University of Illinois
Economic Development Opportunity Program
Starting Thursday, October 6, 2011

University of Illinois Office of Equal Opportunity and Access, in collaboration with the Land of Lincoln Assistance Foundation, Inc., is introducing a new entrepreneurial training program for minorities and members of underrepresented groups interested in starting and sustaining a small business in Champaign County and the surrounding area.

Learn how to:

- Evaluate your business idea and make a plan
- Identify financial resources or repair your credit
- Cultivate your leadership and management skills
