

President Bill Murphy and Secretary Sue Overman

Vice-President Roger Capan and Treasurer Sandy Smith

The senior year leaves a lasting impression on all Champaign Senior High School students. Who could forget the excitement of electing class officers Bill Murphy, Roger Capan, Sue Overman, and Sandy Smith; the suspense of crowning kings and queens; the last Homecoming Dance; the gaiety of the Junior-Senior Prom; and the Senior Assembly?

With such memories behind, we look forward to graduation with mixed emotions—sad because many friendships are left behind, but, at the same time, happy because we are grown up and a new life is opening before us. We have decisions to make such as the one the typical senior, pictured below, is making as to what college she will attend.

Although we now leave Champaign Senior High School, a part of us will always remain. In memory we will often walk through these halls which echoed the friendly clamor of our companions.
