I attended the Champaign Community & Police Partnership (CCAPP) Meeting this afternoon (Monday, November 28) at the Douglass Center Annex and the following meetings have been set regarding the 4 candidates chosen for the Champaign Police Chief position. It is the hope of the city that an offer of employment will be made to the finalist within the first 2 weeks in January 2012.

Monday, December 5 at 5:30pm at the Douglass Library:

Champaign County NAACP & Champaign Urbana Area Project (CUAP) are hosting a Community Conversations Meeting to come up with questions for the four (4) Champaign Police Chief Candidate Finalists who will be in the Champaign City Council Chambers on Thursday, December 8. If you have questions and cannot attend this meeting, please get your questions to someone who is attending or to a member of the NAACP or CUAP.

Thursday, December 8 at 7:00pm in the Champaign City Council Chambers:

The NAACP, CCAPP, CUAP, League of Women Voters and other organizations will submit questions to the 4 Champaign Police Chief final candidates. Questions must be submitted before this night since there will only be 30 minutes for each candidate. See above information on Monday, December 5 if you want to submit questions to be considered for this night.

Monday, December 12 - CCAPP Meeting - on hold until further notice

Thursday, December 15 at TBA:

Follow-up meeting to discuss the December 8 questions/meeting BEFORE a final decision is made on the Champaign Police Chief

More information to come as it is made available
