

Seniors Expand Interests Through Independent Study

Dave Browning
Barb Burns
Cathy Clower
Patty Cosgrove

Diane Bruce
Georgia Burton
Jim Coble
Keith Crawford

Judy Bryant
Walter Burton
Linda Collenberger
Roselle Crawford

Kathy Burger
Tom Campbell
Robert Collins
Richard Crozier

Bill Burgess
Jim Cathey
Chris Conner
Dorothy Curtis

Ingenious seniors take analytic geometry in independent study to compensate for curriculum changes.

Fifth hour finds Mike Hoverson working on his independent study, the Civil War.

Susan Dankert
Diane Deaton

Carol Davis
Guy DeMoss

Lynn Davis
Steve Dennis

Mike Davis
Jim Dente

Nancy Day
Steve Deschene

Colleen DeWitt
Bill Dosch
Brenda Eggers

Darlene Dexter
Steve Douglas
John Ellis

Vicki Diener
Barb Ducoff
Marsha Erickson

Alan Dilley
Sharon Dunaway
Jim Evans

Joan Dixon
Ronnie Eagan
Jay Fielding

Carla Graning spends her free hour picking up attendance slips.

A pair of goggles today will save an eye tomorrow.

Steve Fink Vickie Floyd Marcia Fogel Ann Foley Jim Frame

Seniors Find Easy Courses to Fill in Schedules

Steve Frerichs
Mike Gallivan
Howard Gourley

Al Friederich
Linda Gardner
Clark Grady

Jan Friederich
Patty Gensemer
Mark Graham

Connie Funneman
Susie Gilmore
Carla Graning

Kathy Gallivan
Perry Good
Cathy Green

Style and beauty aid some cheerleaders but . . .

Our radiant "Homecoming Queen," Bobbi Brooks gets a royal ride around the gym.

John Heater
Sherry Hills
Kathy Hoffman

All Aspects of Homecoming Portrayed in Senior Skit

Nancy Griggs
Dave Hamburg

Joan Gumbel
Julie Hamilton

Edwin Hadley
Elana Hanson

Steve Hall
Alicia Harpestad

Tom Halliman
Jeff Hartman

Senio

ride around the gym.

Senior Skit

Tom Halliman
Jeff Hartman

John Heater
Sherry Hills
Kathy Hoffman

Patty Heller
Randa Hitchins
Barb Holdren

Rich Henriksen
Randy Hitchins
Mike Holverson

Mark Hieronymus
Marcia Hixson
Jim Hoppe

Patty Hilger
Chuck Hoch
John Hoppe

Senior girls used imagination and creativity in portraying the team which brought about funny but factual characters.

Greg House
Jean Huddleston

Lincoln Huffman
Roger Huffman

Stan Hurder
Bob Idleman

Tom Ingles
Kitty Jackle

Steve Janes
Reid Johnson

*Sara Farley voices her opinion of Centennial.
Exchangees meet student body at open house.*

Tom Johnson
Sherry Kirby

Connie Joyce
John Kitzmiller

Debbie Karlstrom
Jane Kozikowski

Nancy Kelley
Jim Kresca

Doug Kendall
Tom Langlois

Interstate Exchange Program Challenges Knowledge

Jane Lateer
Steve Legue

Donna LeCompte
Herb Leshoure

Shelly Legare
Jay Lewis

Chuck Luckmann
Joyce Lybarger

Sara Majors
Mary Margrave

Paige Matthews
Garry McCain

Karen McCleary
Pat McCoy

Phil McDuffee
Bob McElligott

Seniors

Jane Mitchell has trouble finding that Simplicity pattern in the McCall's drawer.

Business Abilities, Pocketbooks and Patience Profit From Part-Time Work

Roger Huffman bends over backwards to convince customers that smaller sizes don't always fit.

Linda McFall
Jim McNabb
Phyllis McNamara
David McNattin

Rick McPhee
Dean Messinger
Doug Mills
Greg Mills

Temporary Regression Characterizes Holiday Spirit

Santa's helper, Mike Brown, gives Linda McFall a candy cane to tide her over till Christmas.

Contrary to popular belief, Benson and Hedges does not always get in the way of some.

Jane Mitchell
Connie Morris

Jean Mitchell
Mark Morrow

Pam Montgomery
Louann Morse

Jean Morgan
Paula Morton

Jill Morgan
Larry Nelson

Seniors

Day Spirit

Belief, Benson and Hedges in the way of some.

Jill Morgan
Larry Nelson

Debbie Nordell
Pam Nyholt

Danny O'Connell
Marsha Olson

Melanie Ozier
Bill Palmer

Mike Palmer
Bob Palmisano

Roger Pappas
Ann Parkinson

Who is that blockhead trying hard to portray a Christmas tree—it couldn't be a Junior?

For Greg Mills, the New Years Eve Party began with a bang . . . in one way or another.

Seniors

Day Spirit

...belief, Benson and Hedges in the way of some.

Jill Morgan
Larry Nelson

Debbie Nordell
Pam Nyholt

Danny O'Connell
Marsha Olson

Melanie Ozier
Bill Palmer

Mike Palmer
Bob Palmisano

Roger Pappas
Ann Parkinson

Who is that blockhead trying hard to portray a Christmas tree—it couldn't be a Junior?

For Greg Mills, the New Years Eve Party began with a bang . . . in one way or another.

Seniors

Susan Pathel
Marlene Pfeifer

Pam Patzwith
Tom Pfiorr

Rob Payne
Carol Phillips

Aside from food, Senior girls fill their lunch table with various paraphernalia.

Now Bruce Shuman knows all about T.P.ing . . . how to put it up and how to take it down.

Kim Pickens
Ken Pittman

Hattie Polk
Scott Radcliffe

Jan Rathbun
Ed Rawdin

Pam Redfearn
Ruth Reeder

Tony Remesch
Jim Rettberg

Seniors Last Year Brings Forth Nostalgic Thoughts

Senior boys retain their image—even while amusing themselves with an entertaining game such as Old Maid.

Carole Rider
Ann Roach

Mike Rumer
Gail Rusk

Julie Ryan
Mel Sabey

Kathy Samuelson
Steve Sanford

Linda Schlorff
Rusty Schnur

Seniors

Come as You are Party at 6:30 a.m. ... Aaagh!

Breakfasts and Slumber Parties Take Up Leisure Time

After a late night, Julie Ryan and Rusty Schnur find plenty to laugh about in the early hours of the morning.

Excedrin headache number 425 . . . (the Come as You are Party) strikes Diane Bruce.

Kurt Schrader
Jim Scofield

Jim Schultz
Barb Scoggin

Chuck Schwartz
Jean Scott

Thank heaven for little boys . . . they grow up in the most delightful ways. (very interesting)

Steve Scott
Mike Shelby

Kathy Scribner
Karen Shoemaker

Kay Semonin
Bruce Shuman

Rick Severns
Perry Siler

Diana Shedenhelm
Rob Silverman

Jack Simon
Lee Smith

Marc Sims
Marita Smith

Gail Singleton
Nancy Spencer

Cheryl Smith
Linda Stevens

Kam Smith
Julie Stinson

Manners, Maturity, Independence, Designate Upperclassmen

Hurrying to first hour ends in disaster for Rick McPhee, as Marcia Hixson teaches him to watch where he is going.

Talent, Ingenuity and Vitality Characterize Class of '69'

Cindy Stoklosa
Pat Strohl
Conrad Stynchula
Doug Swank

Mike Taylor
Lynda Terrell
Nancy Thirion
Jerry Tippy

Steve Tock
Vic Toews
Pam Touchberry
John Trapani

"If I practice hard do you think they would give me a letter for juggling?"

"Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers..."

Seniors are terribly talented characters?

Sue Trimble
Phil Troehler

Ada Trover
Dottie Tucker

Lee Tucker
Kay Turner

Carol Unteed
Steve Unzicker

John Walden
Jan Weatherspoon

Seniors

The U of I Alma Mater provokes seniors to rejoice and reflect gravely on the coming year.

Graduation: We Laugh Because We Must Not Cry

Susan Webber
Debbie West

Mona Weber
David Westenhaver

Diane Weissman
Jackie Westman

Tom Weissman
Jerry Wetmore

John Wert
Linda Wheat

For Bill Dosch graduation means trying on mini robes. Melinda Adams hopes to have filled her shoes with lots of knowledge by graduation.

Cheryl White
Steve Willey

Elanna Williams
Doug Wilson

Larry Wilson
Cheryl Winget

Kathy Wise
Bill Wolf

Kathi Zarbuck
Conda Zimmerman

Realizing that tampering with mail is a federal offense Bob Doty, Jay Lewis and Kam Smith meddle with just the box.

Seniors Not Pictured

Bradley Anderson
Clarence Britt
Alan Broquist
Terry Brownlee
Joe Busch
Everett Bushue
Ernestine Butler
Mike Byers
Ray Campbell
Earl Cavitt
Frank Cunningham
Hugo DeVries
Joan Dow
Barb Dyson
Nick Eastin
Cheryl Edwards
Jack Fairfield
Connie Fitzgerald
Marcia Fouch
Jack Garland
Candy Genovese

Connie Gettle
David Giordano
Ed Gray
Pat Green
Larry Harper
Deanna Jones
Terry Kaufman
John Kelley
Bill Kindle
John Landrith
Jerry Lenz
Gene Lucas
Mike Luke
Tom Lunger
Chris Maglione
Mary Maliskas
Kathy Mannering
Dana Maxey
Sharon McGinnis
Bob Neely
Marsha Newbill

Dennis Pate
Mark Pomerance
Bernard Robinson
Donna Robinson
David Sayles
Phil Schengel
Robert Smith
Roger Tipps
Stanley Trulock
Larry Van Schoyck
Daryl Wagner
Jeff Walker
Walter Walder
Gene Washington
Joe Webber
Gary Wheeler
Preston Wingrey
Chris Wojnar
Jim Wood
Barb Yanney

The crowd cheers when Lynn Davis mocks the Pansy Panthers in the Homecoming assembly.

Cold winter mornings sometimes induce stalled cars. That's when friends come in handy.

Studying lessons helps make a scholar but boring assignments promote smart students to turn to better reading material.

Jackie Wilson takes time out for minor details.

"Hey, Ma! They're lookin' at me!"

Underclass

Uncle Wiggley visits Centennial High.

Oh, don't say that. I'm shy!

Jrs. Sandwiched Between Sr. Ham and Soph. Cheese

Now superior to sophomores, yet still a bit inferior to seniors; juniors experienced perhaps their most exciting year. Free from sophomore anxieties and senior frustrations, the Class of '70 turned this year of involvement into one of accomplishment.

From the very start, the demanding pressures of an up-and-coming prom were termed one of their primary goals. But beyond this successful project, the Junior class backed many smaller endeavors. No time was wasted in setting up a community magazine sale and a multitude of candy and bake sales. Not to be stopped here, they went on to promote a slave day.

The responsibilities of the future, too, weighed heavily on their minds as College Entrance Exams suddenly appeared along with frequent visits to the Counseling Office. Little questions like "how, when, where and why?" demanded big answers from big minds.

Although the female is often considered the weaker sex, the Class of '70 put up a strong argument against such an opinion in the form of four female class officers. Along with their money-making projects, juniors focused their energies on uniting themselves towards an even greater goal—comprehension of tomorrow's values.

Above: Jrs. start the year off constructively by electing Pat Harlan, pres.; Nancy Luckmann, vice-pres.; Laurie Yaxley, treas.; and Sue O'Neal sec.

Right: Junior class sponsors, Mrs. Schuh and Mr. Mock are held captive by underclass responsibilities.

Juniors are always stuck with finding ways to earn money for the prom.

Sara Prowell looks anxiously up to the crowd for cheering support as they help the Chargers to another victory.

Look who's caught changing the clock. Juniors!

