Pom—Pom Performers

C.H.S. football and basketball just wouldn't have been complete without the energy, pep, and strong-voiced cheers of the Peparoons!

Peparoons has been in existence as a club since 1954 and this boasted a membership of nearly 350 girls.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Gerald Trimble, the members each attend a minimum of two out-of-town games. Many attend more than two, and most Peparoons attend all the games played in Champaign. Busses are provided for fans traveling to "away" games.

Members are required to decorate the halls and cafeteria with posters, crepe paper, and signs advertising home games. Each member, upon the payment of dues, receives a small maroon and white pom-pom to add color to the Peparoon cheering section. This year for the first time, the Peparoons, all wearing white blouses, sat and cheered as a group at games.

C-Club is an honorary organization for all male athletes who earned "C" letters in any sport. The organization is responsible for setting standards to strive for school leadership. The main activity was the C-Club Dance in march, which helped to finance a spring picnic held at Kickapoo Park in Danville, Illinois, to honor C-Club members. A second activity of the club is planning the awards assemblies at which athletes receive letters. The officers of the club introduce the coaches and preside over the sports assemblies.

Sports

Bob Christiansen anchors the last leg of Champaign's winning mile relay team.

The 1963 track team gave Coach Harold Jester his third consecutive Conference track title, making the seventh time in the last eleven years that the Maroons have taken that crown.

The squad had many individual performances, but most notable was the consistent excellence of sophomore cinderman Bill Huston. At most meets Huston managed to compete in four or five events, and could always be counted to win points. Captain-elect John Ingleman, the only junior to letter, ran the 440, often bringing back a first; a leg of the tough mile relay; and at the end of the year, tried the half-mile. His time of 1:59.7 was good enough to tie the existing C.H.S. record.

Seniors Bill Blackwell and Roger Capan also tampered with school records. Blackwell posted a 53' 2½" effort for a shot put record, and Capan threw the discus 170' 6½" to establish a new mark. Out of the outstanding crop of sophomores, Mike Butler tied the 180 low hurdles mark with a time of 20.1.

In dual meets the Maroons dropped only one, a 61-57 squeaker to Decatur MacArthur. The Maroons picked up a third at the Woodruff Relays and a second at the Mattoon Relays. In three other big meets the C.H.S. cinderman garnered three blue ribbons, the District, the Conference, and the Shelbyville Open (tie with Urbana).

The squad loses nine seniors, but Huston, Ingleman, Butler, and four other underclass letter winners, will return to bolster the 1964 team.

Tennis Team Racks Up

Helping the 1964 captain-elect of the tennis team, Mike McDaniel, with an important grip, is the team's coach, Fred Attebury.

Coach Fred Attebury's 1963 tennis team got off to a running start, experienced a mid-season slump, then finished strong, as they compiled a mediocre four wins, six losses, and one tie season.

Senior Captain John Younger consistently led the netmen, often winning both a singles and doubles match, getting help in the latter from one of his teammates. Younger, John Peirce, and Alvin Williamson were the only returning letterwinners from the 7-7-1 1962 squad.

The Maroons started off in fine style, winning two of their first three meets, tying the other with conference foe Mattoon.

In the next six meets the netters were able to win only one, a Big 12 contest, 5 to 2 against Lincoln. They lost to conference opponents Danville, Bloomington, and Mattoon, making their Big 12 record 1-3-1. The two non-conference losses brought the netters' overall tally to 3-5-1.

3-5-1 Season

C.H.S. split the remaining two contests, whipping Rantoul for the second time, and losing to Springfield 4-3.

Before the last two meets, the Maroons took second place in the eight-team district tourney, coming in behind conference powerhouse Danville. John Younger and 1964 Captain-elect Mike McDaniel won second place in the doubles competition. Kankakee finished three points behind the Maroons in third place.

Coach Attebury and his assistant, Colonel John Frothingham, will again have three returning lettermen in 1964, McDaniel, Denny Kunza, and junior Chuck Spencer. A promising group of 1963 reserves should add to the squad, giving the netters a chance for a winning season.

As the season ended, letters were awarded to seniors John Younger, Al Williamson, John Pierce, juniors Mike McDaniel, Denny Kunza, and sophomore Chuck Spencer.

Big 12 —

Champaign's golf team was sparked to a very successful season this year by three outstanding juniors: Ron Essenpreis, Jeff Hindman, and John Mulliken. These three led the team throughout the season, Essenpreis through the month of April, Mulliken in May, and Hindman consistent throughout, with flashes of brilliance on occasions. Also, contributing to the success of the team were senior lettermen Mike Braun and Tom Trigger and junior letterman Arlen Holter. Trigger played fourth during the year, while Braun and Holter dueled for the last position on the varsity.

The Maroons opened the season by smashing seven successive opponents in duel meets, shutting out one of them, while holding the rest of them under five points. Included in these victories was a trouncing of Urbana. Mulliken, Essenpreis, and Hindman copped low-scoring honors in these meets.

The golfers suffered their first defeat in the hands of New Trier and Quincy in a quadrangular meet at Savoy.

The Maroons then took the District title at Lake of the Woods for the second consecutive year on the strength of outstanding team balance. Their victory earned them a berth in the state meet where they finished fourth. Hindman, Trigger, Braun, Mulliken, and Essenpreis carried the team to their strong finishes. A week later C.H.S. took the Big 12 trophy with Mulliken, first; Hindman, third; and Essenpreis, fifth.

Bat in 17 — 2 Season

1963 was a very successful year for Coach Charlie Due's diamondmen, as they came out of the regular season with 17 wins and two losses.

In nine conference games the Maroons dropped only one, the nightcap of a twin bill with Springfield, but had to settle for second place in the Big 12 to Danville.

In the Sectional Tourney, the Maroons had to get past the eventual state-placing Vikings of Danville, or be eliminated. A double-header was staged, one to decide the Sectional champ, one the Conference winner — the Maroons dropped both games 6-4 and 5-2.

Seniors Jim Covannaugh, Butch Hausserman, Willie Jackson, Fred Klemm, Don Langhoff and Don Slater spearheaded the team, along with juniors Larry Bundy, and Brice McWethy and diminutive sophomore Stan Kucharczyk. Sophomore Jim Madix also did an able job filling in for Kucharczyk during an illness.

The Maroons ended the season with 19 wins and four losses and a team batting average of .278. Hausserman and Bundy led the batsmen with .427 and .392 averages respectively, and Willie Jackson was top hurler at 8-2.

C.H.S. Shares Conference

As has been his custom, CHS head football coach Tommy Stewart came through with a winning season. The Excellence of the work by the coaches was especially significant as the Maroons employed a new offensive alignment, an unbalanced line with a device backfield of Bill Huston and John Ingleman. The offense was especially adapted for the fleet Huston, and it payed big dividend for both him and the Maroons. Huston became the first Maroon to gain 1000 yards in a single season since 1956, all-stater Stu Clark, eclipsing Clark's mark by 184 yards. This total, aided by two 200-yard performances, places Huston in the top spot in C.H.S. football history for single season yardage. His 216 yard effort against Galesburg was the best single game total in the conference.

Woodruff made no indication of such a glistening season, as their defense was porous and their offense was diluted. Warrior fullback Bill Allen stood out in the game.

The gridgers first home tilt was a completely different story as the Maroons posted Kankakee 26-6. Bill Huston showed his stuff, gaining 176 yards, including touchdown sprints of 31 and 22 yards. John Ingleman, Huston's running mate, at halfback, chalked up a 16 yard T.D., and end Jeff Trigger took a three yard, John Mulliken aerial in for the final Maroon score. A second period 71 yard march provided the initial conference action for the Maroons in the tight defensive battle. On an end-around play, Mattoon nearly reached payday, as Jeff Trigger and the Waves' Dick Ronchetti expired together on the Maroon six after a 70 yard jaunt. The Maroon defense held and then Mulliken marched C.H.S. to the game's only score on his own one yard plunge. Dave Fisher's last second, man tackle preserved the margin for the win.

For Homecoming, the Maroons topped the Danville Schlarman Hilltoppers 34-6, making up for the 1961 Homecoming loss to the same outfit.

Title in '63

Bloomington and twice all-stater, Ron Bess, squeaked by the Maroons 14-7 in a conference battle, but the Maroon defense shone in defeat holding Bess to 37 yards rushing. It was a touchdown on a 36 yard pass play to Bess, however, that broke the 7-7 halftime tie. Having one of his best games, halfback John Ingleman recorded the only C.H.S. rally on a splendid 57 yard run.

In a must game for both Decatur and C.H.S. the Maroon defense again came through with an outstanding performance. A tremendous effort by the Maroons did not go for naught as the 24-0 victory put them right into the thick of the title race with two Big 12 games remaining. Dave Riddell's 57 yard TD run highlighted the victory.

In the Maroons 31-7 win against Galesburg, the C.H.S. offense showed its potency, especially in the form of Huston, who gained 216 yards, including a 56 yard touchdown. John Ingleman chipped in two touchdowns and Kenny Johnson another on a 23-yard aerial from Mulliken.

6 — 0 Season for Sophomores

"Get that tip!" Chuck Spencer attempts to block a pass.

The 1963 sophomore football team went through their season without a loss making them the fourth straight sophomore team to accomplish this. They ended the season with a 6-0 mark.

Coaches John Macek and Dick Wooley ably developed a winning team, despite a lack of speed, by using a grinding defense that seemed to wear their opponents down. Their tough running game plus a fine passing attack made the sophs tough to stop.

Numeral winners of the season were: Danny Ambrose, Richard Buschback, Taylor Davis, Mike Haley, Craig Hubert, Genick Kucharzyk, Jim Lateer, Tommy Long, Bruce McGlasson, Pat McEvoy, Richard Patton, Rocky Peacock, Randy Phippen, Bill Purkiser, John Ross, Kenny Shellabarger, Charles Stahl, Gary Thurman, David Trover, Don Tucker, Bruce Wettman, Steve Williams, and Managers Jim Weinman and Steve Williams. Coach Harold Jester welcomed his most inexperienced squad ever in the fall. The cross-country team started with absolutely no letterman, and many boys had never run in varsity competition before. The harriers started off very weakly and ended the duel meet season with a log of two wins and six losses.

In the first duel meet of the season, Rantoul clipped the home town forces 28-29. The Maroon's second encounter was with Urbana. Being led by one of the finest runners in the state, Mark Schmidt, Urbana won 15-49. The cross-country team then traveled to Danville, where Danville emerged a 23-32 victor. In the Paris Invitational, Champaign entered a team in the sophomore division, and they copped second place laurels.

The Maroons then traveled to Lincoln and took their first duel meet of the year by a convincing 18-45 margin.

Danville breaks out to an early lead as the meet begins at Hessel Park.

Season

After a narrow 24-32 loss to Danville, the harriers traveled to Rantoul where they hoped to avenge an earlier one point defeat. Rantoul was not to be denied, however, and they won their second meet of the season from Champaign by a score of 28-29, again one point.

In Cumberland the Maroons smashed their opponents 21-40 for their second duel victory of the campaign. They closed out the duel meet season by again being beaten by arch-rival Urbana, 15-50. The harriers then ran in the Conference meet, where they took fourth. The last competition for the "Bunny-chasers" came in the form of the District meet. Champaign took sixth.

Varsity letter winners included: Steve Billymyer, Jan Hoffman, Jeff Mills, Willie Harden, Captain-elect, Bill Jarman, Joe Mason, John Woods, Bob Kell, and John Witt.

Coach Harold Jester points out the course to the Danville coach.

Cabutti's

Basketball Coach Lee Cabutti was faced with the same problem this year as the last seven — lack of height. Returning were three lettermen, however, John Mulliken, Ed Miller, and Don Michael, and a bunch of potent juniors, including Willie Harden who returned to CHS from the East. After giving regular basketball a chance, Cabutti decided that the "slow-break" was the best for the Maroons, and the results confirmed this. In the first ten contests the Maroons won five and lost five, 2-3 before the transformation, just the opposite after.

For his slow down offense Cabutti uses a "first six" and two alternates. The offense is sometimes unique this year in that the pivot will be worked by a player only 5'6", Bill Huston.

In the annual opener with Rantoul, the Maroons hinted at the format of the coming games, by defeating the Eagles 64-62 in a triple overtime, and the game was that close all the way. Bill Huston led the CHS scoring with 15 points.

Ed Miller.

Starting Six Tromp Cross-town Rival

Wells of Chicago's tough Public League next challenged the Maroons and came out on the short end of a 45-36 verdict. Highlighting the game was the ability of the Maroons to rebound with the taller team, an asset which is a must in slow-down basketball. Huston again led the scoring with 14 points.

The Senators of Springfield furnished the Maroons their first conference tilt and at the same time first Big 12 loss, 44-40 in the C.H.S. gym. The contest was close all the way, but the Solon's fire power at the end was just too much for the cold Maroons. John Mulliken and Willie Harden both had ten points C.H.S.

A missed one-and-one situation in the final seconds prevented the Maroons from topping the Lincoln Railsplitters who went on to a 44-40 victory. A hot third quarter for the Rainers and some C.H.S. turnovers were very significant in the contest. Percy Herod highlighted the Maroon effort, bagging 8-14 from the field and one charity toss for 17 points.

The tall, talented Danville Vikings were next and too much for the Maroons, taking home a 55-35 verdict. This was the loss that ushered in the slow down style this season.

The slow-break offense was exhibited in near perfect form by the Maroons in their clash with third ranked Decatur, resulting in a well deserved 45-41 C.H.S. victory. John Mulliken capped game point honors with 17.

In the Holiday Tourney at Centralia, the Maroons met and defeated two more state-ranked teams, Benton and Springfield Lamphier. Then they fell to two more prep powers, Belleville and arch nemesis Pinckneyville.

This set the stage for the first cross-town basketball tilt of 1964. The Maroons reversed the inappropriate Urbana slogan of "We don't sweat Campaign" with a decisive 34-26 victory. They completely outdid the timid Tigers, most notably in rebounding where the smaller Maroons took a 32-19 advantage.

1963 — 64

A frigid first half at the charity stripe put the gaggers 10 points back of Alton, but the Maroons came back red-hot, only to have a last second shot by hard-working Willie Harden roll around and out for a 46-45 loss. Percy Herod again paced the Maroons with 16 points.

A complete team effort by C.H.S. stifled a stiff Bloomington bid, for the Maroon's third conference win to go along with three losses. John Mulliken had 11 for the winners.

Erratic play cost the Maroons a 44-35 defeat at Mattoon as the Wave capitalized on CHS mistakes to maintain a lead.

This left the cagers mid-season with an even 7-7 record and a 3-4 conference slate.

Charlie Due's sophomores have compiled a 7-3 record this far with wins against Rantoul, Springfield, Decatur, Urbana, and Bloomington, and losses to Lincoln, Danville and Mattoon sophs. Victories over Rantoul and Taylorville gave Due's squad their second straight Clinton tourney title.

Grapplers 4—3 at Mid-Season

This year C.H.S. welcomed a new head wrestling coach, Don Pittman. He greeted a very inexperienced squad which boasted only two returning lettermen; senior Ed Bruce, and junior Gary Melchi. In this situation a coach usually will try to build for the future while fielding a respectable team for the present season.

This is happening this year, as the grapplers, though dominated by underclassmen, are managing to keep their record above the .500 mark. After suffering a loss to Rantoul in their opening meet, they rebounded to stomp Urbana on the strength of outstanding performances in the lower weight classes. Following a second loss to Mac Arthur, the wrestling Maroons racked up three consecutive victories, one from Bloomington and two from Danville. The grapplers then travelled to the Crawfordville invitational where they copped third place and got individual victories from Gary Melchi, 103, and Steve Moore, 154. The Maroon's meet resulted in a thrashing at the hands of the powerful Pekin Chinks, leaving the Maroons with a respectable 4-3 record.

In athletics, most great teams are followed by a team which is building for the future. Champaign's 1963-64 swimmers are proving this to be a paradox.

After last year's outstanding team, C.H.S. is having another successful year. Led by Vern Tock, captain, the swimmers beat arch-rival Urbana by a score of 54-40. Although they lost to Bloomington, Danville fell almost as badly as last year.

The tankmen took sixth at the Riverside Invitational and are now showing the strength of underclassmen who will be the backbone of another great team next year.

As far as the record books go, Kip Pope, breast-stroker, is the only one to get any new ones those being at Danville, Urbana, and Champaign.

Refusing to be overshadowed by 1st year's greats, Dave Frerichs, 100 yard butterfly; and Dave Dickey, free-styler; are helping this year's team come through with another victorious season instead of an average "building year."

Underclass

Class of '66

"I've got to catch that bus!" was a familiar battle cry to nearly half of the Class of '66, who attended classes half-day at Jefferson Junior High and the other half at C.H.S. Their problem was even more difficult than that of those students trying to get used to the traffic pattern at the high school itself.

This year's sophomore class includes 673 assorted students, of whom 347 are girls and 326 are boys; 23 are redheads; and 149 wear glasses.

Also characteristic of the Class of '66 is that it represents three junior high schools, and may have the honor of being the first graduating class of two senior highs.

"Oh, those poor little sophomores," is hardly the way to describe the school's youngest class. These hard-working students steamed their way through the year, generating loads of enthusiasm and pep, and gaining themselves an honored place in C.H.S.'s student body.
