FHA—Reveals the Secrets of Homemaking

With the hum of the sewing machine and the clatter of the pans, FHA was off to an industrious start. A number of speakers was featured talking on fashion and decorations for the holidays. Members participated with other schools in the area at workshops. For Christmas, parents were treated to a pot luck dinner. Many afternoons and evenings were spent by the members making curtains for the student lounge.

FHA was headed this year by Susie Sleeter. Other officers were Janie McArthur, Vice-Pres.; Cheryl Kelker, Vice-Pres. of Records; Jane Hubbard, Vice-Pres. of Recreation; Debbie Blanchard, Sec.; Lillian Bolton, Historian; Jane Gothard, Vice-Pres. of Projects; Wanda Dart, Vice-Pres. of Degrees; and Rosalie Weeks, Treas.

FTA—Students Brought Closer to the Life of Teaching

"One who imparts knowledge or instructs," members of FTA set their goals to this definition. One step in which they followed their objectives was absorbing information given by guest speakers on the subject of teaching. New and different ideas of instruction were passed on to FTA'ers during FTA week. Senior members were given the opportunity to teach in elementary and secondary schools in the district.

FTA members made Christmas tray favors for children at Burnham City Hospital.

Help Restore Florence

Putting their talent on exhibit and sale, the Art Club made and sold sculpture, jewelry, and paintings to help raise money to repair the damaged art work that was devastated by floods in Florence, Italy.

Adding a touch of color and interest, the club also furnished many items of their work for Urbana High's new student lounge.

The members traveled to Chicago to visit the Art Institute. They held a picnic at the end of the year.

Jet Age Progresses

JETS Club's main project for the year was to build a helium-neon gaseous laser which would be used to explore the new and challenging fields opened by the discovery of coherent light. The club hoped to complete the project in time for the annual Exposition and Conference which was held on March 10 at the U of I Physics Building. The members tried to get companies to contribute needed equipment and raised over $100 to buy the rest.

The club took field trips and visited the U of I laser labs for ideas and advice. David Reyes-Guerra, State Director of JETS clubs, gave lectures and arranged the field trips.

Main Interest—Books

Books, books, books . . . occupied the minds of the members of Library Club which is composed of students who work in the library on a volunteer basis for a period of one hour daily. Charging and discharging books, filing cards, desk work, and arranging books on shelves are a few of the duties of these students.

Ambassadors of Good Will

"An English Evening," community projects, student exchanges, a banquet honoring foreign exchange students; to what fine organization do we owe our thanks for these activities? Who else but the Tri-High Council? This group consists of representatives from the three high schools in the Twin Cities. The purpose of Tri-High is to promote better relationships between the schools and to encourage inner-activity between schools. We are proud to say our own Elizabeth Boggess was elected president of Tri-High.

Vive la France!

French songs filled the air, the aroma of warm pastries lingered, and at every turn of the head colorful costumes of France could be seen. This aura of French life prevailed at the French Club banquet. During the year, speakers and field trips gave the members an insight into France. To round out the year, a picnic was given.

Longa Vita Romae Sit!

Starting with a bang of the auctioneer's gavel, Latin Club's senior members bidded for sophomore slaves at the annual slave auction. The slaves were at the beck and call of their masters throughout the year especially at the Latin Banquet which was filled with the flavor of old Rome. Concluding the year for Latin Club was a picnic that released the slaves from their bondage. They then began to discuss tortures for next year's slaves.

Orchesis—Dry Nymphs Terrapin—Wet Nymphs

"I could have danced all night . . ." Although that is not the exact motto of the Orchesis members, for they are often tired from strenuous exercise, the girls did sometimes dance almost all night during rehearsals for the show. "We the People . . ." the theme of the show in which various facets of life were portrayed through dance, was presented in February.

The girls also performed for benefit shows throughout the year.

The "Wild West" was portrayed by the Terrapin members in a show given in April. After many land and water drills, the girls swam for an audience decked in costumes representing the characters of the old West such as cowboys and Indians.

Expanding Band Talents Accommodated

Diligent practice, eagerness, and a love for music contributed to a successful year for the Concert Band. The students revealed their efforts to Urbana High students and the community in three performances. They presented two Winter Concerts in December and February and a Spring Concert.

A highlight of the year was a tour to El Paso and Lewistown, Ill., with the Orchestra and A Capella Choir. The musicians stayed over night with members of the community in El Paso and then presented a morning performance in El Paso and an afternoon performance in Lewistown.

Off and on during the year, the members of Concert Band participated in solo ensemble contests. The individual musicians were able to display their talents and compete with others who possessed the same type of talent. At the end of the year an awards banquet was held.

Tiger Marching Band Sparks Enthusiasm Encourages Crowd Participation

"Here they are, the Tiger Marching Band," boomed the voice over the loud speaker, and on to the field in an array of orange and black paraded the Urbana High School Marching Band. The band became known for its superb work. Many authorities said it was the best musical group the high school has had in ten years and the best in the Big Twelve. All this acclaim was not gained without effort.

This band, led by Mr. Robert Jorgensen and his assistant Mr. James Brooks, began preparing weeks before school started. Formations had to be learned and drills had to be exercised. It took many hours of diligent practice, but the fine programs presented by the marching band proved that the work was well worth the effort.

Swimming, tumbling, volleyball, and softball were some of the many sports that were offered by G.A.A. Play days were held for competition, as well as for fun, between Urbana and twelve schools from this district. A camp-out highlighted the year involving the schools from the play days.

The Feminine Touch Is Added

True to its name, Pep Club promoted pep and spirit throughout the school in order to support all sports teams. The members held reserved seats at football and basketball games, and their enthusiastic cheers sounded in support of the Urbana Tigers.

Before sports events the club members painted and hung signs, decorated buses, made buttons, and put words of encouragement on the team members lockers. Special events were planned during the "Beat Champaign" weeks.

Barbara Miller, DAR and Elk's Award, and Jerry Lyman, SAR and Elks' Award.

Seniors Display Outstanding Qualities

This year Barbara Miller and Jerry Lyman were recipients of two awards, DAR, SAR, and Elk's Leadership Award. They were chosen on good citizenship and leadership ability. Boys' and Girls' State representatives were judged according to scholastic average, interest in governmental activities, and personal interviews. Urbana was especially proud to have several boys elected to local government offices, and Pam Rice elected Lieutenant governor of the entire Girls' State.

Talent Unlimited

Quill and Scroll is the international honorary society for journalists. The members are those juniors and seniors who work either on the Rosemary or Echo staffs, who rank in the upper third of their class, and have the recommendation of their sponsor.

The Lighting and Stage Crews worked back stage during school productions. The crew members were interested in lighting techniques and the behind-the-scenes technicalities of show production.

Jerry Lyman and Betsy Hanson rivaled for the Hatchet during Class Night.

Superintendent Ray Braun

In preparation for this brief message for the 1967 Rosemary, I have browsed through some of the yearbooks of the last two decades. Poignant memories were revived of the many, many good leaders and the hundreds of worthy students who have received the coveted diploma.

One reflects that values in the world beyond high school are somewhat different and some who did not excel in high school have done so, in adult life. I am sure that this is as it should be. It is well that the swift and the popular do not win all the prizes. The realization of long range goals sometimes means a deferment of immediate rewards.

Seniors of 1967, I sincerely hope that your lives, so newly begun, will be long, happy, and successful. For the administrative staff and the Board of Education, I would like to extend hearty good wishes for a rewarding and worthwhile life.

Ray H. Braun

MR. RALPH DAVIS—PRINCIPAL.

MISS SARAH JANE FISHER

As usual the year has been a busy one for Miss Fisher, Assistant Principal and Dean of Girls at U.H.S. Besides performing her regular duties, she has served as sponsor of Social Club, Chairman of Activity and Faculty Calendar Committee, Chairman of Scholastic and Honor Societies, and Co-Chairman of Guidance Committee.

To the Class of '67

Those of you who are graduating will remember that it was your class which was the first senior class to have enjoyed the additional space of our new addition. Your graduation should mark the beginning of a new and interesting phase of your lives, and whatever you do, let your deeds and accomplishments reflect honor upon yourselves and U.H.S. In those months and years ahead, as you take some moments to remember, let the pages of this excellent Rosemary sharpen those memories for you.

Our Deans

MR. RICHARD M. THOMPSON

Mr. Thompson, Assistant Principal and Dean of Boys at U.H.S., has been active this year with administrative and counseling duties. He has aided students in making college and career plans, and has held such positions as Co-Chairman of Guidance Committee, and membership in the Homecoming, and Traffic Control Committees.

Charles M. Carpenter

A Tribute to Charles Carpenter

Charles Carpenter taught U.S. History and Economics at U.H.S. from 1952 until his death March 22, 1966. While at Urbana, he served as sponsor of the junior classes of 1954 and 1965, the senior classes of 1955 and 1963, and the Travel Clubs of 1954 and 1955.

As a major and later lieutenant colonel during World War II, he gained national fame as "Bazooka Charlie" for knocking out Nazi tanks and planes. Lt. Col. Carpenter piloted a reconnaissance Piper Cub which he mounted with six "bazooka rockets" that fired from a trigger in the cockpit.

After the War, Mr. Carpenter became Commander of Cadets at Roosevelt Academy and later joined the University of Illinois History Department where he taught for five years before coming to U.H.S.

It is perhaps impossible to do Mr. Carpenter justice and no words can really tell what kind of man he was. A war hero who never spoke of the war—a rugged athlete who also wrote poetry—a gentleman who spoke with tolerance and wisdom. This he was and more.

Presenting the Seniors

of 1967

The graduating class of 1967 can look back on their last year with wonder, laughter, and tears. To most seniors the year was one of unauthorized pleasures such as skip days, fun in the senior hall, as well as a year of learning with daily Rhet journals and proper lab techniques. Of course there was the revealing Class Night, the frolicsome class picnic, and the bestowal of the class gift. Following these traditional senior activities came Graduation Night, the climax of the senior year.
