

CONCERT BAND

In the Realm of Mood and Music

Step high, Lin!

"Little Drummer Boy!"

"Now remember!
We're all in the same band. This isn't a solo contest!"

"Did you hear me
when I played that um-pah, um-pah?"

The 1960 Maroon

Get a load of this!

Moments of . . .

O'd them legs!

Just the bare facts, Ma'am

Madness

Oh, yah—take that!

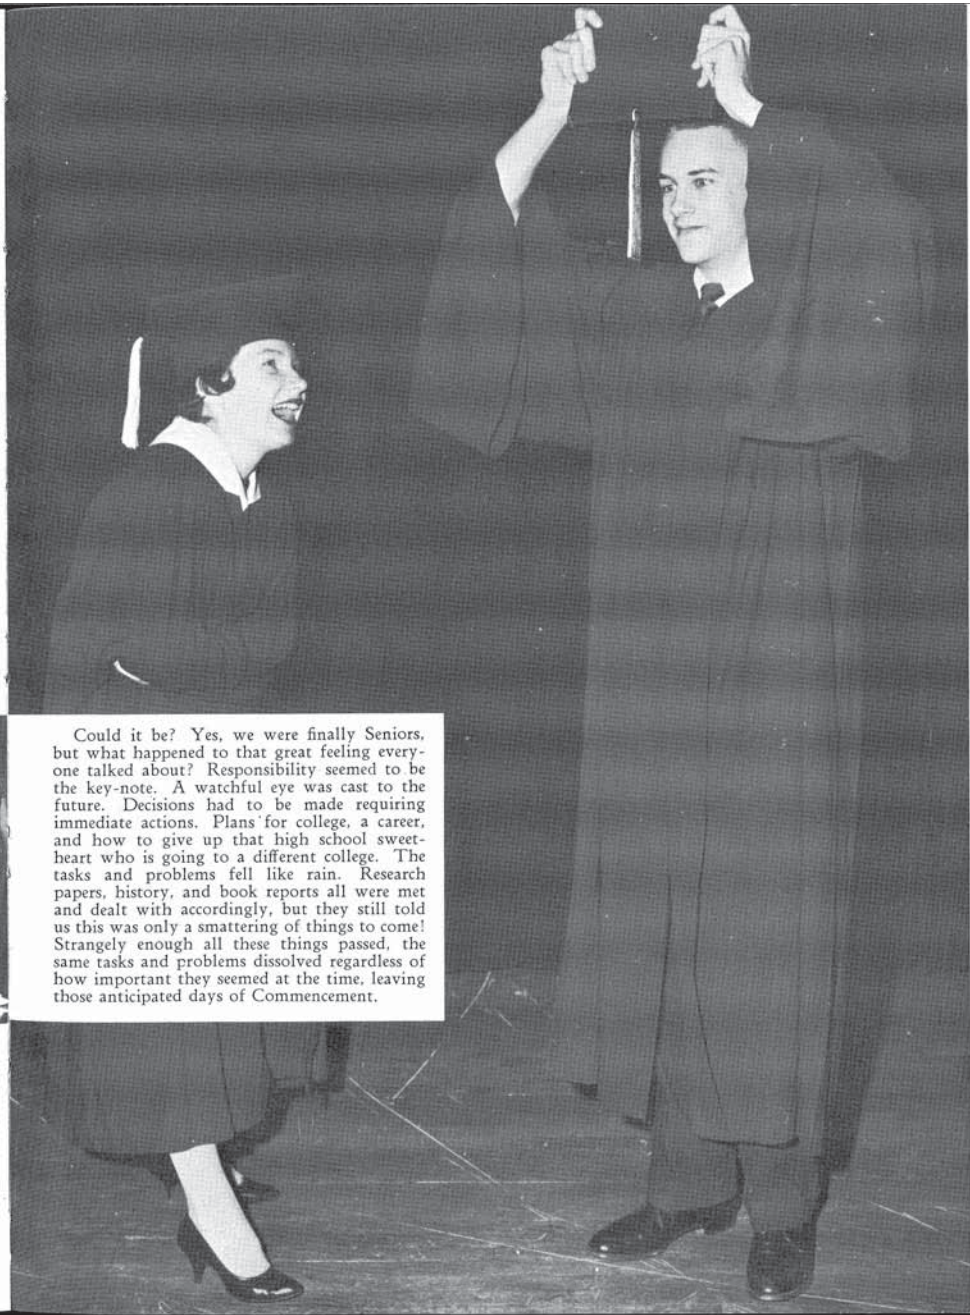

New student?

SENIORS

Could it be? Yes, we were finally Seniors, but what happened to that great feeling everyone talked about? Responsibility seemed to be the key-note. A watchful eye was cast to the future. Decisions had to be made requiring immediate actions. Plans for college, a career, and how to give up that high school sweetheart who is going to a different college. The tasks and problems fell like rain. Research papers, history, and book reports all were met and dealt with accordingly, but they still told us this was only a smattering of things to come! Strangely enough all these things passed, the same tasks and problems dissolved regardless of how important they seemed at the time, leaving those anticipated days of Commencement.
