dance, which was held for the first time in the cafeteria.

BEAT URBANA WEEK!

The posters tell the story!

The Champaign-Urbana game climaxed a very exciting week in the lives of all CHS students. This year in preparation for the "big" game, the Student Council inaugurated a contest to build up enthusiasm among the students. Each class was assigned a separate floor and told to decorate it with posters.

A pep assembly was held on Friday afternoon in which the Pepettes skinned the "Tiger." The Pepettes also marched and impersonated several members of the team as well as Coach Stewart. All the events leading up to the game seemed to pay off as CHS beat Urbana 26-20 in a football thriller.

At Champaign High, Christmas was a most meaningful time of the year. The students and the halls both took on a new sparkle. The students did so, because they knew that two weeks of vacation lay ahead; and the halls, because the Student Council had adorned their doors with candy canes and evergreen sprigs. Even the teachers were happy when they received holly cups and notes from the Student Council.
The Christmas tree and Nativity scene in front of the Little Theater served as a reminder to all that passed that this was the season of joy. It warmed the hearts of all when CHS received the thanks of two less fortunate families for whom it had the opportunity of making Christmas a bit happier.

Again this year, as every year the Chamber of Commerce asked the help of the Student Council in selecting a senior girl to serve as Miss Merry Christmas. This year Wanda Decker was chosen to reign over the holiday festivities as Miss Merry Christmas.

At the Christmas Assembly the choirs and band presented many songs of the season. After this the entire student body "Sang Along with Shaul." The program was concluded with the "Alleluia Chorus." With glad tidings in their hearts all left for a long sought after vacation.

The soft glow of lights in the Illini Union Ballroom and the music of Wayne Carr supplied the setting for an enchanting Tri-High Dance. This year, as in previous years, Champaign, Urbana, and University High Schools worked together to give one of the finest dances of the year. The theme, "Diamonds and Velvet," was carried out in the programs. Black suede cloth represented the velvet; and an engraved aluminum form, the diamond. The main feature of the bids was a silver metallic tassel. After the presentation and coronation of the three queens, a U of I student played a few folk songs and ballads. Three lovely queens and three schools combining their efforts to give a pleasurable dance, added up to a memorable evening.

THE SENIORS OF THE MONTHS

To be a Senior of the Month is one of the greatest honors that can be given to a senior at CHS. This is not an honor based on academics, but on school activities and citizenship. It is awarded on the basis of points, and each activity is valued for a given number of points. This year the honor has been given to seventeen outstanding seniors who have demonstrated their ability in leadership and service.

SCHOLARSHIP

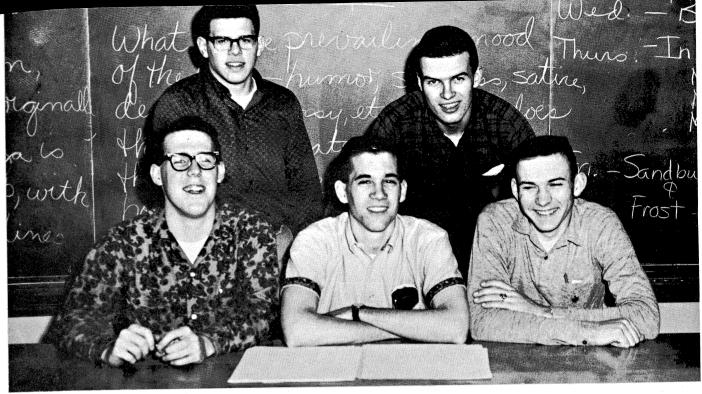

CITIZENSHIP

This year's recipients of the DAR and SAR awards were Kathy McGuire and Richard Harper. These awards, based on scholarship, citizenship, and patriotism, are given annually by the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Sons of the American Revolution. Students are selected for this honor by the faculty upon recommendation of the seniors. Area recipients were honored at a banquet where they received medals of merit.

Any junior wishing to apply for a National Merit Scholarship is eligible to do so. After taking the Merit tests, which are usually offered in March, the applicant must wait several months for his results. Those students ranking highest in English, science, and math are then considered for scholarships. CHS was proud to have Ron Moyer chosen as a finalist for this Award.

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION IN GOVERNMENT

In the spring of each year, the entire faculty is asked to nominate ten boys and five girls who will attend Boys' and Girls' State. The five boys and one girl receiving the highest number of nominations are then eligible to attend the respective conventions. This past summer, as representatives of CHS, Bob Evans, Jim Kearns, Chuck Peabody, John McClelland, and Bill Berkson attended Boys' State, held in Springfield; Susie Scoggin attended Girls' State, scheduled at Jacksonville. The purpose of these conventions is to teach the young people about government on a city, state, and national basis.

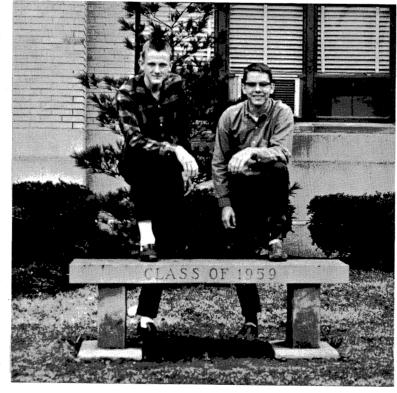

Miss Marion Stuart and Principal Clint R. Kelly commend Ralph Keys for being an NCTE award winner

Ralph Keyes and Robert Pugh, now living in New Hampshire, were recognized by the National Council of Teachers of English as winners in the annual NCTE composition contest. Since the NCTE is a non-profit organization, the winners are not given monetary scholarships, but they are recommended for college admission and financial assistance.

To be eligible for this award, a student must fulfill the following requirements: 1) he must have two letters of recommendation; 2) he must write three original compositions, including an autobiographical sketch, an impromptu theme, and an out-of-class paper; and 3) he must score successfully on the standardized tests of literary awareness.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER

"Knowledge is power," but it is not easily come by. It requires self-determination, drive, and many hours of long study. Rare is the individual who can attain a 4.95 average in high school, and rarer still is the individual who maintains a 5.00 throughout his high school years. CHS had two such outstanding students in Norris Dahlstrom, valedictorian, and Richard Harper, salutatorian. It can be said without hesitation that these two have the ability to do much with their lives, and only the best can come from their ardent efforts.

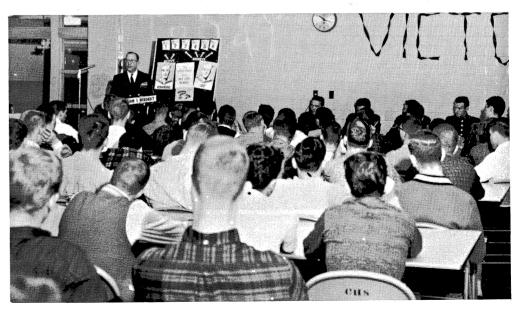

Grades make the difference for Norris Dahlstrom and Richard Harper.

Working with the Champaign Chamber of Commerce, the Student Council was able to present a new program to the student body—Careers Showcase. Speakers from different professions were invited to speak to the students on such subjects as medicine, city government, secretarial work, and journalism. Meetings were open to any sophomore, junior, or senior who was interested in learning about the requirements and salaries of the various jobs. The purpose of this project was to give the students a keener insight to their future opportunities and professions.

No, the students are not part of a space program—they are taking advantage of the newly installed language lab! Language labs are a fast moving trend all over the country, and it is evident that the language teachers at CHS are putting them to good use. Under the direction of Mr. Edgar Blair, the lab is open to all French, Spanish, German, Latin, and English classes. Tapes of vocabulary words, grammar aids, and stories are piped to the ears of all alert language students. It has been found that students respond willingly to and gain much from this new type of teaching.

SHOTS

The Student Council plays a very important part in school elections. Gene Forsythe, Kay Gregory, and Tula Vaream display campaign material used for class officer elections.

What is a student council? A good student council is one which provides a means for expression of student opinion; promotes good student-faculty relations, and, most important of all, serves as an educational device. These are the objectives of the Champaign High School Student Council. It can attain these goals only if the student body is willing to back them.

A prime purpose of this organization is to serve as a liaison between the faculty and the students. In order to do this, each year ten representatives from each of the three classes work with the five student officers and their adviser, Mrs. Edna Richmond, to serve the aims of the school.

Projects were many and varied. They fell into two catagories: service projects, which included Lost and Found, Welcome and Welfare, and Sophomore Orientation; and social projects, which included Homecoming and International Supper.

A new addition to the Council this year was the House of Representatives. Every homeroom elected one member to attend one or two meetings a month. Presiding over the House meetings was Speaker of the House, Susie Scoggin. With this group it was hoped that the Student Council would have a closer contact with the students, and they in turn would have the opportunity of participating in their school's affairs.

Realizing the need for order, Courtesy-Clean-up Week was instigated as an effort to make the students aware of the necessity for cleanliness and order in the halls. A sh-h-h campaign and wastepaper baskets aided the success of this project.

Other Council committees were Seniors of the Month, Interstate Exchange, Elections, and Cheerleading. All of the committees worked hard to make this year a successful one.

A training ground for future leaders, a place where student and teacher can meet on a common field—this is the Student Council.

INTERNATIONAL SUPPER

Chop suey from the Orient, Applestrudel from Germany, and good 'ol American Bar-B-Q. Where can you find all these delicious foods? At the CHS International Supper, of course. This year, as in previous years, the various organizations in the school contributed their time, food, and money to provide a successful $800 boost to the Foreign Exchange Fund.

the school contributed their time, food, and money to provide a successful $800 boost to the Foreign Exchange Fund.

As the supper was scheduled for two nights, it was necessary to call upon 11 different organizations to help with the preparations. The Latin Club (upper left corner: Diana Wilson, Carol Ginsburg, and Clare Shapland) served an Italian favorite—pizza. Mr. Jack Roberts (left center) had difficulty choosing from all the foods symbolic of the Orient. For those who were less daring, there was the well-known Bar-B-Q and beans served by Teri Spiegel, Judy Hampel, and Pat Pierre for the Baton Club (lower left). The German Club provided not only a table, but also entertainment (lower right: David Niemoller, John Ireland, Allen Lappin, Ed Weisel, Richard Harper, and Tom Stewart).

Entertainment, too, was abundant. The fine voices of Kay Gregory, Leslie Hamilton, and Nancy Evans and the music of the German band added fun and enjoyment to the meals.

Beyond the sound of contented eaters could be heard the loud, but uncomplaining voices of the dishwashing crew. Much to everyone's surprise they washed every dish "spic and span."

ILLINOIS

Through the diligent work of the Exchange Committee, one of the standing committees of the Student Council, Champaign has been one of the first schools in this state to originate an exchange program on a large basis. Last year the exchanges were with Danville and Springfield. This year the program was expanded to include several Chicago area schools. The Homer Student Council also spent one day visiting CHS.

The main purpose of this program was to foster better relations between the participating schools and to gain new ideas which were beneficial to the entire student body. Many other things were gained from this program.

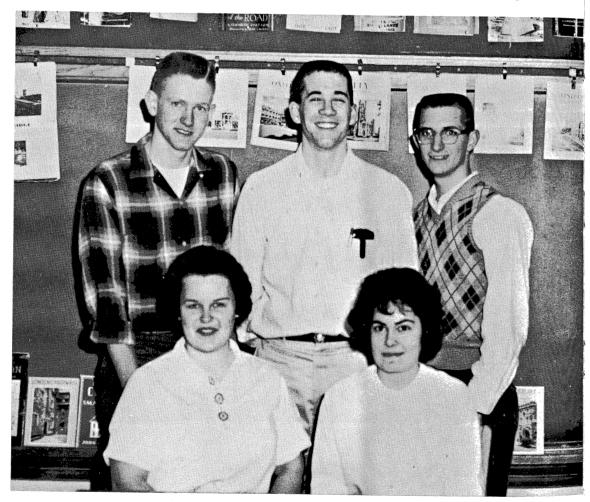

Any junior or senior in CHS was eligible to apply to be sent to another school for a week. From about thirty students who signed up, a committee of teachers and students decided who would be the best representatives of CHS. Eight people did visit another school.

The spring program has been such a success that a new committee is being set up for next year. It is hoped that some fall exchanges can be arranged in the future.

PRAISEWORTHY SCHOLARS

Of all the organizations at CHS the Honor Society has the highest standards. To become a member in one's junior year, a student must have a 4.75 average; as a senior, a 4.50 average is required. It is also necessary that the members have good citizenship marks and that they are active in some extracurricular ac-

JOURNALISM

EXPERTS

By doing outstanding work on either the Maroon or Chronicle, one can become a member of Quill and Scroll. It is necessary that a student spend extensive time working on the publication of his choice and that he have the approval of the adviser before he becomes a member.

The main source of income for this club is a sock hop.

With this money the members give a banquet for the new initiates. At this dinner the new members must provide entertainment in the form of a short skit or song. It is the decision of the members whether or not the initiates have an additional informal initiation.

Throughout the year room 310 has been the scene of continual activity—busy editors making assignments, writing copy and layouts; photographers checking on their picture schedule; staff members scrambling to complete their duties and to identify all students in pictures. These are just a few of the problems in putting a yearbook together.

The climax to many hours of work is this—the 1962 MAROON. With the help of Miss Brenda Braun, the editors have worked for many months to produce a book worthy of the students' attention.

In addition to working, the Maroon staff does find time to be sociable. During the Christmas holidays, this year's editors were hosts and hostesses at an open house for the Maroon editors of the last five years. The party was a great succes, and the present editors were hoping that in the future another staff will do likewise!! Also, each fall, an organizational dinner is held for everyone to get acquainted. In the spring there is a traditional banquet to celebrate the completion of the book.

It is the sincere hope of the Maroon staff that this book will receive the approval of the student body and will win an outstanding rating for Champaign High School.

Behind the scenes of every good yearbook are the diligent workers on the business and photography staffs. Little credit is given them, but they are constantly on the job knocking on the doors of advertising managers or snapping pictures of various activities. This yearbook was made possible through their endless efforts and hard work; the pictures tell the story!

Each year members of Chronicle and Maroon attend the Illinois High School Press Association conference where they obtain ideas for improving their publications. Chronicle staff members are further aided in their quest for outstanding journalism by attending a press convention in Jacksonville, Illinois.

Mrs. Joan O'Bryant, the adviser, helps to make Chronicle one of the finest school newspapers in the state. Last year the paper was awarded an All American rating. The staff is hoping to achieve the honor again this year.

The Literary Chronicle, a supplement of the weekly newspaper, was distributed to the students in one large issue at the end of the year. Material for the publication was accumulated from English teachers who felt their students had written some exceptionally good essays, themes, or poems. Mrs. Alice Harnish, a new teacher at CHS, worked as adviser to Susie Scoggin, editor-in-chief; Donna Borri, senior editor; and Teri Spiegel and Chuck Bartlett, art editors.

DEBATE CLUB

Throughout history vital issues have often been debated, providing an excellent means of conveying and discussing many different opinions. Today the Debate Club at CHS is fashioned on just such competitive basis with the many fine schools in the surrounding area.

The Debate Club was originated not only as a means of enjoyment for students, but also as an organization to develop perceptiveness and willingness to work. In addition, knowledge of current national affairs is also stressed.

The big smiles on the faces of the Debate Club officers indicate a successful year. Seated: Mrs. Helen Kohlmeyer, adviser; Ralph Keyes, president. Standing: Bill Berkson, vice-president; Tom Leming, treasurer; and Jay Tummelson, secretary.

When competitive, the object of a debate is to convince the judges, through clear thinking, logical reasoning, and vital statistics, that one's belief is the soundest idea. As there are two opposing teams, the affirmative side tries to convince the audience and the judges that there is need for a change in the present condition; they propose a specific plan and attempt to prove their plan practical. The negative team, however, tries to establish reasonable doubt that the affirmative beliefs are able to solve the problems of the issue.

Thus the Debate Club has proved to be an area where students are given an opportunity to become informed and to further develop their interests in the national affairs of today. Their one moneymaking project of the year was sponsoring a dance after a game.

Boasting a membership of two hundred students, the Wig 'n' Paint Club is the largest of Champaign High School's organizations. Sponsored by Mr. Lawrence Connolly, membership consists of students who are interested in acting, working backstage on scenery, lights, and sound, a participating in other phases of dramatics.

and participating in other phases of dramatics.

Throughout the year Wig 'n' Paint sponsored many activities, including the CHS Stunt Show, three plays, which were given at various times during the year, and the speech contest, which was attended by students from many schools. In addition to these activities, the club sponsored a table at the International Supper and a dance after one of the games.

During their club meetings, the organization, whose policies are formed by the drama board, discussed many interesting subjects dealing with drama and its various phases. They also viewed pantomimes, skits, and cuttings from plays, which were given by the members of the club or by members of the dramatics classes.

By earning one hundred points, members of Wig 'n' Paint may gain entrance into the National Thespian Society, the dramatic honorary society.

Thespian Officers. Seated: Nancy Seitman, Mr. Connolly, adviser; Donna Borri, and Charles Bartlett.

The ultimate goal of all drama enthusiasts at Champaign High School is membership in the National Thespian Society, the dramatic honorary. Entry into this organization is obtained by being a member of Wig 'n' Paint and by gaining at least one hundred points through acting in one of the plays given throughout the year or serving on one of the many committees which aid in production. These committees do such jobs as building scenery, working on publicity, controlling lights and sound, and selling tickets. Initiation into Thespian Society is held during the year for those who have met the requirements.

The Drama Board consists of the officers of Thespians and one member at large, who is elected from Wig 'n' Paint. Assisted by Mr. Lawrence Connolly, Miss Dorothy Munger, Miss Marion Stuart, and Mr. Fred Attebury, the board forms the policies which guide Wig 'n' Paint, sets up regulations for entrance into the Thespian Society, and chooses a theme for the Stunt Show.

Rehearsing the trial scene for the contest play Lilliom are Mike Mulligan, Ron Heller, and Ron Moyer.

Weeks of patient rehearsing, scenery building, poster making, and ticket selling all go into the making of a good play. The Champaign High School drama students and Wig 'n' Paint members did an exceptional job in each of these fields while preparing for the three plays which were given this year under the able direction of Mr. Lawrence Connolly.

The annual winter play, Rebel Without a Cause, was presented by CHS students on December 13 and 15, 1961. To allow more students to participate who indicated their interest in dramatics by trying out for this play, each night featured a different cast of girls. Headed by Ralph Keyes as Jim Stark and Sandy Smith and Barbara Swihart as Judy, the play portrayed a youth's difficulties in adjusting to society without the aid of parental guidance.

In addition to the usual winter and spring plays, this year's drama enthusiasts introduced a new feature to the list of productions. On February 8 and 10, 1962, three short, one-act plays were presented to a capacity audience. The first, "Four Little Words," presented by the Juniors of Champaign High, was a light comedy dealing with a New York theatrical agency. The second, Lilliom, was a fantasy drama which consisted of two scenes from the play upon which the popular musical Carousel was based. This play, headed by Ron Moyer as Lilliom, was also the annual contest play, which did very well. The third, "Final Dress Rehearsal," presented by the Sophomore class, was a comedy farce which depicted the problems high school students may encounter while producing a play. These three plays were very well accepted, and consequently, a new tradition may have been established.

This year's Spring Play, Dinny and the Witches, was produced on April 13 and 14, 1962. With Mike Mulligan playing the part of Dinny, who gains control of mankind by using music, and Donna Borri portraying the head witch who had originally controlled the world, this comedy was enjoyed by all who attended.

Standing around their adviser, Mrs. Bertha Darsham, are the German Club officers, Chris Korst, vice-president; Richard Harper, treasurer; Sandy Smith, secretary; and Paula Gottschalk, president.

The German Club is one of the most active language clubs at CHS. Membership is open to all students who have had at least two years of German or are presently enrolled in a German class. Monthly meetings are scheduled by the president and his cabinet, which is composed of the vice-president, secretary, treasurer, parliamentarian, and one representative from each class.

Highlights of their activities were a sock hop after a game and the annual Christmas Family Night. The appearance of St. Nick provided a delight to old and young alike. Further school interest was shown by their participation in the International Supper. This year the German table featured applestrudel and potato pancakes.

Working with their adviser, Miss Lois Bottenfield, are the Latin Club officers, Steve Roberts, president; Mary Blair, secretary; and Jim Kearns, vice-president.

Under the direction of Miss Lois Bottenfield, the Latin Club has advanced greatly since its beginning three years ago. The Roman Banquet, which is usually held on the Ides of March, has become an annual affair. At this time food similar to what the Romans ate is served. Entertainment is presented by the senior members.

To become a member of this organization one must have taken either two or three years of Latin. The club meets bi-monthly to plan its activities.

This year the Latin Club sponsored a sock hop after a game. The members also furnished food for the Italian table at the International Supper.

FUTURE NURSES...

Future Nurses of America is a club designed to interest girls in a nursing career. If a girl is inspired to a possible nursing career, the club's purpose is to develop this inspiration into a true interest and desire.

This year, as in previous years, FNA was an active club at CHS. They sponsored a hop after a game as well as a bake sale and raised money for a scholarship. This scholarship was awarded to a senior girl entering an accredited school of nursing. The recipient was chosen on the basis of grades, leadership and participation in the club. At the May Awards Day this scholarship was presented.

Parents were invited to an impressive initiation ceremony held in the fall, at which the girls received their pins. The annual picnic is held in June. At this time the officers for the following year are elected and installed.

During the year speakers, panels, and field trips made up the programs. Visits to a pathology lab and a therapy ward were places visited on the field trips. It is hoped that in the future the club can visit a major hospital in the St. Louis or Chicago area.

Standing: Pam Bidwell, treasurer; Ginny Odell, historian; Gretchen Albers, vice-president; Mr. John Hartwick, adviser; Kathy O'Connor, president; Mrs. Charlotte Anderson, adviser; Sue Overman, secretary; and Nancy Lowe, publicity chairman.

AND TEACHERS

Learning what makes a good teacher while gaining knowledge of the teaching profession is the main purpose of the Future Teachers of America Club. Sponsored by Mrs. Charlotte Anderson and Mr. John Hartwig, the club discusses many interesting subjects, including the responsibilities of a good teacher, the ability to understand each individual student, and the advantages of the teaching profession.

Throughout the year films are viewed by the club; and, at various times, speakers reveal their knowledge of a teaching career to the club, enlightening them as to what may be expected in future years, should they go on in their planned work. All different aspects and phases of teaching are reviewed by the club, such as the teaching of the blind, deaf, and mentally retarded.

Every year members work hard to sponsor a tea for Champaign High School teachers and student teachers; they also plan a potluck dinner for their parents and relatives. Both of these activities are enjoyed by all concerned.

Observation and cadet teaching are probably the most interesting FTA activities, for they give the members an opportunity to learn first-hand information about classes at the elementary and junior high school level. During the second semester, senior members assist their sponsoring teachers with the grading of papers and other jobs; they may actually teach a class. These experiences enable future teachers to see what grade level would be best for them and also enables them to plan their teaching career more intelligently.

The Future Homemakers of America Club is sponsored by Mrs. Lila Jeanne Eichelberger. To become a member of FHA, students enrolled in a home economics course must pass a required test. FHA is a national organization with eight main purposes. These purposes are as follows: to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking, to emphasize the importance of worthy home membership, to encourage democracy in home and community life, to work toward good home and family life for all, to promote international good will, to foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life, to provide wholesome individuals and group recreation, and to further interest in home economics.

The chapter of Future Homemakers at Champaign High is very active. This year at Thanksgiving they made favors for the children's wards of town hospitals. They also sponsored the Scandinavian table at the International Supper as well as a dance after a game.

Standing: Chuck Wood, sentinel; Robert Gilliland, reporter; Walter McClain, treasurer; and Robert Lokey, secretary.

The Future Farmers of America is a club which helps prepare boys to go into some phase of farming as their future occupation. Sponsored by Mr. Arthur Twardock, the members of this club explore all aspects of practical farming, which include livestock and crops, knowledge of soil, conservation, economics, and record keeping. Closely associated with Vocational Agriculture, a regular subject taught at Champaign High School, the club holds two night meetings a month, where the boys may discuss future plans and study the farming profession. These meetings are conducted in such a manner that the boys also learn proper business procedures.

Among the activities which this club sponsored were a donkey basketball game, which supplied funds for the needy at Christmas time, an all school assembly program, an after-game dance, and the Sectional Public Speaking Contest, which was attended by seventeen area schools. The members also sold Christmas cards and sponsored a home safety campaign and an FFA acquaintance day. Using funds earned throughout the year, the club attended the International Livestock Show in Chicago and the State FFA Convention in Springfield.

This club greatly aids boys in teaching them the advantages of farming while helping them to become better qualified for their chosen profession.

Office Help is a well-organized group of girls who gallantly offer an hour a day to the delivery of official notices. They receive little or no credit for their work and sometimes get an "evil eye" from aggravated teachers who do not realize that the girl has no choice but to deliver the notice.

This year this group of girls proved an invaluable aid in the smooth running of the school. They well deserve a special thanks from the students and the faculty of Champaign High School.

"EX LIBRIS"

The El Staff is sponsored by Mrs. Deane Hill who has been club adviser for the past four years. The only requirements for admission into the club are dependability and acceptable work. The members keep the books of the library in order, work at the circulation desk, write and deliver overdue book notices. They may often be seen assisting students in their selection of books.

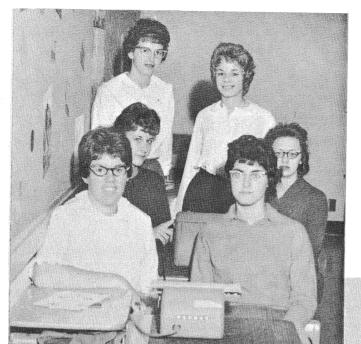

Their main projects take place every Christmas and every fall. At Christmas, the members donate money to trim a tree for the library. In the fall an annual club picnic is held. The El Staff is also very active in the Student Librarians of East Central Illinois.

Without the help of the able and well-organized

El Staff, the library with its stacks of books and magazines would not be as useful as it has been over the past years.

Illinois Office Occupations Association is a club for girls who work afternoons in local offices. These girls have studied business education in high school and then have taken an on-the-job training program for their senior year. As members of IOOA, they have heard speakers representing various organizations, and they have planned several parties as well as sponsored an after-game dance.

The outstanding event of the year was the Employer Appreciation Banquet when the students entertained their bosses. Another highlight for some members was attending the state convention in Springfield. Also, this year CHS was host to the area convention, and at this time six other schools came to Champaign for an interesting program.

Distributive Education, under the direction of Mr. David Morgan, is a class which teaches the students selling methods applicable to their work. Students belonging to this organization attend school for the morning session and, in the afternoon work in various stores downtown. Through their work students are given an opportunity for on-the-job training.

BUSINESS MAJORS

Commercial Club officers. Seated: Karen Simmons, corresponding secretary; Rose Bartlett, treasurer; Sandy Fender, recording secretary. Standing: Lois Bubon, president, Miss Dorothy Munger, adviser, and Roseann Schweighart, vice-president.

The Commercial Club, sponsored by Miss Dorothy Munger, has been organized for twelve years at Champaign High School. The only requirement for joining the club is that one must be registered in one or more business education classes.

The club's purpose is to develop interest in a business career and to give the students a chance to gain experience in their specific business field.

The club participated in special projects throughout this year. Included were an annual field trip, a dance after a game, and a Christmas project to help orphans.

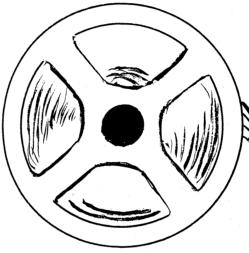

The Projector Club was organized several years ago for boys interested in the study of projectors and their care. At their meetings, the members discuss how to run a projector and how to care for it; at times they demonstrate how to repair films.

This club is not only an interest club, but also a very useful one. Some teachers are often very glad to have help in operating the machines.

The Projector Club also sponsors a money-raising project every year. Sometimes they have the concessions at a basketball game. This year they sponsored a doughnut sale after school for all the "big eaters."

THE OLD AND THE NEW

A newly organized club under the direction of a new teacher is the Social Science Club. With the help of their advisers, Mr. Les Bowman and Mr. Selby Kline, the club has been fortunate to have several outstanding guest speakers. At one meeting the members were addressed by a South African educator; at another time, by a man from the State Department. The only requirement for membership is an interest in the field of social science. Besides having fascinating meetings, the club has developed a constitution and a small treasury. With a successful year behind them, they look forward to next year and new achievements.

The Coin and Stamp Club has been organized for several years. The membership is quite small due to the fact that a sincere interest in coins and stamps is necessary for membership. Under the leadership of Mr. Harold Felty and the student officers, the club meets several times a year. At their meetings they discuss and trade both old and new coins and stamps. This year, the club also sponsored a doughnut sale to raise money for their treasury.

Alert and prepared for the problems of today are the Social Science Club members. Seated: Sharon Copeland, and Anieta Atwood. Standing: Bill Stanley, Jeff Meeker, Mr. Selby Klein, adviser, Norman Bailey, Leon Martin, Terry Shearer, and Mr. Les Bowman, adviser.

Knitting in and out of classes are the Knitting Club members. First row: Bonnie Stout, Sherry Smith, Susie Scoggin, Caroline Mayer, Sara Gillespie, Judy Owens, Sherry Pruett, and Judy Gray. Second row: Diane Hamacher, Vickie Morris, Peggy Harvey, Stephanie Hirshenson, Jo Ellen Troxell, Nastalia Marks, Leslie Kretchmer, Sharon Goddard, and Jeanne Hixson. Third row: Judy Spence, Beth Tyler, Sally Dickerson, Barby Jackson, Betty Brandis, Nancy Evans, Ann Klinger, Susie Osborn, Ann Youngerman, and Linda Spence.

Promoting an interest in knitting is the main objective of the Knitting Club. Newly organized, this club meets weekly to discuss problems concerning knitting, to teach new members the fundamental principles behind this art, and to allow members time to work on their projects. Under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Kovar, the girls tackled ear warmers, mittens, angora and multi-colored ski sweaters, argyle socks, and many other projects involving the complicated intricacies of knitting. Many new ways of knitting were explored; patterns were discussed; and types of yarn were reviewed by the members.

Boasting a membership of 130, this club's members are seldom idle and may be seen busily working on their chosen projects during each meeting.

Rich notes bring high rewards to the Modern Music Masters, Peggy DeWitt, Beth Ann Miller, Ed Wiesel, and Richard Harper.

Modern Music Masters, the music honorary, was established for the recognition of students who show active interest and outstanding ability in the field of music. Due to the fact that eligible students must be able to meet specific requirements, the membership of this organization is quite limited. The staff of the Music Department decides the membership. Their decisions are based upon the following requirements: 1) membership in Baton Club, 2) musical efficiency, and 3) citizenship. Although the club is not an active organization, it is indeed an honor looked forward to by many students.

BATON CLUB

One of the most active and vivacious groups working diligently in behalf of the Music Department is the Baton Club. This club is composed of members from both the band and the various vocal groups. The members plan the club's functions and decide upon persons eligible for membership. Only juniors and seniors who have shown considerable interest in music and have participated in musical organizations for two years can qualify for membership.

Through the club's long and eventful history, it has become a more efficient organization with a growing amount of interested students. Since the beginning of this school year the members strived to present the annual Vice-Versa Dance, a highlight of the school year. Indeed this is one of the outstanding organizations at Champaign High School.

SWEET SINGIN' VOCALETTES

Of the many musical areas provided for by the Champaign High School music department, the Vocalettes is the only one designed exclusively for the fair sex. In order to become a member in this group, interested girls have to try out before Mr. William Olson. Of the girls trying out, the ones who are best able to meet the requirements of a singer in this organization are chosen.

Vocalettes proves to be most beneficial for girls who take music seriously, as it provides them with the opportunity of singing more difficult music. Members are also able to perform under the direction of a well-qualified man, Mr. Olson.

The goal of the group as a whole is to present performances at various community functions, to entertain in other schools, to perform in assemblies at the high school, and to participate in Musical Moods. This year they helped sell candy boxes and bars which brought well over $1,500 for the Concert tour to Warsaw, Indiana.

This organization can truly be said to be one of the most active and well-organized groups available to girls attending Champaign High School.

Open mouthed singers are caught in the middle of a golden note.

The A Cappella Choir is another of the many musical organizations available to the students of Champaign Senior High School who have shown a desire to participate in the area of music. The members of the choir are chosen from those who try out before Mr. William Olson, the director. This year more than ninety members were in the group, both girls and boys. Thus, there were varied soprano, alto, bass, and baritone voices.

Of the different vocal groups, A Cappella is perhaps the most formal, in that the choir members are adorned in maroon robes, trimmed in white with CHS embroidered in maroon letters. They wear these robes in all their appearances before the public. In A Cappella stress is placed not only on good presentation, but also on the individual development of voice.

The A Cappella schedule for the year has been a vigorous one. They have entertained at many community affairs, secondary school assemblies, CHS assemblies, and a great variety of others.

The person behind these young girls and boys is a

The person behind these young girls and boys is a man who, in the short time he has been here, has proven himself a fine director. Mr. Olson has a great deal of experience behind him as a professional singer in New York, a finalist in Metropolitan Opera tryouts, an associate with Fred Waring, and a bass soloist at his church. These qualifications have helped him tremendously in achieving the goals he has established for the A Cappella Choir.

Another active part of the Music Department has been under the direction of a rather new conductor. This is the Champaign High Orchestra, and the director is Mr. Jerald Slavich, who has now completed his second year in charge of this organization.

As this year produced a shortage in the string instruments section. it was necessary for Mr. Slavich to look for competent players in the elementary schools. His perseverance and mastery of music have certainly been noticed in the quality of music played by the Orchestra members. Their numbers, which range from classical to Rodgers and Hammerstein, have received many fine comments.

Here are the highs and lows of the dance band. Seated: Karen Ferris and Kay Reeder, vocalists. Kneeling: Bill Berkson, Gary Kelsey, Tom Stewart, John Neupauer, Ron Kruse, Roger Crozier, Mike Womacks, Chuck Miller, and Orin Ireland. Standing: James Kelly, Mr. Jerry Slavich, director, Ken Kessler, Myron McLain, and Karl Kessler.

An added attraction to the Music Department is the CHS Dance Band. This is a group composed of high school musicians who compete with many other capable players for the opportunity of participating in the large variety of activities offered by this organization.

The band members have been most fortunate in having Mr. Gilbert Papp as their conductor. Mr. Papp first became interested in dance bands when he was in the service.

The Dance Band came into existence in 1945, and has long since continued as a worthwhile tradition. The many activities that the group engaged in were dance parties, concerts, and the Stunt Show. One of the most outstanding achievements of the band this year was the making of a long-play record, "The Big Band."

The main opportunity created and experienced by the organization is the playing of the only true American music, jazz. Jazz, is indeed, a most dynamic sound in music, and it is played in its intended fashion by the CHS Dance Band.

Mr. Olson looks on dubiously as Mr. Papp directs a practice session of the Dance Band.

Fanfare done, game begun

BRASS FANFARE

The creative power behind the outstanding performances of the Concert and Marching Bands is Mr. Verrollton C. Shaul. Mr. Shaul has been with the CHS Music Department for approximately eighteen years. During this time he has maintained the tradition of having a Marching Band for the football season. Everyday at the break of dawn, voices, drum rolls, and the sound of marching feet can be heard at McKinley Field. Within a week's time Mr. Shaul's conscientious perseverance changes an inexperienced group into a precision marching unit ready for the first football game. The Marching Band adds color to the game and incites enthusiasm in the fans. The Band also plays at basketball games, although they do not march.

Although the Band participated in a large variety of activities this year, it also concentrated and worked diligently to prepare for its many concerts, such as the annual Christmas Assembly, the "Pops" Concert, and the Senior Concert. The Band also marched on Memorial Day and participated in state and district music contests. The highlight of their activities was a concert tour in Indiana. While in Elkhart. Indiana, the students visited a musical instrument factory and saw instruments being made by hand. Many hard, but worthwhile weeks of selling candy made this tour possible.

The majorettes have been retained as a "much liked and much wanted" tradition at CHS because of the color and entertainment they add when they perform.

Girls wishing to be majorettes tried out before Mr. Shaul and Charlette Harper, this year's head majorette. They were chosen on the basis of poise, co-ordination, and ability. Their skill was evident when they returned from the district contest with a first place rating. After this contest they proceeded to the state contest, which was held late in

Who supports the school's team? The student body, of course. A large percentage of the CHS girls are members of the Peparoons, the high school pep club. The only requirement for joining this club is payment of dues. To remain in the club for the entire year, a member must attend two out-oftown games and must decorate the halls for one game. All members are given a pompon upon payment of dues. Additional pompons can be purchased throughout the year.

The main objective of this organization is to promote school spirit. At times during the year members worked closely with the Student Council. For all sporting events the Peparoons decorated the halls with signs of encouragement for victory. Under the watchful eye of Mr. Gerald Trimble, buses were sponsored for out-of-town football and basketball games.

GALS

The Girls' Athletic Association at CHS is a club for girls who are active and interested in sports. By participating in GAA, a girl may earn points toward an award. In order to win a letter, she must obtain one hundred and fifty points. Numerals are given for seventy-five points; and a pin, for twenty-five. In addition to these, there are several state awards, including an "I" and a state emblem. To obtain an "I," a girl must have two hundred and twenty-five points, and to receive a map she must be a senior with three hundred points.

During the course of the year, the girls participated in many

During the course of the year, the girls participated in many different sports. Tennis and archery were the sports enjoyed in the fall. Basketball, bowling, tumbling, and volleyball were some of the winter sports. The climax to the basketball season was an inter-class tournament. Although baseball has always been the spring sport in the past, this year tennis was added.

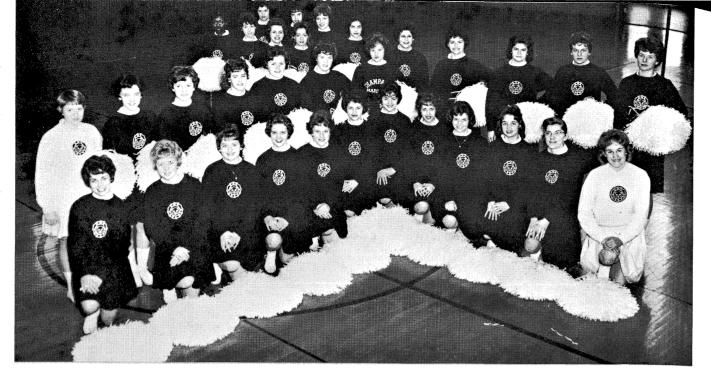

A mother-daughter banquet held in May climaxed the activities for the year. At this banquet the girls were presented with their awards, and the officers for the following year were installed

POMPOMS AND RHYTHM

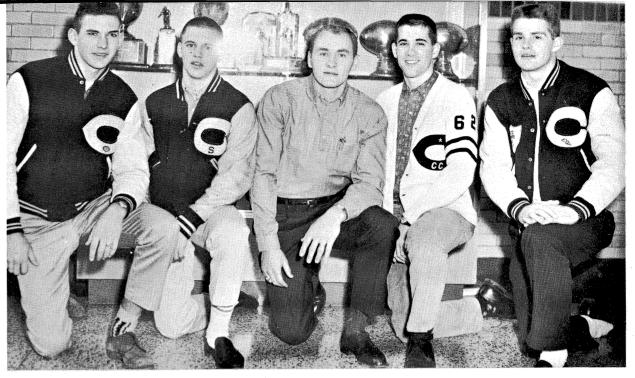

"Forward march," and the Pepettes are ready to perform. This year thirty senior girls took part in the activities of this drill team. They were selected at the end of their junior year on the basis of grace, poise, and co-ordination.

Symbolic of the organization are the maroon skirts and sweat shirts, the white outfits of the leaders, and the huge, white pom-poms. Their ability to march well was demonstrated on the football field, as well as at basketball games and pep assemblies.

New activities this year were Christmas caroling and making small gifts for older people. Also, as an added feature to game festivities, the Pepettes were invited to march in the Homecoming parade in Decatur and to take part in the half-time entertainment.

Half-time spotlight focuses on the Pepettes.

MUSCLES AND LETTERS

One of the greatest honors an athlete at CHS can receive is membership in the Lettermen's Club, better known as the "C" Club. To become a member, one must earn a varsity letter in any sport. Admission into the club is not easily attained; it requires long hours of working with the team, much actual playing and good sportsmanship. However, the satisfaction of a letter well earned is worth all the time and effort the player puts forth.

Once in the club, there are certain rules that one must follow in order to remain a member. These rules concern such items as drinking and smoking. Also, no one, other than a member, is allowed to wear a letter jacket. It is the duty of the disciplinary board to be sure that none of these rules are violated.

This year the club sponsored its annual dance and called it "Mystic Night of the C." They also planned a spring picnic, an affair which was inaugurated only last year. CHS can truly be proud of the fine men of this organization.

FOOTBALL 1961

CHS 7 Peoria Woodruff 13

Champaign High School's football Maroons traveled to Peoria Woodruff on September 15 to open their 1961 season, and they were received rather rudely by their hosts, who defeated them 13-7. The Maroons, who had only one returning regular from last year's team, were inexperienced and showed it. The Maroons found themselves behind 13-0 at halftime but, refusing to quit came roaring back. After the second half kickoff, they marched 64 yards in nine plays for the score. After fullback Johnny Eppler's three-vard plunge was nullified by an offside penalty. halfback Mike Carrington took the pitchout from quarterback Bill Hav and slipped over from the 8. Bill Hav converted, and CHS was right back in the ball game. The Maroons held on defense and received the ball, trailing 13-7. Johnny Eppler burst for 30 yards up the middle and, prophetically perhaps, fumbled, although CHS did recover. However, the Maroons' drive was stalled a few plays later by another fumble, and Woodruff ran out the clock. Woodruff's Warriors, who won their first game against Tommy Stewart in four years, played a fine game, but the Maroons' own ineptitude played as large a part in the defeat as did the ability of the Warriors.

CHS 27 Springfield Lanphier 0

The Maroons, still smarting from their narrow defeat at the hands of Woodruff, got their revenge on Springfield Lanphier, soundly smothering them 27-0. Their inexperience still showed, though, as three potential scoring drives were stopped by fumbles inside the 30. Another touchdown and a 40-yard pass interception return for still another touchdown were nullified by penalties. But, for the first time in the young season, the potential was realized, as the Maroon backs romped for 366 yards around, through, and over the hapless Lions. Quarterback Bill Hay then added 10 more yards with a quick pass over center to end Terry Fairbanks. The Maroons' defense was especially tough, as it completely contained the Lanphier offense, limiting them to 70 yards rushing and 76 yards passing and never permitting them inside the Champaign 20. The highly touted CHS backfield, featuring the speed of halfbacks Jimmy Williams and Mike Carrington and the power of fullback Johnny Eppler, generally had their own way, as Eppler powered through the line for 143 yards, including a 76-yard plunge up the middle. Williams and Carrington then added 95 yards each. The Maroons were still learning, but they had aged a lot in a week.

Terry Fairbanks and Carl Punkay lead the team on to the field through an aisle of cheering Pepettes.

CHS 27 Mattoon 6

Champaign ended four years of frustration at Mattoon by belting the Green Wave in a game in which every back accounted for a TD. Jimmy Williams, who played brilliantly, accounted for 156 yards and one touchdown, including runs of 25, 25, 32, 24, and 20 yards. Mike Carrington picked up his TD by going 13 vards through a hole opened up by the line, big enough to drive a truck through. Johnny Eppler made his own hole, going over from the eight. To top off the scoring performance, quarterback Bill Hay pitched a 31-yard touchdown pass to end Terry Fairbanks and added three of four extra points. But in this game, as in the Lanphier game, defense was the key; and the Maroons, with the help of some vicious line play by Chuck Peabody, Jack Corum, Larry Moss, Carl Punkay, Rich Claussen and Fred Brown, held the Wave to only 110 yards rushing in 39 attempts. Once again the mistakes were there, although considerably less evident than before; but two more times Champaign's scoring drives were halted by penalties. All in all, the Mattoon game was a pleasing one; and it appeared as if the Maroons were starting to roll.

CHS 7 Danville Schlarman 15

As the gun sounded, a stunned Homecoming crowd of some 5,000 looked up at the scoreboard: there was no mistake; the score was Schlarman 15, Champaign 7. The CHS team, which had bounced back from an opening loss to Woodruff and had taken its next two games in surprisingly easy fashion, simply was not ready for the game. The mistakes, which played such a large part in their earlier defeat, were again a deciding factor. As coach Tom Stewart put it, "This team tonight made more mistakes than any team I've ever coached." However, the Maroons lost more than the game that night. Lining up on their 20 and trailing 13-7 late in the fourth quarter, Champaign lined up in what is known as the "shotgun spread," where everybody but the quarterback lines up on the line. The first time they tried the play there was a bad snap from center, and the ball went over Bill Hay's head into the end zone where he fell on it for a safety. But when the play finished, so was Hay; he sustained a back injury and was out for the season. In this game CHS regressed, rather than progressed.

CHS 14 Bloomington 20

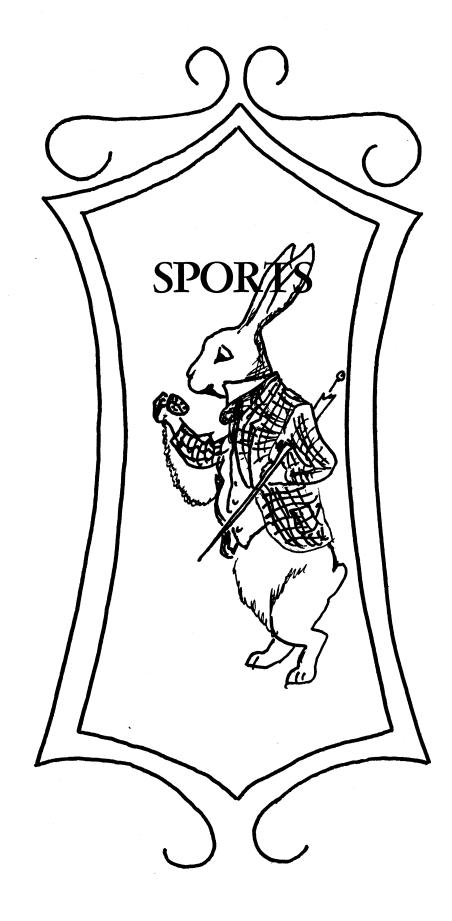

A powerful Bloomington team, en route to its first Conference championship in 14 years, literally pushed Champaign all over the field; but, due to the tremendous debut of sophomore Johnny Mulliken, who replaced Bill Hay, the Maroons were defeated by only 20-14. Mulliken, who passed for 191 yards and both TD's, was sorely needed, for CHS could make only 37 yards in 24 attempts on the ground against the powerful Raider line. The first score came as the Maroons, racing against the clock, scored on three plays. Two passes to Williams, who had just returned the punt for 34 yards, netted 37 more; and a third pass to back Mike Carrington resulted in the score with just 34 seconds remaining in the first half. Carrington, who kicking for the first time this season, added the first of two extra points. In the third period, trailing 20-7, the Maroons lined up in the shotgun spread which had had such disastrous results the week before; this time, however, the play worked to perfection as Mike Carrington took a pass from Mulliken and raced 67 yards down the sidelines for the Maroons' other tally. The game was an encouraging one, due chiefly to the debut of Mulliken, but the old mistakes were still there.

Mike "Swivelhips" Carrington fights through the Bloomington defense for a 67-yard touchdown play.

CHS Begins to Click; Are They Ready?

CHS 19 Stephen Decatur 32

Stephen Decatur, combining the dazzling speed of T. J. Jackson with the power of tackle-turned-fullback Jim Johnson, rolled over the Marrons 32-19. Until the fourth quarter, it appeared as if the two two teams were going to trade touchdowns all night. However, after Decatur scored its fourth touchdown, the Maroon drive sputtered on the Reds' 20; and Decatur controlled the ball for the rest of the game, adding the clincher touchdown with 17 seconds left. Again, Mulliken was brilliant in defeat, completing 7 out of 10 passes for 111 yards and a touchdown and adding 21 more yards on the ground. Mulliken's aid was not so direly needed as in the previous game, though, for Johnny Eppler regained some of his old form and accounted for 105 yards and a touchdown. It was apparent from this game that the Maroons' offense was clicking; but the defense, which had played such an important part in their wins earlier in the season, fell apart.

CHS 20 Galesburg 7

The Champaign Maroons, playing their finest game of the season, taught the Silver Streaks an important lesson—never look ahead. And they began the lesson immediately. On the first play from scrimmage against the third-ranked Streaks, Johnny Eppler powered up the middle behind a wedge of CHS blockers, slipped through the secondary, and went all the way for 57 yards and the score. Galesburg, still unbelieving, marched to the CHS 26 where, unable to move the ball, they were forced to give it up. Eppler and Williams took it out to the 48. Then Johnny Mulliken took the ball and rolled to his right—20 men followed him. The one who didn't, Mike Carrington, drifted off to the left. Suddenly, Mulliken whirled and threw him a strike, and he went 52 yards for the Maroons' second score. But in this game, something was present that had been virtually non-existent in the three previous defeats—defense, vicious and unrelenting. The vaunted Streak offense, led by lightning-fast Ira Robinson, managed to lose eight yards in 39 attempts against the rock that was Champaign's line. CHS defensive end, Rich Claussen, spent more time in the Galesburg backfield than Ira himself did. The game was over; and the Maroons, playing their best ball all year, had knocked Galesburg from the ranks of the undefeated. As coach Tom Stewart said later, "The Galesburg game is one these boys will remember for a long, long time."

CHS 31 Danville 0

The Danville game proved to be only a warmup for bigger things to come. Completely dominating every phase of the game, the Maroons virtually swept the Vikings off the field. They could do no wrong. As Tommy Stewart said afterwards, "We could have easily scored 50 points if we had wanted to." Again the defense was outstanding. In holding the Vikings to five yards rushing in 25 plays, the CHS defense, in the last 64 plays in which it participated, had actually gained three yards. The Maroons scored early on the second play of the game, as Rich Johnson, after kicking off came down field and recovered the Viking fumble. Two plays later, Mulliken hit Fairbanks in the end zone. The Maroons added three more TD's before the half and coasted the rest of the way, as the reserves played most of the second half. The season record had been evened at 4-4, and the Urbana game loomed at the difference between a winning and losing season.

They Are.

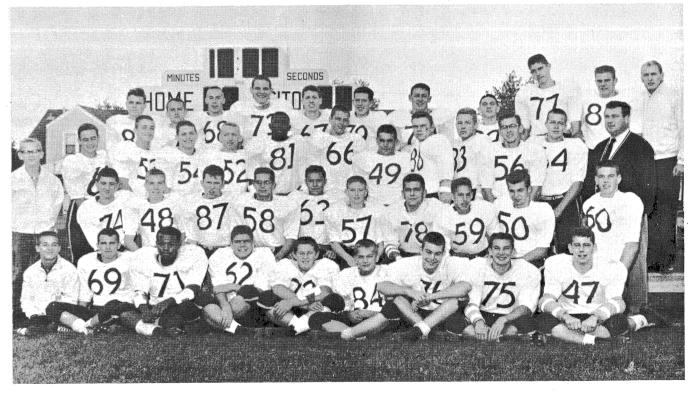

MAROONS TOPPLE TIGERS IN THRILLER

CHS 26 Urbana 20

Then came the big one, Urbana. The Maroons has an insignificant 4-4 record, although they had been impressive recently. The Tigers boasted a 7-1 mark and had one of their greatest teams ever. Everyone wondered: "Were the Maroons any match for Urbana? Would the Tigers push CHS off the field?" Eighteen seconds after the game began, they wondered no more. Jimmy Williams, competing in his last varsity football game for Champaign, picked up the opening game kick-off on the eight-yard line, faked to Mike Carrington, and followed some of the most vicious blocking ever seen at McKinley Field to the 50, where he broke into the clear, and left the rest of the field so far behind that it looked as if they had given him a head start. The Maroons relinquished their lead for only a short while and took a 13-7 lead into the lockerroom at halftime. They scored two more touchdowns in the third quarter to go in front 26-7 and then held on as a closing drive by the Tigers fell short. Although the score was high, the key to the game was defense. Early in the first quarter, the Tigers, leading 7-6, had a first down on the CHS two-yard line. Four times, the big Tiger fullback Bill Pritchett, behind the huge Urbana line, hurled himself at the goal. But he might as well have been running into the Rock of Gibraltar, for all the good it did either him or the Tigers. This, as both coaches agreed, was the turning point. Urbana was never again to pose a serious threat until late in the game, when again the Maroon defense held. The Urbana game is one that will be remembered as long as there are Urbana games. It was a thrilling one, a fitting way to close a fine season.

CROSS-COUNTRY 1961

The Champaign High School Cross-Country Team enjoyed unparalleled success this year. They rolled through their dual meet season undefeated, captured the Conference, District, and Peoria Invitational championships, and were 11th in the State. In spite of their poor finish, however, the Maroons had a fine season. Led by cocaptains Don Fuller and Jim Kearns, Champaign easily won every meet until the State. The team ran in a pack all season, and proof of this is the fact that every member of the team had been beaten by at least three other teammates. However, most of the year, Fuller led the team, individually winning eight of the nine dual meets and finishing second in the Peoria Invitational and the Conference. The Maroons were bolstered this year by the addition of two new men, Ron Pellum and Jim Terry. Pellum was a transfer from Urbana, and Terry had just never heard of cross-country before. Terry caught on quickly, however; in the state meet he was the first Champaign finisher. At the close of the season, Jim was elected team captain for next year. Another member of the pack was senior Steve Hatfield, who completed his third outstanding year on the team. Steve was fourth in the Conference meet; and in the District, where he took second, he was the first Champaign finisher. Rounding out the pack were two juniors, Bobby Randolph and Jimmy Cassells, who won their second varsity letter this year. They, along with Pellum and Terry, are expected to give Coach Harold Jester enough returning strength to successfully defend his Conference and District championships in 1962. At the completion of the season, Coach Jester awarded varsity letters to seniors Don Fuller, Steve Hatfield, and Jim Kearns; and to juniors Jim Terry, Bob Randolph, Ron Pellum, and Jim Cassells.

Coached by Lee Cabutti, the Champaign Maroons opened the season with no returning regulars. They were expected to be inexperienced, and they were; this was the cause of a number of defeats. However, inexperience was not the only reason for the poor season; the Maroons played some very stiff competition. An illustration of this would be the fact that ten of the Maroons' sixteen losses were at the hands of the state's "Sweet Sixteen," including two losses to State Champion Stephen Decatur.

But, the season must not be written off as a complete failure as, in places, the Maroons were simply brilliant. Two fine examples would be the Springfield and the Kankakee games. In both games they defeated fine, tall teams, displaying tenacious defense, tough rebounding, and pressure shooting. Another bright spot in the season was was the outstanding, although erratic, play of F. M. Walker, only a sophomore. To all who saw him in action, no proof of his jumping ability need be given. However, to those who did not see him, here is an example. In the second game against

During a time out in the game against Pontiac, Coach Cabutti gives advice to regulars Dave Brewer, Don Langhoff, Jim Cavanaugh, and John Mulliken, while manager Pete Mills looks on.

SENIOR LETTERMAN Dave Brewer was a regular throughout the season. His best performance came against Springfield when he scored 11 points and grabbed 13 rebounds.

Springfield in the state Armory, the Solons' 6'5" Bob Trumpy leaped high into the air for a jump shot. F. M., in an attempt to block the shot, fouled Trumpy. This is not so unusual, until the nature of the foul is revealed; F. M. actually kicked Trumpy in the stomach!

Other bright spots in the season were the fine play of two juniors, Don Langhoff and Jim Terry, and the ball handling of two sophomores, John Mulliken and Eddie Miller. Miller, however, was injured after only a few games with the varsity and saw very little action during the remainder of the season.

In the opening game of the season the Maroons downed Rantoul, 35-27, displaying some fine pressure free-throw shooting and tough defense, but their offense left something to be desired, as they could manage only six field goals. Jim Terry took game scoring honors with 11 points, nine of them coming on free throws.

The Maroons kept their season's record unblemished by taking a surprisingly easy victory over the tall Solons from Springfield. The Maroons' offense started to click, and their defense remained tough. In this game the Maroons revealed F. M. Walker, who swept both boards and was high man for the game with 16 points. The deciding factor in this game, however, was the outstanding play of Dave Brewer, the only senior letterman on the team. Dave added 11 points to the Maroons' total.

The Maroons traveled to Lincoln for their first road game of the season and came home with their third win. They outscored Lincoln 15-9 in the last quarter, breaking a third period deadlock.

Returning home, the Maroons picked up their fourth consecutive win against Danville the following night. Rebounding was the key to this victory, as Danville often was able to manage only one shot, and the tough CHS defense saw to it that their one shot was a hurried one.

The following week the Maroons traveled to Stephen Decatur, where they slowed down the Runnin' Reds a bit, but not quite enough, as they absorbed their first loss of the season, coming out of the short end of a 44-37 score.

The Maroons took a short rest for the holidays and then traveled to Centralia for the talent-laden Centralia Holiday Tournament. At Centralia, the Maroons lost two games by the bare minimum of one point. In their opening game, the Maroons dropped a one point decision to Marion, 48-47. With just two and a half minutes left in the game, CHS led 47-40. However, some clutch shooting by the Wildcats and some costly mistakes by the Maroons enabled Marion to come off with the win. The following day, an old nemesis, Pinckneyville, eliminated CHS from the tournament, taking a 59-58 decision.

Following the holidays, the Maroons traveled 200 miles across the state for a game with the Quincy Blue Devils. Due to the inclement weather, the Maroons were undecided as to whether or not they should go. They went, but by the time the game was over, they were quite certain that they had made a mistake. Quincy was sparked by the brilliant ball handling, feeding, and defense of Rich Rineberg, a true all stater and one who proved the truth of the sports axiom, "There is no 'I' in team." Coach Cabutti said that that was the finest team he had seen all year.

In the throes of a 4-game losing streak, all four defeats coming on the road, the weary Maroons returned home to face the crosstown Tigers. The Maroons lost 41-35 in on overtime, but the game was a disappointing one, indeed. Late in the third quarter. 1-point lead, but they could not withstand the Tigers'

The Maroons won their next game, the opener of the Champaign Invitational, by downing Kankakee, 51-44. The Kays played a fine game, but CHS could do no wrong. They shot .590, rebounded very well, and displayed the tenacious defense of which they were capable.

Three games in 24 hours were too much for the Maroons, as they dropped a 48-44 decision to John Thompson and the Pontiac Indians.

The following weekend, the Maroons traveled to Danville and saw the hope of victory roll, with the ball, around, and around and out. With one second remaining in the game, CHS had the ball out of bounds under its own basket. John Mulliken threw the ball high into the air, and F. M. Walker leaped up and, in one motion, caught it and tipped it towards the basket. For what seemed to be an eternity the ball rolled around the rim, then out. In this game, a fine performance by F.M. was overshadowed by the outstanding play of Danville's Edgar Dowell who scored 30 points and added 18 rebounds.

The next night, the Maroons suffered a letdown and lost to Decatur MacArthur, 64-56. The Generals' press rattled the Maroons into costly mistakes which MHS turned into baskets

Stephen Decatur's Runnin' Reds were held in check for one half, but in the third quarter they displayed the game which brought them the state championship, as they broke the game wide open with three fast-break baskets.

The Maroons traveled to Urbana and opened the game with one of the poorest first halves played by a Champaign team in recent history. In the second half, however, the Maroons showed some flashes of the brilliancy of which they were capable. In the late stages of the game, they had as much as a 5 point lead, only to see it dwindle to nothing, sending the game into an overtime. Again, it was Booth who killed the Maroons as he hit a 20-foot jump with just seconds remaining, giving the Tigers a one-point victory and their second win of the season over CHS.

The following night, the listless Maroons suffered a 60-48 setback at the hands of Pontiac's all-around ace, John Thompson and his friends.

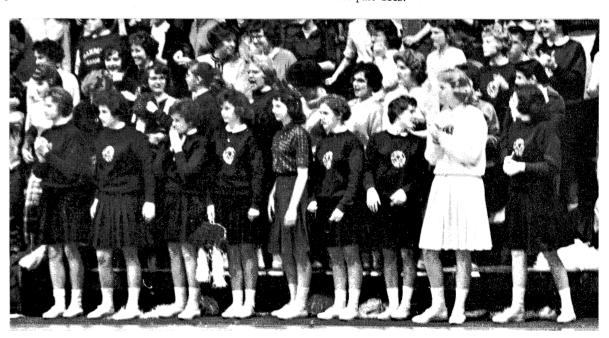

The Maroons closed their home season with a victory over Mattoon, winning a 49-46 thriller. This decision ended a six-game losing streak for CHS and gave them a successful home finale.

The Maroons then went to Bloomington and surprised the Raiders by the holding the ball, but costly mistakes in the second quarter proved the Maroons' downfall. Leading 12-5 at the first quarter, CHS threw the ball away 3 consecutive times, and on each occasion the Raiders scored. Despite errors, the Maroons came within 3 points of pulling the upset of the year.

A cold third quarter by CHS and the hot hand of Bob Trumpy cost the Maroons another defeat at the hands of Springfield. Trumpy hit six in a row from 20 feet, missed a layup, then made three in a row from the outside to the lead the Senators past CHS.

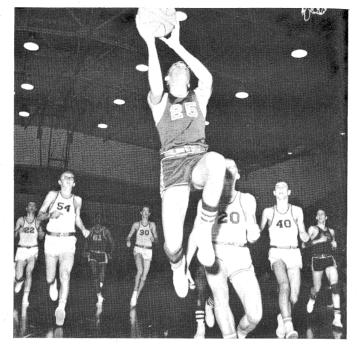

F. M. Walker scores two of his 18 points against Kankakee, as he leads the Maroons

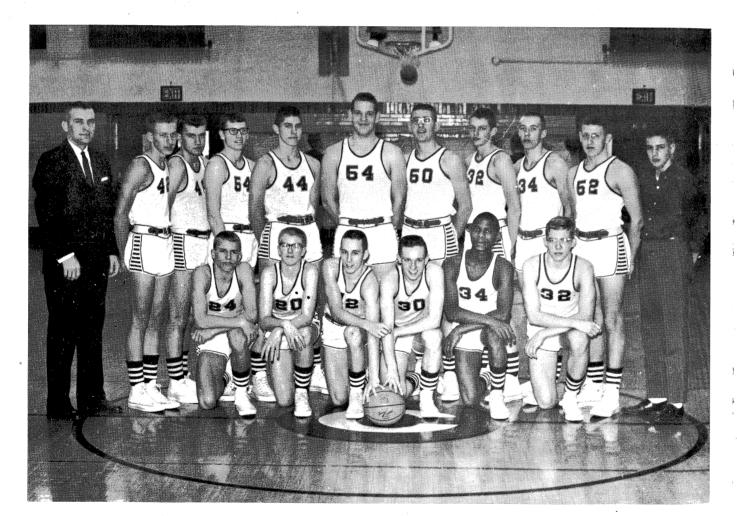

F. M. (see other page) is also holding the interest of the Pepettes and other fans at the 97th renewal of the cross-town classic.

The Maroons opened the regional tournament by easily defeating district winner Ellsworth in the first game, 58-34. The following night the Maroons dropped their third in a row to the Urbana Tigers. It snowed that afternoon.

The season, viewed statistically, must be written down as an unsuccessful one, but with only one member of the team graduating, senior Dave Brewer, it may provide the Maroons with the experience they need to be really great next year. Only time will tell.

On a steal in the Pontiac game, sophomore John Mulliken scores an easy layup while the Indians look on.

WRESTLING 1961-62

In the fall of this year, Coach Robert Mann welcomed eighty-seven boys out for wrestling, including lettermen and co-captains, Carl Punkay and Craig Burgess. Craig, unfortunately, was ill throughout most of the season and was never able to reach top physical condition. Not all of the boys stayed out the entire year, but the ones who did learned a great deal and represented Champaign High School well on the wrestling mats. The most consistently brilliant wrestlers on the team throughout the year were Gary Weise, Carl Punkay, Ron Heller, and Dave Pforr. These boys were outstanding all year long, and they paced the Maroons to both thrilling and lopsided victories. An example of a thriller would be the Pekin match, when Carl Punkay, Dan Grieser, and Henry Dixon, the last three wrestlers, all won their bouts and gave CHS a narrow one point decision over Pekin. This was the first time in five years that the Maroons had beaten Pekin. An example of the lopsided victories would be the meet when the Maroons swamped Stephen Decatur, 40-0, as every Maroon won his bout. Besides the previously mentioned boys, Maroons Ray Cummings, Dave Weise, Dwain Albrecht, Gary Darling and Wayne Miller helped CHS run up an 11-4 dual meet record and place second in the Conference and District meets. Next year, Coach Mann will welcome back returning lettermen Ray Cummings, Dave Weise, Dave Pforr, and Dan Grieser.

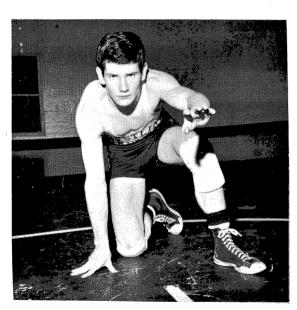

Coach Bobby Mann led the Maroon grapplers to an 11-4 dual meet record and second place finishes in the Big 12 and District meets.

One reason for the many wrestling lettermen is that the wrestlers have challenges before every meet. Here Steve Cosgrove is contesting Dave Weise's right to wrestle in the up-coming meet.

TANKMEN COP CONFERENCE CROWN

The CHS swimming team enjoyed its most successful season in recent campaigns as it lost only one dual meet and won the Big Twelve and Bloomington District Championships. Coach Tom Stewart gauged the tankers at just the right pace during the year as most boys reached their peak for the Conference meet. The fine record compiled is especially significant since the team was predominantly composed of underclassmen and supposedly lacked experience. Another fact that accents the tankers' success is that Champaign High School does not have a swimming pool; consequently, the boys were excused from fifth hour P.E. class four days a week in order to go to McKinley YMCA to work out.

Stewart led the swimmers through the training schedule with February 17, the day of the Big Twelve Championships, as a target date. Some of the team began weight lifting and limited swimming in September. Official practice, however, began in mid-November. Until Christmas vacation, workouts principally involved kicking, pulling, and work on stroke mechanics. During the lay-off for the holidays, the Maroons began intensive interval training which paid off at the end of the year.

The following boys saw the most action in meets: 400 free: Gary Sebring, Hiram Brownell; 50 free: Butch Haussermann, Tom Trigger; 100 butterfly: Vern Tock, Bill Berkson; 200 free: Bob Bachman, Dave Easterbrook; 100 back: French Fraker, Jay Smith; 100 breast: Pete Bates, John Younger; 100 free: Dave Florio, Larry Busch; diving: Van Miller, Bob Gibson; 200 individual medley: Smith, Bachman; 200 medley relay: Fraker, Bates, Tock, Haussermann; 200 free relay: Trigger, Busch, Easterbrook, Florio.

Depth and team balance were important factors in the tankers' success, providing good relay strength and enabling the Maroons to score in almost every event. Only once in dual meet competition did the Maroons fail to win both relays. CHS also won the medley and freestyle relays in the Big Twelve and District Meets.

Champaign opened its 1961-1962 swimming campaign in the Danville Vikings' pool with a 57-38 victory. Individual winners for the Maroons were Bob Bachman, 400 free (5:02.2); Dave Florio, 40 free (:19.3); Jay Smith, 100 butterfly (1:07.7); Gary Sebring, 200 free (2:19.2); French Fraker, 100 back (1:06.7); Pete Bates, 100 breast (1:11.0); the 160 medley relay of Fraker, Bates, Butch Haussermann, and Larry Busch (1:29.1); and the freestyle relay of Tom Trigger, Bob Bachman, Dave Easterbrook, and Florio (1:18.5).

The first Urbana meet provided the only loss of the year for the Champaign swimmers as the Maroons fell 61-34. The meet was far closer than the score indicates, however, as the CHS medley team won but was disqualified. Many races were also decided by less than a yard. Champaign winners were Dave Florio, 40 free; Vern Tock, 200 free; and Pete Bates, 100 breast.

The locals' first home meet of the season was against the defending Big Twelve Champions, Bloomington. The hosts captured all but three events as they ran up a 64-30 score. CHS firsts were Dave Florio, 40 free; Vern Tock, 100 butterfly; French Fraker, 100 back; Tom Trigger, 100 free; Van Miller, diving; Jay Smith, 160 individual medley; and the medley relay of Fraker, Bates, Tock, and Florio; and the freestyle relay of Larry Busch, John Inskip, Dave Easterbrook, and Tom Trigger.

The swimmers returned from some hard work during Christmas vacation to enter the Riverside-Brookfield Invitational. Perhaps the hard work plus a long bus trip and some strong suburban teams were too much for the Maroons. Pete Bates was the only qualifier for the Maroons as he took fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke.

Champaign was a poor host in its second seasonal meet with Danville as it ran up its most decisive victory of the year and the second highest score in CHS history by whipping the Vikings 68-27. Danville won only one event and that was by a small margin. Champaign firsts were Vern Tock, 400 free; Dave Florio, 40 free; Jay Smith, 100 butterfly and 160 individual medley; Bob Bachman, 200 free; French Fraker, 100 back; Pete Bates, 100 breast; Van Miller, diving; the 160 medley relay of Fraker, Bates, Tock, and Butch Haussermann; and the 160 free relay of Tom Trigger, Larry Busch, John Inskip, and Dave CHS traveled to the Peoria YMCA for a triangular meet with Peoria Central and Pekin. The Maroons scored 88 points to Pekin's 45 and Peoria's 38. Maroon winners were Vern Tock, 400 free; Butch Haussermann, 50 free; Bob Bachman, 200 free and 200 individual medley; French Fraker, 100 back; Pete Bates, 100 breast; Van Miller, diving; the medley relay of Fraker, Bates, Tock, and Haussermann; and the freestyle relay of Tom Trigger, Larry Busch, John Inskip and Dave Florio.

The Maroons gained revenge for their earlier loss to the Urbana Tigers and picked up momentum by drowning them 55.40 in the McKinley YMCA pool. As in the earlier Urbana dual meet, the meet was closer than the score indicates, for before the two relays, the last events of the meet, the Maroons led by only one point. However, they won both relays, widening the final margin to 15 points. The win also completed a two-year undefeated span for CHS in the "Y" pool. Champaign winners were Vern Tock, 400 free; Bob Bachman, 200 free; French Fraker, 100 back; Bete Pates, 100 breast; Dave Florio, 100 free; Jay Smith, 160 individual medley; the medley relay of Fraker, Bates, Tock, and Butch Haussermann; and the freestyle relay of Tom Trigger, Dave Easterbrook, John Inskip, and Dave Florio.

CHS traveled to meet a much improved Bloomington squad in the Raiders' 25-yard pool and emerged the victor by a 57-38 count. Champaign firsts were Butch Haussermann, 50 free; Vern Tock, 100 butterfly; Bob Bachman, 200 free; Jay Smith, 100 back and 200 individual medley; Pete Bates, 100 breast; the medley relay of French Fraker, Bates, Tock, and Haussermann; and the freestyle relay of Tom Trigger, John Inskip, Dave Easterbrook, and Dave Florio.

The Maroons tuned up for the Big 12 with a 61-34 victory over Normal University High School at Normal. CHS winners were Gary Sebring, 400 free; Jay Smith, 100 back; Pete Bates, 100 breast; Dave Florio, 100 free; Van Miller, diving; and the free relay of Larry Busch, John Younger, John Inskip, and Pete Bates displays the start which enabled him to break the existing conference and district records in the 100 yard breast stroke.

By placing in the top two positions in their events, these boys qualified to go to the state finals held at Evanston. On the board are Tom Trigger, Bob Bachman, Pete Bates, Dave Florio, Dave Easterbrook, and Alan Haussermann; in back, Vern Tock and French Fraker.

The Maroon tankers reached their peak as they won the Big Twelve championships in Huff Gym pool. CHS scored 93 points in gaining the victory as compared with 74 for second place Urbana, 56 for Bloomington, 37 for Danville, and 22 for Springfield. Team depth was the key for Champaign as they won only three individual events. This time, however, the score did indicate the nearness of the meet, as the Maroons jumped out to an early lead and were never even remotely threatened. CHS winners were Bob Bachman, 200 free; Jay Smith, 100 back; Pete Bates, 100 breast (1:09.0 for a new record); the medley relay of French Fraker, Bates, Vern Tock, and Butch Haussermann (1:51.3 for a new record); and the freestyle relay of Tom Trigger, Larry Busch, Dave Easterbrook, and Dave Florio (1:38.4, a new record).

Champaign copped the Bloomington District Title with 73 points to 44 for second place Bloomington. Once again the Maroons accentuated their superiority over all competition, including that of their crosstown rivals, as they scored nearly 30 points more than the runner-up, the Raiders. Pete Bates won the 100 breast in 1:09.8. Both relays won with the medley relay going 1:51.3 for a new record and the freestyle doing 1:38.3 for another record. French Fraker, Bates, Vern Tock, and Butch Haussermann swam on the medley while Tom Trigger, Larry Busch, Dave Easterbrook, and Dave Florio composed the freestyle team.

No Maroons qualified against the tough surburban area competition at the state meet. Competing for CHS were Pete Bates, 100 breast, medley relay; Bob Bachman, 200 free; Vern Tock. 100 butterfly, medley relay; Tom Trigger, Larry Busch, Dave Easterbrook, and Dave Florio, freestyle relay.

TRACK 1961

Coach Harold Jester considered the 1961 Maroons his finest. Captained by Allen Hart, they were never lower than fourth in their seven big meets; only in the state meet did the Maroons drop below fourth. To open the season for the Maroons, several of them traveled to Oak Park for the Oak Park Invitational, traditionally the last meet of the indoor season for the Chicago and Suburban schools. Here the Maroons placed third in Class B competition, as the eight lap relay, indoor equivalent of the mile relay, set a relay record in Class B competition.

The cindermen's first outdoor meet of the season, the Decatur Open, was won by Champaign in the mile relay, the last event of the meet. The Maroons raced home first and took the team title by only 2/3 of a point. In this meet Terry Fairbanks and Steve Hatfield accounted for the Maroons' only individual first, taking them in the high hurdles and the mile run, respectively.

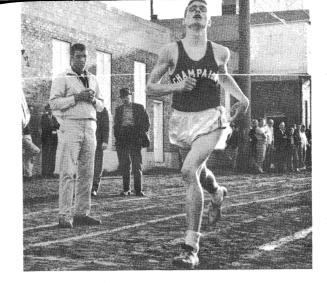

In their first dual meet of the season, the mile relay again was the deciding factor. The Maroons went into the final event trailing Danville by three points; but once more the quartet of A. C. Gordon, Dennis Bekemeyer, Allen Hart, and Jim Kearns "brought home the bacon," assuring Champaign of a narrow two-point victory. Champaign had two double winners in Don Fuller, who won the 880 and the mile, and in Terry Fairbanks, who won both hurdle events.

In the Maroons' next two big meets, the Normal Relays and French Fraker (left) and Bob Evans, on their way to a one-two sweep in a heat of the low hurdles.

Don Fuller, Conference and District Mile Champion, will be returning this year to defend his titles and to shoot for a new school record.

Captain-elect Terry Fairbanks, in the last of his many memorable duels with Tiger Bob Hubbard, eclipsed the old school and Big 12 records by winning the 120-yard high hurdles in :14.7.

TRACKMEN BRING HOME BIG 12 CONFERENCE TITLE

the Shelbyville Open, Champaign took second and third respectively; and it was depth which turned the trick. At Normal the Maroons had only one first place, as the foursome of Steve Hatfield, Don Fuller, Jim Kearns and Bob Randolph combined to take the two mile relay; and at Shelbyville, the Maroons failed to win a single event.

At the District meet it was again depth which brought Champaign its second place finish, for miler Don Fuller was the Maroons' lone gold medal winner.

Then came the Conference, the last meet of the season. The Tigers were overwhelming favorites, and why not? After all, hadn't they defeated Champaign handily all five times that the two teams had faced each other during the season? Everyone picked them to win; the Tigers themselves were sure, so sure—in fact—that they printed in their yearbook that they had won the title, even before the meet took place. The newspapers were sure: one of the local writers even went so far as to predict that the Urbana supermen would break seven Big 12 records and score the largest point total in the history of the meet. The form chart was sure, for it listed the Tigers as 20 point favorites over their nearest rival, Champaign.

But evidently the Maroons read neither the form chart nor the newspapers, for they ran just as if they expected to win. A. C. Gordon took second in the 100 yard dash, defeating Tiger Mike Stoner for the first time all spring. Terry Fairbanks upset defending champ Bob Hubbard in the high hurdles, and miler Don Fuller gave defending champ Dial, a Tiger and teammate of Hubbard's, the same shabby treatment. Roger Capan, competing in his first big meet all spring, took second in the discus. No one seemed to realize what was happening until only the mile relay remained, and the score was announced: "Champaign 43½, Urbana 42½."

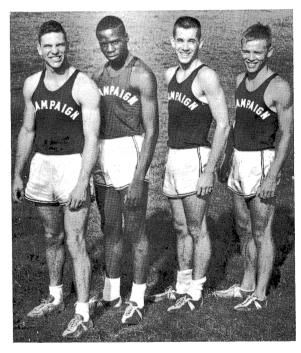

Urbana, however, was fairly certain of a tie, for the Tiger mile relay had beaten their Champaign counterparts no less than five times during the spring. But three of the Maroons, A. C. Gordon, Dennis Bekemeyer, and Allen Hart, were competing in the last meet of their high school careers and were determined to win. The three of them teamed with junior Jim Kearns to defeat the Tigers, posting a school and Conference record of 3:27.5 and winning the Conference trophy.

Harold Jester coached the Maroon cindermen to their sixth Conference Track Championship during his eighteen years as head coach, a record unsurpassed in the Big Twelve.

Golf lettermen: Rick Lynch, Joe Vangsness, Tom Trigger, Mike Braun, Golder Wilson. Missing was Norris Dahlstrom.

With only one regular returning from the 1960 team, Coach Macek's linksmen experienced a rebuilding year, winning only one of six dual meets. However, one bright spot in the otherwise dismal season was the outstanding play of Captain Joe Vangsness. Joe, the only member of the team with any experience at all, paced the Maroon linksmen all spring. During the season, Joe had several high spots; his top performance was in the twenty-three team Quincy Invitational, where Joe placed third individually, just one stroke behind second, and two behind first. The Maroons took tenth as a team.

Another outstanding performance was turned in by Joe in the four-way meet with New Trier, Quincy, and Joliet; all three of these schools were state powers in golf. Joe was medalist in this one with a seventy-four. Other members of the Maroons were Rick Lynch, who was a junior and second man all year. Golder Wilson, a junior who was a regular, will be lost to the Maroons next year, as he has moved to England. A third junior is Norris Dahlstrom; Norris is also expected to help out next year.

Rounding out the lettermen were two sophomores, Tom Trigger and Mike Braun. The two of them, along with Rick and Norris, give Coach Macek four returning lettermen for next spring. In addition, a fine group of sophomores should give "Big John" the material necessary to build a winning team.

TENNIS 1961

The Maroon netmen, led by Captain Phil Haugaard, were able to win only one dual meet, due chiefly to the fact that they faced some of the toughest competition in the state. The Maroons incurred five of their seven dual meet losses in competition with three of the top ten teams in the state. Five of Captain Haugaard's individual losses were received from three of the four semi-finalists in the state singles championships.

However, in the Conference the Maroons, paced by the doubles teams of Phil Haugaard and Ron Moyer, who reached the semi-finals, and Bill Miller and Bill Thompson, who reached the quarter-finals, were a surprise fourth. who reached the quarter-finals, were a surprise fourth. Phil Haugaard was first man throughout the season for the Maroons, and he was followed by the ambidextrous Ron Moyer, a junior who is Captain-elect. Ron, who is naturally left-handed, injured his left arm and, while it was in a cast, learned to play right-handed.

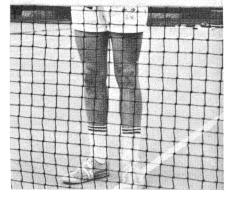

Three seniors, Bill Thompson, Bill Miller and Van Brahana, are graduating and will be lost, but next year's net men will not be lacking in experience. Two juniors

They Had The Pitching...

Rich Callaghan was one of the team's leading pitchers, with a 10-3 record and a no-hitter to his credit.

The 1961 Champaign Baseball Team was coached by Charles Due to their finest record during his stay here, compiling nineteen wins against only four losses. The Maroons opened the season against Clinton and opened it successfully, defeating their rival Maroons, 6-4, behind Rich Callaghan. Two days later, Champaign's other ace, Phil Wilson, took the measure of Villa Grove, shutting them out 12-0. The Maroons then traveled to Springfield where they split a double-header with Feitshans, losing their first game of the season, 8-7.

The Maroons, after trouncing Buckley, lost the first conference game of the season to Mattoon, 5-1. It was the first Conference loss of the season; it was also the last. The Maroons came back to take the second game of the Mattoon double-header, then followed up with wins over Eisenhower, Lincoln, two wins over Danville, and Villa Grove. They then split two with Peoria Central, tied Stephen Decatur in 16 innings, defeated Gilman, and went into the final game of the season leading the Bloomington Raiders by a slim half-game margin.

Bloomington was in town for a doulbe-header and needed to win both games to overtake the Maroons. Both teams were pitching their aces; Bloomington was going with Bobby Spahn, and Charlie Due was resting his hopes on the strong arm of Rich Callaghan. As the game was played at McKinley Field, Bloomington led off. In the top of the first, Callaghan retired the first three Raiders with little difficulty, and the many fans settled down to watch some good, solid baseball.

But the Champaign baseball team had other ideas. They literally took Spahn apart. When he departed it was the bottom of the first; the bases were loaded; there was no one out; and Champaign had pushed across seven runs, putting both the game and the title out of Bloomington's reach. As the game was called after five innings according to the ten run rule, with the score 12-2, Callaghan had only warmed up, so he pitched the second game in addition. The Bloomington pitchers were more generous in the second game, giving up 13 runs, but "The Rock" wasn't. He not only did not give up any runs, but he shut the Raiders out without a hit. When the afternoon's work was finished, the Maroons had accomplished what no Champaign baseball team had been able to do for 21 years.

Then the Maroons moved into state play. They swept through the regional, beating Danville for the third time during the season, 12-2, and squeaking by Paris, 4-3.

They Had The Hitting...

George Peterson, who moved to Champaign only this year with his brother Mike, hit .447 for the season. Mike hit .338.

Coach Charles Due led the Maroon diamondmen to their first Big 12 title in 21 years.

Then came the sectional. In another "squeaker," CHS defeated Octavia 3-2. In the final game of the sectional, Champaign closed out its season, bowing to Eisenhower, 1-0, as Rich Callaghan was handed his third loss of the season to go with 10 wins.

But if Callaghan was the leader on the mound, Val Bush was even more so at the plate. Val led the Maroons in almost every department: he was the leading hitter with a 454 average. He had the most hits, 59; the most doubles, 8; the most home runs, 2; and the most stolen bases, 26. In two departments, triples and runs batted in, Val yielded to Callaghan. In addition to his offensive leadership, Val led the team on defense, combining with shortstop Phil Wilson to form the best keystone combination Champaign has had for quite a few years.

As a team, the Maroons had a phenomenal .335 batting average for the season, as compared to a miserable .151 for the combined opposition's average. On offense, the Maroons did not merely rely on hitting; as their 98 stolen bases would indicate, they ran and ran well. At the season's end, Coach Due bade a fond farewell to seniors Val Bush, Rich Callaghan, and Phil Wilson, all of whom had been with him for three of his four years here. Bush's contributions have already been enumerated; and Callaghan and Wilson, who both hit well over .300, combined to pitch 16 of Champaign's 19 victories. Also departing were the Peterson twins, George and Mike, who were regulars all year and two of the team's leading hitters. Although his pitching staff was depleted by graduation, Coach Due is expecting help from seniors Chuck Peabody and Carl Punkay, and from transfer Larry Bundy.

At the season's end, varsity letters were awarded to seniors Val Bush, Phil Wilson, Rich Callaghan, George Peterson, and Mike Peterson; juniors Larry Mennenga, Bob Waller, Carl Punkay, and Barry Moore; sophomores Fred Klemm and Don Langhoff; and Manager John Welch.

The coaches, with the trophies which they and the boys on the various athletic teams won, are Mr. Robert Mann, Mr. Wes Davis, Mr. Lee Cabutti, Mr. Charles Due, Mr. Fred Attebury, Mr. Richard Wooley, Mr. Harold Jester, Mr. John Macek, Mr. Tom Stewart, and Athletic Director Roy Swindell.

A SUCCESSFUL SEASON IN SPORTS

The Champaign High School sports program has been a very successful one, as can be seen by the trophies represented in the picture above. Under the guidance of the coaches pictured, the Maroons won four Conference titles and one second-place finish in nine sports and compiled a 63-45 dual meet record in all competition. The most successful sports were Tom Stewart's swimmers and Harold Jester's harriers, who captured firsts in both Conference and District meets. Close seconds were Mr. Jester's trackmen and Charlie Due's baseball players, who both won Conference titles and finished second in the district meets.
