U. of I. Courses

Special skills, the desire to excel, and interminable patience were some of the ingredients of students who dared to enroll in University of Illinois classes.

Eighteen students braved such fearful subjects as calculus, analytical geometry, and chemistry, working toward their high aspirations. Of the five junior boys, ten senior boys, and three senior girls, ten students were eligible for honor courses. Three students, Mike Walker, Nick Altenbernd, and Jerry Pond, took two courses each.

Several courses at Urbana High were designed for the college bound student. Such classes as chemistry, physics, rhetoric, and various mathematics courses prepared students for future college work.

Seniors Mike Bowman, Bill Waud, and Vickie Applegate hurry to the University after fun in the snow.

Challenge Students

Mrs. Le Seure leads discussion of Poe's "The Purloined Letter."

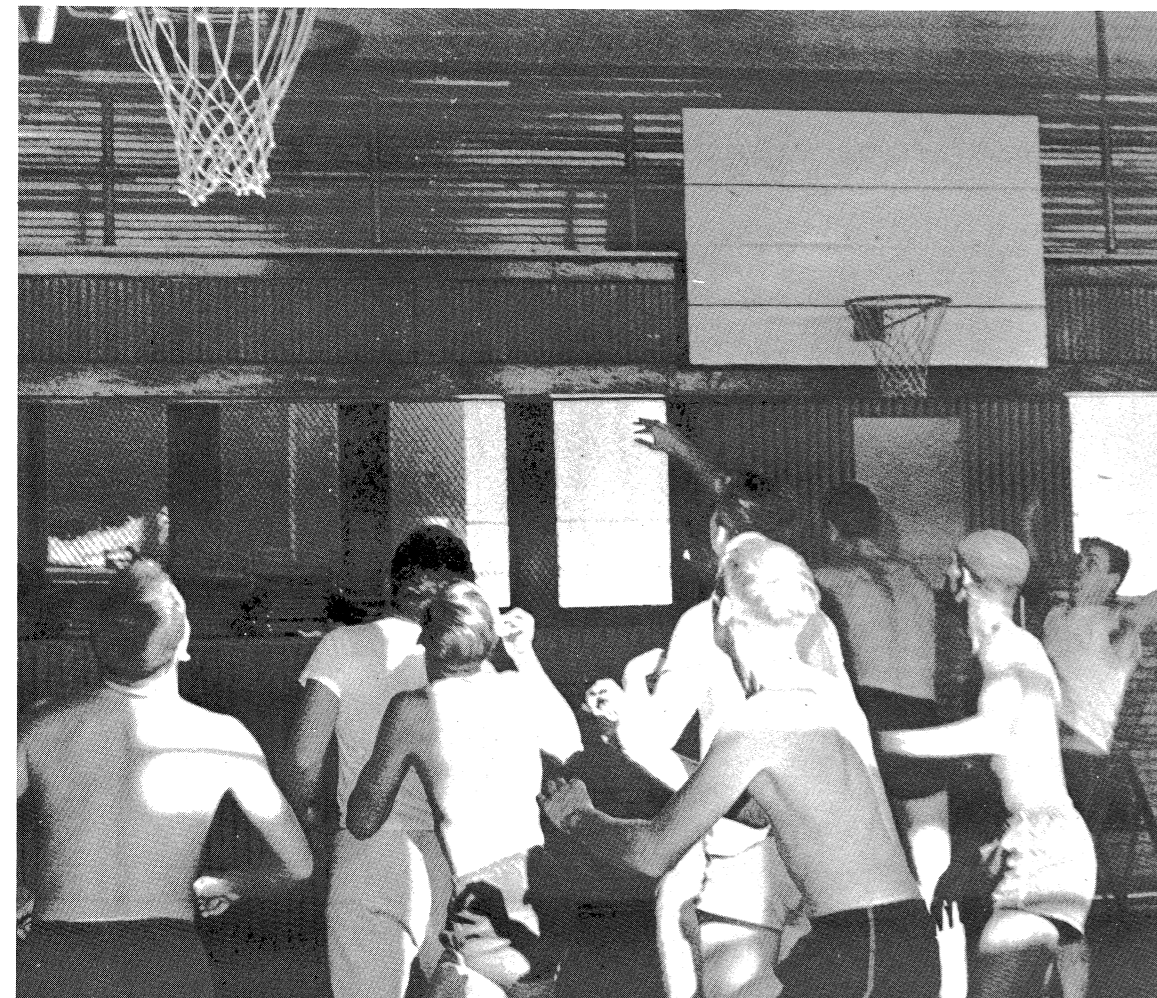

Acknowledging the fact that physical fitness helps to build attentive students, our physical education department planned a well-rounded program of physical activities. Strained muscles and black bruises were familiar complaints from the boys after fun-filled classes of wrestling, kick soccer, and weight lifting. They also competed in such sports as baseball and football.

The girls too had afflictions such as dripping hair and swollen ankles from field hockey, swimming, and soccer. The girls ended the year with baseball, dancing, and volleyball.

Girls' soccer game stimulates plenty of action.

Varied Courses Widen Students' Interests

Mrs. Alderson's students decipher hieroglyphics on the blackboard.

Mrs. Koster listens to French students as they answer questions about the day's lesson.

Repetition was the mother of learning for the language students in the modern language lab. The learning of songs and poetry provided an interesting change of pace here. Use of the lab helped, too, in enlarging vocabulary and speech proficiency.

Courses in the social studies kept students informed on the latest events. Keeping them occupied, too, was the studying of previous history and institutions of mankind important for meeting the challenge of the future.

Students planning for positions in the business world received thorough training in areas such as secretarial work, bookkeeping and accounting, and operating office machines. A business English course was also offered.

PRACTICALITY was the key word in such preparatory classes as shop and home economics. Boys and girls with an eye for the future enrolled in these courses. Training for the masculine set included metal-working, woodworking, electronics and mechanical drawing.

The more feminine training included cooking classes, sewing classes, and various thrift-tricks to ease one's budget. A heterogeneous assortment of projects were completed by both groups.

Add Zest to U.H.S. Life

The music, drama, and art departments were stimulated culturally this year. The results of hours of efforts were interesting exhibits and productions. Practicing for the State Music Contest, drilling for concerts, and learning new numbers, the band, orchestra, and chorus members worked unceasingly. Displayed in the showcase were paintings, sketches, sculptures, and handicrafts, the results of industrious art students. Drama classes produced experimental plays. To give the students some art sampling, and help guide them in a career choice were some of the aims of these departments.

Fun, Football Triumph

A radiant Miss Sandi Withers reigned as Homecoming Queen for 1963. Festive excitement engulfed the students as our queen was crowned by Mike Renfrew and Randy Moore, football co-captains. The attendants were Miss Carolyn Burch, junior, and Miss Karon Hendricks, sophomore.

The annual Homecoming Parade, our eighth, found our queen and her attendants enthroned in shiny convertibles. The UHS marching band, the majorettes, cheerleaders, decorated cars, and three class floats formed a kaleidoscope of fleet-ing color. Members of each class gazed anxiously, fingers crossed, hoping that their float should triumph, but the juniors were the victors. Even greater victors were our Tigers, as they defeated Lincoln's Railsplitters.

Marion and host sister Jeanne Reinhardt enjoy leisure study

Brazil held the spotlight this year when Urbana High was fortunate enough to have double views on life south of the border. Nancy French enjoyed her summer in Brazil. Another Brazilian face which popped up frequently throughout the year belonged to our friend Marion Joseph from Rio de Janiero.

Talks given by both girls, supplemented with color slides, familiarized the student body with our Latin American neighbors.

Mrs. Reinhardt serves breakfast juice to Jeanne, Mr. Reinhardt and Marion.

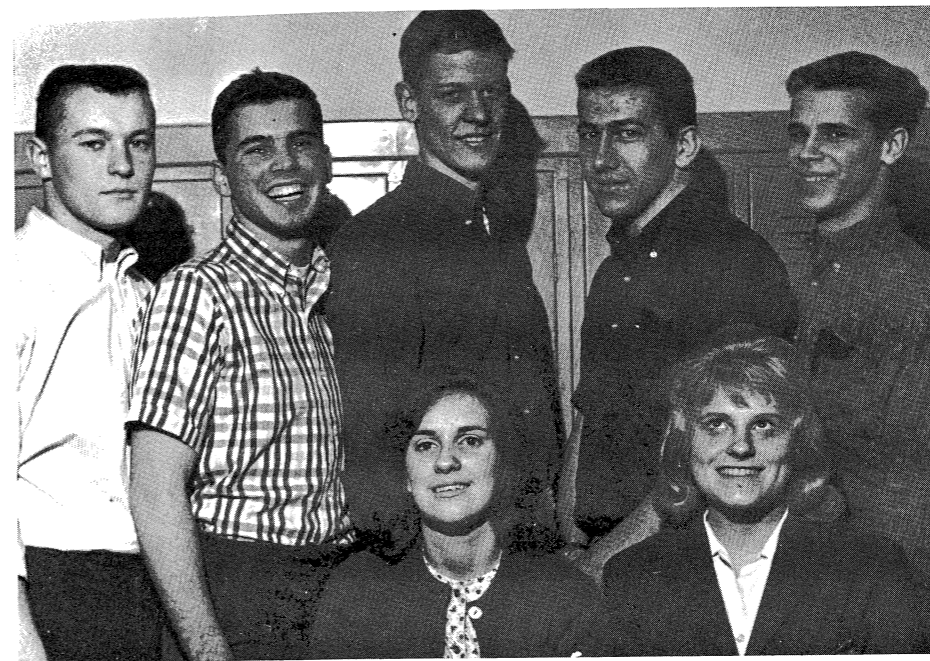

The Mark Reinhardts were Marion's adopted family; Jeanne Reinhardt, a senior, became Marion's "sister." Marion first met the Reinhardts when she arrived in Chicago last August. An open house was held for Marion at which she sang and played her guitar, one of her favorite pastimes. The students also enjoyed Marion's musical ability at the PTA Talent Show. One of Illinois' assets, which Brazil does not have, especially impressed Marion—our snow.

Hatchet orators Nancy French, senior, and Smith Hopkins, junior, were responsible for upholding their class' reputation during Class Night in June.

Full many a legend hath been told
 About this hatchet, wondrous old;
 Full many a song has found its way
 From olden times to the present day.
 Telling whence this emblem came;
 And every tale has added fame
 And interest to its mystic name.
 But careful research bared the truth
 Of ancient years to the present youth;
 And truth is stranger far, you know,
 Than all the hectic tales which grow
 In fertile minds, or man-made plot—
 Imagined tales, with mystery fraught.
 But we shall tell you whence 'twas got,
 And how it came to Urbana High
 In those olden days, so long gone by.
 Before the white man came to dwell
 In Champaign County, histories tell,
 The wandering tribes of Kickapoo
 And Miami Indians lived here, too;
 The Pottawatomies set their tent,
 And, as the seasons came and went,
 Returned to hunt the moose and deer
 Abounding on the prairies here.
 Before Urbana was a town
 They brought their people, settled down
 And built their tents near Main and Race
 Where Davis' grocery grows apace.
 A little further down the hill
 There bubbled forth, their thirst to still,
 A spring of cold water, clear and cold.

A comfort to these warrior bold.
 'Tis near this old historic spot.
 That C. N. Clark has a business lot.
 When first the white man hither came
 With thought this Indian land to tame,
 The red men of the Kickapoo,
 And all the other Indians, too,
 Bore keen resentment; then they swore
 That they of sleep would have no more
 'Til they had driven every man
 Of white blood out of this, their land.
 The Indian Chief, Chicagou, strove
 In vain; the white man throve.
 He throve in spite of trials severe.
 While every danger hovered near
 From every hostile Indian band
 Who treachery against him planned
 Then when Chicagou saw at last
 There was no doubt, the die was cast;
 The white men must be made a friend,
 The struggles, fighting, all must end
 If the tribes of Illinois
 Were to live and not to die.
 He gathered his chiefs together then
 And bade them bring both women and men,
 To meet the white man near this spring.
 With Indian chant and tom-tom's beat
 The ceremony was complete.
 They buried a hatchet as a sign of peace;
 And promised all their wars to cease.
 They kept their word, and as time passed on
 Urbana grew to be a town.
 The schools were formed; the high school too,
 Was added as the system grew.
 One day—we do not know the year—
 So cannot tell it to you here—
 Some senior lads from Urbana High
 Stopped at the spring as they passed by
 To quench their thirst; one kicked the ground
 And heard a hard and ringing sound.
 Then they one and all would see
 What this amazing thing might be
 That, buried beneath the hard earth's crust,
 Responded thus to his gentle thrust.
 They dug it forth and brought to light
 The very hatchet you see tonight—
 Chicagou's hatchet, ancient, old,
 Whose legend hath just been told.
 They made it mascot for their class,
 And decided it should onward pass
 To each senior class as it came in line;
 And so it has, to this very time.
 But each class must prove its right to it
 By showing forth its power in wit;
 In mental contest, strong and bold,
 But not with weapons as of old.
 The classes meet by proxy; I
 From the senior class do cry
 A challenge to the junior clan,
 Upon this stage to produce their man,
 To answer in person for his class,
 Before, to them, this hatchet may pass.

The participants formed two political parties, held conventions, campaigns and elections, and performed duties pertaining to various public offices.

Seniors Are Honored with Various Awards

D.A.R. and S.A.R. citizenship awards—Vickie Applegate and Bill Hang.

Each year one senior girl and one senior boy are chosen by the senior class to receive the D.A.R. and S.A.R. good citizenship awards. Vickie Applegate and Bill Hang were selected on the basis of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. They were later honored at a luncheon sponsored by the National Institution of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Sons of the American Revolution.

Entertained Us

"Talent for sale" seemed to be the motto for the 1963 PTA Talent Show. Held at Urbana Junior High School in December, the program included dance numbers, solo and duet vocalists, and amusing skits. Masters of Ceremony Tom Judd and Rick Legue regulated the show with finesse.

Our Stage Show 1964, based around the UHS Dance Band, featured the innovation of audience participation in a repertoire of such favorites as "In the Good Old Summertime." The Stage Show Dancers performed a variety of numbers including a Mexican dance and a waltz sequence. Phil Knox and Scott Lorenz, Masters of Ceremony, led the show through numbers including the theme from Charade by the Madrigals, the Hawaiian War Chant by the UHS Dance Band, and "I'm Gonna To Wash That Man Right Outta My Hair." As a finale, the Dance Band and the Madrigals performed a series of songs from the musical Carousel, concluding an exceptional show.

Among the various performers in the P.T.A. Talent Show were singer Carolyn Burch, actor Phil Knox, and dancer Sandy Starr.

Junior Prom Sparkles in Emerald Setting

"Follow the yellow brick road!" A trip to Emerald City was the reward for this year's prom-goers. Included in the juniors' fund-raising projects were a candy sale and a car wash. A unique Hootenanny, featuring songs by our students, teachers and U. of I. students netted the greatest profit for the dance.

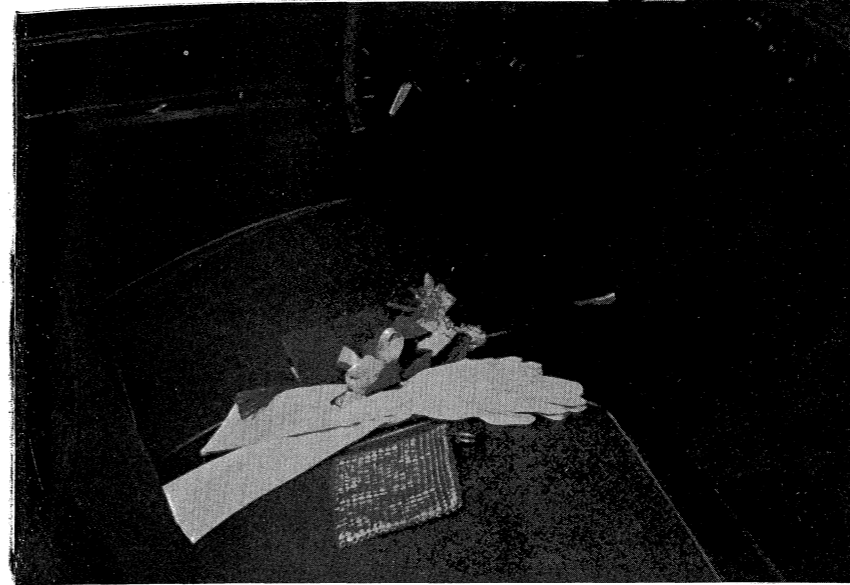

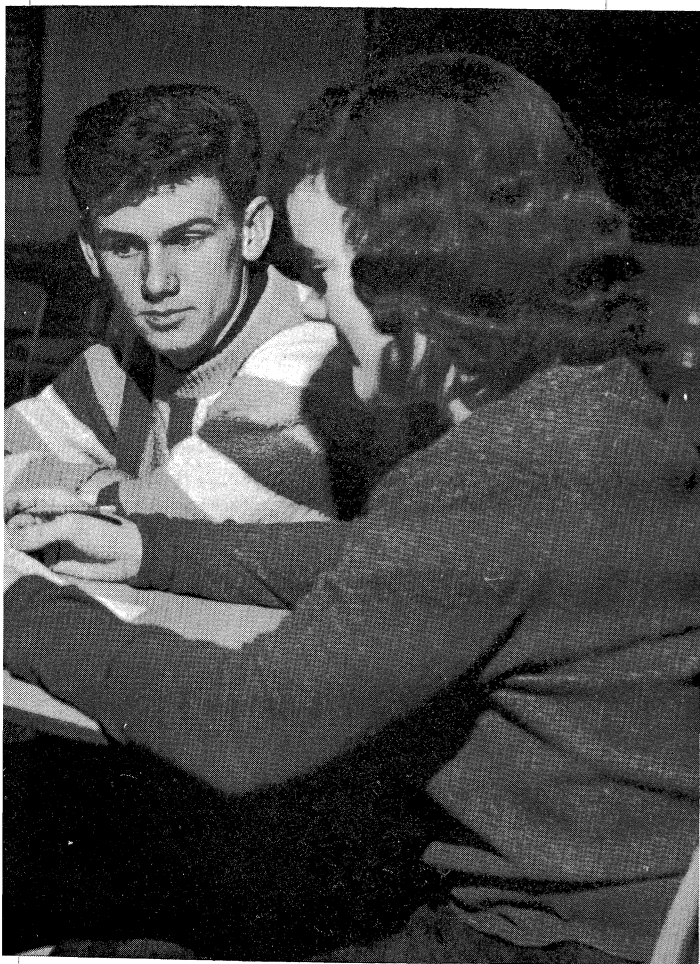

Committees began work on the prom months in advance, planning programs, decorations, and advertisements.

Music, an array of baubles, bangles, and beauty and exotic scenery comprised a "jewel" of an evening.

Students Find Week-End

Following the adage of "all work and no play," students found diversion during week-ends and on holidays at movies, ball games, dances, and various other activities. A night at a football game or the Tigers' Den allowed students to forget about their academic interests for a while.

During the "pause that refreshes" Jane Sexton offers Mark Schmidt a coke.

Fun Breaks Study Grind

Attending other activities, such as our Talent and Stage Shows, prompted students to "get out their glad rags" and become a little less conservative than usual. However, soon Sunday eve approached, and along with it came a feverish attempt to complete unfinished assignments satisfactorily.

Additional Activities Lend

Interest to Academic Life

In addition to the academic anatomy of the student body, many students also participated in special activities such as assemblies, cadet teaching, and pep assemblies.

As a result of their initiative, the entire school benefited from these students' entertaining talks and performances in assemblies. The basketball and football teams benefited from the hair-raising, throat-soring cheering the students did. More importantly, though, the participating students themselves gained valuable experience from their efforts in cadet teaching and assembly performances.

Memories Will Remain

So eager for their day of freedom all year long, students suddenly took on mixed emotions as the long-awaited day finally arrived. Happy at the thought of vacation, with no homework or high-school routine, students ripped through hallways, leaving their trails behind them.

Sadness, however, engulfed some seniors as they reminisced over their three years of high school. The end of high school seemed to mean the end of carefree school days, as new adventures and opportunities began to open to them.

The issues, well-seasoned with spicy Rhet words in interesting articles on a wide range of topics, informed students on the goings-on at Urbana High. The seniors gained recognition in "By the Way," a feature presenting interviews with three students in each issue.

As in the past, staff members of the Echo attended the ISHPA Journalism Conference in the fall. The Echo benefited from the guidance and help of their sponsor, Mr. Stanley Hynes.

Members of Urbana's Quill and Scroll were juniors and seniors who were in the upper one-third of their classes scholastically, and who had done superior work on either the Echo or the Rosemary. Also, each member was recommended by the supervisor of his publication, and approved by the secretary-treasurer of the national society.

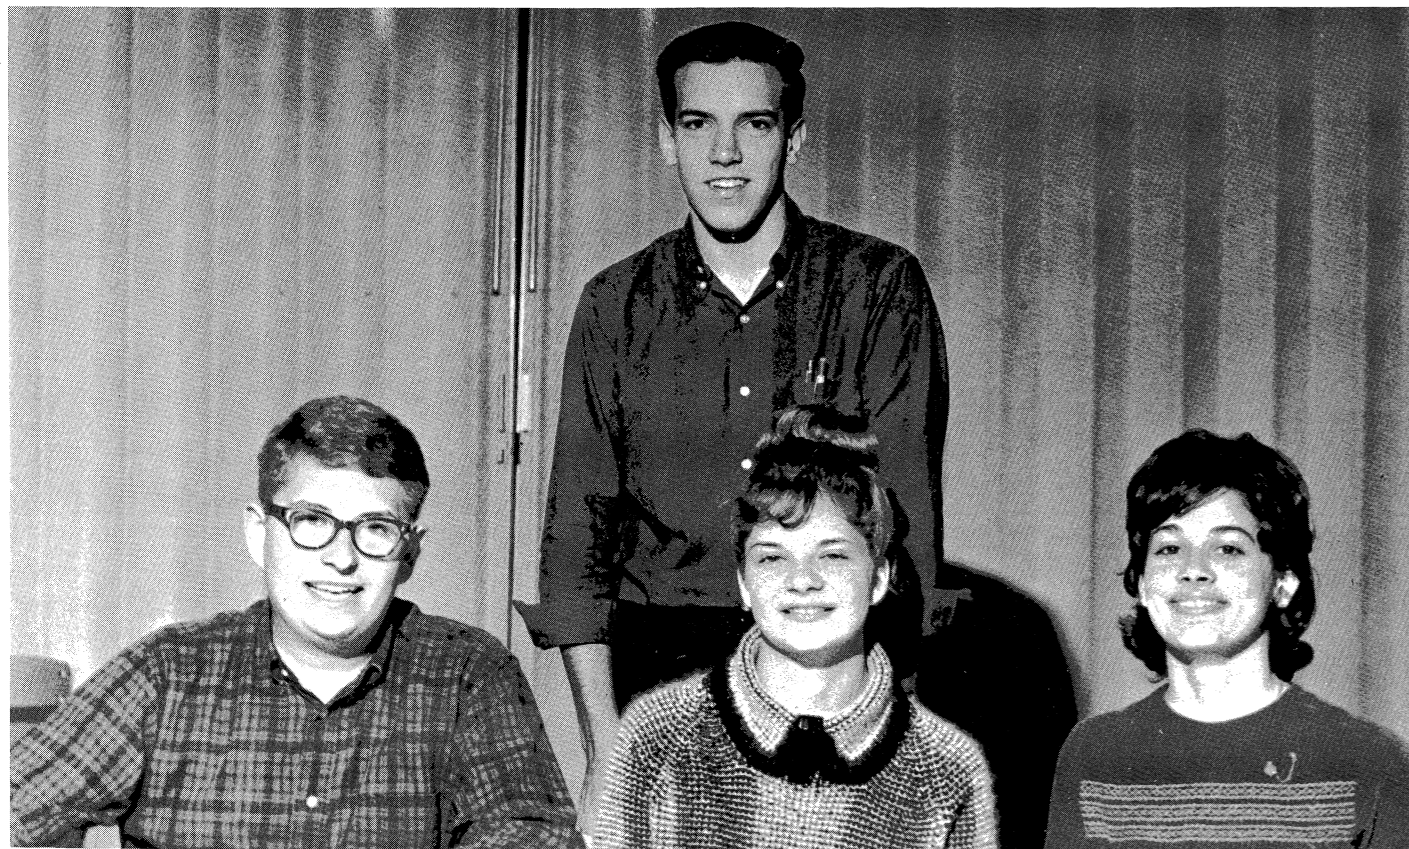

Student Council members, Vickie Applegate, Phil Knox, and Bill Hang, donate their Saturday morning to aftergame clean up.

Student Council, the school improvement organization, participated in a variety of activities, both old and new. Sponsoring the Tri-High and Winter Dances, hosting the State Board of the Illinois Association of Student Councils, and participating in the student exchange program with various Illinois high schools kept the Council members busy. The collection of food and clothes for the needy at Christmas time was the main civic project undertaken by the Student Council.

By offering the students opportunities for leadership and for assuming responsibilities, the Student Council benefited the school.

A potluck banquet, in which the members came in costumes relating to France, highlighted the year. Mrs. Stravinsky and Mrs. Koster were the co-sponsors of the French Club.

The Spanish Club related to its members the experiences that some Spanish students had in Latin America. Lectures were given on Mexico, Equador, Peru, and Spain by students who had lived in or visited these countries. The climax of the club's activities consisted of an informal picnic in the spring. Mrs. Helen Nefkins acted as the sponsor for Spanish Club.

FTA served a dual purpose: it provided information about the teaching profession, and it provided members with the opportunity of cadet-teaching.

Activities of FTA this year featured the Region IV FTA workshop, held at UHS on October 26. At Christmas, members made scrapbooks for children in local hospitals. Throughout the year, speakers informed members on opportunities for teaching in various places, including the Peace Corps. In March, the senior members of FTA benefited from the opportunity to visit classrooms in session at local schools. Miss Marie Bauer sponsored the organization.

A hot dog party was a warm welcome for the new FHA members. Selling candy to raise funds, putting out an FHA Handbook, and preparing a Christmas basket for a needy family in the community challenged the girls. The Christmas Family Potluck, the Mother's Tea, and the annual Senior Breakfast helped fulfill the club's goals of increasing their worth to others. Mrs. Hazel Hasty sponsored the FHA organization.

The Tiger's Den, a place for friends to meet outside of school, was open almost every Friday and Saturday night this year. In addition, the Den sponsored special dances several times during the year. The Homecoming and Christmas Dances supplemented similar functions which took place at school. The Valentine Dance was the highlight of the year. A king and queen, elected by the students, were crowned with ceremony. Later in the year, the Hard-Times Dance was a contrast to the more formal functions.

The Council officers improved the Den by adding a new record player and speaker. In the spring, the Den Council held a picnic for old and new members.

The AFS Committee made it possible for Urbana High School to sponsor a student exchange program. Early in the fall, the committee screened the junior applicants for the American Field Service program. Having made the general selection, the committee then narrowed down the applicants to three students.

One of the main goals of the AFS program was to raise money to help both the local representative and the foreign exchange student financially. Volunteers sold chocolate to supply the needed funds.

The brother-sister program which helped students get acquainted with Marion Joseph was also sponsored by the AFS Committee under the guidance of Miss Bauer.

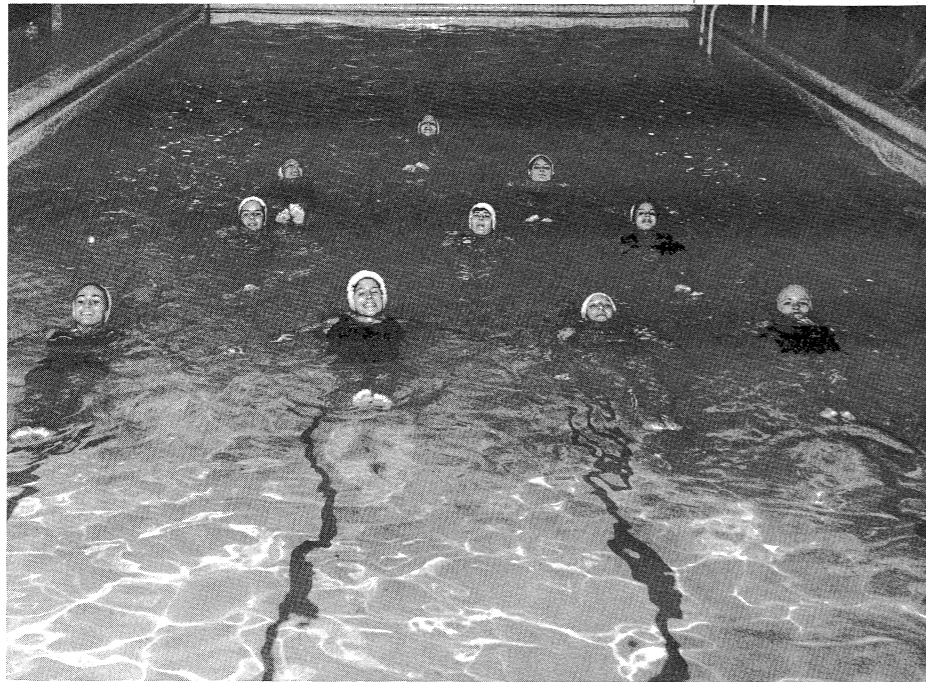

Juniors support AFS as Sandy Starr sells and Linda Faust buys.

Tryouts for Terrapin were based on the girls' ability to perform stunts and basic strokes. The new members were welcomed into the club with an informal initiation banquet in the fall. The girls began work in December since there was much preparation to be done for the spring show.

The costumes and scenery represented the hard work put in by the club members. The theme of the show was reflected in each of the numbers.

Mrs. Ione Nauseda and Miss Sherry Bovinet acted as co-sponsors for the club.

Orchesis Presents Professional Show

An open meeting in September informed interested girls about Orchesis. A three-week training period followed, ending with the selection of twelve dancers. Enlarged to twenty-four, the club picked chairman to choreograph the group dances. This year, Orchesis members decided to give two performances in May. Girls danced under the theme, 'Seasonal Review '63 and '64.' They worked hard, starting in November, to put on a good performance. Mrs. Johnson acted as sponsor.

Orchesis members, Kathy Dilley, Marilyn Bonney, Deanna Timpone, and Carol Olson, create new routine for spring show.

CHEMISTRY CLUB OFFICERS—Frank Lees, V-Pres.; Mike Bowman, Pres.; Lisa Brems, Sec.

Chemistry Club was re-established at UHS this year. It was formed with the purpose of providing both extra material for students especially interested in chemistry and an opportunity for them to spend more time in the lab experimenting.

The club had speakers come to talk about different areas of chemistry. Club members also took trips to places of interest in the area. In addition to outside speakers, several club members spoke concerning projects they were involved in. Miss Rose Rehm, sponsor, and Mrs. Carolyn Conrad, advisor, aided the club members in their individual pursuits in chemistry.

G.A.A. was an invitation to all girls interested in sports and in making friends while having fun. The new sponsor this year, Miss Bovinet, participated in games with the girls, enjoying the high spirit and fun.

Swimming, ping-pong, badminton, bowling, and the annual play-day entertained the members. Girls received points for G.A.A. participation, and at the end of the year, three awards were presented to the girls having the most points.

Science Clubs Keep Busy with Projects

JETS, the Junior Engineering Technical Society, is a club devoted to developing interest in science and mathematics at Urbana High School. All members are encouraged to work either on a project of their own design or Regitiae, the club's digital computer project. All projects will be displayed in the science contests at the university in the spring. Mr. Paul Smith acts as sponsor for the club.

Commercial Club and GAA Promote Special Interests

Two credits in a business education course were the ticket for Commercial Club membership. Goals of the club included the promotion of interest and careers in commercial work.

Compiling the TIGERECTORY, a student directory, was the main project of the year. Other activities included a celebration pizza party after the TIGERECTORY was completed, field trips, and guest speakers. Throughout the year, members became acquainted with local businesses and learned of job opportunities in commercial fields. Mrs. Alderson and Mrs. Kolkhurst were co-sponsors.

The Social Klub membership was open to all girls at Urbana High. Early in the fall, the club sponsored a "Big-Little Sister Party" so the sophomore girls could get better acquainted with the junior and senior members. Marion Joseph sang and played her guitar as part of the entertainment.

Also, Social Klub sponsored the Homecoming Dance. In December, S.K. members decorated two flocked Christmas trees for the school. In the spring, the newly elected officers planned a breakfast honoring senior members.

The Art Club provided an opportunity for artistically inclined students to work creatively on special projects, such as oil painting, weaving, and sculpturing. At regular meetings, members worked on personal art projects, held group discussions, and enjoyed guest speakers.

For their money-making project, Art Club members made and sold tiger heads. As supervisor, Mrs. Ruth Ross aided the students in their art work.

During Book Week, the Library Club sold paperbacks covering a wide range of interests to students at Urbana High. In addition, the money raised by a successful newspaper drive supplemented the club's funds.

Social activities included a Christmas Party, several Gym 'n' Swim Nights, and a tea for faculty members. The Library Club members benefited from the trips to the regional and states conventions, and enjoyed a spring picnic at Turkey Run.

Library Club and D.O. Provide Students with Practical Skills

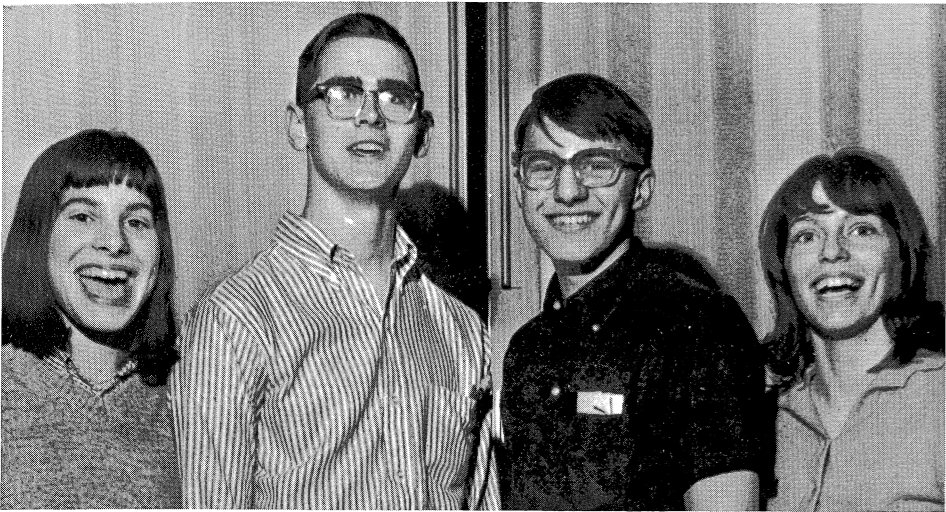

Mrs. Koster sponsored the newest language club at Urbana High School, the German Club. The club's purposes for organizing were to promote participation in activities for German students, to stimulate interest in German culture and language, and to provide an opportunity for fellowship among German-speaking students.

Students held monthly meetings, and, as a special activity, organized a German banquet. To raise funds, the club members sold pompoms.

Juniors and seniors were eligible for Diversified Occupations, co-operative part-time vocational training. The D.O. program enabled students to receive, simultaneously, a high school diploma and on-the-job experience. After extensive counseling by the D.O. Co-ordinator, Donald McAllister, students were placed in jobs for a minimum of three hours daily. Students also received one hour of related classroom instruction each day. Until their training was completed, students earned beginners wages.

THESPIAN OFFICERS—Alicia Weber, Treas.; Bill Walker, Sec.; Nick Altenbernd, Pres.; Kathy Brown, V-Pres.

Energetic students with interest in Urbana-High dramatic productions formed the club of Delta Sigma and Thespians. Students earned the required number of points for membership by participating in the cast of a play, or by working on one of numerous committees.

To be eligible for Delta Sigma, five points were required; ten points were required for membership in the National Thespians Society. The two clubs met jointly, with the same officers; the main projects of both clubs were the spring and fall productions, "You Can't Take It With You" and "The Twelfth Night." Mrs. Korn acted as the drama coach.

MAJORETTES—Gay Williams, Betty Simpson, Kathy Dilley and Kathy Lowry, Head Majorettes; Lyn Radebaugh, Cathy McKnelly.

Orchestra and Band Provide Musical Entertainment

Under the direction of Mr. Joseph Giewartowski, the Urbana High Orchestra had a very successful year. The students enjoyed studying a wide range of composers, including the semi-contemporary artist Samuel Barber, and the very modern composer Paul Hindemith. The orchestra spent a great deal of time working on the famous Second Symphony by the Finnish composer Jean Sibelius.

In February, the orchestra held an assembly to give a preview of the Winter Concert. Before playing the pieces, Mr. Giewartowski explained to the students a little about the structure of a symphony.

In March, under the direction of Mr. John Book, the Varsity Band presented a concert in cooperation with the Concert Choir and Girls' Glee Club. In the spring, the Varsity and Concert Bands combined to perform the annual outdoor Twilight Concert.

The 1963 football Tigers were both a young and an injury-ridden team. Although he had twelve returning lettermen, Coach Warren Smith had ten offensive and nine defensive starting positions to fill. Co-captain Mike Renfrew and half-back Mike Sheets were the only veterans remaining from 1962's championship squad. Injuries played a major part in shaping Urbana's football fortunes this year. At one time or another, co-captain Randy Moore, Ron Edwards, Mark Montgomery, Kim Kimberlin, Mike Sheets, Dike Bialeschki, Ron Reynolds, and Frank Ashby all sustained serious injuries.

Urbana opened the season with a 13—7 victory at Rantoul's field. Billed as one of the best in Eagle history, the team boasted a fleet offense and a rugged defense. However, Mike Sheets easily penetrated the defense to grab a pass from Ron Reynolds for an early touchdown. Still in the first half, Bill Brown caught a Rantoul punt and sped 76 yards for Urbana's second touchdown. Dick Parks kicked the extra point. A stubborn Tiger defense controlled the rest of the game as it held Rantoul to 14 yards. The Eagles' only score came after recovering a fumble on the Urbana six yard line.

Once again led by their defense, the Tigers played to a 7—7 tie with Decatur MacArthur. Three times in the first half the Generals had a first down on Urbana's four but couldn't score. Ironically, MacArthur's score was set up by alert Urbana line play. Immediately following Norm Baker's recovery of a MacArthur fumble, a General halfback intercepted a pass and sprinted for the score. On the next series of plays, end Randy Moore made a spectacular catch for a 56 yard gain. Fullback Rick Legue carried for the score and Dick Parks converted.

first and led through most of the second quarter. Then, on the last play of the half, Dick Parks hit Randy Moore, who out-manuevered three defenders to snag the ball in the end zone. Parks' conversion ended the half with the score, Urbana 7—Danville 6. Early in the second half, the Tigers lost quarterback Ron Reynolds due to a foot injury. Urbana's defense held until the fourth quarter when Danville drove for two more touchdowns. The final score was Danville 19—Urbana 7.

Urbana's meeting with Centralia proved to be a defensive battle. Urbana launched a long drive that was seemingly stopped on the 26 yard line. However, on a fourth down situation, Dick Parks booted a 40 yard field goal. The Tigers regained the ball on the Orphan's 24, but couldn't reach the goal line. Parks came in again to account for another three points, this time from 25 yards. On the next series of downs the Orphans retaliated with a long touchdown run to tie the score 6—6. A mix-up on the second half kickoff cost the Tigers a 2 point safety. Urbana failed to score again as Dick Parks just missed two more field goals. Although they led in statistics, the Tigers lost 6—8.

A large Homecoming crowd watched the Tigers down Lincoln 28—14. Capitalizing on an Urbana mistake, Lincoln took over the ball on the 10 yard line. A few plays later the Railsplitters completed a pass for the score. In the second quarter, the Tigers capped a 75 yard drive as Frank Ashby plunged for the T.D. Parks kicked the extra point. ballplayer in the end zone to put the Tigers ahead 9—7. With only a few seconds left in the half, Ron Edwards caught a screen pass from Ralph Waldron and raced 56 yards to the goal. In the second half Waldron clicked again, this time with Tom Tresslar, to make the score 21—7. Parks added the extra point. Later, Tresslar returned an intercepted pass 78 yards before being nabbed. Ron Edwards claimed the touchdown. The Tiger Reserves allowed Lincoln's final tally in the waning minutes of the game.

Injuries hit the Tigers hard as they lost to Springfield 25—6. The Senators recovered a Tiger fumble on the opening kickoff and scored two plays later to take an early lead. Immediately after the next kickoff, Urbana fumbled again and was hard-pressed to prevent another Springfield T.D. The Tigers evened the score when Frank Ashby recovered a fumble and then ran the touchdown. Mike Sheets, Kim Kimberlin, and Mark Montgomery were all sidelined with injuries during the second half. Minus both linebackers and a tackle, Urbana's defense didn't hold. Springfield scored four more times.

Urbana trounced Schlarman 27—4 in what may be the last game between the two schools.

Sophomore Charles Bareither opened the scoring with a 49 yard dash. Schlarman tied the game in the second quarter on a one yard plunge. Early in the second half, Mike Sheets climaxed a Tiger drive as he went all the way on a 37 yard reverse. After the defense held Schlarman to minus yardage, Bill May led the offense down the field again. Bareither carried for the score. Tiger guard John Butler recovered a fumble on the next kickoff to set up a touchdown pass from Waldron to Edwards. In the final game at McKinley Field, Mike Renfrew tackled a Mattoon player in the end zone for a safety. Later, Mike Sheets intercepted a pass and went for the score. Then, Tom Tresslar forced a fumble, and Brian Ford carried it across the goal line. The Railsplitters managed to score twice in the fourth quarter, and the final score was Urbana 15—Mattoon 13.

Champaign defeated Urbana 12—0 in a game that was closer than the score. On the first play of the game, a Champaign defender intercepted a pass and returned it to the Urbana 5 yard line. The Maroons scored on the next play, a pass of their own. In the middle of the second quarter, Champaign sprung loose a 66 yard touchdown run to end the evenings scoring. Mike Renfrew garnered both the Dick Pittman award M.V.P. award. The senior co-captain was also named to All-State and All-American squads.

Hard work and determination inspired by Coach Gene Armer characterized this year's cross-country team. The harriers, paced by captain, Mark Schmidt, did not lose a single dual meet. Schmidt, adding to his last year's achievements, was undefeated in dual meets and set a new course record at Blair Park. Adding depth to the team were, Fred Goglia, Ron Hine, and Mike Jones, seniors; Steve Hausperger, and Kirk Cureton, juniors; Paul Bennett and Dave Parkinson, sophomores. The solid strength of the tigers rolled over the Champaign Maroons, 15—50, a perfect score. To top off the season, this team, one of the finest that coach Armer has trained, earned both the conference and the district championships.

Young Tigers Work Hard and Gain Experience

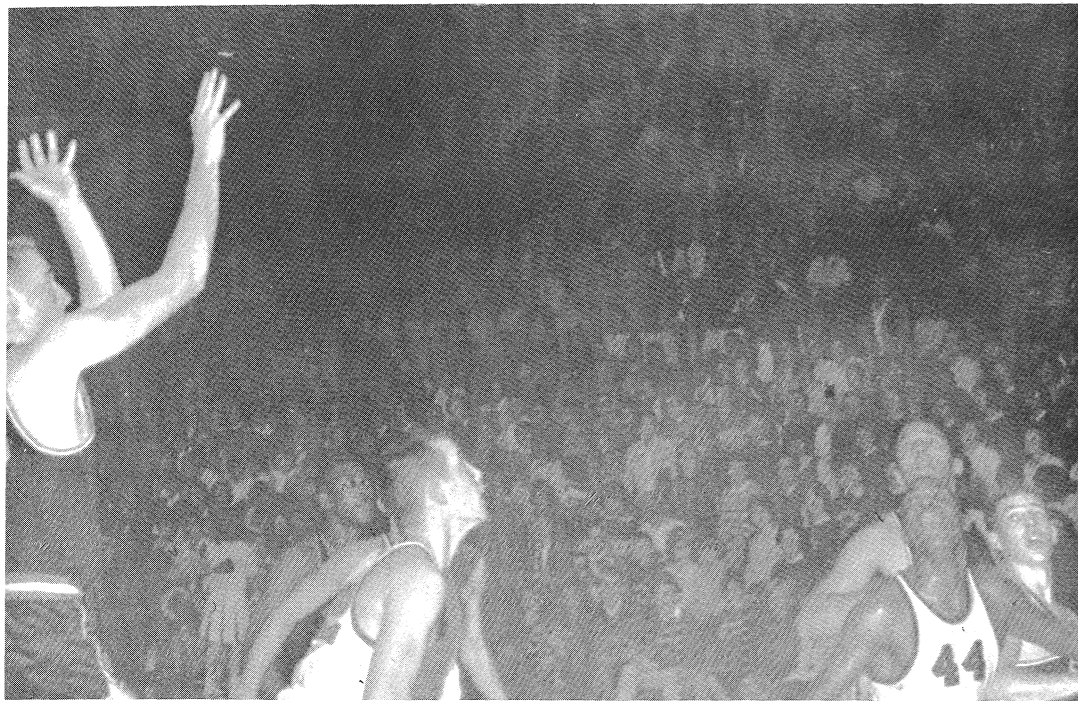

The Urbana Tiger basketball team coached by Oscar Adams played an eventful season this year. The competition was tough, and Urbana suffered many heartbreaks as games were lost by only a few points. One of the close losses was against the Springfield Senators. The Tigers, down by six at the end of the first half, caught fire and pushed the Senators to a close finish; the final gun leaving the score 62—64—Springfield. Similarly against Unity, the Tigers played hard but lost by only one basket. During the entire second half, the Tigers and Rockets were only one or two points apart. Mike Renfrew tied the game as the gun sounded. In the final thirteen seconds of overtime play, the Rockets went out in front by two points to close the scoring, leaving Urbana the loser, 54—52.

Sophomores Show Promise for Future UHS Teams

The Tigers took their first Big 12 win by defeating the Bloomington Raiders. Bloomington led 20—21 at the end of the half, but following early-half free throws by Larry Stevenson, the Tigers were on their way. Howard, Tresslar, and Stevenson poured on the points to beat the Raiders 53—42. The Tigers showed that they could play efficiently by defeating Rich Central in the Danville tournament. The team put in 29 points in the last quarter with Charlie Howard leading the way with 10 points and 10 rebounds. Again against Lincoln, Urbana showed its strength. Lincoln, rated high in the state standings, was helpless against the Tiger onslaught. Ralph Waldron led the scoring with 23 points as the Tigers pulled ahead to win 75—61.

Nothing will block this sure Stevenson shot.

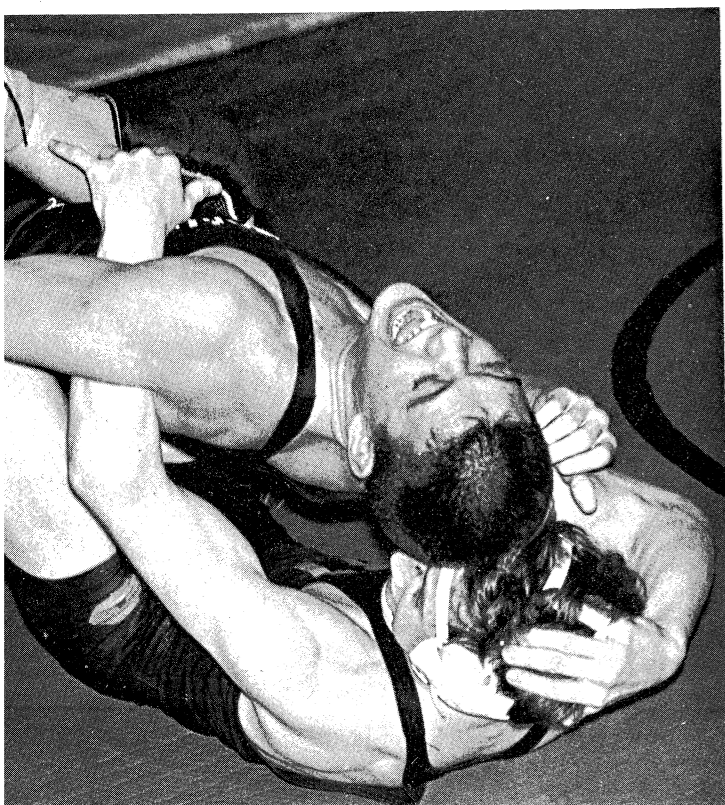

Wrestlers Send Two to State

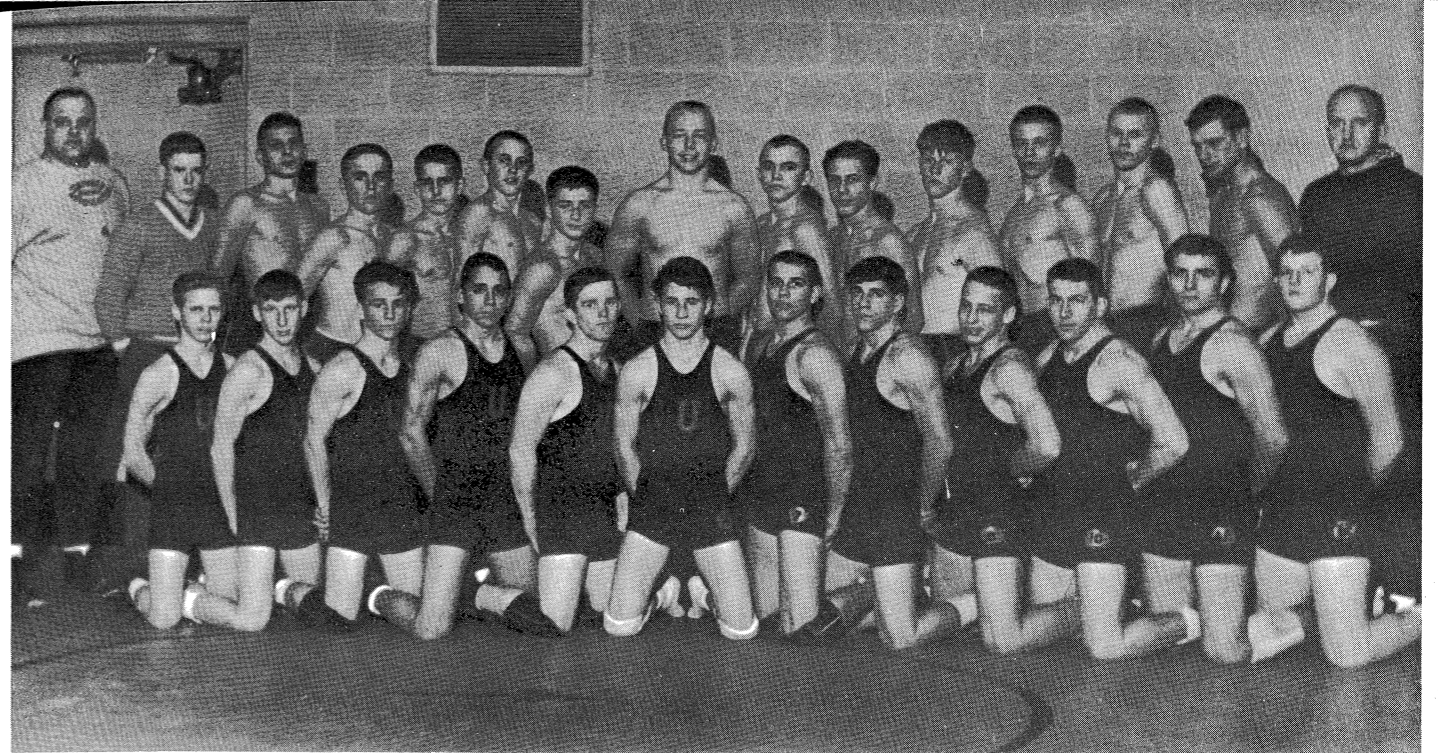

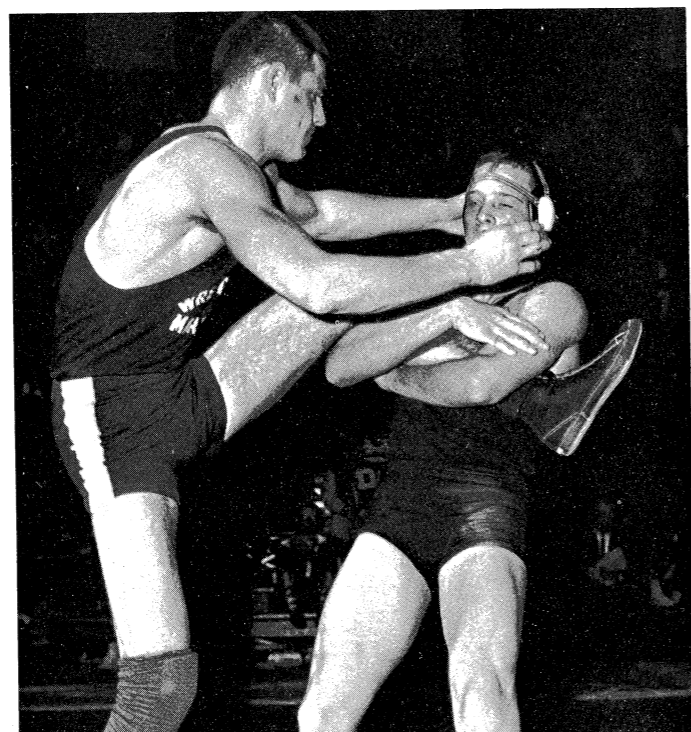

Steve Licht scores predicament in district.

Dick Slade struggles for figure four.

Although the wrestling Tigers won only three dual meets, their record is deceptive. Several close meets were decided by equally close matches which could have gone either way. The wrestlers traveled to Decatur MacArthur's midyear tournament for the first time and won second place. Championships for Butch Brown and Captain Dick Slade in the district paced the team to third place finishes in both meets. The sectional team of Butch Brown, Dick Slade, Mark Montgomery, and Frank Ashby placed seventh out of twenty-two schools and advanced both Butch and Dick to the state meet.

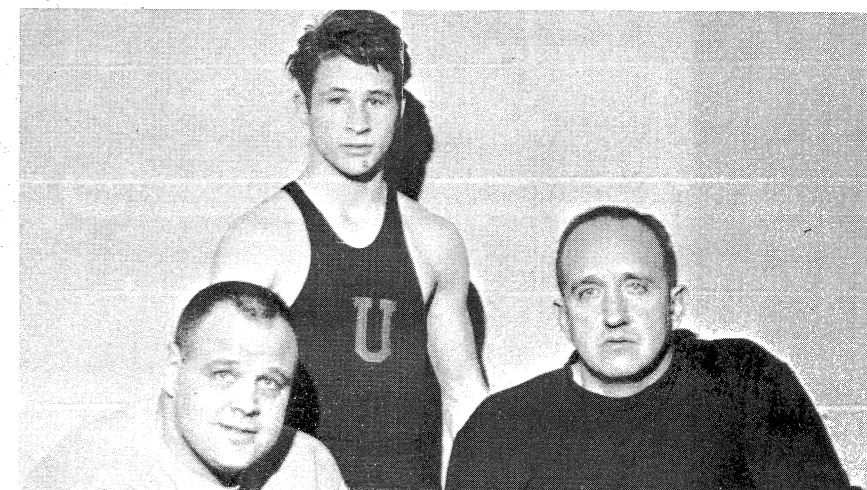

A leg pick-up works for Paul Jacobs.

Swimmers Set New Pool Record

Urbana's 1963-64 swimming team finished the season with a 5-6 record against stiff competition. The swimmers featured several strong individuals including Bill Noyes, and Larry Smith. Backstrokers Steve Meier and Captain Paul Beaty took turns beating each other's pool records. After a slow start, the tankers came back to take their last three dual meets and capture fourth in the conference and third in the district. Beaty, Noyes, and Meier all went to the state meet and won ninth, tenth, and twelfth places in their respective events.

Coach Gene Armer developed an extraordinary track team this year. One of his biggest surprises was that captain Tom Judd could run the 880 like lightning. During the meets, long distance fans watched aghast everytime Mark Schmidt jogged his 4:30 mile. Ralph Waldron kept the 440 and the 880 working for Urbana. In the field events, Dick Parks seemed to be using a sky hook in the pole vault, and Willie Willard and Truman Jackson eliminated opposing competition in the high jump. Chief dash men, Charlie Howard, Bob Jorgensen, and Emmett Freeman left smoking trails as they proved tough competition for Champaign's usual dash armada.

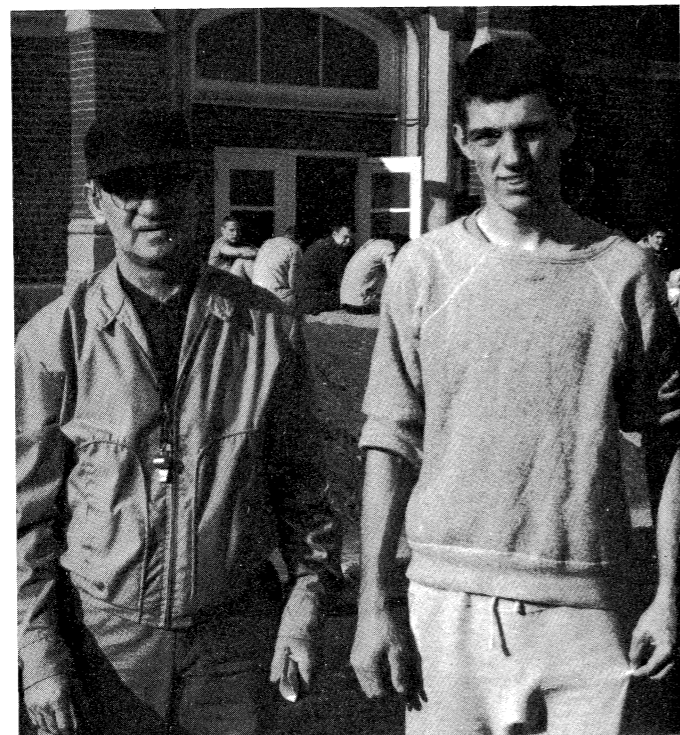

Parks sizes up the pole vault.

Wins at Oak Park

Mike Sheets and Mike Renfrew pushed the shot put towards distant horizons for this year's team, and Sheets and Tom Tresslar discouraged opposition in the discus. The team started the season off big with the championship of Class B schools at Oak Park. Coach Armer started the team working early to prepare for this meet, and the work paid off. At the Paris relays, Urbana won all their relays except one to push the team to the top for this championship. This superior coach and team deserve a lot of credit for the hard work and the excellent results that they have obtained this year.

Of course, the pride of the Urbana track team is in its depth. Athletes such as Charlie Barie-ther, Brian Ford, Mike Jones, Brett Sutton, John Mamer, Kirk Cureton, Fred Goglia, and Clarence Winfrey took over when the going got tough.

Willie Ward is about to kick the bar down.

Richard Sullivan and Bill Brown torque out.

Balanced Golf Team Becomes Area Power

The 1964 golfers featured a combination of experienced veterans and strong newcomers. The returning lettermen were Bob Fleming, Lou Casagrande, Steve Ruppel, and John Chaney while Larry Merrick was the first of the sophomores to gain a playing berth. Bad weather during the early spring resulted in the cancellation of both meets and practices. Yet Urbana won its first meet 8½ to 6½ over Schlarman and tied Danville 7½ to 7½. With better weather and more practices the Tigers became one of the area powers.

Bob Fleming keeps his eye on the ball despite overcast sky.

From Our Superintendent . . .

One of the most precious of our human endowments is memory. Considered chiefly in youth as a sine qua non to learning and accomplishment, it becomes a veritable storehouse for our later years. I trust that this splendid Rosemary will contribute to that treasure house highlights of your high school years and heartwarming reminiscences of friends you've known.

To the Urbana High School Seniors of 1964, I extend my best wishes for a challenging and fruitful life. As you leave high school, knowledge is increasing at an incredible rate and far reaching, fundamental changes are taking place in contemporary society. Never before in history has education assumed so important a role. I hope that your graduation from Urbana High School will give impetus to further accomplishments and achievements. May you enjoy a long, happy, and worthwhile life.

To the Seniors of '64

Just as we get to know you and learn to appreciate your abilities and accomplishments you leave us. This is, of course, as it should be, but we shall miss you.

You have completed one phase of your education, but you have not ended your learning. You will be learning on the job or in college, so be ever alert to your opportunities and make the most of them. I wish for you the success and happiness which should be yours.

MISS SARAH J. FISHER
 Accompanying her numerous duties as Dean of Girls and Assistant Principal, were a variety of other tasks and responsibilities which Miss Fisher ably carried out.

Serving as Social Klub sponsor, Chairman of Activity and Faculty Calendar Committee, Chairman of Scholastic and Honor Societies, and Co-Chairman of Guidance Committee kept our Dean sufficiently occupied. She still found time, however, to aid all who requested assistance.

Our Deans

MR. RICHARD M. THOMPSON
 Mr. Thompson proficiently handled the job of Dean of Boys and Assistant Principal this year, fulfilling the varied responsibilities associated with that position. He, too, was very eager to help students solve any individual problems that came up, especially those involving a choice of career or a selection of college.

In Memoriam

Among our many fond memories in this Rosemary, we include the memory of the late Superintendent of Urbana Schools, Mr. James H. Cherry. We consider it especially appropriate in our tribute to the late Mr. Cherry, who served as Superintendent since 1960, to include his own words on "memories."

"As life slowly fills, memories give us buoyancy . . . Without memories there could be only the present. Even the future is possible only because there is, for each of us, a past. The crucible of the present out of which tomorrow is forged contains always the infusible element of memories."

CLASS OF '64

Being the first class initiated into Urbana High School as Sophomores, the class of '64 assumed immediate responsibilities. Their high-spirited efforts were respected by upperclassmen.

Staging a pancake supper one cold February night successfully brought on a "Soft Southern Breeze" later in May.

In an enriching senior year, they have become acquainted with political theories, articles in Harpers, and Erlenmeyer flasks.

Class of '65 Rose Victorious with "Emerald City" After Laborious Preparation

The final tally after fiery campaigns resulted in a slate of capable officers: Eddie Simpson, president; Joann Hartman, vice-president; Karen Bays, publicity chairman; Rosella Ruckes, secretary; Stan Shobe, treasurer.

With the arrival of class rings in the fall, members of the Class of '65 finally felt like upperclassmen. Occupied with preparations for the annual prom, homework, and other activities to the point of hysteria, our juniors, nevertheless, utilized the year successfully. They not only improved UHS, but more importantly, made self-improvement, as evidenced by the many juniors eligible for Psi.

Sophomore, with Eager Excess of Spirit, Were Welcomed

Breathlessly panting after three flights of stairs, nervously adjusting to behind-the-wheel instruction, bewilderingly searching for classrooms—these were a few signs of sophomores invading UHS. Soon, though, they attacked all phases of high-school life like veteran seniors, discovering the secrets of manipulation into the lunch line, locker rooms, and class offices.

Leading this year's procession for class offices were John Schrupf, president; Herb Tiedeman, vice-president; Pam Harris, treasurer; Nancy Bowser, secretary; and Barbara King, publicity chairman. Our sophomores were well-represented in clubs and sports, as well as in the sophomore honorary, Lambda.

Rosemary staff works at a late night to complete the final deadline.

The noisy pluck-pluck of typewriters in the wee hours of the morning, smeared carbon paper on hands and faces, the smell of cokes and potato chips—these are all parts of editing a yearbook. It's really not bad at all, though. It just gets somewhat hectic before each deadline when everyone rushes around frantically, yelling for pictures and copy. Few people realize how much work goes into producing a yearbook. However, like any worthwhile activity, it is time well spent for a purpose that is well worth accomplishing.

As the last pages go to press and the staff breathes a sigh of relief, I would like to express my thanks to those persons who made this book possible—to the Rosemary staff members who gave a great amount of time and much hard work, to the photographers who were called upon on all occasions in order to get just the "right" picture, to Mrs. Le Seure whose expert advice guided us at many trying moments, and to the students and faculty of Urbana High School, for without you this 1964 Rosemary would have been impossible to produce.

Jill Harrison
