Came to Dinner

a Success!

This year's fall play, The Man Who Came to Dinner, will stay in the minds of both the actors and the audience as moments are remembered. The man, David Neuman, rolling around the stage in his wheel chair with a supposedly "broken hip," the different guests that pop in and out to see this magnificent "Sheridan Whiteside," and the effects on the homelife of the family this man was staying with, among other treasured moments in this play, will remind us of this fantastically entertaining show.

Let it Snow, Let It Snow, Let It Snow

This winter was a memorable one in the minds of Centennial students. The abundance of snow was unbelievable and for most students, it meant SNOW DAYS! It offered the opportunities to go sleighing at their favorite place whether it be good ol' Centennial Hill or Orchard Downs, or taking advantage of the snow days to complete their term papers. Whether these days were spent sleighing and studying, or sleeping and shoveling; it certainly was a winter long to be remembered!

As the Yearbook took shape, many people contributed their time and services, and we would like to take time out now to thank them. Our sincere thanks to: Miss Engelhaupt, our advisor, whose name should have been Patience, and Corey Mundwiler, our Taylor Yearbook Representative. Thanks to Nancy Cleland and Todd Manley for selling advertisements, and photographers — Lori Waddell, Darrell Session, and special thanks to Nathan Carlson. Diana Brockman for the endless hours of typing, copy editor Penny Willenbring, and Ken Payne for the cover design. Special thanks to Mr. Borrer and Mr. Hembrough for always being there when we needed film developed. And to our fellow staff members.

Through all the hectic deadlines, utter chaos, and crises, we finally did it!! If we got on each other's nerves during these trials and tribulations, hopefully all is forgotten. You were a great staff, and we enjoyed working with you. To you and Centennial, we both say — "Thanks for a Great year!"
