COTILLION '74

We are exceedingly happy to compliment these worthy young ladies for commendations. We found the task joyous

With the renaissance of Black Awareness, it is indeed fitting to honor those into whose hands the regenerative process will be molded. The heritage of the Afro-American woman is rich, full and vibrant from the well-spring of her beautiful and oft times painful history.

It is our humble aim to instill pride, encourage initiative, and promote education to each young lady who aspires to reach their goals.
