

Rosemary . . .

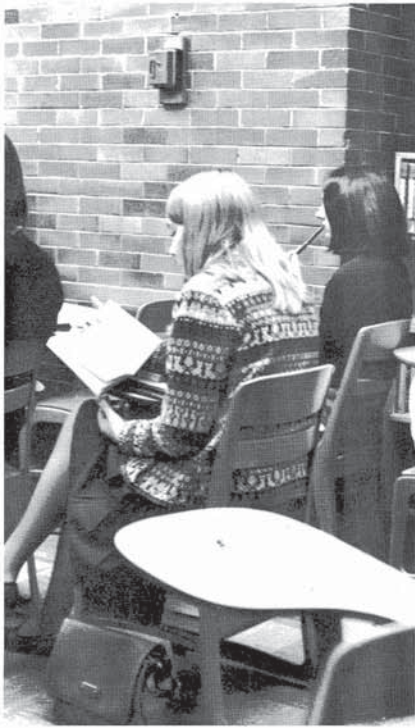

Urbana Senior High School
Enrollment 1293
NINETEEN HUNDRED SIXTY-EIGHT
Volume FIFTY-EIGHT
Publisher-American Yearbook Co.

Contents

Introduction	2	Sports	66
Activities	42	Individuals	88

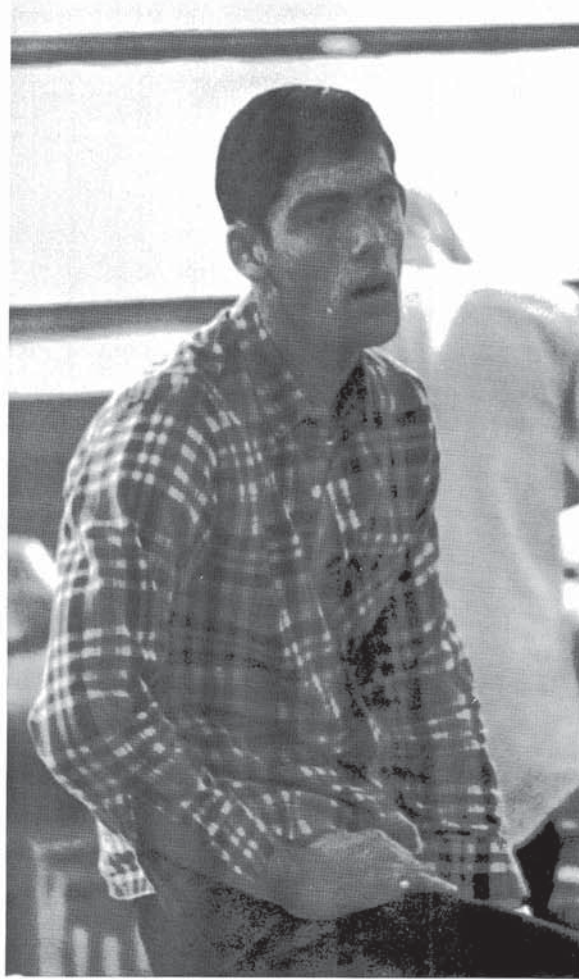

*let your inner song be heard
 you will not be bound speak freely in the mist of early morning
 you will not be bound yours is the life you build for you yours is the time that you transcend be not bound by name or label be that which lives within you dance through the early freedom morning
 you will not be bound.*

*the universe is spinning golden fibers and you can weave what you will in your mind lies your life-pattern there is your road and sustenance.
 in a world where iron bars prevail and computers take the stead of love sing in the early thoughtful morning
 you will not be bound.*

Athan

Enter the young . . .

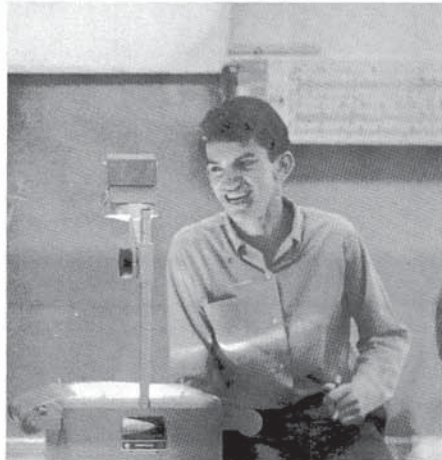

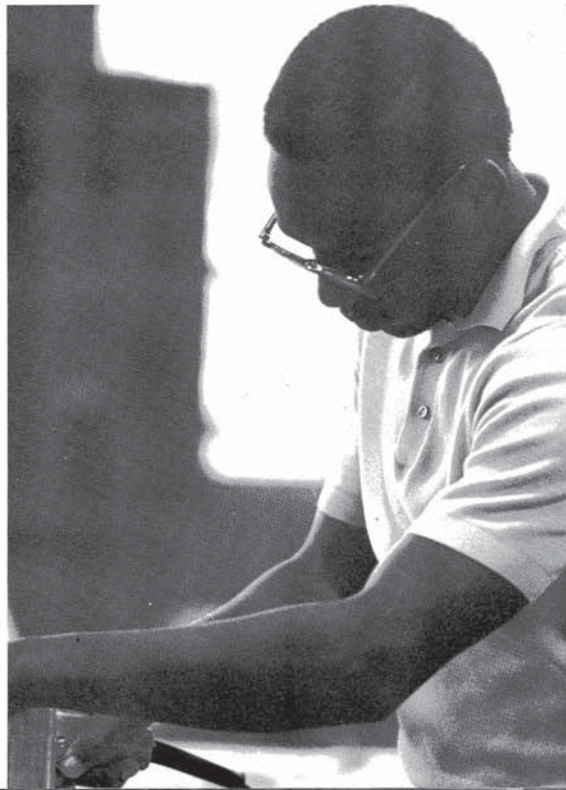

... responding to each other.

... learning to compromise.

... respecting experience.

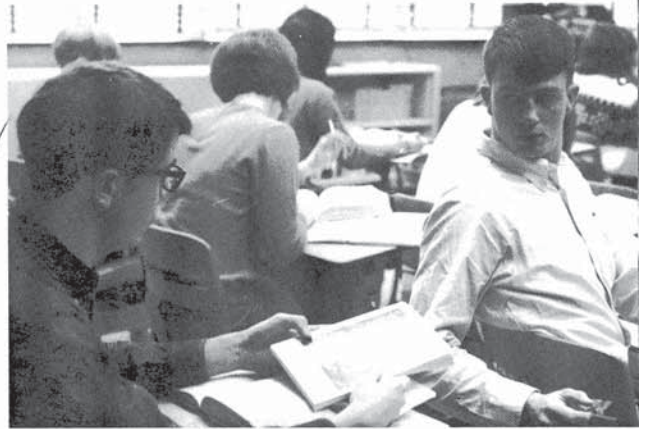

... asking questions.

... finding new answers.

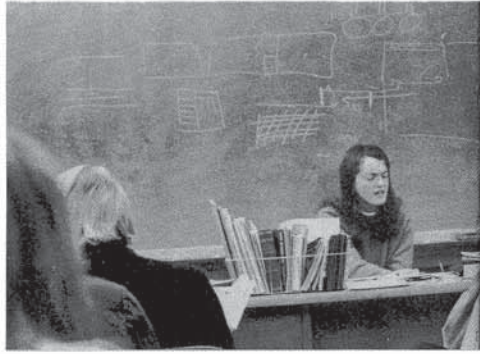

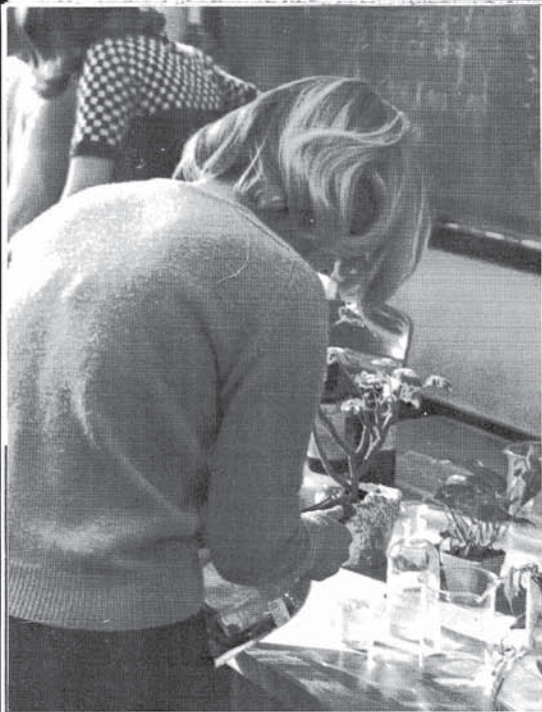

... creating our own.

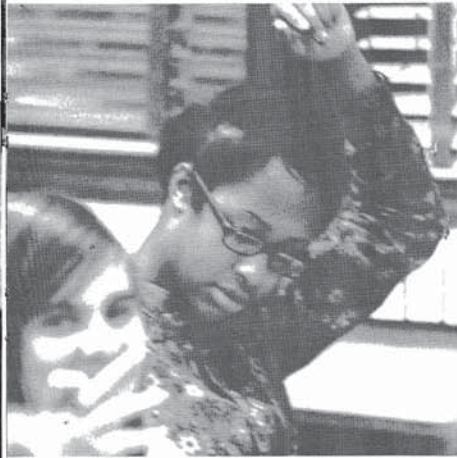

"Education should be as gradual as the moonrise, perceptible not in progress but in result."

George Melville

... relying on themselves.

... living for today.

... speaking their minds.

Doug Moseley learns at McCandless' that pictures are his most important products.

ICE—Training for the Future

Shirley Dart offers assistance to a prospective customer at Baskins.

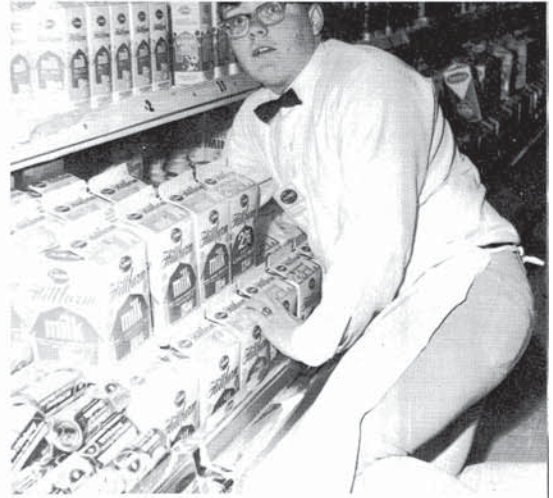

Hanson's Garage provides mechanic training for Joel Shoemaker.

Linda Walker prepares French fries for the Urbana Lincoln Hotel.

D.E. Produces a Sense of Responsibility /

Stacking dairy products is just one of many duties of Russell Jones at Eisners.

Joyce Bohlen rings up a sale for McBrides Drug Store.

Rosalie Weeks styles a mannequin for display at Carson's.

David Dye prepares something tasty at Peabody Residence Hall.

At Taylor Conoco, Larry Blacker learns the ins and outs of mechanics.

O.C.E.—a Program for Benefits Now

All aspects of the business are dealt with by Lee Feldman at Ace Hardware in Champaign.

Don Deaville fries hamburgers at the Steak & Shake, a favorite place of high school students.

Debbie Love, Virginia Rowland, and Brenda Turner work on tray favors.

"Do I really want to be a teacher?"

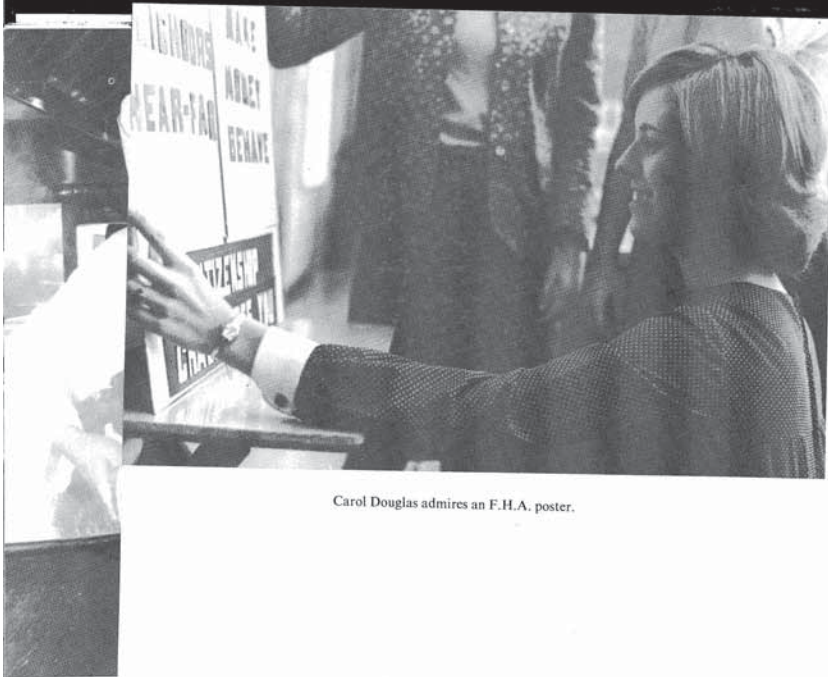

Karen Hanson draws another award winning poster.

F.T.A. Makes Pupils Teachers.

Cadet teacher, Gail Anderson, receives undivided attention from her kindergarten class.

Carol Douglas admires an F.H.A. poster.

*F.H.A.
Encourages
Successful Homemaking.*

And the initiation ceremonies begin.

Last minute preparations keep girls busy.

Debbie Hutchcraft teaches her assistants, Barb Robertson and Barb Ridlen, how to do layouts.

Phyllis McCann types up a last minute ad while Linda Opperman looks on.

Donna Bray and Karen Hanson check over the money matters of the Rosemary.

"What is his name?", wonder Cynthia Snearly and Sheila Hahn as they identify seniors.

The Goal of the Rosemary Staff— Best Possible Book

"Confusion now hath made his masterpiece!", in the forms of Bill May, Tom Gilmore and Julia Murphy.

Don Kurtz and Ann Goodman work diligently during an Echo late night.

Betsy Hanson supervises from above.

Laurie Shannon teaches a group the Echo theme song.

Echo— Always in the Know

Beth Anderson works independently on her typing.

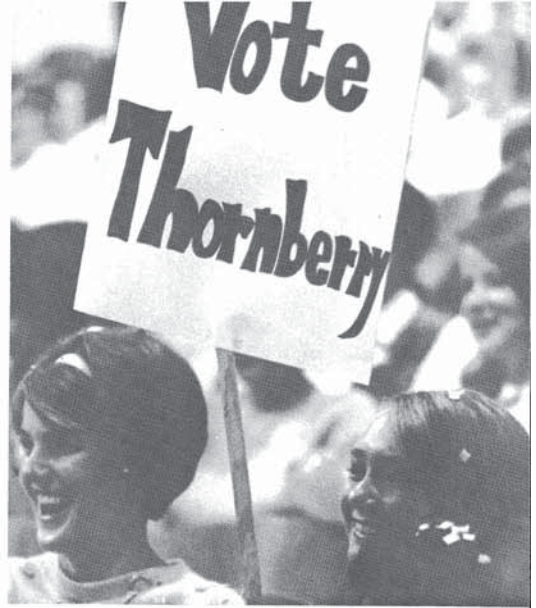

Conna Judy pauses for decision.

Rick Cox innocently looks around for inspiration.

Judy Baker and Debbie Hewitt are Tom's "Campbells' Girls."

Ricky Cox offers a level-headed platform demonstrated by Chris Martin.

Joan Wikoff and Mary Moore display smiles, placards and confetti.

Petitions, Publicity, Politics and Promises

With more medals than a general, Pete Taylor shows the candidates of his choice.

Sincerity and determination mark Kathy Frederick's speech.

Student Council Performs Functions with New Enthusiasm and Ideas.

Tom Campbell and Tom Moyer prepare outside bulletin for the coming week.

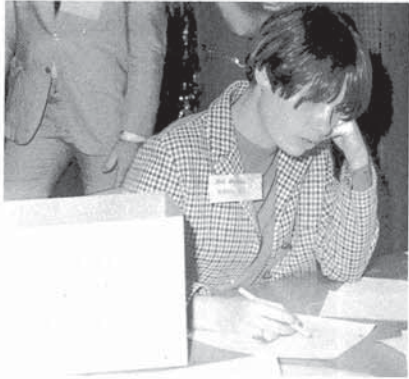

Kim League offers a suggestion to a bevy of intent council members.

Marina Britsky delivers an inspired report to her home-room.

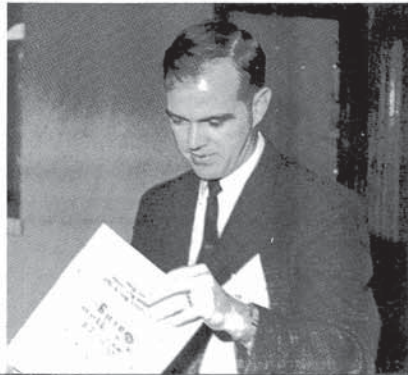

The proceedings cause Erica Hanson and Debbie Douglas to give their full attention.

Kris Bradshaw counts ballots at CDASC.

Mr. Preston, advisor, tries to remember "Where he is going" at the convention held in Urbana.

Bob Perry ponders a point while enjoying an apple.

*Language Clubs
Learn Customs Through Experience*

Steve VanArsdell proves an apt Latin servant for his owners: Coona Judy, Laurie Fitzgerald, Sally Kruger and Beth Anderson.

Linda Bair and Barb Talmadge practice for French caroling.

The Spanish Banquet offers many delicacies.

Jon Tomlinson labors over medallion for the sale.

*Art Club Holds
Clay Medallion Sale*

Practicing their typing skills are Vicki VanCleave and Cindy Prather.

New Club for Future Business Leaders of America

Club Members move in for close examination of oscilloscope.

*Jets Club and Math Club
Appeal to Questioning Minds*

Line-up of mathematical genius.

There is always homework to do, whether you are in America or South Africa.

Jenny with her family, the Porters.

Jenny Becomes a Welcome Addition to Urbana

Girls' Glee club was one of Jenny's many activities.

Jenny learns the art of making pumpkin pie from her sister Marlene. She had never had pumpkin before coming to the States.

Two other American A.F.S. students and their Japanese families help Betsy and her Japanese mother decorate a bamboo Star Festival tree.

Eating at a low table in the traditional Japanese manner was a part of Betsy's summer.

A Summer in Japan Helps Betsy Plan Her Future

Betsy and her Japanese mother, Mrs. Takamura, visit the Todaiji Temple in Kyoto, Japan.

Betsy, her sister, Yuriko, her Japanese mother and a friend pose in front of an old castle south of Tokyo.

U.H.S. stationery is the biggest project for A.F.S. this year. Besides the student sales, they sold to the community. Ann Mussey and Melissa Filbey approach a prospective customer.

Conna Judy swears by A.F.S. stationery for long love letters.

A.F.S. Works to Raise Funds

Mainstay of our diets—A.F.S. donuts.

Patty Scaff and Dick Frederick take advantage of A.F.S. sponsored shorts day.

Seated is Dan Morris, our Vice Versa king. His court includes Greg Foster, Charles Slife, Blake Weaver and Bruce Bowser.

“King of Hearts” and “Love Is Blue”

Mr. and Mrs. Davis trip the light fantastic.

The queens of the Inter-City dance are Karen Kibburtz, Centrai; Linda Scott, Centennial; Terri Rickson, University High; Marilyn Hensley, Urbana.

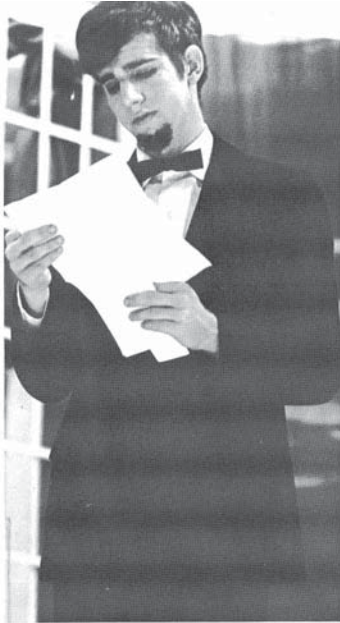

Cast

Thomas Rodgers
Ethel Rodgers
Freddie Narracott
Vera Claythorne
Captain Philip Lambard
Annette Marsten
William Blore
General Machenzie
Emily Brent
Sir Lawrence Wargrave
Dr. Armstrong

Jon Tomlinson
Carolyn Ordal
Nina Wattenberg
Jan Willis
Pete Taylor
Mary Mainous
Paul Kilgore
Bob Clark
Sonja Williams
David Hittle
Bill May

Ten Little Indians

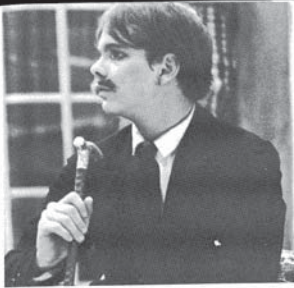

"Hm, yes, the signature is slightly ambiguous."

"Who says I can't?"

"And he was a queer sort of gentleman as built this place."

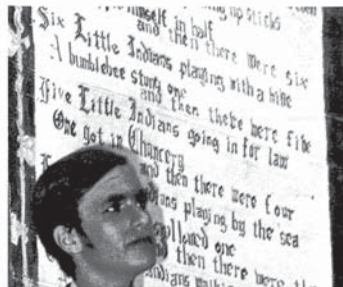

"Did I? Sorry."

"That dress is a little tight isn't it?"

"Three little Indian boys walking in the zoo.
A big bear hugged one and then there were two."

"I like the nudity touch."

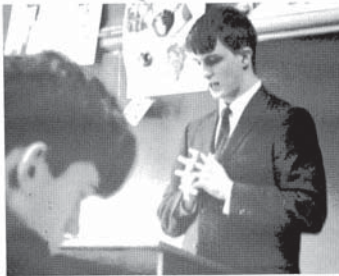

"I'd rather have ice cream than any old soup."

*Contest Entries—
Good-by to the Clown
and Debate Teams*

"Don't go away, Clown."

Lew Diggs prays for a high rating, and Pete Taylor confuses the issue.

Don Kurtz shows a comparative advantage over the status quo.

"Per se"—Keith Wingate

Brigadoon Auditions Discover Talent

Amateurs become professionals under the instruction of Mrs. Griffiths.

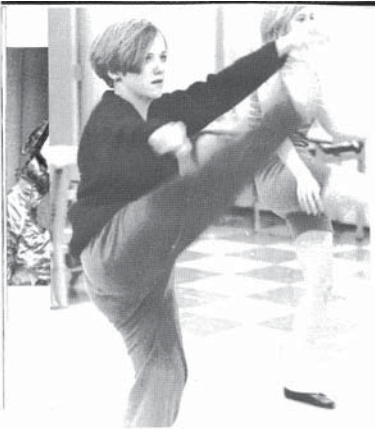

With a wistful look in her eye, Sue Bryant sings for the judges.

Cast

Tommy Albright	Craig Bentley
Jeff Douglas	Alan Brown
Archie Beaton	Jon Tomlison
Harry Beaton	William May
Fisheronger	Debbie Gorman
Angus MacGuffie	Wayne Wilson
Andrew MacLaren	Steve Inman
Fiona MacLaren	Mary Jorgensen
Jean MacLaren	Wendy Smith
Meg Broekie	Candee Paye
Charlie Dalrymple	Howard Clark
Frank	Paul Kilgore
Jane Ashton	Wendy Pacenta
Sellers . . . Venders	Nanette Cisne
	Jocelyn Kolb
	Diane Smith
	Sonja Williams
Kate	Carolyn Ordal

Warm-ups are important for everyone.

"And she kicks for the extra point."

Kristin Johnson strikes a pose while Marilyn Ormsbee looks on.

Orchesis— National Observers

Debbie Hutchcraft gives complete concentration to practice.

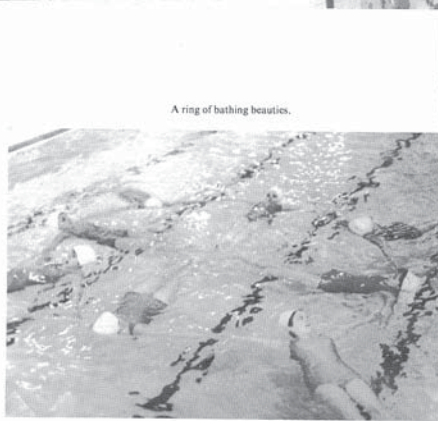

"1-2-3-jump," thinks Barb Syler.

Practice makes perfect.

Club pres., Ann Mussey, and Mrs. Allie supervise from poolside.

Terrapin Portrays City Life

Perfect ballet legs executed by Pam Schmidt.

These four wait their turn to perform.

Nancy Perkins rests her feet on Phyllis Maynard's shoulders.

Sue Longenbaugh paints for a victory.

Julie Barrymore adds a finishing touch to "Go."

Melissa Turner swings with the beat.

*Pep Club Adds to School Spirit,
and Tiger's Den Celebrates
25th Anniversary.*

The Den provides psychedelic entertainment.

