Susie,
So a real
real sweet gal
Remember Chicago?
Oh never forget it
What a ride
I hope we get some classes together next year.

Mrs. Marien Seward

Dedication

For many years she has worked unceasingly to uphold the high standards of intellectual achievement which have characterized her at Urbana High School. Throughout this time she has sought to improve each individual with whom she has come in contact. In the years to come we will more fully realize her superior ability as a teacher. We will more deeply appreciate the discipline and high ideals she has instilled in us. It is for these reasons that we, the Class of 1962, proudly dedicate this Rosemary to Mrs. Marien Seward.

Mrs. Seward and Mr. Carpenter relax in the Teachers' Lounge.

Students' extracurricular activities have always interested our rhetorician.

Foreword

Since the last Rosemary appeared, the corridors of our high school have grown one year older amid the unbeatable spirit and the unquenchable school pride which are an inseparable part of life at Urbana. Lest the memories which we carry with us of our years at UHS fade away, the Rosemary staff presents the 1962 Rosemary, a photo album filled with snapshots capturing the year's events forever.

Homecoming

Lovely Miss Connie Connerty reigned as Homecoming Queen of 1961. To begin the festivities, she was crowned by football co-captains, Gary Halberstadt and Wally Rogers on the high school steps. Attending her were Miss Barb Allman, junior, and Miss Martha Pettinga, sophomore.

The sixth annual Homecoming Parade included the queen and her attendants riding in convertibles, the three class floats, the marching band, the majorettes, the cheerleaders, and several decorated cars.

Linda Rowe, K. C. Ogatta, and Bob Vedder worked as general chairmen of the event. Class chairmen were Liz Hile, Jean St. Clair, and Rick Adams, seniors; Nancy Booth, Diane Deere, and Jim Booth, juniors; and Nancy French, Margie Kitzmiller, and Ricky League, sophomores.

The festivities were climaxed by a Homecoming Dance in the high school gymnasium after the game with the UHS dance band providing the music.

Gurkan Altuna, "Al," from Turkey.

This year UHS was lucky to have two foreign exchange visitors. Gurkan Altuna, nicknamed "Al," lived with the Webber family, and the Chesneys hosted Homayoun Faghihi-Shirazi, nicknamed "John."

Both boys were welcomed to the school when they were presented with the keys to the city of Urbana by Mr. John Barth at an Urbana football game. UHS students will long remember their friendly manners, and their real spirit of international goodwill.

Nancy Martin and Carol Mussey.

For the fifth consecutive year, the American Field Service committee sponsored a year of fund-raising projects in order to accumulate the necessary $1300 needed to send an Urbana High Junior abroad for the summer and to bring a foreign student to UHS for a year. They included a "Slacks Day," a Hard Times Hop, and the chocolate sale, which has become a regular feature at UHS.

Besides sponsoring several assemblies, the AFS committee tackled the major job of screening candidates for a trip abroad during the summer and host families for next year.

This year's foreign exchange student to Germany was Mary Scott.

COORDINATION — that one word sums up the aims and the activities of the UHS Student Council. The Council, composed of one representative from each homeroom, sponsor Mr. Davis, and his assistant, Mr. Richard Thompson, has before it the tremendous task of coordinating the wishes of faculty and students, of sophomores and seniors, of the football team and Latin Club, in an effort to keep the school running smoothly.

Sophomores were the first problem facing the council; they were fitted immediately into the trials of UHS life thanks to a series of orientation programs on classes and activities.

The year-long process of earning over $1300 to send an Urbana student abroad during the summer and to bring a foreign student to the high school during the next year also consumed a major portion of the council's time. There was chocolate to sell, a slack day to sponsor, and a "Hard Times Hop" to organize.

The Student Council combined forces with the Rosemary to sponsor the annual Christmas Dance, "Sleigh Ride to the Stars." Then, in March, it struck out alone to present the Vice Versa Dance, "Night of our Knights" as the climax to a week of "Girl-treats-boy" activities.

Once again the Council worked as an integral part of the Tri-Hi Council, presenting, along with University and Champaign High Schools, the annual leadership banquet and the Tri-Hi Dance, "Diamonds and Velvet."

Student Government Day, food in the cafeteria, class elections, the faculty tea, a new and more comprehensive constitution — these were all projects of the busy UHS Student Council during 1962. Homeroom representatives worked hard for the school, but were amply rewarded when they viewed their success!
