"Every year since 1958-59, UHS has received a foreign student for the school year and sent a student abroad for the summer. The AFS program is world famous and our school is very privileged to have participated in it every year," says Sandy Starr, AFS committee chairman. "It should also be noted that the program is supported solely by student money-raising projects."

Miss Bauer, AFS sponsor, has welcomed students from such countries as Finland, Japan, Ethiopia, and Brazil. This year UHS is very happy to be hosting Athole Klitscher from New Zealand. Athole is staying with Kay Hubbard and her family. Last summer Rick Lyman went to Switzerland and stayed with the Naef family. Both Athole and Rick presented slides of their countries at school assemblies.

With a kiss the Homecoming festivities began. Carol Cribbet was crowned the 1964 Homecoming Queen by the football captains, Mike Sheets and Kim Kimberlin, and escorted by the senior class president, Richard Briscoe. Her attendants were Pam Harris, escorted by junior class vice-president, John Frye, and Betty Phillips, escorted by sophomore class president, Woody Iles.

The Queen and her court then joined the Homecoming Parade. The class floats followed the royalty with the senior float, "Breakfast of Champions," winning first place. The parade, led by the UHS marching band, passed through the center of town to the delight of the younger Tiger fans standing on the sidewalks.

Tiger Team Is Undefeated

Coach Warren Smith's 1964 Tiger Football Team was possibly our first team in seventeen years with no major weaknesses. Incorporated into the fighting unit were a defense which allowed opponents only six touchdowns, an offense which was extremely versatile with good depth, and an exceptional attitude towards personal improvement and the unity of the team. With these assets, the Tigers earned, against very tough teams, a perfect winning record, nine out of nine games, to become the Big 12 Champs.

Six tremendous players provided good running ability, excellent blocking, and consistent passing ability to secure Urbana's triumphs. Ralph Waldron, quarterback, who led the diversified attack, earned his place as an All-State Football Player by his passing, running, and fantastic blocking plays.

All-State football player, Ralph Waldron breaks away for a long gain.

Football action often becomes chaotic.

Behind Waldron were Mike Sheets (a three letter winner), Bill Lillard, Charlie Bariether, and Brian Ford. When scoring was needed, these players came through with the points. Mike Casey and Tom Tresslar were two of the biggest ends that the Tiger's have had at one time.

The offensive line, one of the top ones that our school has seen, sprung the backs loose by their explosive action and hard hitting. 170 pound Paul Jacob, who was the top man at the guard position, was an example of the advantage showed by the line's speed. In the line, which could open those mammoth holes, were Joe Hewkin, Tom Tresslar, Rex Renfrew, L. C. Owens, Dan Franklin, and Dike Bialeschki.

The Urbana Tigers— a Superb Team

Quickness and pursuit were the qualities of the Tiger defense, which successfully held opponents to 564 yards rushing and 447 yards passing. Kim Kimberlin, who was voted an All-State linebacker, proved to be a threat to ball carriers. Ralph Waldron, Joe Hewkin, L. C. Owens, Mike Casey, Rex Renfrew, Dike Bialeschki, Brian Ford, and Charlie Briether made hard, sure tackles to seal escape routes, and Mike Sheets, Tom Tresslar, and Paul Jacob stopped ball-carriers repeatedly. As an example as to what the defense could do, against a potent offense at Lincoln, they allowed only 34 yards in Lincoln's 34 plays.

Good leadership from Captains, and Seniors plus interest in football kept the morale of the team at a high peak as shown by their victories over undefeated Centralia, Springfield, Bloomington, and the once defeated Champaign team. In practice, the team ironed out mistakes that were made in the first two games, and then met the challenge of the rugged Big 12 competition to become the third undefeated Urbana team in school history.

Tiger teamwork is our most important asset.

Gang tackling pays off

Urbana men are on the scene to throw opponent for a loss.

The sophomore football team was one of the most promising that Urbana High School has seen. Undeclared in all of their games, the team proved to be the superior one in the Urbana area. One of the biggest upsets was over the Champaign Maroons. Champaign's sophomore teams undefeated for 55 consecutive games fell twice to the merciless pounding of the Tigers! Another great game was over Mattoon with the score continuing to rise when the reserves went in. Captains of the sophomore football team were Jim Primmer and Brad Humes. The top backs were Nick Freeman, Junior Pelmore, Brad Humes, and Jerry Lyman, and holding in the line were Rusty Graybeal, Jim Primmer, and Ron Smith.

Cross-Country Team Wins 8 Out of 11.

Once again Coach Gene Armer and a U.H.S. cross-country team, through exhausting practice, produced a winning season. Out of eleven dual meets, the Tiger harriers brought eight victories to U.H.S., and they placed second in the district cross-country meet and seventeenth in the state. In the conference meet, Mark Schmidt led the pack winning first with a record time of 9:23:1. Other outstanding seniors were Kirk Cureton, Dave Hodgman, and Marty Slade. Sophomore Alan Taylor was the first man among the sophomores and juniors with George Faber, Dave Parkinson, Lewis Childress, and Stan Dilley following closely. The 1965 cross-country team worked out in the summer heat and the chill of early winter to uphold Urbana's tradition of fine teams.

Captain, Mark Schmidt, sails along before Champaign's first man.

1964 UHS CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM—First row: Danny Sherrod, Dan Mortland, Bob Henderson, John Brengle, Kirk Cureton, Richard Briscoe, Nick Hastings, Marvin Slade. Second

All join hands and circle left.

The 1965 Urbana High School basketball team won 16 games and lost 9 finishing 3rd in the Big 12 conference and having beaten rival Champaign in an early season win. Every night seemed like a good one as the Tiger's brilliant outshooting brought in victories. In addition to a high hitting percentage, the cagers were able to pick the ball from off of the boards with fine rebounding form. Captains Ralph Waldren and Jerry Treat provided the leadership necessary to mold the team into a working unit. Many times Waldren drove through crowded ranks to slip the basketball around, under, and over opponents then into the basket, and Treat was a consistent performer under the basket as well as outside of the key. Seniors Richard Pursley, who dribbled the ball through many tight situations, Richard Briscoe, Jack Chandler, and Geoff Mautz gave the team its depth.

Tiger's Win 16 of 25

The 1965 team contained several surprising individuals from the Junior and Sophomore classes. Don McDonald, the team's highest scorer with 16.6 points a game, was known to the Urbana sports fans as Lucky McDonald due to his accurate hitting talent, and pumping in beautiful turn-around-jump shots, Mike Casey earned a reputation as excellent center material. Sophomore, Larry Johnson and Clarence Winfrey gained valuable experience working in important games and did much to bolster the strength of Urbana.

Larry Johnson gets to the loose ball first, as usual.

Basketball is the second sport in which the 1964-1965 Sophomores won the Big 12 Championship. The Tigers lost only once in 18 games with two of their victories being over rival Champaign. Captains of the sophomore team were Jerry Lyman and Larry Johnson, Johnson being transferred to the varsity squad after the first few games. The main scorers were Jerry Lyman, Bill Armon, Bob Birt, Steve Leithleiter, Nick Freeman, and Junior Pelmore. These boys blended in a well-balanced team which liked to run, work the ball in near to the basket, and work together. Other valuable players were Joe Valerine, Gordie Herbert, Gary Runyan, Landon Walker, Scott Parker, Dave Larson, and Ed Kuester.

Coach Gremer's 1964-1965 wrestling team closed the regular season with a record of 1 win and 8 losses. While the team did not win many meets, there were outstanding highlights for individual wrestlers. Paul Jacob, team captain, won 8 out of 9 matches pinning 4 opponents for the maximum score. He later avenged the single loss by out-pointing the Danville victor in the Conference tournament. Louis Fincham won 5 and had 1 pin, and Joe Hewkin won 4 with 1 pin in regular season meets. Marty Slade, John Chaney, and Rick Brown each won 3 matches.

Coach Stan Summers arranged a tough schedule for the 1965 Tiger Swimming team to which the team reacted with good spirit and fine individual efforts. Captain Bill Noyes usually led the group in the 400 and 200 yard freestyle, while senior, Steve Gilvert, and junior, Paul Brown held off opposition in the breast stroke. Besides Noyes, Kirk Cureton, Smitty Hopkins, Paul VanArsdell, Bob Mussey, and Dave Lockard put in fine efforts in the Freestyle. Bill Munse, a junior, was a top contender in both the backstroke and the crawl, and perhaps the most versatile swimmers on the team were Ted Beyers and Bob Scott who proved themselves in the four different strokes of the individual medley relay. Nick Hastings and Paul Bennett were especially good in the butterfly.

The 1965 track practice got a late start with winter weather lasting into the first days of spring. At the beginning of the track season, when this book was printed, the Tiger team showed promise with strong returning individuals and excellent newcomers. Seniors who were outstanding for their three years in high school were Mark Schmidt, Kirk Cureton, and Ralph Waldron—middle distance, Mike Sheets—shot and discus, and John Colson and Bill Brown—sprints. Track captain, Charlie Bariether took control of the 440 in early practices, and Clarence Winfrey and Bill Lillard worked on the other sprints. In the hurdles were Robert Hamm, Mike Casey, and Bill Brown. In the field events, some competitors were Evan Holmes, and Dan Franklin—pole vault, Bob Smith, and Gerald Wood—high jump and broad jump, and Rex Renfrew and Tom Tresslar adding to the discus and shot put. After practicing in the tight cornered Urbana Armory, the Tiger team placed second in the first meet of the season, the Oak Park Relays.

Four returning lettermen made this year's Golf Team a very successful one. Lettermen Lou Casagrande, Larry Merrick, Don MacDonald, and John Chaney held four of the top five positions throughout the year. The many challenges needed to fill the fifth spot, however, showed the strength of the team.

Late March saw the golfers trudge out to a rain-soaked field to spray shagg balls in all directions. Finally the weather warmed up, and golf balls began to fly a little straighter, and the scores were a little lower. As May came in, the team prepared for the District and Big Twelve meets.

Le Français, El Español

The French Club, which met on the second Thursday of each month, started off the year with initiation of new members in the fall. Later in the year they held such major events as a Christmas caroling party, a banquet featuring special French dishes and a combination fashion show and talent show in April.

Spanish Club also held its meetings on the second Thursday of each month. Events of the year included a Christmas party with a sombrero shaped pinata, a guest speaker from the University of Illinois, and a field trip in the Spring.

German Club, headed by Peggy Hageman, featured several guest speakers during the course of the year. Another major project was selling stationery that had an imprint of Urbana High School at the top of each piece. They also held a picnic in the spring.

Initiation for New Latin Club members was held in the fall. Slaves who were bought at an auction early in the year served their masters at the annual banquet in March. The banquet featured tasty dishes and ridiculous stunts.

FHA, headed this year by Nancy Gardner, carried out a number of projects during the school year. As many students may remember, their special project in the fall was a taffy apple sale.

Another major event that the club scheduled was a combination mothers' tea and fashion show at the end of the year. This is an annual event held to give the members a chance to display some of the skills they have learned in the field of home economics.

FHA members were initiated in a candle lighting ceremony.

FTA held initiation for new members early in the fall. As in the past, it was an impressive ceremony with each initiate lighting a candle. This year there are about sixty-five members.

The main highlight for the senior members was the cadet teaching program. For six weeks at the beginning of second semester, the student taught at grade schools in the district and at the junior high.

FTA officers for the year were Pat Long, president, Sherry Clemins, vice-president, Sally Walker, secretary, Georgianna Benner, treasurer, Gay Williams, parliamentarian, Ann Houseworth, librarian, and Nancy Bowser, historian.

Drama Groups Delight Many with Two Plays

Thespians and Delta Sigma, the UHS drama groups, present two plays annually. The month before each production is filled with rehearsing, building sets, collecting props, sewing costumes, selling tickets, and enjoying the fun and excitement of the theater. All the members share in the responsibility of making the play a success, and they all share in the fun.

Thespian and Delta Sigma Produce "The Crucible"

John Proctor (left) and his wife Elizabeth, portrayed by Natalie Brodie, are on trial for witchcraft in the highly emotional Salem witch trials. John Proctor (right) played by Bill Walker, stubbornly rejects the pleas of his wife and Deputy Governor Danforth played by Lou McClellan to denounce his convictions.

Professor Metz (Leland VanKoten) has a friendly embrace for Maggie (Jenny Patterson).

Dinner Guest Stays

Thespians and Delta Sigma chose The Man Who Came to Dinner by George Kaufman and Moss Hart for their spring production. The play given on April 23, and 24, was set in Mesalia, Ohio in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley. Mrs. Korn, director, was helped by Kathie Allen, Assistant Director, and Natalie Brodie, Assistant to the Director. The light comic touch of this play contrasted with the serious presentation of The Crucible in the fall.

Sheridan Whiteside, and Maggie were leading figures in THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER.

"Will you sign for this package please?" Banjo (Jerry Williams) asks if he presents Miss Preen (Theryl Newland) to Sheridan.

UHS Library Club was able to clear a handsome profit on their paperback book sale this year, making it possible for them to sponsor a variety of other projects. In December, they gave a Christmas party and got together a Christmas basket. They held a Gym and Swim and planned a trip to Turkey Run State Park. They were also able to purchase more books for the library.

Diversified Occupations is a program at Urbana High School for giving students in both junior and senior high vocational training along with their academic courses. The student alternates half days between school and his job, working at least three hours a day at the regular starting salary.

The D.O. program offers several advantages to students who take part. It allows him to learn a trade, and to earn money and a diploma at the same time. Besides this, it gives the student a chance to secure a position after graduation.

SUCCESS AND

Our Superintendent

Ray Braun

Congratulations to the Staff for what I predict will be another splendid Rosemary. The first yearbook was published in 1910, and its editor was the distinguished Author, Mark Van Doren, one of Urbana High School's most famous alumni. Since then, there have been many wonderful Rosemarys, and I trust this will be a worthy representative.

This year the community under the guidance of the Urbana Board of Education reaffirmed its faith in education by approving a third addition to Urbana High School somewhat larger than the entire original building.

To the seniors of 1965, I extend my very best wishes for a long, happy and worthwhile life.

To the Class of '65

Your Rosemary staff has exerted a great effort this year to capture some of the highlights of this school year. As years pass, the memories which were once very close and warm for you will begin to fade.

From time to time you will wish to refresh your memory of your years at Urbana High School and I am sure that "remembering" will be much easier as you look at this Rosemary.

I wish for you success as you move toward your life goals and I hope you will remember your years here with fondness.

R. S. Davis

Seniors Play the Waiting Game

Senioritis has been described as a feeling of time passing too slowly and homework that just doesn't seem to get done. It becomes more acute as days get warmer and longer and talk turns from chem. assignments to college plans, job opportunities, and those last senior parties. But memories of the Big 12 Football Championship, First Place Float, Mrs. Seward's pig, and the class picnic are not lost in senioritis—they are a part of its sadness, a part of the first awareness that the routine and security will soon be gone.

OFFICERS—Richard Briscoe, President; Alicia Weber, Vice President; Carol Cribbet, Publicity Chrm.; Dave Hodgman, Treasurer; and SEATED Sally Walker, Secretary.

Steve Gilbert, Ken Marshall, and Louis Casagrande scrape the HOOD OF Louie's car with a hose!

Barry Karlberg maintains his composure as he is sucked up by a vacuum cleaner.

Sherry Clemins checks the water temperature.

Smitty Hopkins, Senior Class Hatchet Orator, admires the innocence of Julie Petty which she defended as Junior Class Orator.

Stan Shobe, Deanna Timpone, Sandy Starr, and Sharon Harshbarger strengthen the "senior block" in student council.

Bill May, Eddie McLendon, Bob Morrow, Greg Hawn, and Dick Parks unload the apple of Mrs. Seward's eye, "Sixth Hour."

What Sophomores Await with Smiles,

and Juniors Ponder,

Seniors Know!

The Class of '66 was headed this year by Rita Risser, president, John Frey, vice-president, Debbie Tinsley, secretary, Barb Bennett, treasurer, and Ken Leonard, publicity chairman.

The Juniors found that selling Stanley Products is a profitable business. In fact, it was such a success that only one or two other minor projects were necessary during the year to cover the cost of the prom. One of these was a bake sale held in October.

Sophomores Show They Have the Urbana Spirit

The Sophomore Class this year chose as its officers Woody Isles, president, Bill Armon, vice-president, Linda Bjanes, secretary, Tom Jordan, treasurer, and Dick Goldstein, publicity chairman.

They were the first class to use the "campus plan;" sophomores alternated half days between the high school and the junior high. By next year, however, they should be able to take advantage of the new addition.

The class got started early on raising money with a successful bake sale and a car wash. By next year they should be well on their way to meeting costs for the prom.

Different and more exciting layouts, less, but livelier copy, and better pictures were the goals for the 1965 ROSEMARY. An enthusiastic staff and patient photographers put forth their best ideas and much hard work. After doodling every conceivable design on the blackboard and running the gamut of alliterations, we arrived at these pages.
