Hi!

My name's Igy. I was born in June of 1957 to represent the International Geophysical Year, that big science project you've been hearing about. Until December of 1958, I'll be helping scientists from eighty nations on, oh, ever-so-many problems about this world, the atmosphere, and even the universe. Of course, my very special interest is in the stars. If you've peeked ahead, you may have noticed that I've sprinkled my very favorite stars throughout this book.

... And now, if you'll hop on my cloud, we'll float back through the shining reveries of '57-'58.

Dedication

Because he makes Beowulf, Macbeth, and all the other characters of English literature so real . . . because he teaches us with questions and stimulating discussions . . . because he devotes so much time and effort to our school newspaper, the Echo . . . because he smiles and speaks each day outside his classroom door . . . and, most of all, because he takes a personal interest in us, each and every one . . . we are proud to dedicate the 1958 ROSEMARY to Mr. Stanley Hynes.

To the Senior Class of 1958:

As you completed your last year in Urbana High School, man-made satellites whirled in space. You will complete your education and live out your adult lives in a new age—the Age of Space. Man's knowledge will be extended in all fields. In all of this you will share, make a contribution, and bear part of the responsibility. To say the least, your lives should prove interesting and stimulating.

Good wishes go to you, members of the Class of the 1958 Geophysical Year.

Seniors of 1958:

The year 1958 is a year of challenge because of wonderful and fearful advances in science. The year 1958 will be remembered as the year the free world was awakened from its complacency and lethargy by Soviet success in launching the first Earth satellites.

In 1958, youth as a whole continued to be blamed and berated for the sins of the few. Those of us who have dealt with young people for many years feel that most of them are growing in maturity and judgment. The seniors of 1958 exemplify the youth who are serious and intelligent, yet have the sparkle and humor characteristic of the young. I am confident that you will meet the challenge of the future.

May you deserve and be rewarded by all of the good things in life.

RAY H. BRAUN
Principal

Stars of the First Magnitude

After campaigning in the fall by one party, the "Five-Eights," and an independent, these senior boys began their duties as class officers: President, Jerry Canaday; Vice-President, Chuck Beaird; Secretary, Karl Smith; Treasurer, Steve Thomas; Publicity Chairman, Ted Lowry.

In the homecoming parade, the senior float displayed the theme, "Ride On to Victory," and a huge tiger whose reins were held by the lovely queen, Sandra Schwab. High light of the football season was the night Urbana trampled C.H.S. in a 19-0 victory!

Later in the year the senior boys on the basketball team fought like true Tigers, earning for U.H.S. the title of champions of the Regional Tournament. The seniors were also proud of those who helped place the U.H.S. cross-country team fourth in the state, and of those five members of the wrestling team who went to the state finals at Arlington Heights. Many seniors won honors for their class and for the school at music and speech contests.

When the spring activities came into view, the seniors suddenly realized that the year was almost over and that they would soon be leaving Urbana High. When they attended Baccalaureate, enjoyed Senior Skip Day, danced at the Prom, and finally walked across the stage to receive their diplomas, it was with a little sadness. They were grateful to their patient teachers, coaches, deans and principal for guiding them through their four years of high school.

Now the seniors are ready to face the future and to accept new challenges with enthusiasm. To the future seniors of U.H.S., the class of '58 wishes many, many happy memories.

Underclassmen

Look to the stars and to your future.

Class Officers: Sally Frye, Bob Hatch, Deena Bender, Terry Shull, Charlotte Nesmith

Stars of the Second Magnitude

The dreams of the class of '59 to be uuperclassmen were finally fulfilled in a year that will long be remembered.

Feeling sophisticated as upperclassmen, the juniors could be seen proudly displaying their shiny gold class rings.

Faced with a great deal of hard work ahead, the juniors had two parties that vied for the election of class offices. After successful campaigning, capable officers elected on a split ticket were Bob Hatch, President; Terry Shull, Vice-President; Sally Frye, Secretary; Charlotte Nesmith, Treasurer; and Deena Bender, Publicity Chairman.

Being able to choose a wider variety of elective courses, some juniors specialized in commercial studies, while others earned money by working part time in D.O. Class discussions turned from the three-dimension polygons in solid geometry to the amendments of the Constitution in civics. Every junior who studied English literature will never forget Macbeth and the weird sisters of Shakespeare, nor the ethereal poetry of Wordsworth and Shelley.

The junior class exhibited musical and dramatic abilities as members won high ratings in both district and state contests. Many juniors held offices in clubs, and the junior boys participating in sports fought hard, showing great promises for their senior year at U.H.S.

Working hard to earn money for the Prom, the juniors had no trouble in selling their delicious home-made candy during the noon hours. The junior class sponsor, Mr. Stanley Hynes, who was a big help with the Prom, was also responsible for a large sum of money, $150 to be exact, the price for which his angel food cake sold in the all-school auction. Proceeds from the auction went toward another very special and new project, the foreign exchange student.

Stars of the Third Magnitude

As the class of '60 completed their second year at U.H.S., the members could be proud of many achievements.

Showing a desire for efficient class officers, three sophomore parties ran candidates in the election—the "Five Pennies", the "Mountaineers", and the "Line-Ups." After the ballots were counted, President, Chris Hastings; Vice-President, Vicki Barth; Secretary, Sally Hopson; Treasurer, Larry Edwards; and Publicity Chairman, Jan St. Clair, composed the winning party.

The theme, "Oct a push-em-over," captured first prize in the float contest of the homecoming parade. When the cast for the winter play had been selected, the sophomores boasted parts portrayed by three members of their class.

One highlight of the year for many sophomores was learning to drive under the capable instruction of Mr. Oscar Adams. Some worked diligently on the staff of the school newspaper, the ECHO, while others earned membership in the girls honorary swimming club, Terrapin. In addition, many sophomore students became members of Lambda, scholastic honorary.

With memories of a very successful sophomore year, the class of '60 looks forward to an even more challenging one as they become upperclassmen.

Stars of the Fourth Magnitude

Losing books, forgetting locker combinations, and wandering through the halls in bewilderment were all signs of the freshmen as they became acquainted with U.H.S.

Although green in many ways, the freshmen displayed clever campaign slogans and buttons as the elections of class officers rolled around. Results of vigorous campaigning by the two parties, the "Pollylops" and the "Zestettes," were: Dwight Powell, President; Doris Lynam, Vice-President; Betsy Lyman, Secretary; Joanne Myers, Treasurer; and Andy Smith, Publicity Chairman.

Those who passed through the U.H.S. corridors during the school year could well have heard shrieks coming from the biology room as freshmen studied the innermost parts of an earthworm. If anyone had poked his head into the English rooms, he would have seen baffled faces as the freshmen were introduced to Odysseus, the Cyclops, and Polyphemus. Finding the unknown, "x," and translating "Puellae est bonae" or "Como esta usted?" were other new challenges for the freshmen.

The largest class of Urbana High School, the freshmen were well-represented in clubs and sports, and many were initiated into Alpha, the freshman scholastic honorary.

Rosemary

Editors

"There's Rosemary . . .

Early in the summer of 1957, the staff began to plan the '58 Rosemary. Since the International Geophysical Year would be from June, 1957, to December, 1958, the editors decided to base the theme of the yearbook on this timely subject. Soon Igy, a very special, petite angel, was created to guide the staff in their plans for the Rosemary, and to help students recall memories of '57-'58.

As the year sped along, division editors, headed by Susie Mitchell, Editor-in-Chief, became acquainted with such terms as "bleeding" and "mortising," while staff artist, Camille Flores, created clever poses and expressions for Igy. Wilmer, the patient photographer, took many pictures of home-rooms, classes, and activities.

That's for Remembrance."—Shakespeare

Meanwhile, ad staff members and tryouts busily sought ads from business and professional men to provide a major source of income for the Rosemary. For the first time, ad staff members also wrote articles for the Activities Section. These articles passed through many hands as they were first proofread by the division editors, and then by Literary Editor, Dorothy Hubbard.

As deadlines neared, the typists could be found in the Rosemary room almost every night, typing and retyping articles and identifications. At last, the work was finished. On Class Night, May 28, the first 1958 Rosemarys were presented to school principal, Mr. Braun, and to Mr. Hynes. Staff members received their annuals at an informal party on May 27, and the rest of the students received theirs after school on May 29.

All was not work for the Rosemary staff. As in past years, they sponsored a cloakroom at all home basketball games. In the spring the new staff treated this year's staff to a picnic. Highlight of the year was planning the crowning of Miss Rosemary of 1958, Laurel Hovde, and the presenting of her court at the Christmas Dance, "Mistletoe Magic."

Echo

This year Echo editors and reporters combined efforts to publish a newspaper that was pleasing to the student body and also merited a high rating from Quill and Scroll. A bi-weekly publication, the Echo was delivered to subscribers' lockers on Wednesdays. Copies were also sold for ten cents during both lunch hours on "Echo days."

Students noticed many changes in their newspaper this year. More pictures were printed, especially in the advertisements, to add interest to the layouts. Senior pictures, instead of snapshots, were used in "Senior Celebrities" articles. Also appearing on the feature page were clever literary items, such as original poems and short stories. Another change was the introduction of "Club Corner" for brief accounts on school club activities. In addition to school athletic events, extramural sports, such as hot-rodding and speed skating, were covered on the sports page.

Quill and Scroll

This year twelve new members were chosen to join four past members of Quill and Scroll, national journalism honorary for high school students. Composed of juniors and seniors, the society requires that the members do outstanding work on either the "Rosemary" or on the "Echo," rank in the upper half of their class, and be approved by the local and national Quill and Scroll board. At the spring awards assembly, initiates were presented with membership cards and pins.

Student Council

The student lounge was opened by the council, serving as a place where students could relax, talk, and dance to the music of the jukebox. New lounge furniture, for which donations were made by the past graduating classes, was also purchased by the council.

Development of a Code of Ethics aroused much discussion among the student council representatives and the student body. Interested students worked hard to write a code that would express the ideals of Urbana High School and that would serve as a guide to good conduct.

The highlight of the student council year was the adoption of the foreign exchange student program by the student body. Under student council leadership, students responded enthusiastically, 95% voting to sponsor the program. This resulted in a vigorous campaign to raise the needed money. At an all-school auction, students made bids for such items as fried chicken, a certificate for a driving lesson and two cakes baked by two men on the faculty. A volleyball game between nine faculty men and nine senior boys netted more profits for the project. Two bake sales, a dance, and a car wash carried the fund raising campaign to a successful finish.

Delta Sigma, the larger of the combined clubs, is open to any student who has shown his interest in dramatics by earning five points. These points may be earned by acting in a play, serving on committees, or participating in speech contests. Thespians is the national dramatics honorary, limited to those students who have earned a minimum of twelve points.

The UHS entries won sweepstakes at District, and Barbara Hermling, Roger Ebert, and John Garland went to State Contest after winning first at sectional. David Stiers was chosen for the All-State play cast.

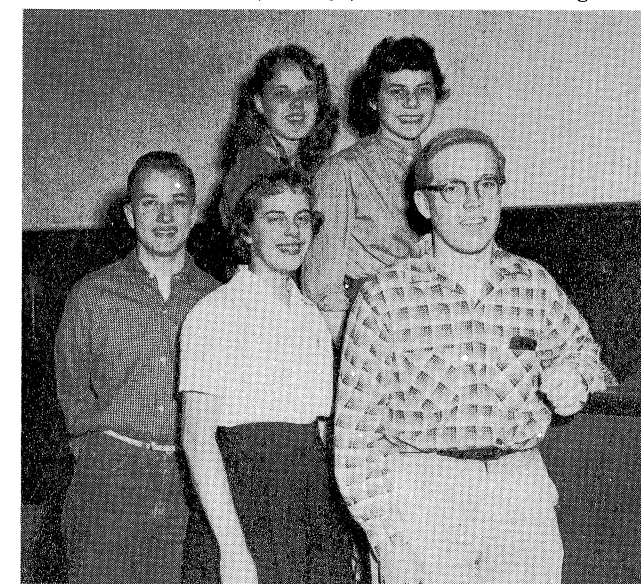

"Angel Street," a dramatic Victorian mystery, was the spring play. Cast included David Stiers as Mr. Manningham, Sharry Simerl as Mrs. Manningham, Vicki Le Grande as Nancy, Barbara Hermling as Elizabeth, Chris Hastings as Rough, with Mark Anderson and Larry Petty as the two policemen.

Years Ago

It is the story of a stage-struck teenager who longs to be an actress. Although her father, a cantankerous ex-sailor, wants Ruth to be a physical culture instructor, she is convinced that her life will be ruined unless she can go on the stage.

Overjoyed by a telegram requesting her to appear at a theatre in Boston for a possible job, Ruth is faced with the problem of revealing her ambition to her stern father. Eventually Ruth persuades her father to finance part of her tuition. All goes well until her father loses his job. Through a poignant personal sacrifice of a treasured telescope, he makes it possible for Ruth to follow her ambition.

Library Club

The purpose of the Library Club is to promote an interest in students to make the fullest possible use of the library facilities and to provide an opportunity for those interested in the library science profession to become acquainted with the work. Besides assisting the students and teachers in obtaining library materials, the members operate visual aid equipment.

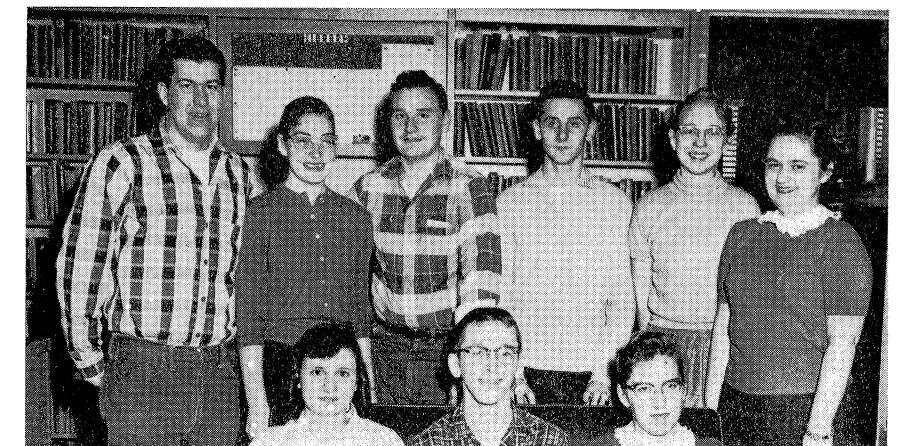

Activities of the club began in the fall with representatives attending the regional meeting, SLECI. On February 20, the formal initiation brought twenty-four new members into the club. Other events held during the year were a splash party, a Christmas party, and a Senior Farewell and Awards program. On May 17, delegates from the club attended ISLA, the state organization of library clubs, at the University of Illinois. To complete the year, the club enjoyed the annual trip to Turkey Run. To pay for their many social activities, club members sponsored a paper drive in November and a bake sale in May.

One of these held on March 10 was a Roman banquet with authentic Roman food. Costumes were worn by the members, portraying ancient characters, gods and goddesses. To climax the evening, a play, Cupid and Psyche, was presented by a group of Latin Club members. One member, Sophomore Anne Creamer placed first in the Sectional Latin Contest.

French Club

Early in the fall new members were initiated into Phi Kappa Kappa, UHS French Club, in a candle lighting ceremony. Under Mrs. Link's sponsorship, the club began selling orange and black pencils with the basketball schedule printed on them. Highlighting French Club activities was the annual costume banquet held in March. Eiffel towers, glittering stars and moons created the atmosphere for "Under Paris Skies," the banquet theme. At different meetings throughout the year the French Club members were entertained with slides from France and numerous talks from "lucky" travelers. The year's activities ended with a picnic in May.

Spanish Club

Opening the year for "El Pasatiempo" was a Treasure Hunt, with a picnic following at Crystal Lake Park. Later in the year, the formal initiation of new members was held. The program featured a pot-luck, slides on Bolivia, and the traditional breaking of the "piñata". Dr. Palacios, a native of Bolivia, and his family were special guests.

Another high light for the club was a dessert party held at the home of the president. After the party, members attended a play, "La Zaragueta," in which Señor Hernandez, the Spanish student teacher for this year, and Stella Wylie, a former Spanish club member, played important roles.

Science Fiction Club

Officers

Roger Ebert, Vice-President; Claire Booth, President; Cathy Lanier, Secretary; John Kratz, Treasurer; Absent Carolyn Sands, Lib-Historian.

The Science Fiction Club is composed of students with a mutual interest in science-fiction, who get together to discuss the implications and meanings of science-fiction literature. The objectives of the club are to get more people interested in science-fiction, and to show that science-fiction is a serious form of writing.

This year, besides helping to pay for the group picture of the club members in the Rosemary, the dues were used to start a science-fiction library.

During the meetings, the club discussed different phases of science-fiction, read stories, voted on an emblem, and adopted a constitution. Money-making projects included selling refreshments at the Christmas Dance and presenting the film, "This Island Earth," to all students who purchased tickets.

Mr. Hynes and Mr. Miller co-sponsored the activities of the club during 1957-58.

Terrapin

Officers

Betsy Wallace, Secretary; Sheila Morris, Vice-President; Julie McKnelly, President; Camille Kearns, Treasurer.

This year Terrapin, girls' swimming honorary, chose six new girls as "little dippers" for their ability to perform the required stunts and strokes, their personalities, and their gracefulness.

The theme for the annual Water Ballet Show was centered around an African Safari. Each number, written and directed by the members, depicted some of the animals which the audience viewed on its trip into "Darkest Africa." Costumes for the monkeys, zebras, giraffes and the other animals were also designed by members, and new equipment, including two under-water speakers, was bought.

Four performances of the 1958 Terrapin Show were held, each ending in a Tiger finale and the traditional "T" for Terrapin.

At the close of the year the annual banquet was held, at which the officers for 1958-1959 were introduced by this year's sponsor, Mrs. Carol Johnson. Each new initiate was presented with a cloth turtle. For the first time, Terrapin members also received pins—small silver Jantzen insignia with the member's graduating year attached by a chain.

Orchesis, a newcomer in the list of Urbana High clubs, held try-outs in the fall to select members. Anyone, except those girls in Terrapin, was allowed to try-out. Of the large group who auditioned, twenty-four were selected for their poise, grace, sense of rhythm, and creative dance ability.

To raise money for their new club, the girls held a bake sale. Proceeds were used to pay for their pictures in the Rosemary, to buy records and costumes, and to keep in a reserve fund.

Several Orchesis members performed in the P.T.A. Talent Show in the fall. For the Spring Music Festival, held in May, the club danced to "Bali' Hai" and to "Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child."

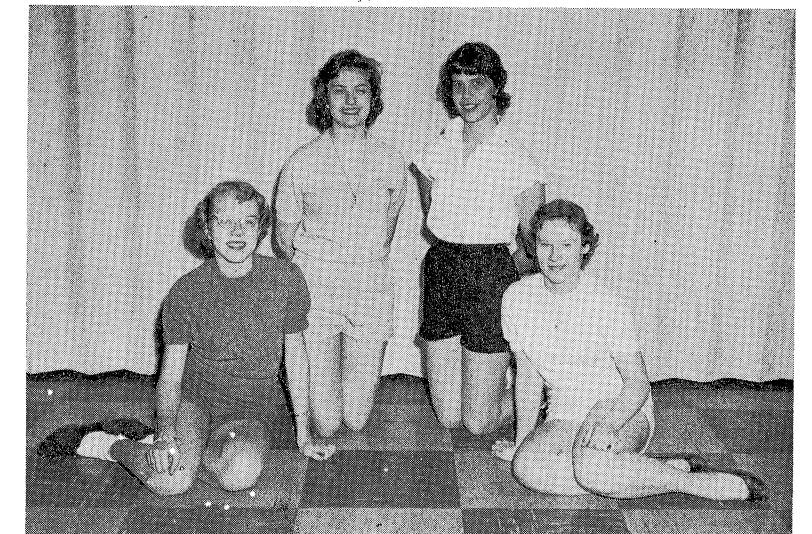

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Johnson, the new organization created an interest in modern dance and will continue to further this interest at Urbana High School.

The Urbana Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America started the year with the honor of acting as hostess to the Section 16 F.H.A. Rally. Six hundred F.H.A. members attended this rally, at which Bonita Waechter was elected section president.

Last August the F.H.A. members held a tea for all the freshmen who were enrolled in homemaking classes. This gave the freshmen an opportunity not only to tour the beautiful Homemaking Department in the new wing, but also to become acquainted with their fellow classmates.

At Christmas the F.H.A. girls played Santa Claus to a needy family of eight in Urbana. They chose to help this family, rather than to have a gift exchange for themselves. As a result, the girls used their money to repair clothing and to buy food for the family.

Other activities during the year included the initiation of twenty new members, a Tea and Style Show, Daddy Date Night, Senior Breakfast, the sale of taffy apples and Christmas cards, a field trip and picnic, and participation in a style show at one of the local department stores.

The purpose of the club is to acquaint the members with the opportunities in a career of teaching and to cultivate in them the qualities of a good teacher. During their senior year, the members are privileged to cadet-teach in the grade schools and the junior high school.

Last fall, the officers and a former member of the club appeared on television, WCIA, to tell the opportunities that the organization provides for its members.

In the early spring, the members enjoyed a skit presented by practice teachers from the Speech Department of the University of Illinois. The F. T. A. also held a tea during National Education Week for the faculty of U. H. S.

Art Club

Officers

Bonita Waechter, Treasurer; Dorothy Havens, President; Susie Doyle, Secretary; Absent Deena Bender, Vice-President.

The Art Club, sponsored by Mrs. Anita Unruh, had a very busy year. Meeting every other Tuesday after school, the club members received art instruction, viewed demonstrations, and worked on projects. The main project for this year was enamel work.

For a fund-raising idea, the club began selling their enameled jewelry, such as tie-clasps, cuff links, earrings, and pins, during lunch hours at school. This turned out to be very successful. Many students placed special orders for the attractive jewelry to be made in a certain color or decorated with a particular design. Another fund-raising project was the selling of popcorn at Urbana High's track meets.

In May, the club members enjoyed a train trip to Chicago to visit the Art Institute.

Diversified Occupations, a part-time vocational training plan, is open to juniors and seniors only. Through interviews, counseling, and aptitude tests, each student is carefully placed in a job where he receives a minimum training of three hours per day. This training, plus an hour of related instruction per day at school, allows the D. O.'er to receive his regular graduation diploma from high school when his training is completed. Officers of D. O. this year were: Leon Shaffer, President; Paul Tatman, Vice-President; and Betty Cummins, Secretary-Treasurer.

Future Farmers of America

One of the highlights for members of the Future Farmers of America this year was a trip to Chicago to attend the International Livestock Exposition. In March, the awards night was held at Savoy. Many members won chapter awards for their outstanding achievements, and Dave Ingold was awarded a trophy as the Star Farmer from Champaign Chapter. Officers for this year were: Dave Ingold, President; Ron Hudson, Vice-President; Ron Weidner, Treasurer, and Bill Corray, Secretary.

Girls' Athletic Association

G.A.A. is an organization for the girls of Urbana High School who are interested in sports. The qualifications for membership are to receive a passing grade in P.E. and to earn at least 24 points per year. These points are earned by taking part in the various activities.

Archery, volleyball, badminton, bowling, and swimming were some of the first semester activities. Basketball was introduced during the second semester. As a money-making project, G.A.A. again sold URBANA HIGH SCHOOL pennants this year.

In May, the Annual Awards Banquet was held. At this time, awards were presented, new officers were installed, and new members were formally initiated. Participating in the Annual Play Day, G.A.A. completed a successful year under the sponsorship of a newcomer to the physical education staff, Mrs. Joyce Lowder.

Social Klub

Officers

Margaret Miles, President; Sheila Morris, Vice-President; Judy St. Clair, Secretary; Janet Bickers, Treasurer; Sandra Schwab, Senior Representative; Carolyn Bates, Junior Representative.

S. K. has one of the largest memberships of any Urbana High School organization. Miss Sarah Fisher sponsors this club, which welcomes any U. H. S. girl.

By assigning each freshman girl an upper classman "Big Sister," S.K. helps the newcomers become acquainted with the other students. Starting the year with this annual Big-Little Sister Party, Social Klub continues to sponsor many dances and activities throughout the year. After football games, the organization sponsors several dances, including the Homecoming Dance, in the school gym. At Christmastime, S. K. members decorate Urbana High's Christmas tree. To complete the year of social activities, the club sponsors the annual senior breakfast in honor of the graduating senior girls.

The "U" Club is the goal of every athlete who enters UHS. Organized in 1928, it consists of major letter winners. Its main objective is to bring a closer relationship between the athlete and the coaching staff, and to promote leadership and better sportsmanship.

At the end of each school year, the club presents a miniature trophy to each boy who has been awarded a letter in three different sports during the school year.

On May 10, the annual "U" Club Dance was held in the UHS gym, and, at the dance, all new members were formally initiated into the organization.

Under the able sponsorship of Mr. Bruckbauer, the basketball coach, the sixty "U" Club members completed the year successfully, backing up their motto, "When the going gets tough, the tough gets going."

"See you at the Den!" is the call heard each weekend. The Den, ever-popular recreation center for Urbana High School students, is open every Friday and Saturday nights for dancing, ping-pong, and listening to the radio or watching T. V. in the lounge. Usual admission to the Den is a dime for members, who buy a twenty-five cent membership card each semester, and a quarter for non-members.

Each fall a youth council, consisting of seven members from each class, is elected by the students to plan the year's activities. This group is advised by an adult council and by Oscar Adams, Den Sponsor. The students are rightfully proud of their center, which is one of the few self-supporting, self-governing centers in the state.

Highlighting the year are the special den dances, which feature decorations and an orchestra. This year these special dances included the annual Freshman Welcome Dance in September, the Thanksgiving Hop, Holiday Dance, Valentine's Swing, and two Hard Times Parties. Proceeds from this second Hard Times Party went towards the Foreign Exchange Student Fund. The last dance was the annual Graduation Dance honoring the seniors. A new feature at the Den is an air-conditioning unit for summer evenings.

Orchestra

The Urbana High School Orchestra enjoyed a successful year under the direction of its new conductor, Mr. Eugene Adam. The orchestra performed for the P.T.A. Talent Show, December 7, and for the Christmas vespers, December 15. On March 1, string ensembles and three soloists competed in the District contest at Rantoul. Later on, several members participated in the Big Twelve at Mattoon. Martha Edwards represented Urbana High in the All-State Orchestra, held in Peoria, on February 14 and 15. The orchestra completed the year performing in an all-school assembly, in the Spring Music Festival, and at Baccalaureate on June 1.

Chorus

In December, the Chorus performed in the P.T.A. Talent Show and in the Christmas Vespers Program. In January, the chorus had the privilege of presenting a half-hour program on a local television channel.

At various times during the year, members were selected to participate in special choruses. These organizations were All-State, which was held in Peoria; Big-Twelve, which was held in Mattoon; and the Tri-High Chorus, which sang at the State Student Council Convention in April.

A combined effort of all the U.H.S. Music departments, the Spring Music Festival was composed of members of all the choruses. The choral department also entered twelve ensembles, eight soloists, and three choruses in the music contests.

Highlight of the year for the Music Department was winning, for the third time in the past four years, the State Music Sweepstakes Award for Class A schools!

For its last performance, the chorus sang at Baccalaureate on June 1.

Varsity Football

Captained by Ted Lowry and All-Stater Steve Thomas and coached by Warren Smith, the Urbana football team got off to a good start, showing the determination and versatility which later became the trademark of the '58 Tigers.

Highlight of the football season was November 1, when an inspired Urbana team crushed mighty Champaign. From the opening kickoff the small Tiger squad fought hard. The C.H.S. squad, trying to tie the score, fell short on the 2½ yard line due to a great defensive play by end Don Toler. Two more touchdowns for Urbana brought the final score to 19-0.

With a Big Twelve record of 4-1, the Tigers tied with Peoria Manual for the conference championship. This was the first time since 1942 and the sixth time in Urbana's history that the football team brought home the conference trophy.

Cross-Country

JIM VITTON, Captain

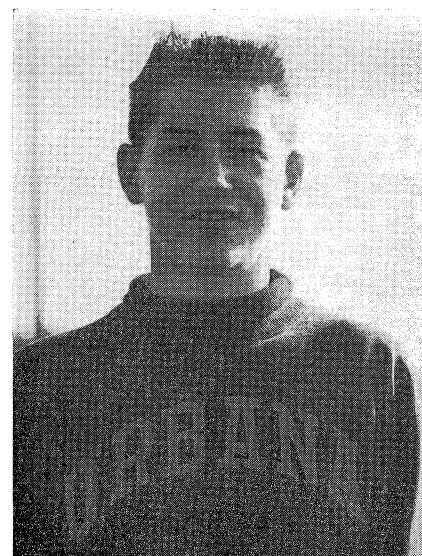

The Urbana Cross-Country team ended a very successful season by placing fourth in the State. In the State competition, the Harriers were paced by Harold Shaw, who took 33rd place, and Captain Jim Vitton, who placed 34th. In District competition the team tied Cumberland for the championship. In that meet, Urbana's first five all ranked in the top ten places: Harold Shaw, fourth; Dick Gillis, seventh; Jim Vitton, eighth; George Thornes, ninth; and Wayne Shaw, tenth. In the Big Twelve meet held at the Champaign Country Club, the Tigers took the championship laurels with a total of 42 points. Individually, the same five placed in the top twelve.

The Harriers ended the season with an impressive 11-1 record for dual meets. They had double wins over Danville, Champaign, and Mattoon, their only defeat being to a powerful Cumberland five by a margin of just one point. Although the first five members of the team have graduated, the outlook for future years is bright. Three lettermen will be returning next fall: sophomore Joe Vitton and freshmen Gil Wilson and John Shaw.

Basketball

Winning the Urbana Regional Tournament for the first time in fourteen years climaxed the 1957-1958 season for Coach Jack Bruckbauer's cagers. After easily tripping Bement in the tourney opener, the Tigers overcame the strong Monticello and Unity quintets, both of which had defeated the Urbana squad earlier in the season. The season ended in the Champaign Sectional Tournament, when the Schlarmen five downed the Tigers 58-42. The team, showing improvement over the recent U.H.S. teams, posted nine victories against seventeen defeats. At the All-Sports Banquet, called the "Victory Banquet" in honor of the regional victory, nine cagers received letters. John Bell and Lyman Larson were named co-captains for 1958-1959.
