A Message From

Nettie B. Scott

President, Gamma Upsilon Psi

Greetings--

Gamma Upsilon Psi Society is presenting its 12th Annual Cotillion. This Cotillion is a joy for all of us, a time for celebrating and an occasion for looking back with satisfaction and pride. We are celebrating a notable accomplishment. Our celebration is an example of enduring worthiness and determination. This is a time to give thanks, remember our past laurels and expressing gratitude to those who brought us to this place in time.

The Gammas have been indeed blessed with good fortunes. The dynamic leadership, dedicated membership and diversified resources have been united to impact the quality of life and improve the status of Black womanhood.

We thank you for your generous contributions. Take pride in the fact that you have assisted over 100, fine young Black women in reaching their goals. As you celebrate, however, remember that the Reagan administration is reducing the number of funds available for grants and loans. These cutbacks affect lower-income students as well as children of the once-stable middle class. Schools themselves can only provide a few scholarships each year. And tuition and fees at many well-known universities will exceed $7,500 commencing with the 1983-1984 academic year.

Therefore, it is imperative that you continue to support the Cotillion. We can only make this a better world in which to live when ALL children have the OPPORTUNITY to receive an education they rightfully deserve.

Yes, this is a debutante ball, introducing the "cream of the crop" to you, the Champaign-Urbana community. But our main thrust is the education of these young women...scholarship and academics.

So ENJOY the delicious dinner prepared for you...ENJOY the Cotillion, the dances the debs and escorts have dilligently rehearsed for the past 10 weeks...ENJOY the music of the band "Straight from the Streets" and dance until you can dance no more...ENJOY "The Other Side of the Rainbow" where dreams do come true.

Thank you,

Nettie B. Scott

The Other Side of the Rainbow

By V. Stovall/L. Cole/M. Moore.

My friend, what's on your mind?
Tell me, where do you want to go?
Your greatest dreams can take you there.
Don't give up, if the dream's deferred...

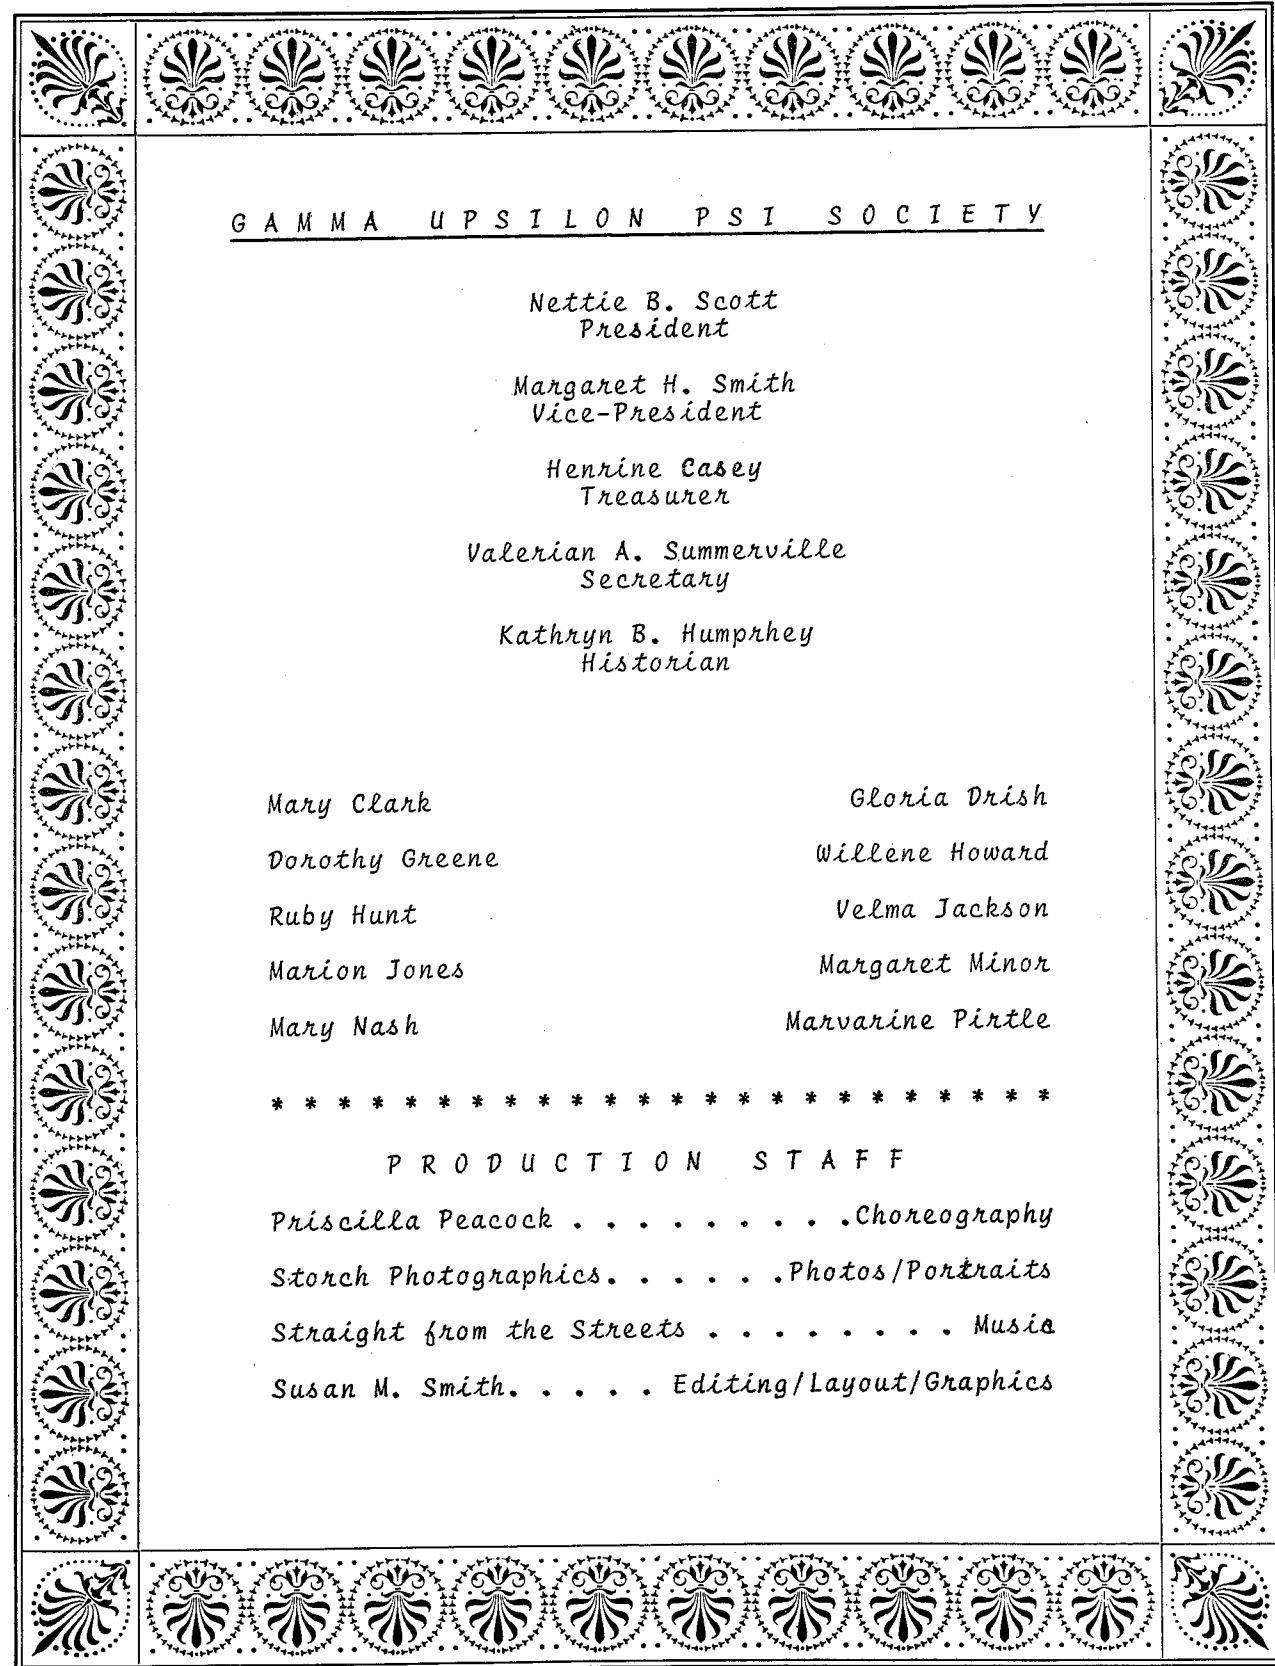

Remember if you don't follow your dreams
You'll never know what's on the other side of the rainbow;
You'll never know what you'll find at the top of the mountain;
You'll never know where you will be at your journey's end.

No one will try to bring you down.
They say, "Dreams are for those who sleep."
But dreamers possess great powers untold.
They build worlds others cannot see.

Remember if you don't follow your dreams
You'll never know what's on the other side of the rainbow;
You'll never know what you'll find at the top of the mountain;
You'll never know where you will be at your journey's end.

Know within your heart that your dreams will come true...
Don't let nobody tell you what you cannot do.
Don't let nobody tell you what's impossible for you.
Don't let nobody tell you what you've got to do.

Remember if you don't follow your dreams
You'll never know what's on the other side of the rainbow;
You'll never know what you will find at the top of the mountain;
You'll never know where you will be at your journey's end.

TO OUR 'BABY GIRL'

TRACEY

It's hard to realize that you are now a young lady...all grown up. Try to remember the values we have tried to instill in you. You have come a long way, but you also have a long way to go.

You have high ambitions that we know you will reach as long as you don't let the wrong people stop you. If you go down, make certain it's to pull someone up.

Remember always that God loves you just as we do.

 You are a beautiful example; a statue of what today's young Black woman should of success for there is plenty of room

 so crowded.

The ladder of Fame is leaning against the wall of time, braced by the rock of ages. If you want to succeed, you must climb.

When to the top of the ladder you've climbed, don't throw it down, but reach back and help someone else off the ground.

Never doubt your ability to succeed. Keep things simple always treat others as individuals and human beings and never forget your heritage.

We Love You Angie,

To Angela

One of life's greatest burdens is the burden of great potential. You certainly got that!

Reach for the sky and when you get to the top,
 "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in Heaven." (Matthew 5:16)

 starting as a tiny seed.

 sunshine, wind,
 It breaks through the ground to capture its freedom

Dear Angie: It's been both an honor and a pleasure, along with a blessing to watch over you and see you grow up to become the beautiful and very special young lady you are. We have come to think of you as one of our own. The good times and the not so good times shared by all of us have only served to bring us as close to each other as we now are. The kids all think of you as their "big sister" and I think of you as my oldest daughter. My love for you is as strong as my love is for my very own children. I will continue to pray that God will bless you to forever be the Angie that we all know and love. And whatever you do, or set out to accomplish, put God at the head of your life and everything will blossom into whatever you plant your seeds of life for. Always remember that I am here for you, when you feel there is no one else...because I love and care for you to the utmost.

Love Always, The Brownlees--Shirley, Terry,
Shaundra, Vria, Dresha and "Punchie"

Best Wishes to a

YOU CAN EVEN CHANGE TOMORROW

You can even change tomorrow
By the thoughts you think today.
For we form and shape our future
By our thoughts along the way.

Choose just what you want to happen
Dwell upon it, give it love.
Picture it in vivid detail
As you're guided from above.

So, don't fret about your future
You're deciding it right now.
And it's shaping you within you Let God's wisdom show you how.

Yes, you can change your tomorrow
By the way you think today.
You need never fear your future
Choose and shape it in this way.

TO A BEAUTIFUL YOUNG LADY

When all your hopes are sown on stony ground
And you have yielded up the thought of gain.
Long after your last songs has lost their sound,
You may come back, you may come back again.

When thorns have choked the last green thing you loved
And you have said all that there is to say.
When love that moved you, once leaves
you unmoved.
Then men and women like us may come to have a day.

For it will be with you as with the bee,
The meager ant, the seagull and the loon;
You may come back to triumph mournfully
An hour or two, but it will be soon.

--Arna Bontemps

TO OUR GRANDDAUGHTER

May God bless...
We Love You

God took a piece of clay, and gently pressed it day by day, and molded it with power and art, to yield a young child's heart. You can tell the type of person you are dealing with, by the way they treat children. You see the small child doesn't know any better than to give it's love without looking for anything in return. You better be careful how you treat children, Jesus said, "But who so shall offend one of these little ones which believes in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea." Christine,

HOPE...the words which range from the "voice box"...a word that meant freedom, peace and happiness. Yes with this you look upon the future without fear of failure, without fear of hunger, nakedness or fear of the out of doors. Can this be real?
Is this happening to you?

As you retreat to shelter you wonder if this is the purpose, the plan of life you must live. Is it really the land that you were meant to be in, the place you were to know?

Yes, this is the question we give to you, so you can tell us so.

Take care,

TO AN OUTSTANDING BLACK YOUNG LADY--
 God moves in a mysterious way
 His wonder to perform;
 He plants his footsteps in the sea
 And rides upon the storm.
 Deep in unfathomable mines
 Of never-fading skill,
 He treasurer up His bright designs
 And works His sovereign will Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take
 The cloud ye so much dread
 Are big with mercy, and shall break
 In blessing on your head.
 Judge not the Lord by feeble sens,
 But thrust Him for His grace;
 Behind a frowning providence
 He hides a smiling face.
 His purpose will ripen fast,
 Unfolding every hour;
 The bud may have a bitter taste
 But sweet will be the flower.
 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
 And scan His work in vain.
 God is His own interpreter
 And He will make it plain.

WITH LOTS OF LOVE,
 Aunt Lamira Jordon & Family

Thank You!

In this 12th year of the Cotillion Ball we would like to express our sincere appreciation for your continued support.

In 1972 when Phi Beta Sigma began this endeavor, five fine examples of Black womanhood decided that this was something worthwhile. Since that time over 100 debutantes have participated in the Cotillion. They have received financial assistance for furthering their education at various colleges, trade schools, universities and junior colleges across the nation. The financial assistance came from your generous contributions in the form of patrons, advertisements and ticket sales.

Thank you Champaign-Urbana and friends across the nation!

Live each day to the fullest. Get the most from each hour, each day, and each age of your life. Then you can look forward with confidence, and back without regrets.

Be yourself--but be your best self. Dare to be different and to follow your own star.

And don't be afraid to be happy. Enjoy what is beautiful. Love with all your heart and soul. Believe that those you love, love you.

Forget what you have done for your friends, and remember what they have done for you. Disregard what the world owes you, and concentrate on what you owe the world.

When you are faced with a decision, make that decision as wisely as possible--then forget it. The moment of absolute certainty never arrives.

Above all, remember that God helps those who help themselves. Act as if everything depended upon you, and pray as if everything depended upon God.
