We Are The Future

It's the time for our graduation--
It's more than a cap; it's more than a gown.
We've accepted an invitation
To be a part of life's celebration.
Well we're moving and together we're on our way.

'Cause we are the future, the future generation.
We're the future generation.
We are the future, the future generation.
We're the future generation.

Hand in hand when we can
In between the joys and sorrows.
We can fly, you and I
To that land we call tomorrow.
We'll become what we reach for if we all reach out as one.

'Cause we are the future, the future generation.
We're the future generation.
We are the future, the future generation.
We're the future generation.

Yes it's so hard to turn loose
And leave your childhood behind.
But it won't mean a thing
If you don't use your mind.

It won't mean a thing
If we don't use our brains.
It won't mean a thing
If we don't use our brains.

'Cause we are the future, the future generation.
We're the future generation.
We are the future, the future generation.
We're the future generation.

"THEY ARE THE FUTURE"

DEBUTANTES

Jacqueline Yvette Brown

Jacqueline Yvette Brown

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Nelson Lomax, 17 year old Debutante Jacqueline is a senior at Centennial High School where she sings in the Black American Chorus, runs track, is a member of the Flag Corps and is a Principal's Scholar.

Jackie belongs to Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church and is active in the Young People's Department, the Gospel Choir and the Usher Board.

As a clerk typist for Unit District #4 Schools, Jackie works in the Data Processing division at the Mellon Administration Building.

Her hobbies include all outdoor activities such as swimming and golf. She also enjoys bowling and art crafts.

Jackie would like to attend a historically Black institution to further her education in Business Administration. She aspires to a career in finance--hopefully as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA).

Faith

The Lord gave you to us at a time when you could bring the greatest portion of love and happiness to our lives. What more could parents desire than to be given the gift of your advent into the world? you have brought to us that which neither wealth nor position could ever provide. You brought to this world sunshine, blue skies and quiet waters of everflowing love.

Because God was so gracious unto us in bringing to us such a wonderful and blessed gift, we hastened to give you back to Him in order that you might have a richer and fuller growth toward Him in loving and loyal service.

As you proceed toward your worthy goals in life, as long as God gives us the strength we will be there to point the way toward the best.

May God be with you this day and always.

Your church family bids you God's speed as you progress toward your worthy goals in life. As you put forth your best effort for the good of all humankind, may the Lord crown your strivings with His glory and honor. For He has promised never to leave us neither forsake us because we belong to Him. As opportunities come, do your best to make good in things worthwhile. May the Lord keep you fit mentally, socially, physically, and spiritually, that your talents may be fully utilized in service to Him.

With dedication to these high purposes and ideals, we are confident that you will grow above the shall, the unimportant, and the trivial to find the significant, the sanctity, and the nobility of life, to the glory of Christ Jesus.

May God be gracious unto you and bless you and make His face to shine upon you.

Well sweetheart, ha, ha!
I have to laugh and pat myself on the back because I did one heck of a job raising you (I mean your mom and I). You know, I don't have to wish you luck because you have what it takes and that's belief in yourself.

DEAR CHANDRA

You have made me very proud of you. It has been a delight to see you grow from a baby to a beautiful young lady.

You are very special to me. Having you in my life to love and cherish has been a moving and rewarding experience.

Chandra, you are my one and only daughter and I love you very much. Your smile and laughter lights up my heart; your cheerfulness brings warmth and comfort to me.

Chandra, you always did have a lot of P-I-Z-Z-A-Z-Z. I like that in you.

Stay as sweet as you are now. I believe you can conquer whatever you set out to do. Good luck and much success in your endeavors.

Love--FOREVER AND ALWAYS,

HEY BLACK CHILD

Hey Black child do you know who you are? Do you know you can be what you want to be if you try to be what you can be?

Hey Black child do you know where you are going...where you are really going? Do you know you can learn what you want to learn if you try to learn what you can learn?

Hey Black child do you know you are strong? I mean really STRONG? Do you know you can do what you want to do if you try to do what you can do?

Hey Black child BE WHAT YOU CAN BE. Learn what you must learn. Do what you can do and tomorrow your nation will be what you want it to be.

Jenny,

The support you now feel will become long distance as you move away from family and friends.
Yet, there is one person who will always be with you--God. He will provide you with the support that you will need. He promises.

"I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee." (Hebrews 13:56)

So remember, although loved ones cannot always be with you, God CAN be with you, IS presently with you and WILL ALWAYS be with you.

...from "What Shall I Tell My Children Who Are Black"
by Margaret Burroughs

I will lift up their heads in proud blackness
With the story of their fathers and their fathers Fathers. And I shall take them into a way back time
Of Kings and Queens who ruled the Nile,
And measured the stars and discovered the Laws of mathematics. Upon whose backs have been built
The wealth of two continents. I will tell him
This and more. And his heritage shall be his weapon
And his armor; will make him strong enough to win Any battle he may face. And since this story is Often obscured, I must sacrifice to find it
For my children, even as I sacrificed to feed, Clothe and shelter them. So this I will do for them
If I love them. None will do it for me.
I must find the truth of heritage for myself
And pass it on to them. In years to come, I believe Because I have armed them with the truth, my children
And their children's children will venerate me.
For it is the truth that will make us free!

Best Wishes to All Debs!
Bruce and Charlotte Nesbitt

Jenny,

Birthdays are like bridges that you cross from year to year--bridges on the roof of time. As you take the unknown path that lies ahead of you, there will be hills to climb. It can't be easy all the way--with roses everywhere you go and sunshine everyday, but cross your bridges hopefully, believing in the best.
Face with faith whatever comes and truly you'll be blessed.

The little bird sits in the nest and sings
A shy, soft song to the morning light;
And it flutters a little and prunes its wings.
The song is halting and poor
and brief,
And the fluttering wings
scarce stir a leaf;
But the note is a prelude to sweeter things,
And the busy bill and the flutter sight
Are proving the wings for a bolder flight!

It has been a joy to watch you grow from birth to young womanhood.

We are so proud of you and the goals that you have accomplished thus far in your life and know that you, being the person you are,
will continue to set the highest goals and accomplish them for yourself.

Always remember:

The Lord is your LIGHT, that will guide your pathways--

He is your SALVATION, in times of trouble--

He is your STRENGTH, of your life, nothing or no one should you be afraid.
(Psalms 27:1)

And with God as the head of your life, the world is yours for the taking.

"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise: Be thankful unto Him, and bless His name. For the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting; and His truth endureth to all generations." Psalms 100:4-5

I wish you the very best of luck and hope that you capture and fulfill all of your life long dreams.

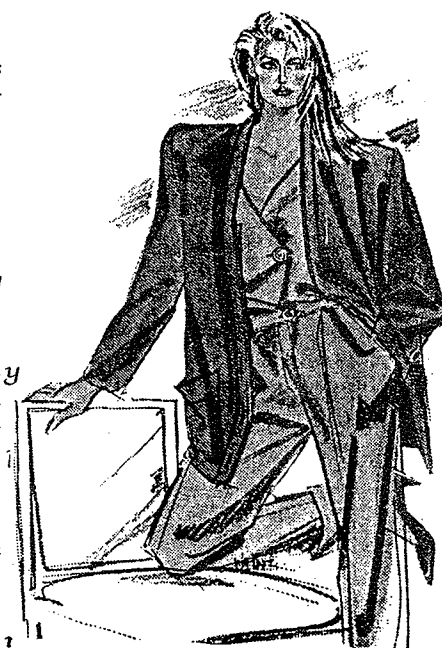

REV. LARRY SIMMONS PASTOR GREATER HOLY TEMPLE URBANA, ILLINOIS

WE SALUTE YOU GAMMA UPSILON PSI AND BEST WISHES TO LeSHAUNDRA As the new year distances itself from the starting gate of time, we sometimes find ourselves relegated to the thought of that long perilous road ahead. It is a journey that, at times, can offer hope or despair to all weary travelers as we become imprisoned by the moving sands of the hourglass.

We applaud your efforts to give a ray of hope to some of young travelers. With this in mind, we feel obligated to stand with you in support of your worthy cause to recognize and promote positive attitudes, good and wholesome character attractive personalities, and an overall self-respect. Together, our efforts shall serve as a guiding light to the dark and weary path of our young future leaders as they move from the dawn of the new year into an arena of hope and prosperity in the pursuance of all their future endeavors.

COMPLIMENTING YOURSELF EVERYDAY

"Cast not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompense of reward."
Hebrews 10:35

Complimenting yourself everyday is something that's needed in our lives, for you Sis. LeShaundra Brownlee, in being a child of God, He knows that you need a pat on the back. There are nobler dreams that God wants you to pursue; there are more battles to be fought. So, the need for endurance to the end causes for self-motivation from within that comes from God, through his Holy Spirit inside by the love of our Lord and Savior, Christ Jesus.

In the presence of God, in the privacy of prayers, take time to applaud the great person that you really are, this person that God made you to be.

PRAYERFULLY YOURS,
Pastor Jimmie O. Holmes

and the Morning Star Freewill Baptist Church Family

There's so much we want to say, but I know there will be moments when we will be able to say it all. First you're such a beautiful person and you have so much to look forward to. We feel you're such an inspiration to our daughter, Megan. There are so very few teenagers in this day and age that are inspirations to the little youngsters growing up. Keep rubbing off on the ones that need it the most. You always be great, not only to the kids, but to GOD. Without the supreme being there is nothing. Keep your head to the sky and seek your destiny and believe it will come.

So all of the world might see.*

*Give it your best and make it your own --
Have faith in your dreams come true.
Lend a part of yourself in your every plan
In all that you ever do.*

*Always be proud of what you've been;
Be sure that you've lived life well.
Be proud of the hope that is in your heart,
Your story that life can tell.*

*Walk through each day with your head held high,
And your eyes on that faraway star.
Trust in tomorrow and surely you'll find It's nice to be just what you are.*

*Always be sure and you'll never fail
Your future so sparkling and bright.
Save up a smile for the dark dreary days -- Success ever there in your sight.*

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

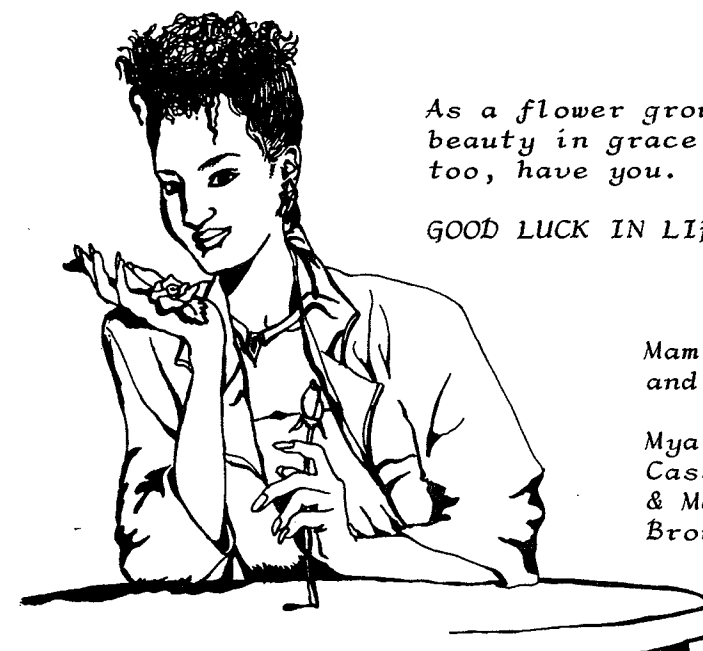

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I've noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "my son, My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

I THANK YOU

Growing up is a hard thing to do. Maturity takes place and attitudes on life and personalities change. Every teenager has his or her ups and downs. But when there are caring people such as my FAMILY, FRIENDS, CHURCH MEMBERS and OTHERS who have taken their time to support and stand by my side, it makes that sometimes difficult task of adjusting to adulthood a whole lot smoother.

I would like to show my appreciation and gratitude to everyone who supported me through donations, time prayers and encouraging words by expressing a THANK YOU WITH LOVE. I give to my mother, DEBRA A. LOMAX, a SPECIAL thanks, because without her, all of this wouldn't be possible.

May you keep me in your thoughts and prayers...

THE DESIRADA

GOOD ADVICE FOR EVERYONE

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible, without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they, too, have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons. They are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is. Many persons strive for high ideals, and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe. No less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore, be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

Be careful.

Strive to be happy.

The Trip Chi-town

"WE ARE THE FUTURE"

In January the 1988 Debutantes and Escorts ventured to the windy city of Chicago to get a taste of African-American history in keeping with this year's theme, "We Are The Future". Scheduled tour stops included Soft Sheen Products, Inc.; Johnson Publishing Company, Inc.; and the DuSable Museum of African-American History.

After leaving Champaign on a blistery winter morning, the first stop upon arrival in Chicago was at Soft Sheen--makers of Care Free Curl, Optimum Conditioning Relaxer System, Sportin' Waves Gel Pomade, Miss Cool 5-Minute Fast Set, Perfect Pinch Seasonings and a line of cookware. Highlights included the production department and the marketing division.

It was then on to lunch at Ed Debevic's Short Order Deluxe, an old-fashioned 50s-style diner with "home-cooked" food and gum-popping waitresses to insult your intelligence.

Bellies full, the next stop was Johnson's, publishers of EBONY, JET, EM-- Ebony Man and owners of WJPC, WLDM and WENR radio stations, Fashion Fair Cosmetics and producer of the Ebony Fashion Fair.

Touring these beautiful facilities--built from the ground up especially for JPC and the first building in Chicago's loop to be owned by a Black man--was exciting enough, but the pinnacle occurred when several of the debs and escorts were able to speak personally with Mr. Johnson, who related tales to them about a past visit to Champaign.

The last stop on this full schedule was the DuSable Museum of African American History. Greeted by native Champaign-ite Angela Rivers, the museum's educational director, the tour group was given new insight into the rich, colorful...and sometimes sad and painful heritage of the Afro-American. Special exhibits were displayed on the Civil Rights Movement, Slavery and Blacks in Chicago.

After purchasing an abundance of items in the DuSable gift shop, the exhausted debs and escorts re-boarded the luxury coach for the "pleasant" (it was rush hour) drive back to Champaign-Urbana.

Dear Cotillion Supporter:

In 1972, when Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Epsilon Mu Sigma Chapter, began this endeavor, five fine examples of Black womanhood decided that the Cotillion was, indeed, something worthwhile.

Two years later, in 1974, a group of interested women began assisting the "Sigmas" with the Cotillion -- adding a "woman's touch" to the gala affair. By 1975 the women's group had adopted the official name of GAMMA UPSILON PSI SOCIETY and since 1977 have been the sole producers of the annual debutante cotillion.

More than 200 debutantes have made their entrance into society through the Cotillion in its illustrious 17-year history. Each of those young ladies has received financial assistance for furthering her education at any college, trade school or university of her choice. Many have now obtained professional degrees and are working in their chosen career fields. But no matter if, how, or where they completed their higher education, we are extremely proud of each and every one of them!

YOU CAN FEEL PROUD, TOO! The financial assistance they receive in the form of a scholarship is made possible by none other than YOU! It comes from your generous contributions in the forms of patrons, advertisements, and ticket purchases. During these past 17 years YOU HAVE CONTRIBUTED MORE THAN $50,000.00!

We thank you wholeheartedly! For 17 years you have stood by us...we look forward to your continued support.

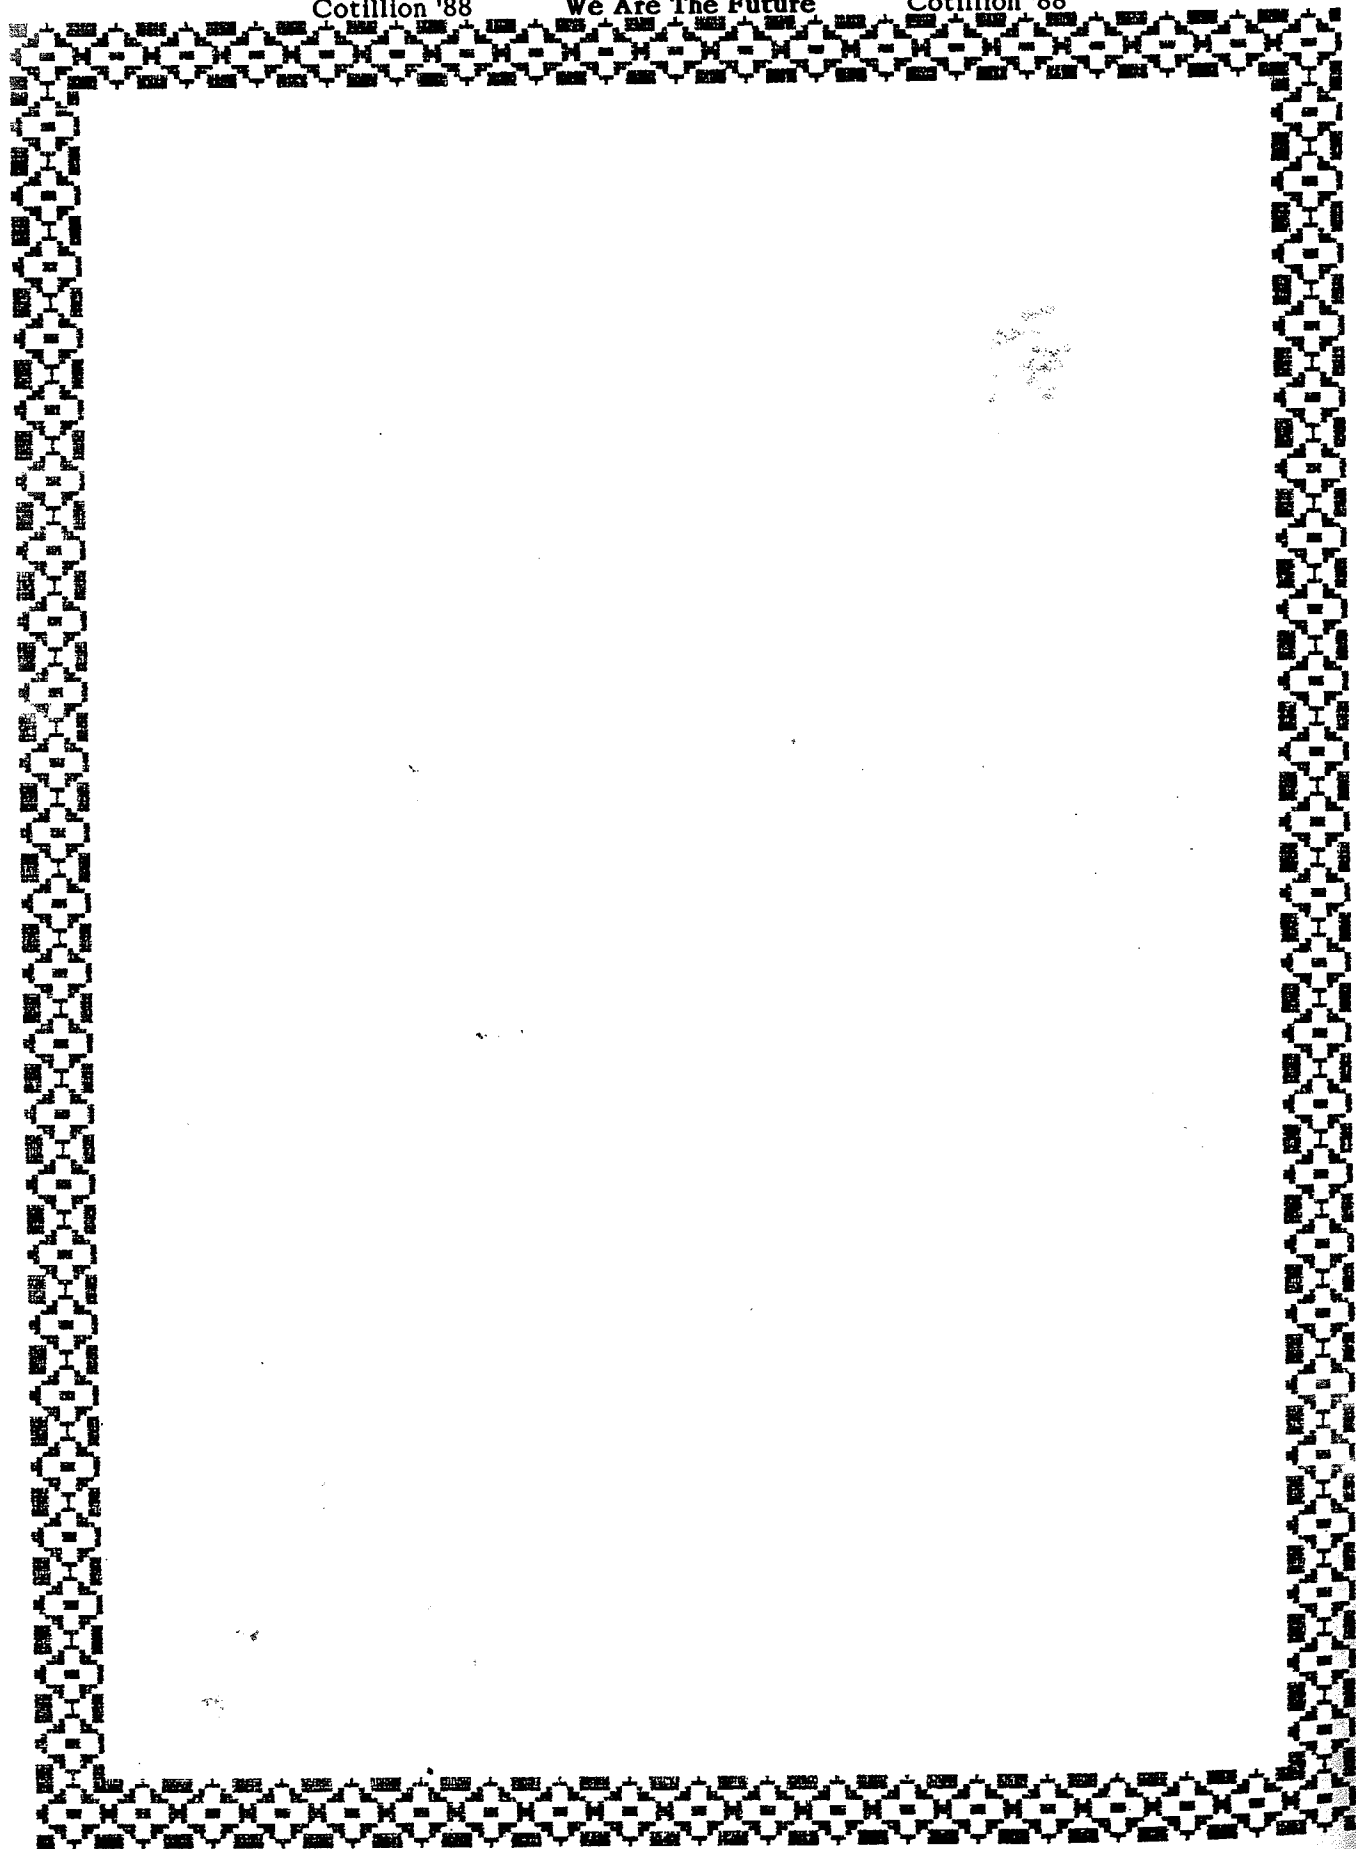

Should you desire more information about GAMMA UPSILON PSI SOCIETY or our scholarship program, feel free to contact us at:

We welcome your suggestions, criticisms and/or commendations. We also look forward to seeing you next year at our 18th Annual Debutante Cotillion.

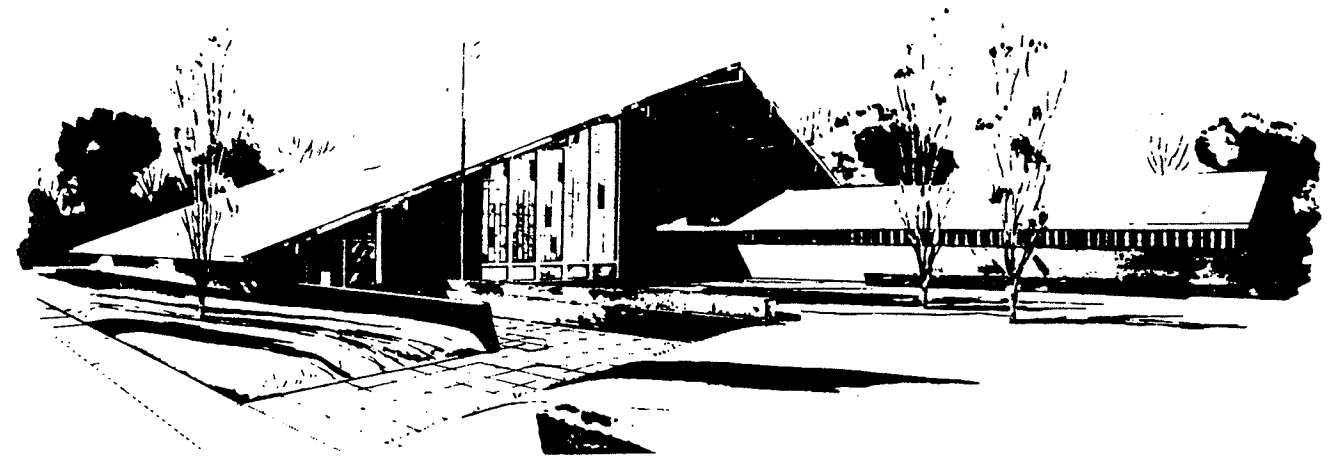

Sincerely,

The Women Of
GAMMA UPSILON PSI SOCIETY

WE LOVE YOU!

JACKIE, AS I GIVE YOU MY LOVE AND MY BEST WISHES, I CHALLENGE YOU TO:

"Live each day to the fullest.
Get the most from each hour, each day, and each age of your life. Then you can look forward with confidence, and back without regrets."

Be yourself--but be your best self.
Dare to be different and to follow your own star.
And don't be afraid to be happy. Enjoy what is beautiful.
Love with all your heart and soul.
Believe that those you love, love you.
Forget what you have done for your friends, and remember what they have done for you.
Disregard what the world owes you, and concentrate on what you owe the world.
When you are faced with a decision, make that decision as wisely as possible--then forget it.
The moment of absolute certainty never arrives.

Above all, remember that God helps those who help themselves.
Act as if everything depended upon you,
and pray as if everything depended upon God.
