Your World
Georgia Douglas Johnson

*Your world is as big as you make it.
I know, for I used to abide
In the narrowest nest in a corner,
My wings pressing close to my side.*

*But I sighted the distant horizon
Where the sky line encircled the sea
And I throbbed with a burning desire
To travel this immensity.*

*I battered the cordons around me
And cradled my wings on the breeze
Then soared to the uttermost reaches
With rapture, with power, with ease!*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We extend our sincere thanks to all persons and groups who contributed in any small way to the success of Cotillion '76. To those of you who promoted the idea, and to those of you who patronized this Cotillion by your presence, we say "thanks." By this, we know that our efforts in presenting an affair of this caliber for the betterment of our youth has not been in vain.
